

NOTICE
Intention to Designate a Property / Ontario Heritage Act

The Council of the City of Markham intends to designate the following property for reasons of cultural heritage value or interest pursuant to the Ontario Heritage Act, R.S.O. 1990, Chapter O.18, Part IV:

Robson and Amanda Jewitt House
4180 Nineteenth Avenue
Markham, ON

The Robson and Amanda Jewitt House has design value and physical value as a representative example of a village dwelling in the Ontario Classic style. The Robson and Amanda Jewitt House has historical value and associative value, representing the theme of urban development, specifically the nineteenth century development of the historic mill hamlet of Almira centred around the combined grist mill and woolen mill established by Benjamin Bowman on Bruce Creek in 1844. Further, the property has contextual value as one of a grouping of older buildings that are important in defining, maintaining and supporting the character and extent of the historic community of Almira. The property is historically related to the nearby site of the Almira Mills at 4160 Nineteenth Avenue.

Any person may notify the City of Markham of their objection in writing, which shall include the reasons for their objection and all relevant facts, on or before 4:30 p.m. July 23, 2025 to be sent by registered mail or dropped off in person to:

Clerk's Department, City of Markham
101 Town Centre Boulevard
Markham, ON L3R 9W3

Objections can also be submitted via email at: clerkspublic@markham.ca

If a notice of objection is received, the Clerk will refer the matter to Markham Council for reconsideration. Further information regarding the proposed designation is available from the Clerk's Department.

Dated at Markham this 23rd day of June, 2025
Kimberley Kitteringham, City Clerk
