| Natural Environment                                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
| Impacts to wildlife and vegetation habitats        | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Existing vegetation in the work area will be cleared</li><li>All affected areas will be restored</li><li>Results in a net neutral effect to terrestrial habitat</li><li>Reduction of temperature released into the downstream cool-water watercourse will improve the native aquatic habitat</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Appropriate erosion and sediment control measures will be undertaken during construction to reduce any negative impacts to the downstream watercourse</li><li>Restoration plans will be developed for surrounding areas impacted by construction</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Planting native species can enhance the existing wildlife and vegetation</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No mitigation undertaken</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Construction of a forebay will require earthworks partially within the existing wetland habitat, therefore interfering with existing wildlife and vegetation</li><li>The removal of some trees may be required</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Fisheries and migratory bird timing windows will be adhered to if required; an ecologist/biologist will be consulted</li><li>Restoration plans will be developed to restore any cleared vegetation</li></ul> |
| Impacts / improvements based on SAR / ESA          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>There are opportunities to improve the habitat quality of the receiving watercourse by reducing the temperature of flows entering the watercourse</li><li>Cooling effects are very beneficial for Redside Dace habitat</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Further consultation with the MNR regarding additional SAR will occur prior to the detailed design of the retrofit</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                     | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Providing additional shade at stormwater facilities reduces stormwater temperature which is a key benefit for SAR habitat</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Effects of plantings can be enhanced with other methods such as use of a bottom draw outlet</li><li>Further consultation with the MNR regarding additional SAR will occur prior to the detailed design of the retrofit</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>There are opportunities for cooling water before discharging downstream via inlet structures and planting techniques</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Thermal mitigation may be improved with the construction of a forebay</li><li>Further consultation with the MNR regarding additional SAR will occur prior to the detailed design of the retrofit</li></ul>                                                                                             |
| Summary / Recommendations                          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>A cooling trench at the pond outlet is a relatively simple alternative to mitigate temperatures impacts of the wet pond for the achievement of temperature control</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Plantings at stormwater facilities provide positive impacts on the natural environment (provided they are non-invasive species)</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>A forebay can be beneficial to downstream receiving waters but will alter any existing habitat within the construction area</li><li>Loss of existing trees within the pond block</li><li>Quantity control at the site is still required to meet criteria</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |

| Criteria                                                                    | Alternatives for Pond #45                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|                                                                             | Cooling Trench                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | Aquatic and Riparian Plantings at Facility                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | Construct Forebay                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
| Social Impacts                                                              |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| Requirement of easements or purchase of private lands                       | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Not required</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Not applicable</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Not applicable (unless required in conjunction with stormwater facility construction)</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Not applicable</li></ul>                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Likely not required; block is relatively large and moderately accessible</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Land requirements would be confirmed through conceptual design</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| Impacts to public and private properties due to construction and operations | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Noise and visual impacts associated with construction for the residences backing onto proposed SWM facility block</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Construction management plan, including restrictions on hours may reduce inconveniences associated with construction</li></ul>                                                                                     | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ No impacts to public</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Not applicable</li></ul>                                                                                                    | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Noise and visual impacts associated with construction for the residences backing onto wetland block at upstream end</li><li>▪ Wetland block is adjacent to recreational park land and expansion would likely occur onto this land</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Construction management plan, including restrictions on hours</li><li>▪ Loss of recreational park space</li><li>▪ A staging area should be set up within the public road R.O.W. as to not interfere with traffic or private property</li></ul> |
| Effect on public safety                                                     | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ The cooling trench will not have any affects on public safety once constructed</li><li>▪ During construction there is a potential safety risk due to excavation if a member of the public was to enter the site</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ The construction site should be secured during and after construction hours with warning signs and fencing</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Vegetation should be suitable for proposed facility and clearly indicate any water’s edge</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Vegetation at facilities must be maintained</li></ul>  | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ By building to the required slope and depth criteria, the forebay should not pose a threat to public safety</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Adequate slopes, warning signs, and fencing (if required) will provide measures of safety</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
| Summary / Recommendations                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ No long term social impacts associated with the cooling trench</li><li>▪ Minimal disturbance to the public may occur during construction but the construction time frame will be brief</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ No significant social impacts of plantings at stormwater facilities</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Construction of a forebay would be a longer-term construction project with potential noise, traffic and visual impacts</li><li>▪ Scale of construction is lesser than conversion of wetland to a wet pond</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| Economic Considerations                                                     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| Capital costs                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Low capital cost for a relatively small excavation and materials</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Capital costs can be marginally reduced if stormwater is pre-treated with LIDs throughout the watershed (thus scaling down required trench volume)</li></ul>                                                                                                        | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Low capital cost relative to other alternatives</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Costs may vary depending on extents and types of plantings</li></ul>                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Moderate capital cost for earthworks, grading, infrastructure components, permits</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Capital costs can be marginally reduced if stormwater is pre-treated with LIDs throughout the watershed (thus scaling down required volumes)</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| Maintenance and operating costs                                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Low maintenance cost associated with cleaning out the trench</li><li>▪ Lower maintenance frequency; likely once per year, ideally not requiring access to railway lands</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Maintenance frequency should be as directed by operations manual</li></ul>                                                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Low maintenance costs with native, sustainable plantings</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Lower maintenance plants will minimize costs of maintenance and/or replanting</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Moderate maintenance cost and frequency; likely seasonally</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Maintenance frequency should be as directed by operations manual</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |
| Impact on future development and growth                                     | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ No impacts</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Not applicable</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ No impact on future development</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Not applicable</li></ul>                                                                                         | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ No impact, but forebay would require further expansion if contributing land use was to intensify</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ On-site control requirements for any intensified development within the forebay’s watershed would mitigate further expansion</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |
| Summary / Recommendations                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ A cooling trench is a cost effective alternative to meet temperature criteria</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Plantings at SWM facilities are a low cost alternative for providing temperature control</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                     | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Construction of a forebay would present moderate capital costs for achievement of quality control</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |
| Results of Alternative Evaluation                                           | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ This alternative preferred because it is a minimally invasive best management practice for temperature control. A cooling trench is cost effective and requires minimal maintenance.</li><li>▪ Construction can be designed such that it does not affect adult trees.</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                            | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ This alternative is preferred because it will improve/maintain existing habitat and vegetation</li><li>▪ This alternative provides temperature control at a relatively low capital cost.</li></ul>                                                     | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Retaining existing trees and recreational park land is a high priority for the City of Markham, however the loss of trees and park land is probable for construction of this alternative. Therefore, this is not a preferred alternative.</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |

| Table 1 –Evaluation of Conceptual Design Alternatives for Pond #47 (Offline Pond) |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Criteria                                                                          | Alternatives for Pond #47                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
|                                                                                   | Do Nothing                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | Oil-Grit Separators (OGS)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | Retrofit Outlet to Extend Detention                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
| Alternative Description                                                           | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>The pond will continue to function as existing</li> <li>Pond #47 is an offline extended detention wet pond with a 23.01 ha minor drainage area and a 23.19 ha major drainage area</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Total of 1 unit connected to the minor system prior to the outfall</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Construct upgraded outlet structure to increase the extended detention within existing SWM facility</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| Location in Treatment Train                                                       | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      | End of Pipe                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
| Target SWM Objective(s)                                                           | None                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | Quality Control                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | Erosion Control                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
| Technical Considerations                                                          |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
| Constructability and accessibility                                                | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Location is accessible as OGS unit could be installed upstream of the outfall at a manhole within municipal roadways; construction area required is relatively small</li> <li>Construction considerations may include traffic interruptions and short term road closures</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Traffic management plans may reduce inconveniences associated with construction</li> </ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Construction is feasible and within municipally owned lands</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Erosion and sediment control plans</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
| Ability to meet stormwater management objective(s)                                | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Does not provide for or meet the stormwater management objectives of the City and/or TRCA, for water quality or erosion</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>No mitigation undertaken</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                 | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>OGS unit may be able to provide all required stormwater quality objectives</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Pre-treatment of stormwater runoff with LIDs will enhance the performance of the OGS</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Provided that adequate volume can be made available, the adjustment of the outlet can be an effective solution to provide the required extended detention</li> <li>Construction disturbance outweighs erosion control improvements</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Retrofit of the outlet would require upgrade of the available storage volume of the facility</li> <li>Erosion control may be facilitated with use of LIDs upstream</li> </ul> |
| Engineering best practises / Innovative solution                                  | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>OGS and similar units are noted as best management practices</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Pre-treatment of stormwater runoff with LIDs will enhance the performance of the OGS</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                        | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Typically more traditional SWM approach</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Erosion control may be facilitated with use of LIDs upstream</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
| Summary / Recommendations                                                         | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Does not provide for or meet the stormwater management objectives of the City and/or TRCA, for water quality or erosion</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>OGS can be effective, low-space option to provide water quality for the pond</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Constructability should be straightforward; may require relocation of existing trail</li> <li>Negative impacts of construction may not outweigh erosion control improvements</li> <li>More supplementary alternatives required to provide adequate quality control</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |
| Natural Environment                                                               |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
| Impacts to wildlife and vegetation habitats                                       | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>The current condition of wildlife and vegetation habitats will not change; however if the lack of quality and erosion control causes future erosion in the receiving watercourse or impacts the quality of the water in the watercourse, this could have a negative impact on the future condition of wildlife and vegetation habitats.</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>No mitigation undertaken</li> </ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>OGS does not physically interfere with the pond and improves water quality prior to discharge to the pond</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>No mitigation required</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Some vegetation will likely be cleared for retrofit of the facility outlet;</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Fisheries and migratory bird timing windows will be adhered to if required;</li> <li>Restoration plans will be developed to restore any cleared vegetation</li> <li>Trees removal will be minimized during conceptual design</li> </ul>                                                                                              |
| Impacts / Improvements based on SAR / ESA                                         | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Existing vegetation provides some benefit to reducing water temperature</li> <li>By not implementing temperature controls, receiving waters may have higher temperatures over time and this can negatively impact sensitive species such as Redside Dace</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>No mitigation undertaken</li> </ul>                                                                                | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Meeting water quality criteria will improve water quality of downstream receiving waters</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Use of OGS can be enhanced with pre-treatment using LIDs throughout major and minor system watershed</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                            | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Opportunities exist for cooling water before discharging downstream via outlet structures</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Can be enhanced with LID measures upstream</li> <li>Further consultation with the MNR regarding additional SAR will occur prior to the detailed design of the retrofit</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                      |
| Summary / Recommendations                                                         | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Existing vegetation of pond provides some benefit regarding thermal regulation</li> <li>Increasing water temperatures decrease water quality and affect the health of aquatic species</li> <li>Existing aquatic and terrestrial vegetation in the pond block provide habitat area and will remain in the current condition</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>OGS offers improvements to water quality</li> <li>Used in conjunction with LIDs, OGS can improve water conditions for any sensitive habitats downstream</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Retrofit of the existing outlet will have a low impact to the natural environment</li> <li>If storage volume can be adequately increased, the retrofit of the outlet can provide required erosion control which will increase water quality</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
| Social Impacts                                                                    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
| Requirement of easements or purchase of private lands                             | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Not required; preference to install and maintain OGS within municipal R.O.W. or parkland where maintenance is easily accessible</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Not required; block is accessible</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Land requirements would be confirmed through conceptual design</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |

