Intention to Designate a Property / Ontario Heritage Act

The Council of the City of Markham intends to designate the following property for reasons of cultural heritage value or interest pursuant to the Ontario Heritage Act, R.S.O. 1990, Chapter O.18, Part IV:

John and Adeline Miller House
11276 Kennedy Road
Markham, ON

The John and Adeline Miller House has design value and physical value as a representative example of a late Victorian rural dwelling rendered in the vernacular Queen Anne Revival style. The John and Adeline Miller House has historical value and associative value, representing the theme of urban development, specifically the expansion of the rural hamlet of Cashel in the mid to late nineteenth century. Further, the property has contextual value for being physically, functionally, visually and historically linked to its site to the north of the core of the historic crossroads hamlet of Cashel, where it has stood since c.1895. It is historically linked to the former Melville Presbyterian Church, located nearby at 11248 Kennedy Road, where John Miller served as an elder and long-time caretaker.