|                                                                             | Alternatives for Pond #47                                                                                                                                                                                                             |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Criteria                                                                    | Do Nothing                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | Oil-Grit Separators (OGS)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | Retrofit Outlet to Extend Detention                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
|                                                                             |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Not applicable</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| Impacts to public and private properties due to construction and operations | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Roadway interference and/or short-term closure may be expected for the installation of OGS units</li> <li>Temporary interference may be expected on roadways during maintenance (approximately once a year)</li> <li>Recreational park land may be affected during construction</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Traffic management plans may reduce inconveniences associated with construction</li> <li>Recreational park land should be available after restoration</li> </ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Potential noise and visual impacts associated with construction for the residences near the pond block</li> <li>Recreational park land may be affected during construction</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Construction management plan, including restrictions on hours</li> <li>A staging area should be set up within the municipal parkland as to not interfere with traffic or private property</li> <li>Recreational park land should be available after restoration</li> </ul> |
| Effect on public safety                                                     | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Installed OGS does not pose threats to public safety</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>No mitigation undertaken</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Retrofit of the outlet itself has low impact on public safety</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Warning signs and fencing (if required) will provide measures of safety</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
| Summary / Recommendations                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>The ‘Do Nothing’ alternative has no social impacts</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                  | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>OGS presents few and short-term impacts associated with installation and maintenance</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Retrofit of the facility outlet itself is of low impact in regards to noise, traffic and land use</li> <li>Scale of construction is relatively small</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |
| Economic Considerations                                                     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| Capital costs                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>No action may result in greater capital expenses in the future</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Not applicable</li> </ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Low capital cost for installation of one (1) unit and associated infrastructure works</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Capital cost of OGS units can be reduced if stormwater is pre-treated with LIDs (thus scaling down required OGS size)</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Low to moderate cost for the retrofit of the outlet itself</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Capital costs can be marginally reduced if the extended detention volume does not increase significantly from existing conditions</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
| Maintenance and operating costs                                             | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Fairly low maintenance cost and frequency; approximately annually; potentially more if clogged</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Maintenance frequency of OGS units should not decrease with increased pre-treatment</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Low maintenance cost and frequency; likely seasonally to prevent clogging</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Maintenance frequency should be as directed by operations manual</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
| Impact on future development and growth                                     | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Size of OGS is static once installed and would require upgrading if a larger drainage area is directed to it (in order to meet water quality criteria)</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Additional OGS units or upscaled units may be installed in the future to correspond with growth</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>No impacts</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Limited to the existing land use; higher imperviousness in the watershed would require a larger extended detention volume and therefore altered outlet structure</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| Summary / Recommendations                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>‘Do nothing’ may postpone required works and increase future costs</li> </ul>                                                                                                                  | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Installation of OGS units is a low cost solution for achievement of most of the required quality control</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Retrofit of the existing outlet to provide the required extended detention is a relatively low cost solution in itself; the corresponding requirement to increase the detention volume will increase the capital cost</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |
| Results of Alternative Evaluation                                           | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>This alternative is not preferred because the alternative does not meet the stormwater management objectives</li> </ul>                                                                        | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>This is a preferred alternative due to the lower cost, small disturbance area and ability to provide full quality control</li> <li>This alternative can be implemented with little to no loss of existing trees</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>This alternative is not preferred because the negatives of construction outweigh the erosion control improvements.</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |

|                                                    | Alternatives for Pond #47                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
|----------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Criteria                                           | Bottom Draw Outlet in Wet Pond                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | Cooling Trench                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | Underground Storage Tanks / Infiltration Galleries                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
| Alternative Description                            | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Construct a bottom draw outlet to reduce temperatures of discharged water.</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Excavation of a trench between the pond control structure maintenance hole and the outlet</li><li>Modification of outlet piping infrastructure to discharge into trench</li><li>Installation of stone material and restoration of ground surface</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Ideally installed in municipally owned lands including parks and the pond land parcel</li><li>Underground storage tanks / infiltration galleries will capture and detain stormwater and release over an extended time period, similar to soakaway pits</li><li>Infiltration type underground tanks will allow for infiltration during detention period</li><li>May need water quality control prior to infiltrating (if infiltration is proposed)</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                         |
| Location in Treatment Train                        | End of Pipe                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
| Target SWM Objective(s)                            | Temperature Control                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | Erosion and Temperature Control                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
| Technical Considerations                           |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
| Constructability and accessibility                 | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Existing pond outlet does not allow for simple retrofit to a bottom draw outlet</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Greater depth enhances the thermal mitigation function of the bottom draw outlet</li></ul>                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Feasible construction and accessibility is good</li><li>Construction footprint is relatively small</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Erosion and sediment control plans required</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Footprints can be small, but additional space must be found throughout the watershed, upstream of the existing SWM pond</li><li>Requires re-organization of some existing storm infrastructure</li><li>Based on soil mapping, the soil in the drainage area is conducive to infiltration</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Tanks / infiltration galleries with infiltration capabilities provide additional benefits for erosion control upstream of the SWM pond</li><li>Site specific soil testing is required to confirm suitability of infiltration</li></ul> |
| Ability to meet stormwater management objective(s) | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Bottom draw outlets can be effective in decreasing the temperature of the outlet water</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Thermal mitigation would be best achieved with a combination of LID methods</li></ul>                           | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Cooling trenches can be effective in decreasing the temperature of the outlet water</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Thermal mitigation would be best achieved with a combination of LID methods</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Underground tanks, especially with infiltration capabilities, are effective for providing erosion and temperature control</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Longer detention times enhance erosion control and help the pond to function with fewer sedimentation issues</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| Engineering best practises / innovative solution   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Bottom draw outlets in combination with cooling trenches are recent best management practices</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Thermal mitigation can be enhanced overall with LIDs within the contributing watershed</li></ul>         | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Cooling trenches are a recent best management practice</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Thermal mitigation can be enhanced overall with LIDs within the contributing watershed</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Underground tanks, including infiltration, are noted as best management practices</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Maintenance of underground tanks / infiltration galleries is more extensive than at-grade alternatives</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
| Summary / Recommendations                          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>A bottom draw outlet is a recommended outlet alternative for the wet pond to achieve required temperature control</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Technically feasible with a small construction footprint</li><li>A cooling trench would help with mitigating the temperature impacts of the SWM pond</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Technically feasible, requiring more intrusive maintenance</li><li>Constructability within existing terrain is low to moderate and can be incorporated into existing lands such as parks and R.O.W.s</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
| Natural Environment                                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
| Impacts to wildlife and vegetation habitats        | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No impact to vegetation</li><li>May impact aquatic habitat, although fish not anticipated within facility</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Effects could be mitigated with appropriate screens and outflow velocities</li></ul>         | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Existing vegetation in the work area will be cleared</li><li>All affected areas will be restored</li><li>Results in a net neutral effect to terrestrial habitat</li><li>Reduction of temperature released into the downstream cool-water watercourse will improve the native aquatic habitat</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Appropriate erosion and sediment control measures will be undertaken during construction to reduce any negative impacts to the downstream watercourse</li><li>Restoration plans will be developed for surrounding areas impacted by construction</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>May require removal of some vegetation depending on specific location</li><li>Once installed, less intrusive than other alternatives because of location below grade</li><li>May reduce terrestrial habitat</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Restoration plan required if loss of vegetation expected due to construction</li><li>Construction can be designed to retain trees</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                         |
| Impacts / improvements based on SAR / ESA          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Cooling effects are very beneficial for the potential Redside Dace habitat downstream</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Alternative can be enhanced with LIDs within the watershed and planting techniques within the wet pond</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>There are opportunities to improve the habitat quality of the receiving watercourse by reducing the temperature of flows entering the watercourse</li><li>Cooling effects are very beneficial for Redside Dace habitat</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Further consultation with the MNR regarding additional SAR will occur prior to the detailed design of the retrofit</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                     | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Underground tanks may decrease water temperature, providing benefits to the identified SAR</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Further consultation with the MNR regarding additional SAR will occur prior to the detailed design of the retrofit</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| Summary / Recommendations                          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Bottom draw outlet is a simple alternative to incorporate into a wet pond for the achievement of temperature control</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>A cooling trench at the pond outlet is a relatively simple alternative to mitigate temperatures impacts of the wet pond for the achievement of temperature control</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Underground tanks / infiltration galleries are a long-term non-invasive alternative for providing erosion control</li><li>This alternative may be a viable solution to</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |

| Criteria                                                                    | Alternatives for Pond #47                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|                                                                             | Bottom Draw Outlet in Wet Pond                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | Cooling Trench                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | Underground Storage Tanks / Infiltration Galleries                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
|                                                                             |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | provide erosion control without disruption to the existing pond volume                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
| Social Impacts                                                              |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
| Requirement of easements or purchase of private lands                       | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Not required</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Not applicable</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Sufficient space is appears to be available within municipal park lands and/or school yard</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>If school yard provides the best available space to construct an infiltration gallery, a form of compensation may be negotiated</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                   |
| Impacts to public and private properties due to construction and operations | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Impacts are related to the construction of the wet pond</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Bottom draw outlet itself does not present additional impacts</li> </ul>                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Noise and visual impacts associated with construction for the residences near the SWM facility block</li> <li>Possible loss of recreational park land during construction</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Construction management plan, including restrictions on hours may reduce inconveniences associated with construction</li> <li>Recreational park land may be restored after installation</li> </ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Construction preferred to be within municipal park lands; impacts may include temporary, minor traffic and noise issues due to proximity to residential neighbourhood</li> <li>Loss of recreational park land during construction</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Proper signage and safety measures to be set up for construction period</li> <li>Recreational park land may be restored after installation</li> </ul> |
| Effect on public safety                                                     | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>The cooling trench will not have any affects on public safety once constructed</li> <li>During construction there is a potential safety risk due to excavation if a member of the public was to enter the site</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>The construction site should be secured during and after construction hours with warning signs and fencing</li> </ul>                                         | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>No public safety concerns beyond construction period</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Proper signage and safety measures to be set up for construction period</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
| Summary / Recommendations                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>There are no social impacts associated with the bottom draw outlet</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                      | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>No long term social impacts associated with the cooling trench</li> <li>Minimal disturbance to the public may occur during construction but the construction time frame will be brief</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Underground tanks / infiltration galleries are proposed to be ideally located in public lands, generally not intrusive to the public during or after construction</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
| Economic Considerations                                                     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
| Capital costs                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Low capital cost as standalone item</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>No mitigation required</li> </ul>                                                                                        | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Low capital cost for a relatively small excavation and materials</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Capital costs can be marginally reduced if stormwater is pre-treated with LIDs throughout the watershed (thus scaling down required trench volume)</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Moderate capital cost related to storage tank / infiltration gallery infrastructure</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Efficient tank design to minimize capital costs</li> <li>Adequate soils and extend of earthworks will affect capital cost</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                |
| Maintenance and operating costs                                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Low maintenance costs as standalone; costs associated with maintenance of wet pond</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Maintenance due to clogging can be reduced with proper screens</li> </ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Low maintenance cost associated with cleaning out the trench</li> <li>Lower maintenance frequency; likely once per year</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Maintenance frequency should be as directed by operations manual</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Low maintenance costs associated with cleaning out tanks / galleries as per operations manual or in event of clogging</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Can prevent clogging with additional pre-treatment techniques</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                          |
| Impact on future development and growth                                     | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>No impacts</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Not applicable</li> </ul>                                                                                                                         | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>No impacts</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Not applicable</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>No impact, but underground tanks would require expansion if contributing land use was to intensify</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>On-site control requirements for any future intensification within the watershed would mitigate further expansion</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                         |
| Summary / Recommendations                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Bottom draw outlet is a cost effective alternative to incorporate into wet pond design to meet temperature criteria</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                     | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>A cooling trench is a cost effective alternative to meet temperature criteria</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Underground tanks can provide reasonable capital and maintenance costs for the achievement of erosion control</li> <li>Capital costs can fluctuate based on actual conditions at the specific location chosen at conceptual design</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
| Results of Alternative Evaluation                                           | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>This is not a preferred alternative because of the complexity of the retrofit due to the existing outlet infrastructure</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                 | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>This alternative is preferred because it is a minimally invasive best management practice for temperature control. A cooling trench is cost effective and requires minimal maintenance.</li> <li>Construction can be designed such that it does not affect adult trees and can be restored such that recreational park land is available.</li> </ul>                                                                                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>This alternative is preferred because it may be constructed such that it minimizes the number of adult trees affected and allows for the use of the existing public recreational park after construction.</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |

| Criteria                                              | Alternatives for Pond #47                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
|-------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|                                                       | Infiltration in Right-of-Ways (R.O.W.)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | Bioswales                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | Expand Size of Existing Pond                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
| Alternative Description                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Install perforated secondary pipe within existing storm sewer systems to allow for infiltration through linear soakaway pits</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Construct bioswales within the road right-of-ways within the facility drainage area</li><li>▪ Bioswales to contain native plantings and subdrains</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Expand the existing SWM facility area in terms of volume to provide for adequate permanent pool and extended detention volume</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
|                                                       | Conveyance                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              | End of Pipe                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
|                                                       | Quality, Erosion and Temperature Control                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              | Quality and Erosion Control                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
| Technical Considerations                              |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
| Constructability and accessibility                    | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Construction area is extensive and many secondary infiltration pipes would require to be installed to achieve SWM criteria</li><li>▪ Requires coordination with existing infrastructure and utilities</li><li>▪ Based on soil mapping, the soil in the drainage area is conducive to infiltration</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Perforated pipes (exfiltration pipes) and soakaway pits may be more suited as supplementary water quality / erosion / temperature control measures, where constructability and retrofit are least disruptive to existing infrastructure</li><li>▪ Site specific soil testing is required to confirm suitability of infiltration</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Construction area is extensive and pipe networks are more intricate, requiring coordination with existing infrastructure</li><li>▪ Road right of ways need to be conducive to grading and space criteria for bioswales</li><li>▪ Based on soil mapping, the soil in the drainage area is conducive to infiltration</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Bioswales may be more suited as supplementary water quality / erosion / temperature control measures, where constructability and retrofit are least disruptive to existing infrastructure</li><li>▪ Site specific soil testing is required to confirm suitability of infiltration</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Moderate constructability due to extend of earthworks and infrastructure</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Efficient design and access plans can mitigate negative effects of constructability of the pond expansion</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
| Ability to meet stormwater management objective(s)    | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Perforated pipes (exfiltration pipes) and soakaway pits may are more effective when used within a treatment train to achieve the stormwater objectives</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Additional pre-treatment will enhance the function of the perforated pipes, to reduce clogging</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Bioswales are more effective when used within a treatment train to achieve the stormwater objectives</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Additional pre-treatment will enhance the function of bioswales, to reduce clogging of the underdrain pipes</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Expansion of the facility will provide adequate controls to meet the SWM objectives</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Pre-treatment of stormwater with LIDs can reduce the required expansion volume</li><li>▪ Using the maximum safe slopes will decrease the footprint of the expanded pond</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                              |
| Engineering best practises / innovative solution      | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Perforated pipes (exfiltration pipes) and soakaway pits may are innovative solutions within stormwater management</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Enhanced with further use of LIDs such as vegetated filter strips</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Bioswales are innovative solutions within stormwater management conveyance systems</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Enhanced with further use of LIDs such as vegetated filter strips</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Typically more traditional SWM approach</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Can be enhanced with use of LIDs within the contributing watershed</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
| Summary / Recommendations                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Perforated pipes (exfiltration pipes) and soakaway pits may are effective as part of a treatment train and where retrofit does not greatly interfere with existing infrastructure</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Bioswales are effective as part of a treatment train and where retrofit does not greatly interfere with existing infrastructure</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Constructability generally not an issue; technically feasible and within municipal parkland</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| Natural Environment                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
| Impacts to wildlife and vegetation habitats           | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ May require removal of some vegetation depending on specific location; likely few impacts to existing wildlife and vegetation habitats</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Areas disturbed during construction will be restored</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ May require removal of some vegetation depending on specific location</li><li>▪ May present phosphorus issues if not properly designed and/or maintained</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Planted bioswales will enhance neighbourhoods with additional vegetated areas</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Expansion of the existing facility will require earthworks within the existing pond habitat, therefore interfering with existing wildlife and vegetation which may have established itself</li><li>▪ May include the removal of adult trees</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Fisheries and migratory bird timing windows will be adhered to if required; an ecologist/biologist will be consulted due to proximity to existing watercourse</li><li>▪ Restoration plan should be developed</li></ul> |
| Impacts / improvements based on SAR / ESA             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Perforated pipes (exfiltration pipes) may decrease water temperature, providing benefits to the identified SAR</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Perforated pipes (exfiltration pipes) and soakaway pits may be more suited as supplementary water temperature control measures</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Bioswales may decrease water temperature, providing benefits to the identified SAR</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Bioswales may be more suited as supplementary water temperature control measures</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ There are opportunities for cooling water before discharging downstream via inlet/outlet structures and other pond details</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Thermal mitigation can be provided by inlet/outlet configurations</li><li>▪ Further consultation with the MNR regarding additional SAR will occur prior to the detailed design of the retrofit</li></ul>                                                                                                                                |
| Summary / Recommendations                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Perforated pipes (exfiltration pipes) and soakaway pits present few impact on the natural environment</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Bioswales which are properly designed to avoid phosphorus loading provide positive impact on the natural environment</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ With a proper restoration plan, the impact to natural environment is not high; removal of sediment from downstream waters is beneficial to aquatic species</li><li>▪ Adult trees may be lost during construction</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
| Social Impacts                                        |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
| Requirement of easements or purchase of private lands | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ To be constructed within municipal R.O.W.</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Not applicable</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ To be constructed within municipal R.O.W.</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Not applicable</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Acquisition of private lands not required for this site</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Land requirements would be confirmed through conceptual design</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |

| Criteria                                                                    | Alternatives for Pond #47                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|                                                                             | Infiltration in Right-of-Ways (R.O.W.)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | Bioswales                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | Expand Size of Existing Pond                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
| Impacts to public and private properties due to construction and operations | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Impacts may include temporary, minor traffic and noise issues due to construction within the residential streets</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Appropriate construction and traffic management schedule to be adhered to</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                           | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Impacts may include temporary, minor traffic and noise issues due to construction within the residential streets</li><li>Bioswales are likely to face public opposition due to the maintenance requirements, visual disruption to an otherwise “clean” front lawn and inconvenience of culverts under driveways</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Appropriate construction and traffic management schedule to be adhered to</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Noise and visual impacts near pond block</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Construction management plan, including restrictions on hours</li><li>A staging area should be set up within the municipal parkland as to not interfere with traffic or private property</li></ul>                     |
| Effect on public safety                                                     | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No public safety concerns beyond construction period</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Proper signage and safety measures to be set up for construction period</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No public safety concerns beyond construction period</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Proper signage and safety measures to be set up for construction period</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Expansion of wet pond may appear as a safety hazard since water depths may increase slightly within recreational parkland</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Adequate slopes, warning signs, and fencing (if required) will provide measures of safety, all as per the required criteria</li></ul> |
| Summary / Recommendations                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Impacts are minor and mostly temporary, within the construction period</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Impacts during construction are temporary and mostly minor</li><li>Long term impacts on residents due to visual impacts and culvert maintenance may be significant</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Expansion of the pond would be a longer-term construction project with potential noise, traffic and visual impacts</li><li>Overall, impact not significant due to setback from residential homes and safety measures used throughout construction</li></ul>                                                                                                         |
| Economic Considerations                                                     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
| Capital costs                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Moderate to high capital cost related to new pipe infrastructure, earthworks and plantings, as well as likely relocation of existing pipe infrastructure</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Proficient SUE investigation prior to design work can minimize unexpected existing pipe/utility interferences</li></ul>                                                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Moderate to high capital cost related to new pipe infrastructure, earthworks and plantings, as well as likely relocation of existing pipe infrastructure</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Proficient SUE investigation prior to design work can minimize unexpected existing pipe/utility interferences</li></ul>                                                                                                                    | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Moderate to high capital cost for earthworks, grading, infrastructure components, permits</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Capital costs can be marginally reduced if stormwater is pre-treated with LIDs throughout the watershed (thus scaling down required detention volumes)</li></ul>      |
| Maintenance and operating costs                                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Moderate maintenance costs associated with unclogging perforated pipes</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Pre-treatment of stormwater with grassed filter strips can prevent some clogging of perforated pipes</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Low to moderate maintenance costs associated with replacing filter media, unclogging perforated pipes</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Pre-treatment of stormwater with grassed filter strips can prevent some clogging of perforated pipes</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Moderate maintenance cost and frequency; likely seasonally</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Maintenance frequency should be as directed by operations manual</li></ul>                                                                                                                           |
| Impact on future development and growth                                     | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Retrofit R.O.W. with perforated pipes and soakaway pits may dictate R.O.W. standards for future development</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>On-site control requirements for any future intensification within the watershed would mitigate negative impacts on the LID</li></ul>                                                                                                                              | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Retrofit R.O.W. with bioswales may dictate R.O.W. standards for future development</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Bioswales can enhance the aesthetic appeal of a neighbourhood / development and provide an ‘added value’</li><li>On-site control requirements for any future intensification within the watershed would mitigate negative impacts on the LID</li></ul>                                                           | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Design would limit land use to existing conditions; any proposed intensification within the watershed would likely require on-site controls</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>On-site control requirements for any intensified development within the pond’s watershed</li></ul>                  |
| Summary / Recommendations                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Perforated pipes and soakaway pits are a moderate to high capital cost for retrofit and require moderately complex maintenance</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Bioswales are a moderate to high capital cost for retrofit but may add value to a neighbourhood, depending on general public opinion</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Expansion of the wet pond would present high capital costs for achievement of all the SWM criteria</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
| Results of Alternative Evaluation                                           | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>This alternative is not preferred because infiltration in R.O.W.s cannot provide the required level of water quality and erosion control.</li><li>Another alternative would need to be implemented in conjunction with infiltration in R.O.W.s in order to meet SWM objectives, making this alternative economically inefficient.</li><li>The construction of infiltration pipes in R.O.W.s will create short term accessibility, visual and noise impacts on residents.</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>This alternative is not preferred because bioswales cannot provide the required level of water quality and erosion control.</li><li>Another alternative would need to be implemented in conjunction with bioswales in order to meet SWM objectives, making this alternative economically inefficient.</li><li>The construction and maintenance of bioswales will create short and long term accessibility and visual impacts on residents.</li></ul>                                                    | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Retaining existing trees is a high priority for the City of Markham; however tree loss is probable for construction of this alternative. Therefore, this is not a preferred option.</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                       |

| Criteria                                                                    | Alternatives for Pond #47                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |  |  |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--|--|
|                                                                             | Aquatic and Riparian Plantings at Facility                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |  |  |
| Alternative Description                                                     | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Plantings to increase density and area of vegetation cover surrounding facility and within facility to provide shade for cooling of detained water</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |  |  |
| Location in Treatment Train                                                 | End of Pipe                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |  |  |
| Target SWM Objective(s)                                                     | Temperature Control                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |  |  |
| Technical Considerations                                                    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |  |  |
| Constructability and accessibility                                          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No constructability issues anticipated with adding plantings to proposed facilities</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Plantings enhance temperature control by providing shade</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                     |  |  |
| Ability to meet stormwater management objective(s)                          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Shade from plantings will reduce the temperature of stormwater at a facility</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Plantings are better used in conjunction with other cooling methods to achieve adequate temperature control</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                         |  |  |
| Engineering best practises / innovative solution                            | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Temperature control of stormwater in general is becoming an engineering best management practice in areas with sensitive habitats</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Effects of plantings can be enhanced with other methods such as use of a bottom draw outlet</li></ul>                                                                                                                    |  |  |
| Summary / Recommendations                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Plantings at stormwater management facility are a simple alternative to provide additional temperature controls</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |  |  |
| Natural Environment                                                         |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |  |  |
| Impacts to wildlife and vegetation habitats                                 | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Planting native species can enhance the existing wildlife and vegetation</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No mitigation undertaken</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |  |  |
| Impacts / improvements based on SAR / ESA                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Providing additional shade at stormwater facilities reduces stormwater temperature which is a key benefit for SAR habitat</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Effects of plantings can be enhanced with other methods such as use of a bottom draw outlet</li><li>Further consultation with the MNR regarding additional SAR will occur prior to the detailed design of the retrofit</li></ul> |  |  |
| Summary / Recommendations                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Plantings at stormwater facilities provide positive impacts on the natural environment (provided they are non-invasive species)</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |  |  |
| Social Impacts                                                              |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |  |  |
| Requirement of easements or purchase of private lands                       | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Not applicable (unless required in conjunction with stormwater facility construction)</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Not applicable</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |  |  |
| Impacts to public and private properties due to construction and operations | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No impacts to public</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Not applicable</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |  |  |
| Effect on public safety                                                     | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Vegetation should be suitable for proposed facility and clearly indicate any water’s edge</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Vegetation at facilities must be maintained</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                            |  |  |
| Summary / Recommendations                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No significant social impacts of plantings at stormwater facilities</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |  |  |
| Economic Considerations                                                     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |  |  |
| Capital costs                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Low capital cost relative to other alternatives</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |  |  |

| Criteria                                | Alternatives for Pond #47                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |  |  |
|-----------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--|--|
|                                         | Aquatic and Riparian Plantings at Facility                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |  |  |
|                                         | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Costs may vary depending on extents and types of plantings</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                   |  |  |
| Maintenance and operating costs         | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Low maintenance costs with native, sustainable plantings</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Lower maintenance plants will minimize costs of maintenance and/or replanting</li></ul> |  |  |
| Impact on future development and growth | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ No impact on future development</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Not applicable</li></ul>                                                                                         |  |  |
| Summary / Recommendations               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Plantings at SWM facilities are a low cost alternative for providing temperature control</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                     |  |  |
| Results of Alternative Evaluation       | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ This alternative is preferred because it will improve existing habitat and vegetation</li><li>▪ This alternative provides temperature control at a relatively low capital cost.</li></ul>                                                              |  |  |

| Table 1 –Evaluation of Conceptual Design Alternatives for Pond #51 (Offline Wetland) |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Criteria                                                                             | Alternatives for Pond #51                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
|                                                                                      | Do Nothing                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | Oil-Grit Separators (OGS)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | Convert to Wet Pond                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
| Alternative Description                                                              | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>The pond will continue to function as existing</li><li>Pond #51 is an offline wetland that was built to provide flood control, with a56.96 ha minor drainage area and a 60.23 ha major drainage area.</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Total of 1 unit connected to the minor system prior to the outfall</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Earthworks</li><li>Outlet retrofit</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
| Location in Treatment Train                                                          | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | End of Pipe                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| Target SWM Objective(s)                                                              | None                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 | Quality Control                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| Technical Considerations                                                             |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| Constructability and accessibility                                                   | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Location is accessible as OGS unit could be installed upstream of the outfall at a manhole within municipal roadways or lands; construction area is required is relatively small</li><li>Construction considerations may include traffic interruptions and short term road closures</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Traffic management plans may reduce inconveniences associated with construction</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Feasible but extensive construction; accessibility is relatively good</li><li>Requires moderate amount of earthworks to re-grade the block to suit wet pond design criteria</li><li>Area appears to be sufficient to design pond to applicable slope/depth criteria</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Traffic management plans, erosion and sediment control plans, required permits</li></ul>                                                                                                  |
| Ability to meet stormwater management objective(s)                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Does not provide for or meet the stormwater management objectives of the City and/or TRCA, for water quality or erosion control</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No mitigation undertaken</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                         | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>OGS units may be able to provide all required stormwater quality objectives</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Pre-treatment of stormwater runoff with LIDs will enhance the performance of the OGS</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                    | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Wet pond could be constructed to meet all SWM quality and erosion criteria</li><li>Quantity control is not required at this location</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Wet pond function is enhanced with LIDs as pre-treatment and inlet/outlets can be designed to provide thermal mitigation</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                       |
| Engineering best practises / Innovative solution                                     | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>OGS and similar units are noted as best management practices</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Pre-treatment of stormwater runoff with LIDs will enhance the performance of the OGS</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Traditional SWM approach</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Approach may be enhanced by implementing the use of LIDs in conjunction with a wet pond</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| Summary / Recommendations                                                            | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Does not provide for or meet the stormwater management objectives of the City and/or TRCA, for water quality or erosion control</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>OGS can be effective, low-space option to provide water quality for the wetland</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Conversion of the wetland to a wet pond can meet the required quality and erosion objectives as well as aid in thermal mitigation</li><li>Site is appropriate for larger-scale construction</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |
| Natural Environment                                                                  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| Impacts to wildlife and vegetation habitats                                          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>The current condition of wildlife and vegetation habitats will not change; however if the lack of quality and erosion control causes future erosion in the receiving watercourse or impacts the quality of the water in the watercourse, this could have a negative impact on the future condition of wildlife and vegetation habitats.</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No mitigation undertaken</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>OGS does not physically interfere with the wetland and improves water quality prior to discharge to the wetland</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No mitigation required</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                              | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Construction of a wet pond will require earthworks within the existing wetland habitat, therefore interfering with existing wildlife and vegetation</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Fisheries and migratory bird timing windows will be adhered to if required; an ecologist/biologist will be consulted due to proximity to existing watercourse</li><li>Retaining existing trees is a high priority and the wet pond may be designed such that these trees may remain as existing</li></ul> |
| Impacts / Improvements based on SAR / ESA                                            | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Existing vegetation provides some benefit to reducing water temperature</li><li>By not implementing temperature controls, receiving waters may have higher temperatures over time and this can negatively impact sensitive species such as Redside Dace</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No mitigation undertaken</li></ul>                                                                                 | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Meeting water quality criteria will improve water quality of downstream receiving waters</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Use of OGS can be enhanced with pre-treatment using LIDs throughout major and minor system watershed</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                       | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>There are opportunities for cooling water before discharging downstream via inlet/outlet structures and other pond details</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Thermal mitigation is recommended if possible at this location</li><li>Further consultation with the MNR regarding additional SAR will occur prior to the detailed design of the retrofit</li></ul>                                                                                                                                |
| Summary / Recommendations                                                            | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Existing wetland and terrestrial vegetation in the pond block provide habitat area and will remain in the current condition</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>OGS offers improvements to water quality</li><li>Used in conjunction with LIDs, OGS can improve water conditions for any sensitive habitats downstream</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Wet pond can be beneficial to downstream receiving waters but will alter any existing habitat</li><li>The pond may be designed to avoid the removal of trees</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |
| Social Impacts                                                                       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| Requirement of easements or purchase of private lands                                | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Not required; preference to install and maintain OGS within municipal R.O.W. or parkland where maintenance is easily accessible</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Acquisition of private lands is not required; adequate space on site</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Land requirements would be confirmed through conceptual design</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |

| Criteria                                                                    | Alternatives for Pond #51                                                                                                                                                                                                             |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|                                                                             | Do Nothing                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | Oil-Grit Separators (OGS)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | Convert to Wet Pond                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |
|                                                                             |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Not applicable</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| Impacts to public and private properties due to construction and operations | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Roadway interference and/or short-term closure may be expected for the installation of OGS units</li><li>▪ Temporary interference may be expected on roadways during maintenance (approximately once a year)</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Traffic management plans may reduce inconveniences associated with construction</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Noise and visual impacts may be associated with construction of the pond for the residences backing onto wetland block; however setback appears sufficient</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Construction management plan, including restrictions on hours</li><li>▪ A staging area should be set up within the municipal parklands as to not interfere with traffic or private property</li></ul> |
| Effect on public safety                                                     | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Installed OGS does not pose threats to public safety</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ No mitigation undertaken</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Deeper waters of a pond may present a safety concern; however, use of MOE standard depths and slopes will be applied</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Adequate slopes, warning signs, and fencing (if required) will provide measures of safety</li></ul>                                                                                                                                         |
| Summary / Recommendations                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ The ‘Do Nothing’ alternative has no social impacts</li></ul>                                                                                                                                  | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ OGS presents few and short-term impacts associated with installation and maintenance</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Conversion of the wetland to a wet pond would be a longer-term construction project with potential noise, traffic and visual impacts</li><li>▪ Safety is not a significant concern of this alternative at this site</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |
| Economic Considerations                                                     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| Capital costs                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ No action may result in greater capital expenses in the future</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Not applicable</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Low capital cost for installation of one (1) unit and associated infrastructure works</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Capital cost of OGS units can be reduced if stormwater is pre-treated with LIDs (thus scaling down required OGS size)</li></ul>                                                                                  | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Moderate to high capital cost for earthworks, grading, infrastructure components, permits</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Capital costs can be marginally reduced if stormwater is pre-treated with LIDs throughout the watershed (thus scaling down required detention volumes)</li></ul>                                                                                                       |
| Maintenance and operating costs                                             | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Fairly low maintenance cost and frequency; approximately annually; potentially more if clogged</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Maintenance frequency of OGS units should not decrease with increased pre-treatment</li></ul>                                                                                                           | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Moderate maintenance cost and frequency; likely seasonally</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Maintenance frequency should be as directed by operations manual</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |
| Impact on future development and growth                                     | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Size of OGS is static once installed and would require upgrading if a larger drainage area is directed to it (in order to meet water quality criteria)</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Additional OGS units or upscaled units may be installed in the future to correspond with growth</li></ul>                                       | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Design would limit land use to existing conditions; any proposed intensification within the watershed would likely require on-site controls</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ On-site control requirements for any intensified development within the pond’s watershed</li></ul>                                                                                                                   |
| Summary / Recommendations                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ ‘Do nothing’ may postpone required works and increase future costs</li></ul>                                                                                                                  | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Installation of OGS units is a fairly low cost solution for achievement of most of the required SWM criteria</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Conversion of the wetland to a wet pond would present moderate to high capital costs for achievement of all the SWM criteria</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
| Results of Alternative Evaluation                                           | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ This alternative is not preferred because the alternative does not meet the stormwater management objectives</li></ul>                                                                        | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ This is not a preferred alternative because this does not fully meet the stormwater objectives compared to the other alternatives that were evaluated for this site</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ This alternative is preferred because a wet pond facility would be capable of fully meeting the requirements for quality control</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |

| Criteria                                           | Alternatives for Pond #51                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
|----------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|                                                    | Bottom Draw Outlet in Wet Pond                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | Retrofit Outlet to Extend Detention                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | Underground Storage Tanks                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |
| Alternative Description                            | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Construct a bottom draw outlet to reduce temperatures of discharged water.</li> <li>Only applicable if the wetland is converted into a wet pond</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                    | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Construct upgraded outlet structure to increase the extended detention within existing SWM facility</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Installed in municipal owned lands including parks and the watercourse land parcel</li> <li>Underground storage tanks will capture and detain stormwater and release over an extended time period</li> <li>Infiltration type underground tanks will allow for infiltration during detention period</li> <li>May need water quality control prior to infiltrating (if infiltration is proposed)</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
| Location in Treatment Train                        | End of Pipe                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| Target SWM Objective(s)                            | Temperature Control                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | Erosion Control                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      | Erosion and Temperature Control                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| Technical Considerations                           |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| Constructability and accessibility                 | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Constructability is simple, pending adequate depth of the wet pond</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Greater depth enhances the thermal mitigation function of the bottom draw outlet</li> </ul>                                          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Construction is feasible and within municipally owned lands</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Erosion and sediment control plans</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Footprint may be large and depends on available soil conditions; constructability is moderate</li> <li>Still allows for use of land at-grade, so can be proposed under existing recreational fields</li> <li>Requires re-organization of existing outfalls to feed into central underground tank(s)</li> <li>Based on soil mapping, the soil in the drainage area is conducive to infiltration</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Tanks with infiltration capabilities provide additional benefits for erosion and temperature control</li> <li>Site specific soil testing is required to confirm suitability of infiltration</li> </ul> |
| Ability to meet stormwater management objective(s) | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Bottom draw outlets can be effective in decreasing the temperature of the outlet water</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Thermal mitigation would be best achieved with a combination of LID methods</li> </ul>                           | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Provided that adequate volume can be made available, the adjustment of the outlet can be an effective solution to provide the required extended detention</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Retrofit of the outlet would require upgrade of the available storage volume of the facility</li> <li>Erosion control may be facilitated with use of LIDs upstream</li> </ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Underground tanks, especially with infiltration capabilities, are effective for providing erosion and temperature control</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Longer detention times and depth below grade can enhance the erosion and temperature control, respectively</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
| Engineering best practises / innovative solution   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Bottom draw outlets in combination with cooling trenches are recent best management practices</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Thermal mitigation can be enhanced overall with LIDs within the contributing watershed</li> </ul>         | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Typically more traditional SWM approach</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Erosion control may be facilitated with use of LIDs upstream</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Underground tanks, including infiltration, are noted as best management practices</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Maintenance of underground tanks is more extensive than at-grade alternatives</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |
| Summary / Recommendations                          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>A bottom draw outlet is a recommended outlet alternative for the wet pond to achieve required temperature control</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                  | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Constructability should be straightforward</li> <li>More supplementary alternatives required to provide adequate quality control</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Technically feasible, requiring more intrusive maintenance</li> <li>Constructability within existing terrain is moderate and can be incorporated into existing land uses</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| Natural Environment                                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| Impacts to wildlife and vegetation habitats        | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>No impact to vegetation</li> <li>May impact aquatic habitat, although fish not anticipated within facility</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Effects could be mitigated with appropriate screens and outflow velocities</li> </ul>        | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Some vegetation will likely be cleared for retrofit of the facility outlet;</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Fisheries and migratory bird timing windows will be adhered to if required;</li> <li>Restoration plans will be developed to restore any cleared vegetation</li> </ul>                                                                                       | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Would require removal of vegetation depending on specific location</li> <li>Once installed, less intrusive than other alternatives because of location below grade</li> <li>May reduce terrestrial habitat</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Restoration plan required if loss of vegetation expected due to construction</li> <li>Migratory bird windows to be adhered to for construction</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
| Impacts / improvements based on SAR / ESA          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Cooling effects are very beneficial for the potential Redside Dace habitat downstream</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Alternative can be enhanced with LIDs within the watershed and planting techniques within the wet pond</li> </ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Opportunities exist for cooling water before discharging downstream via outlet structures</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Can be enhanced with LID measures upstream</li> <li>Further consultation with the MNR regarding additional SAR will occur prior to the detailed design of the retrofit</li> </ul>                                                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Underground tanks may decrease water temperature, providing benefits to the identified SAR</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Further consultation with the MNR regarding additional SAR will occur prior to the detailed design of the retrofit</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
| Summary / Recommendations                          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Bottom draw outlet is a simple alternative to incorporate into a wet pond for the achievement of temperature control</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Retrofit of the existing outlet will have a low impact to the natural environment</li> <li>If storage volume can be adequately increased, the retrofit of the outlet can provide required erosion control which will increase water quality</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                        | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Underground tanks are a long-term non-invasive alternative for providing erosion and temperature control</li> <li>This alternative may be a viable solution to provide erosion and quantity control without disruption to the existing wetland</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
| Social Impacts                                     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| Requirement of                                     | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Likely not required; block is relatively large and</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Sufficient space is available within municipal</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |

|                                                                             | Alternatives for Pond #51                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Criteria                                                                    | Bottom Draw Outlet in Wet Pond                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | Retrofit Outlet to Extend Detention                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | Underground Storage Tanks                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
| easements or purchase of private lands                                      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | accessibleMitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Land requirements would be confirmed through conceptual design</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | landsMitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Land requirements would be confirmed through conceptual design</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |
| Impacts to public and private properties due to construction and operations | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Impacts are related to the construction of the wet pond</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Bottom draw outlet itself does not present additional impacts</li> </ul>                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Potential noise and visual impacts associated with construction for the residences backing onto wetland / parkland block</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Construction management plan, including restrictions on hours</li> <li>A staging area should be set up within the municipal parkland as to not interfere with traffic or private property</li> </ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Construction anticipated within wetland and/or park lands; impacts may include temporary, minor traffic and noise issues due to proximity to residential neighbourhood</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Proper signage and safety measures to be set up for construction period</li> </ul> |
| Effect on public safety                                                     | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Retrofit of the outlet itself has low impact on public safety</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Warning signs and fencing (if required) will provide measures of safety</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                              | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>No public safety concerns beyond construction period</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Proper signage and safety measures to be set up for construction period</li> </ul>                                                                                                                   |
| Summary / Recommendations                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>There are no social impacts associated with the bottom draw outlet</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                      | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Retrofit of the facility outlet itself is of low impact in regards to noise, traffic and land use</li> <li>Scale of construction is relatively small</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Underground tanks are proposed to be located in public lands, generally not intrusive to the public during or after construction</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
| Economic Considerations                                                     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
| Capital costs                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Low capital cost as standalone item</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>No mitigation required</li> </ul>                                                                                        | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Low to moderate cost for the retrofit of the outlet itself</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Capital costs can be marginally reduced if the extended detention volume does not increase significantly from existing conditions</li> </ul>                                                                                                                       | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Moderate to high capital cost related to storage tank infrastructure</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Efficient tank design to minimize capital costs</li> <li>Adequate soils and extend of earthworks will affect capital cost</li> </ul>                                                 |
| Maintenance and operating costs                                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Low maintenance costs as standalone; costs associated with maintenance of wet pond</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Maintenance due to clogging can be reduced with proper screens</li> </ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Low maintenance cost and frequency; likely seasonally to prevent clogging</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Maintenance frequency should be as directed by operations manual</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                         | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Low maintenance costs associated with cleaning out tanks as per operations manual or in event of clogging</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Can prevent clogging with additional pre-treatment techniques</li> </ul>                                                                        |
| Impact on future development and growth                                     | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>No impacts</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Not applicable</li> </ul>                                                                                                                         | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>No impacts</li> <li>Limited to the existing land use; higher imperviousness in the watershed would require a larger extended detention volume and therefore altered outlet structure</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures                                                                                                                                                                                 | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>No impact, but underground tanks would require expansion if contributing land use was to intensify</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>On-site control requirements for any future intensification within the watershed would mitigate further expansion</li> </ul>                           |
| Summary / Recommendations                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Bottom draw outlet is a cost effective alternative to incorporate into wet pond design to meet temperature criteria</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                     | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Retrofit of the existing outlet to provide the required extended detention is a relatively low cost solution in itself; the corresponding requirement to increase the detention volume will increase the capital cost</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                    | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Underground tanks can provide reasonable capital and maintenance costs for the achievement of erosion, quantity and temperature control</li> <li>Capital costs can fluctuate based on actual conditions at the specific location chosen at conceptual design</li> </ul>                                                                                         |
| Results of Alternative Evaluation                                           | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>This alternative is preferred because it is a cost effective way to mitigate temperature increasing in the preferred alternative of converting to a wet pond</li> </ul>                                                                                            | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>This alternative is preferred to provide cost-effective erosion control and can be used in conjunction with the other preferred alternatives</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>This is not a preferred alternative because it is a more costly option and will create more disturbance than retrofitting the existing outlet</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                        |

| Criteria                                              | Alternatives for Pond #51                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
|-------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|                                                       | Infiltration in Right-of-Ways (R.O.W.)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          | Bioswales                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          | Expand Size of Existing Pond                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
| Alternative Description                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Install perforated secondary pipe within existing storm sewer systems to allow for infiltration through linear soakaway pits</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Construct bioswales within the road right-of-ways within the facility drainage area</li><li>Bioswales to contain native plantings and subdrains</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Expand the existing SWM facility area in terms of volume to provide for adequate permanent pool, active storage, and extended detention</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |
|                                                       | Conveyance                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | End of Pipe                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
|                                                       | Quality, Erosion and Temperature Control                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | Quality and Erosion Control                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| Technical Considerations                              |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
| Constructability and accessibility                    | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Construction area is extensive and many secondary infiltration pipes would require to be installed to achieve SWM criteria</li><li>Requires coordination with existing infrastructure and utilities</li><li>Based on soil mapping, the soil in the drainage area is conducive to infiltration</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Perforated pipes (exfiltration pipes) and soakaway pits may be more suited as supplementary water quality / erosion / temperature control measures, where constructability and retrofit are least disruptive to existing infrastructure</li><li>Site specific soil testing is required to confirm suitability of infiltration</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Construction area is extensive and pipe networks are more intricate, requiring coordination with existing infrastructure</li><li>Road right of ways need to be conducive to grading and space criteria for bioswales</li><li>Based on soil mapping, the soil in the drainage area is conducive to infiltration</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Bioswales may be more suited as supplementary water quality / erosion / temperature control measures, where constructability and retrofit are least disruptive to existing infrastructure</li><li>Site specific soil testing is required to confirm suitability of infiltration</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Moderate constructability due to extend of earthworks and infrastructure</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Efficient design and access plans can mitigate negative effects of constructability of the wetland expansion</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
| Ability to meet stormwater management objective(s)    | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Perforated pipes (exfiltration pipes) and soakaway pits may are more effective when used within a treatment train to achieve the stormwater objectives</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Additional pre-treatment will enhance the function of the perforated pipes, to reduce clogging</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Bioswales are more effective when used within a treatment train to achieve the stormwater objectives</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Additional pre-treatment will enhance the function of bioswales, to reduce clogging of the underdrain pipes</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Expansion of the facility will provide adequate controls to meet the SWM objectives</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Pre-treatment of stormwater with LIDs can reduce the required expansion volume</li><li>Using the maximum safe slopes will decrease the footprint of the expanded wetland</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| Engineering best practises / innovative solution      | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Perforated pipes (exfiltration pipes) and soakaway pits may are innovative solutions within stormwater management</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Enhanced with further use of LIDs such as vegetated filter strips</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Bioswales are innovative solutions within stormwater management conveyance systems</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Enhanced with further use of LIDs such as vegetated filter strips</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Typically more traditional SWM approach</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Can be enhanced with use of LIDs within the contributing watershed</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
| Summary / Recommendations                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Perforated pipes (exfiltration pipes) and soakaway pits may are effective as part of a treatment train and where retrofit does not greatly interfere with existing infrastructure</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Bioswales are effective as part of a treatment train and where retrofit does not greatly interfere with existing infrastructure</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Constructability generally not an issue; technically feasible</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
| Natural Environment                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
| Impacts to wildlife and vegetation habitats           | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>May require removal of some vegetation depending on specific location; likely few impacts to existing wildlife and vegetation habitats</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Areas disturbed during construction will be restored</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>May require removal of some vegetation depending on specific location</li><li>May present phosphorus issues if not properly designed and/or maintained</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Planted bioswales will enhance neighbourhoods with additional vegetated areas</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Expansion of the existing facility will require earthworks within the existing wetland habitat, therefore interfering with existing wildlife and vegetation</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Fisheries and migratory bird timing windows will be adhered to if required; an ecologist/biologist will be consulted due to proximity to existing watercourse</li><li>Restoration plan should be developed</li><li>Expansion can be designed to best avoid the removal of trees from the pond block</li></ul> |
| Impacts / improvements based on SAR / ESA             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Perforated pipes (exfiltration pipes) may decrease water temperature, providing benefits to the identified SAR</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Perforated pipes (exfiltration pipes) and soakaway pits may be more suited as supplementary water temperature control measures</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Bioswales may decrease water temperature, providing benefits to the identified SAR</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Bioswales may be more suited as supplementary water temperature control measures</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>There are opportunities for cooling water before discharging downstream via inlet/outlet structures and other wetland details</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Thermal mitigation can be provided by inlet/outlet configurations</li><li>Further consultation with the MNR regarding additional SAR will occur prior to the detailed design of the retrofit</li></ul>                                                                                                                                      |
| Summary / Recommendations                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Perforated pipes (exfiltration pipes) and soakaway pits present few impact on the natural environment</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Bioswales which are properly designed to avoid phosphorus loading provide positive impact on the natural environment</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>With a proper conceptual design, the impact to natural environment is not high; removal of sediment from downstream waters is beneficial to aquatic species</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| Social Impacts                                        |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
| Requirement of easements or purchase of private lands | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>To be constructed within municipal R.O.W.</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Not applicable</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>To be constructed within municipal R.O.W.</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Not applicable</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Acquisition of private lands not required for this site</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Land requirements would be confirmed through conceptual design</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |

| Criteria                                                                    | Alternatives for Pond #51                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|                                                                             | Infiltration in Right-of-Ways (R.O.W.)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | Bioswales                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | Expand Size of Existing Pond                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
| Impacts to public and private properties due to construction and operations | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Impacts may include temporary, minor traffic and noise issues due to construction within the residential streets</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Appropriate construction and traffic management schedule to be adhered to</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                           | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Impacts may include temporary, minor traffic and noise issues due to construction within the residential streets</li><li>Bioswales are likely to face public opposition due to the maintenance requirements, visual disruption to an otherwise “clean” front lawn and inconvenience of culverts under driveways</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Appropriate construction and traffic management schedule to be adhered to</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Noise and visual impacts associated with construction for the residences backing onto wetland block</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Construction management plan, including restrictions on hours</li><li>A staging area should be set up within the municipal parkland as to not interfere with traffic or private property</li></ul> |
| Effect on public safety                                                     | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No public safety concerns beyond construction period</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Proper signage and safety measures to be set up for construction period</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No public safety concerns beyond construction period</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Proper signage and safety measures to be set up for construction period</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Conversion to wet pond may appear as a safety hazard since deeper water found within recreational area and trails</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Adequate slopes, warning signs, and fencing (if required) will provide measures of safety, all as per the required criteria</li></ul>                                                |
| Summary / Recommendations                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Impacts are minor and mostly temporary, within the construction period</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Impacts during construction are temporary and mostly minor</li><li>Long term impacts on residents due to visual impacts and culvert maintenance may be significant</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Expansion of the wetland to a wet pond would be a longer-term construction project with potential noise, traffic and visual impacts</li><li>Overall, impact not significant due to setback from residential homes and safety measures used throughout construction</li></ul>                                                                                                                               |
| Economic Considerations                                                     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
| Capital costs                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Moderate to high capital cost related to new pipe infrastructure, earthworks and plantings, as well as likely relocation of existing pipe infrastructure</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Proficient SUE investigation prior to design work can minimize unexpected existing pipe/utility interferences</li></ul>                                                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Moderate to high capital cost related to new pipe infrastructure, earthworks and plantings, as well as likely relocation of existing pipe infrastructure</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Proficient SUE investigation prior to design work can minimize unexpected existing pipe/utility interferences</li></ul>                                                                                                                    | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Moderate to high capital cost for earthworks, grading, infrastructure components, permits</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Capital costs can be marginally reduced if stormwater is pre-treated with LIDs throughout the watershed (thus scaling down required detention volumes)</li></ul>                                             |
| Maintenance and operating costs                                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Moderate maintenance costs associated with unclogging perforated pipes</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Pre-treatment of stormwater with grassed filter strips can prevent some clogging of perforated pipes</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Low to moderate maintenance costs associated with replacing filter media, unclogging perforated pipes</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Pre-treatment of stormwater with grassed filter strips can prevent some clogging of perforated pipes</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Moderate maintenance cost and frequency; likely seasonally</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Maintenance frequency should be as directed by operations manual</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                  |
| Impact on future development and growth                                     | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Retrofit R.O.W. with perforated pipes and soakaway pits may dictate R.O.W. standards for future development</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>On-site control requirements for any future intensification within the watershed would mitigate negative impacts on the LID</li></ul>                                                                                                                              | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Retrofit R.O.W. with bioswales may dictate R.O.W. standards for future development</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Bioswales can enhance the aesthetic appeal of a neighbourhood / development and provide an ‘added value’</li><li>On-site control requirements for any future intensification within the watershed would mitigate negative impacts on the LID</li></ul>                                                           | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Design would limit land use to existing conditions; any proposed intensification within the watershed would likely require on-site controls</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>On-site control requirements for any intensified development within the pond’s watershed</li></ul>                                                         |
| Summary / Recommendations                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Perforated pipes and soakaway pits are a moderate to high capital cost for retrofit and require moderately complex maintenance</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Bioswales are a moderate to high capital cost for retrofit but may add value to a neighbourhood, depending on general public opinion</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Expansion of the wetland to a wet pond would present high capital costs for achievement of all the SWM criteria</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
| Results of Alternative Evaluation                                           | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>This alternative is not preferred because infiltration in R.O.W.s cannot provide the required level of water quality and erosion control.</li><li>Another alternative would need to be implemented in conjunction with infiltration in R.O.W.s in order to meet SWM objectives, making this alternative economically inefficient.</li><li>The construction of infiltration pipes in R.O.W.s will create short term accessibility, visual and noise impacts on residents.</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>This alternative is not preferred because bioswales cannot provide the required level of water quality and erosion control.</li><li>Another alternative would need to be implemented in conjunction with bioswales in order to meet SWM objectives, making this alternative economically inefficient.</li><li>The construction and maintenance of bioswales will create short and long term accessibility and visual impacts on residents.</li></ul>                                                    | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>This alternative is a preferred option because it would be done in conjunction with the other preferred alternatives to achieve all of the SWM criteria</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |

| Criteria                                              | Alternatives for Pond #51                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
|-------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|                                                       | Cooling Trench                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | Aquatic and Riparian Plantings at Facility                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | Construct Forebay                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
| Alternative Description                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Excavation of a trench between the pond control structure maintenance hole and the outlet</li><li>Modification of outlet piping infrastructure to discharge into trench</li><li>Installation of stone material and restoration of ground surface</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Plantings to increase density and area of vegetation cover surrounding facility and within facility to provide shade for cooling of detained water</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Earthworks for construction of berm and increased forebay depth</li><li>Downstream section of facility will remain as existing and outlet will not be affected</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
| Location in Treatment Train                           | End of Pipe                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
| Target SWM Objective(s)                               | Temperature Control                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      | Quality Control                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
| Technical Considerations                              |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
| Constructability and accessibility                    | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Feasible construction and accessibility is adequate</li><li>Construction footprint is relatively small</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Erosion and sediment control plans required</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No constructability issues anticipated with adding plantings to proposed facilities</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Plantings enhance temperature control by providing shade</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                     | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Moderate constructability due to extend of earthworks and infrastructure</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Efficient design and access plans can mitigate negative effects of constructability of the wetland expansion</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |
| Ability to meet stormwater management objective(s)    | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Cooling trenches can be effective in decreasing the temperature of the outlet water</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Thermal mitigation would be best achieved with a combination of LID methods</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Shade from plantings will reduce the temperature of stormwater at a facility</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Plantings are better used in conjunction with other cooling methods to achieve adequate temperature control</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                         | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Forebay could provide water quality control; additional measures required for thermal mitigation and erosion control</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Forebay function could be enhanced with implementation of LIDs throughout watershed</li><li>Forebay water temperature can be cooled through planting techniques</li></ul>                                                                                                                              |
| Engineering best practises / innovative solution      | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Cooling trenches are a recent best management practice</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Thermal mitigation can be enhanced overall with LIDs within the contributing watershed</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Temperature control of stormwater in general is becoming an engineering best management practice in areas with sensitive habitats</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Effects of plantings can be enhanced with other methods such as use of a bottom draw outlet</li></ul>                                                                                                                    | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Typically more traditional SWM approach</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures Forebay function can be enhanced with LIDs                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| Summary / Recommendations                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Technically feasible with a small construction footprint</li><li>A cooling trench would help with mitigating the temperature impacts of the SWM pond</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Plantings at stormwater management facility are a simple alternative to provide additional temperature controls</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Construction of a forebay can meet SWM criteria within a lesser footprint than a full wet pond; requires additional erosion controls</li><li>Quantity control would still be outstanding without additional retrofit</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
| Natural Environment                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
| Impacts to wildlife and vegetation habitats           | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Existing vegetation in the work area will be cleared</li><li>All affected areas will be restored</li><li>Results in a net neutral effect to terrestrial habitat</li><li>Reduction of temperature released into the downstream cool-water watercourse will improve the native aquatic habitat</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Appropriate erosion and sediment control measures will be undertaken during construction to reduce any negative impacts to the downstream watercourse</li><li>Restoration plans will be developed for surrounding areas impacted by construction</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Planting native species can enhance the existing wildlife and vegetation</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No mitigation undertaken</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Construction of a forebay will require earthworks partially within the existing wetland habitat, therefore interfering with existing wildlife and vegetation</li><li>The removal of some trees may be required</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Fisheries and migratory bird timing windows will be adhered to if required; an ecologist/biologist will be consulted</li><li>Restoration plans will be developed to restore any cleared vegetation</li></ul> |
| Impacts / improvements based on SAR / ESA             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>There are opportunities to improve the habitat quality of the receiving watercourse by reducing the temperature of flows entering the watercourse</li><li>Cooling effects are very beneficial for Redside Dace habitat</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Further consultation with the MNR regarding additional SAR will occur prior to the detailed design of the retrofit</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                     | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Providing additional shade at stormwater facilities reduces stormwater temperature which is a key benefit for SAR habitat</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Effects of plantings can be enhanced with other methods such as use of a bottom draw outlet</li><li>Further consultation with the MNR regarding additional SAR will occur prior to the detailed design of the retrofit</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>There are opportunities for cooling water before discharging downstream via inlet structures and planting techniques</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Thermal mitigation may be improved with the construction of a forebay</li><li>Further consultation with the MNR regarding additional SAR will occur prior to the detailed design of the retrofit</li></ul>                                                                                             |
| Summary / Recommendations                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>A cooling trench at the pond outlet is a relatively simple alternative to mitigate temperatures impacts of the wet pond for the achievement of temperature control</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Plantings at stormwater facilities provide positive impacts on the natural environment (provided they are non-invasive species)</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>A forebay can be beneficial to downstream receiving waters but will alter any existing habitat within the construction area</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
| Social Impacts                                        |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
| Requirement of easements or purchase of private lands | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Sufficient space is available within the pond block</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Not applicable</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Not applicable (unless required in conjunction with stormwater facility construction)</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Not applicable</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Sufficient space is available within the pond block</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Not applicable</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |

| Criteria                                                                    | Alternatives for Pond #51                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|                                                                             | Cooling Trench                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | Aquatic and Riparian Plantings at Facility                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 | Construct Forebay                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| Impacts to public and private properties due to construction and operations | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Noise and visual impacts associated with construction for the residences backing onto proposed SWM facility block</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Construction management plan, including restrictions on hours may reduce inconveniences associated with construction</li></ul>                                                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No impacts to public</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Not applicable</li></ul>                                                                                                    | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Noise and visual impacts associated with construction for the residences backing onto wetland block</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Construction management plan, including restrictions on hours</li><li>A staging area should be set up within the municipal parkland as to not interfere with traffic or private property</li></ul> |
| Effect on public safety                                                     | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>The cooling trench will not have any affects on public safety once constructed</li><li>During construction there is a potential safety risk due to excavation if a member of the public was to enter the site</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>The construction site should be secured during and after construction hours with warning signs and fencing</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Vegetation should be suitable for proposed facility and clearly indicate any water’s edge</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Vegetation at facilities must be maintained</li></ul>  | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>By building to the required slope and depth criteria, the forebay should not pose a threat to public safety</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Adequate slopes, warning signs, and fencing (if required) will provide measures of safety</li></ul>                                                                                        |
| Summary / Recommendations                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No long term social impacts associated with the cooling trench</li><li>Minimal disturbance to the public may occur during construction but the construction time frame will be brief</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No significant social impacts of plantings at stormwater facilities</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                        | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Expansion of the wetland include forebay is a longer-term construction project with potential noise, traffic and visual impacts</li><li>Overall, impact not significant due to setback from residential homes and safety measures used throughout construction</li></ul>                                                                                                                                   |
| Economic Considerations                                                     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
| Capital costs                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Low capital cost for a relatively small excavation and materials</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Capital costs can be marginally reduced if stormwater is pre-treated with LIDs throughout the watershed (thus scaling down required trench volume)</li></ul>                                                                                                      | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Low capital cost relative to other alternatives</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Costs may vary depending on extents and types of plantings</li></ul>                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Moderate capital cost for earthworks, grading, infrastructure components, permits</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Capital costs can be marginally reduced if stormwater is pre-treated with LIDs throughout the watershed (thus scaling down required volumes)</li></ul>                                                               |
| Maintenance and operating costs                                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Low maintenance cost associated with cleaning out the trench</li><li>Lower maintenance frequency; likely once per year</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Maintenance frequency should be as directed by operations manual</li></ul>                                                                                                                                  | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Low maintenance costs with native, sustainable plantings</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Lower maintenance plants will minimize costs of maintenance and/or replanting</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Moderate maintenance cost and frequency; likely seasonally</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Maintenance frequency should be as directed by operations manual</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                  |
| Impact on future development and growth                                     | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No impacts</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Not applicable</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No impact on future development</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Not applicable</li></ul>                                                                                         | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Design would limit land use to existing conditions; any proposed intensification within the watershed would likely require on-site controls</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>On-site control requirements for any intensified development within the pond’s watershed</li></ul>                                                         |
| Summary / Recommendations                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>A cooling trench is a cost effective alternative to meet temperature criteria</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Plantings at SWM facilities are a low cost alternative for providing temperature control</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Expansion of the wetland to include a forebay would present higher capital costs for achievement of all the SWM criteria</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| Results of Alternative Evaluation                                           | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>This alternative is not preferred because other preferred alternatives adequately provide erosion control and require less maintenance while providing other benefits (such as environmental benefits)</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>This alternative is preferred because it will improve/maintain existing habitat and vegetation</li><li>This alternative provides temperature control at a relatively low capital cost.</li></ul>                                                     | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>This alternative is a preferred option because it would be done in conjunction with the other preferred alternatives to achieve all of the SWM criteria</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |

| Table 1 –Evaluation of Conceptual Design Alternatives for Pond #55 (Offline Wet Pond) |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Criteria                                                                              | Alternatives for Pond #55                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
|                                                                                       | Do Nothing                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 | Retrofit Outlet to Extend Detention                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          | Underground Storage Tanks                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |
| Alternative Description                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>The pond will continue to function as existing</li> <li>Pond #55 is a wet pond that was built to provide flood control, with a 5.01 ha minor drainage area and a 5.9 ha major drainage area.</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Construct upgraded outlet structure to increase the extended detention within existing SWM facility</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Installed in municipal owned lands including parks and the watercourse land parcel</li> <li>Underground storage tanks will capture and detain stormwater and release over an extended time period</li> <li>Infiltration type underground tanks will allow for infiltration during detention period</li> <li>May need water quality control prior to infiltrating (if infiltration is proposed)</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
| Location in Treatment Train                                                           | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | End of Pipe                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| Target SWM Objective(s)                                                               | None                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | Erosion Control                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              | Erosion and Temperature Control                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| Technical Considerations                                                              |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| Constructability and accessibility                                                    | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Construction is within municipally owned lands</li> <li>Associated works involving expanding the facility volume may present constructability issues</li> <li>Negative impacts from construction disturbance will outweigh the minimal erosion control</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Erosion and sediment control plans</li> </ul>                                                                                            | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Footprint may be large and depends on available soil conditions; constructability is moderate</li> <li>Still allows for use of land at-grade, so can be proposed under existing recreational fields</li> <li>Requires re-organization of existing outfalls to feed into central underground tank(s)</li> <li>Based on soil mapping, the soil in the drainage area is conducive to infiltration</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Tanks with infiltration capabilities provide additional benefits for erosion and temperature control</li> <li>Site specific soil testing is required to confirm suitability of infiltration</li> </ul> |
| Ability to meet stormwater management objective(s)                                    | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Does not provide for or meet the stormwater management objectives of the City and/or TRCA, for erosion control</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>No mitigation undertaken</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                            | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Provided that adequate volume can be made available, the adjustment of the outlet can be an effective solution to provide the required extended detention</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Retrofit of the outlet would require upgrade of the available storage volume of the facility</li> <li>Erosion control may be facilitated with use of LIDs upstream</li> </ul>                                                         | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Underground tanks, especially with infiltration capabilities, are effective for providing erosion and temperature control</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Longer detention times and depth below grade can enhance the erosion and temperature control, respectively</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
| Engineering best practises / Innovative solution                                      | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Typically more traditional SWM approach</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Erosion control may be facilitated with use of LIDs upstream</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Underground tanks, including infiltration, are noted as best management practices</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Maintenance of underground tanks is more extensive than at-grade alternatives</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |
| Summary / Recommendations                                                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Does not provide for or meet the stormwater management objectives of the City and/or TRCA, for erosion control</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Constructability is technically feasible</li> <li>Impacts from construction outweighs minimal erosion control</li> <li>More supplementary alternatives required to provide adequate erosion control</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Technically feasible, requiring more intrusive maintenance</li> <li>Constructability within existing terrain is moderate and can be incorporated into existing land uses</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| Natural Environment                                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| Impacts to wildlife and vegetation habitats                                           | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>The current condition of wildlife and vegetation habitats will not change; however if the lack of erosion control causes future erosion in the receiving watercourse or future increase of temperature in the watercourse, this could have a negative impact on the future condition of wildlife and vegetation habitats.</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>No mitigation undertaken</li> </ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Some vegetation will likely be cleared for retrofit of the facility outlet;</li> <li>Impacts from construction may outweigh minimal erosion control feasible</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Fisheries and migratory bird timing windows will be adhered to if required;</li> <li>Restoration plans will be developed to restore any cleared vegetation</li> <li>May be able to be designed to retain existing trees</li> </ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Would require removal of vegetation depending on specific location</li> <li>Once installed, less intrusive than other alternatives because of location below grade</li> <li>May reduce terrestrial habitat</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Restoration plan required if loss of vegetation expected due to construction</li> <li>Migratory bird windows to be adhered to for construction</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
| Impacts / Improvements based on SAR / ESA                                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Existing vegetation provides some benefit to reducing water temperature</li> <li>By not implementing temperature controls, receiving waters may have higher temperatures over time and this can negatively impact sensitive species such as Redside Dace</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>No mitigation undertaken</li> </ul>                                                                  | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Opportunities exist for cooling water before discharging downstream via outlet structures</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Can be enhanced with LID measures upstream</li> <li>Further consultation with the MNR regarding additional SAR will occur prior to the detailed design of the retrofit</li> </ul>                                                                                                                     | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Underground tanks may decrease water temperature, providing benefits to the identified SAR</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Further consultation with the MNR regarding additional SAR will occur prior to the detailed design of the retrofit</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
| Summary / Recommendations                                                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Existing wetland and terrestrial vegetation in the pond block provide habitat area and will remain in the current condition</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Retrofit of the existing outlet will have a low impact to the natural environment</li> <li>If storage volume can be adequately increased, the retrofit of the outlet can provide required erosion control</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Underground tanks are a long-term non-invasive alternative for providing erosion and temperature control</li> <li>This alternative may be a viable solution to provide erosion and quantity control without disruption to the existing wetland</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |

|                                                                             | Alternatives for Pond #55                                                                                                                                                                                                             |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Criteria                                                                    | Do Nothing                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | Retrofit Outlet to Extend Detention                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | Underground Storage Tanks                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
| Social Impacts                                                              |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
| Requirement of easements or purchase of private lands                       | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Likely not required; block is relatively large and accessible</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Land requirements would be confirmed through conceptual design</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                       | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Sufficient space is available within municipal lands</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Space may be an issue pending adequate soil conditions in which to build</li> </ul>                                                                                                                  |
| Impacts to public and private properties due to construction and operations | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Potential noise and visual impacts associated with construction for the residences backing onto wetland / parkland block</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Construction management plan, including restrictions on hours</li> <li>A staging area should be set up within the municipal parkland as to not interfere with traffic or private property</li> </ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Construction anticipated within wetland and/or park lands; impacts may include temporary, minor traffic and noise issues due to proximity to residential neighbourhood</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Proper signage and safety measures to be set up for construction period</li> </ul> |
| Effect on public safety                                                     | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Retrofit of the outlet itself has low impact on public safety</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Warning signs and fencing (if required) will provide measures of safety</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                              | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>No public safety concerns beyond construction period</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Proper signage and safety measures to be set up for construction period</li> </ul>                                                                                                                   |
| Summary / Recommendations                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>The ‘Do Nothing’ alternative has no social impacts</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                  | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Retrofit of the facility outlet itself is of low impact in regards to noise, traffic and land use</li> <li>Scale of construction is relatively small</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Underground tanks are proposed to be located in public lands, generally not intrusive to the public during or after construction</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
| Economic Considerations                                                     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
| Capital costs                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>No action may result in greater capital expenses in the future</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Not applicable</li> </ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Low to moderate cost for the retrofit of the outlet itself</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Capital costs can be marginally reduced if the extended detention volume does not increase significantly from existing conditions</li> </ul>                                                                                                                       | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Moderate to high capital cost related to storage tank infrastructure</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Efficient tank design to minimize capital costs</li> <li>Adequate soils and extend of earthworks will affect capital cost</li> </ul>                                                 |
| Maintenance and operating costs                                             | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Low maintenance cost and frequency; likely seasonally to prevent clogging</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Maintenance frequency should be as directed by operations manual</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                         | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Low maintenance costs associated with cleaning out tanks as per operations manual or in event of clogging</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Can prevent clogging with additional pre-treatment techniques</li> </ul>                                                                        |
| Impact on future development and growth                                     | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>No impacts</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Limited to the existing land use; higher imperviousness in the watershed would require a larger extended detention volume and therefore altered outlet structure</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                        | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>No impact, but underground tanks would require expansion if contributing land use was to intensify</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>On-site control requirements for any future intensification within the watershed would mitigate further expansion</li> </ul>                           |
| Summary / Recommendations                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>‘Do nothing’ may postpone required works and increase future costs</li> </ul>                                                                                                                  | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Retrofit of the existing outlet to provide the required extended detention is a relatively low cost solution in itself; the corresponding requirement to increase the detention volume will increase the capital cost</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                    | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Underground tanks can provide reasonable capital and maintenance costs for the achievement of erosion, quantity and temperature control</li> <li>Capital costs can fluctuate based on actual conditions at the specific location chosen at conceptual design</li> </ul>                                                                                         |
| Results of Alternative Evaluation                                           | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>This alternative is not preferred because the alternative does not meet the stormwater management objectives</li> </ul>                                                                        | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>This alternative is not preferred because the negative impacts from construction outweigh the minimum erosion control</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>This is not preferred alternative because it is a more costly option and will create more disturbance than retrofitting the existing outlet</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                          |

| Criteria                                              | Alternatives for Pond #55                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
|-------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|                                                       | Bottom Draw Outlet in Wet Pond                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | Cooling Trench                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | Expand Size of Existing Pond                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
| Alternative Description                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Construct a bottom draw outlet to reduce temperatures of discharged water.</li><li>Only applicable if the wetland is converted into a wet pond</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Excavation of a trench between the pond control structure maintenance hole and the outlet</li><li>Modification of outlet piping infrastructure to discharge into trench</li><li>Installation of stone material and restoration of ground surface</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Expand the existing SWM facility area in terms of volume to provide for adequate permanent pool, active storage, and extended detention</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |
| Location in Treatment Train                           | End of Pipe                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
| Target SWM Objective(s)                               | Temperature Control                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              | Temperature Control                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | Erosion Control                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
| Technical Considerations                              |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
| Constructability and accessibility                    | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Constructability is simple, pending adequate depth of the wet pond</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Greater depth enhances the thermal mitigation function of the bottom draw outlet</li></ul>                                          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Feasible construction and accessibility is adequate</li><li>Construction footprint is relatively small</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Erosion and sediment control plans required</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Moderate constructability due to extend of earthworks and infrastructure</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Efficient design and access plans can mitigate negative effects of constructability of the wetland expansion</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
| Ability to meet stormwater management objective(s)    | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Bottom draw outlets can be effective in decreasing the temperature of the outlet water</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Thermal mitigation would be best achieved with a combination of LID methods</li></ul>                           | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Cooling trenches can be effective in decreasing the temperature of the outlet water</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Thermal mitigation would be best achieved with a combination of LID methods</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Expansion of the facility will provide adequate controls to meet the SWM objectives</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Pre-treatment of stormwater with LIDs can reduce the required expansion volume</li><li>Using the maximum safe slopes will decrease the footprint of the expanded wetland</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| Engineering best practises / innovative solution      | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Bottom draw outlets in combination with cooling trenches are recent best management practices</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Thermal mitigation can be enhanced overall with LIDs within the contributing watershed</li></ul>         | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Cooling trenches are a recent best management practice</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Thermal mitigation can be enhanced overall with LIDs within the contributing watershed</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Typically more traditional SWM approach</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Can be enhanced with use of LIDs within the contributing watershed</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
| Summary / Recommendations                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>A bottom draw outlet is a recommended outlet alternative for the wet pond to achieve required temperature control</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Technically feasible with a small construction footprint</li><li>A cooling trench would help with mitigating the temperature impacts of the SWM pond</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Constructability generally not an issue; technically feasible</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
| Natural Environment                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
| Impacts to wildlife and vegetation habitats           | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No impact to vegetation</li><li>May impact aquatic habitat, although fish not anticipated within facility</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Effects could be mitigated with appropriate screens and outflow velocities</li></ul>         | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Existing vegetation in the work area will be cleared</li><li>All affected areas will be restored</li><li>Results in a net neutral effect to terrestrial habitat</li><li>Reduction of temperature released into the downstream cool-water watercourse will improve the native aquatic habitat</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Appropriate erosion and sediment control measures will be undertaken during construction to reduce any negative impacts to the downstream watercourse</li><li>Restoration plans will be developed for surrounding areas impacted by construction</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Expansion of the existing facility will require earthworks within the existing wetland habitat, therefore interfering with existing wildlife and vegetation</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Fisheries and migratory bird timing windows will be adhered to if required; an ecologist/biologist will be consulted due to proximity to existing watercourse</li><li>Restoration plan should be developed</li><li>Expansion can be designed to best avoid the removal of trees from the pond block</li></ul> |
| Impacts / improvements based on SAR / ESA             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Cooling effects are very beneficial for the potential Redside Dace habitat downstream</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Alternative can be enhanced with LIDs within the watershed and planting techniques within the wet pond</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>There are opportunities to improve the habitat quality of the receiving watercourse by reducing the temperature of flows entering the watercourse</li><li>Cooling effects are very beneficial for Redside Dace habitat</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Further consultation with the MNR regarding additional SAR will occur prior to the detailed design of the retrofit</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                     | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>There are opportunities for cooling water before discharging downstream via inlet/outlet structures and other wetland details</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Thermal mitigation can be provided by inlet/outlet configurations</li><li>Further consultation with the MNR regarding additional SAR will occur prior to the detailed design of the retrofit</li></ul>                                                                                                                                      |
| Summary / Recommendations                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Bottom draw outlet is a simple alternative to incorporate into a wet pond for the achievement of temperature control</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>A cooling trench at the pond outlet is a relatively simple alternative to mitigate temperatures impacts of the wet pond for the achievement of temperature control</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>With a proper detailed design, the impact to natural environment is not high; removal of sediment from downstream waters is beneficial to aquatic species</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
| Social Impacts                                        |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
| Requirement of easements or purchase of private lands | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Not applicable</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Not applicable</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Sufficient space is available within the pond block</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Not applicable</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Acquisition of private lands not required for this site</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Land requirements would be confirmed through conceptual design</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |
| Impacts to public and private properties due to       | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Impacts are related to the construction of the wet pond</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement                                                                                                                                                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Noise and visual impacts associated with construction for the residences backing onto proposed SWM facility block</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Noise and visual impacts associated with construction for the residences backing onto wetland block</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |

| Criteria                                | Alternatives for Pond #55                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |
|-----------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|                                         | Bottom Draw Outlet in Wet Pond                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | Cooling Trench                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | Expand Size of Existing Pond                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |
| construction and operations             | Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Bottom draw outlet itself does not present additional impacts</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                           | Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Construction management plan, including restrictions on hours may reduce inconveniences associated with construction</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Construction management plan, including restrictions on hours</li><li>▪ A staging area should be set up within the municipal parkland as to not interfere with traffic or private property</li></ul>                                                                                                         |
| Effect on public safety                 | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Not applicable</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Not applicable</li></ul>                                                                                                                     | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ The cooling trench will not have any affects on public safety once constructed</li><li>▪ During construction there is a potential safety risk due to excavation if a member of the public was to enter the site</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ The construction site should be secured during and after construction hours with warning signs and fencing</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Conversion to wet pond may appear as a safety hazard since deeper water found within recreational area and trails</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Adequate slopes, warning signs, and fencing (if required) will provide measures of safety, all as per the required criteria</li></ul>    |
| Summary / Recommendations               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ There are no social impacts associated with the bottom draw outlet</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                      | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ No long term social impacts associated with the cooling trench</li><li>▪ Minimal disturbance to the public may occur during construction but the construction time frame will be brief</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Expansion of the wetland to a wet pond would be a longer-term construction project with potential noise, traffic and visual impacts</li><li>▪ Overall, impact not significant due to setback from residential homes and safety measures used throughout construction</li></ul>                                                                                   |
| Economic Considerations                 |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |
| Capital costs                           | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Low capital cost as standalone item</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ No mitigation required</li></ul>                                                                                        | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Low capital cost for a relatively small excavation and materials</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Capital costs can be marginally reduced if stormwater is pre-treated with LIDs throughout the watershed (thus scaling down required trench volume)</li></ul>                                                                                                        | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Moderate to high capital cost for earthworks, grading, infrastructure components, permits</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Capital costs can be marginally reduced if stormwater is pre-treated with LIDs throughout the watershed (thus scaling down required detention volumes)</li></ul> |
| Maintenance and operating costs         | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Low maintenance costs as standalone; costs associated with maintenance of wet pond</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Maintenance due to clogging can be reduced with proper screens</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Low maintenance cost associated with cleaning out the trench</li><li>▪ Lower maintenance frequency; likely once per year</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Maintenance frequency should be as directed by operations manual</li></ul>                                                                                                                                  | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Moderate maintenance cost and frequency; likely seasonally</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Maintenance frequency should be as directed by operations manual</li></ul>                                                                                                                      |
| Impact on future development and growth | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ No impacts</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Not applicable</li></ul>                                                                                                                         | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ No impacts</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Not applicable</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Design would limit land use to existing conditions; any proposed intensification within the watershed would likely require on-site controls</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ On-site control requirements for any intensified development within the pond’s watershed</li></ul>             |
| Summary / Recommendations               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Bottom draw outlet is a cost effective alternative to incorporate into wet pond design to meet temperature criteria</li></ul>                                                                                                                                     | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ A cooling trench is a cost effective alternative to meet temperature criteria</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Expansion of the wetland to a wet pond would present high capital costs for achievement of all the SWM criteria</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
| Results of Alternative Evaluation       | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ This is not a preferred alternative because of the complexity of the retrofit due to the existing outlet infrastructure</li></ul>                                                                                                                                 | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ This alternative is preferred because it is a minimally invasive best management practice for temperature control. A cooling trench is cost effective and requires minimal maintenance.</li><li>▪ Construction can be designed such that it does not affect adult trees and can be restored such that recreational park land is available.</li></ul>                                                                                       | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ This alternative is not a preferred alternative because it would require the removal of mature trees.</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |

| Criteria                                                                    | Alternatives for Pond #55                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |                                                  |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------|
|                                                                             | Infiltration in Right-of-Ways (R.O.W.)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          | Bioswales                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                                                  |
| Alternative Description                                                     | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Install perforated secondary pipe within existing storm sewer systems to allow for infiltration through linear soakaway pits</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Construct bioswales within the road right-of-ways within the facility drainage area</li><li>Bioswales to contain native plantings and subdrains</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |                                                  |
| Location in Treatment Train                                                 | Conveyance                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |                                                  |
| Target SWM Objective(s)                                                     | Erosion and Temperature Control                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |                                                  |
| Technical Considerations                                                    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |                                                  |
| Constructability and accessibility                                          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Construction area is extensive and many secondary infiltration pipes would require to be installed to achieve SWM criteria</li><li>Requires coordination with existing infrastructure and utilities</li><li>Based on soil mapping, the soil in the drainage area is conducive to infiltration</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Perforated pipes (exfiltration pipes) and soakaway pits may be more suited as supplementary water quality / erosion / temperature control measures, where constructability and retrofit are least disruptive to existing infrastructure</li><li>Site specific soil testing is required to confirm suitability of infiltration</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Construction area is extensive and pipe networks are more intricate, requiring coordination with existing infrastructure</li><li>Road right of ways need to be conducive to grading and space criteria for bioswales</li><li>Based on soil mapping, the soil in the drainage area is conducive to infiltration</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Bioswales may be more suited as supplementary water quality / erosion / temperature control measures, where constructability and retrofit are least disruptive to existing infrastructure</li><li>Site specific soil testing is required to confirm suitability of infiltration</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li></li></ul> |
| Ability to meet stormwater management objective(s)                          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Perforated pipes (exfiltration pipes) and soakaway pits may are more effective when used within a treatment train to achieve the stormwater objectives</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Additional pre-treatment will enhance the function of the perforated pipes, to reduce clogging</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Bioswales are more effective when used within a treatment train to achieve the stormwater objectives</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Additional pre-treatment will enhance the function of bioswales, to reduce clogging of the underdrain pipes</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li></li></ul> |
| Engineering best practises / innovative solution                            | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Perforated pipes (exfiltration pipes) and soakaway pits may are innovative solutions within stormwater management</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Enhanced with further use of LIDs such as vegetated filter strips</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Bioswales are innovative solutions within stormwater management conveyance systems</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Enhanced with further use of LIDs such as vegetated filter strips</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li></li></ul> |
| Summary / Recommendations                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Perforated pipes (exfiltration pipes) and soakaway pits may are effective as part of a treatment train and where retrofit does not greatly interfere with existing infrastructure</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Bioswales are effective as part of a treatment train and where retrofit does not greatly interfere with existing infrastructure</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li></li></ul> |
| Natural Environment                                                         |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |                                                  |
| Impacts to wildlife and vegetation habitats                                 | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>May require removal of some vegetation depending on specific location; likely few impacts to existing wildlife and vegetation habitats</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Areas disturbed during construction will be restored</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>May require removal of some vegetation depending on specific location</li><li>May present phosphorus issues if not properly designed and/or maintained</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Planted bioswales will enhance neighbourhoods with additional vegetated areas</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li></li></ul> |
| Impacts / improvements based on SAR / ESA                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Perforated pipes (exfiltration pipes) may decrease water temperature, providing benefits to the identified SAR</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Perforated pipes (exfiltration pipes) and soakaway pits may be more suited as supplementary water temperature control measures</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Bioswales may decrease water temperature, providing benefits to the identified SAR</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Bioswales may be more suited as supplementary water temperature control measures</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li></li></ul> |
| Summary / Recommendations                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Perforated pipes (exfiltration pipes) and soakaway pits present few impact on the natural environment</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Bioswales which are properly designed to avoid phosphorus loading provide positive impact on the natural environment</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li></li></ul> |
| Social Impacts                                                              |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |                                                  |
| Requirement of easements or purchase of private lands                       | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>To be constructed within municipal R.O.W.</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Not applicable</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>To be constructed within municipal R.O.W.</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Not applicable</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li></li></ul> |
| Impacts to public and private properties due to construction and operations | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Impacts may include temporary, minor traffic and noise issues due to construction within the residential streets</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Appropriate construction and traffic management schedule to be adhered to</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Impacts may include temporary, minor traffic and noise issues due to construction within the residential streets</li><li>Bioswales are likely to face public opposition due to the maintenance requirements, visual disruption to an otherwise “clean” front lawn and inconvenience of culverts under driveways</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li></li></ul> |

| Criteria                                       | Alternatives for Pond #55                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |                                                    |
|------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------|
|                                                | Infiltration in Right-of-Ways (R.O.W.)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | Bioswales                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |                                                    |
|                                                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Appropriate construction and traffic management schedule to be adhered to</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |                                                    |
| Effect on public safety                 | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ No public safety concerns beyond construction period</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Proper signage and safety measures to be set up for construction period</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ No public safety concerns beyond construction period</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Proper signage and safety measures to be set up for construction period</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ </li></ul> |
| Summary / Recommendations               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Impacts are minor and mostly temporary, within the construction period</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Impacts during construction are temporary and mostly minor</li><li>▪ Long term impacts on residents due to visual impacts and culvert maintenance may be significant</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ </li></ul> |
| Economic Considerations                 |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |                                                    |
| Capital costs                           | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Moderate to high capital cost related to new pipe infrastructure, earthworks and plantings, as well as likely relocation of existing pipe infrastructure</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Proficient SUE investigation prior to design work can minimize unexpected existing pipe/utility interferences</li></ul>                                                                                                 | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Moderate to high capital cost related to new pipe infrastructure, earthworks and plantings, as well as likely relocation of existing pipe infrastructure</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Proficient SUE investigation prior to design work can minimize unexpected existing pipe/utility interferences</li></ul>                                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ </li></ul> |
| Maintenance and operating costs         | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Moderate maintenance costs associated with unclogging perforated pipes</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Pre-treatment of stormwater with grassed filter strips can prevent some clogging of perforated pipes</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                            | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Low to moderate maintenance costs associated with replacing filter media, unclogging perforated pipes</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Pre-treatment of stormwater with grassed filter strips can prevent some clogging of perforated pipes</li></ul>                                                                                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ </li></ul> |
| Impact on future development and growth | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Retrofit R.O.W. with perforated pipes and soakaway pits may dictate R.O.W. standards for future development</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ On-site control requirements for any future intensification within the watershed would mitigate negative impacts on the LID</li></ul>                                                                                                                                | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Retrofit R.O.W. with bioswales may dictate R.O.W. standards for future development</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Bioswales can enhance the aesthetic appeal of a neighbourhood / development and provide an ‘added value’</li><li>▪ On-site control requirements for any future intensification within the watershed would mitigate negative impacts on the LID</li></ul>        | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ </li></ul> |
| Summary / Recommendations               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Perforated pipes and soakaway pits are a moderate to high capital cost for retrofit and require moderately complex maintenance</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Bioswales are a moderate to high capital cost for retrofit but may add value to a neighbourhood, depending on general public opinion</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ </li></ul> |
| Results of Alternative Evaluation       | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ This alternative is not preferred because infiltration in R.O.W.s cannot provide the required level of water quality and erosion control.</li><li>▪ Another alternative would need to be implemented in conjunction with infiltration in R.O.W.s in order to meet SWM objectives, making this alternative economically inefficient.</li><li>▪ The construction of infiltration pipes in R.O.W.s will create short term accessibility, visual and noise impacts on residents.</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ This alternative is not preferred because bioswales cannot provide the required level of water quality and erosion control.</li><li>▪ Another alternative would need to be implemented in conjunction with bioswales in order to meet SWM objectives, making this alternative economically inefficient.</li><li>▪ The construction and maintenance of bioswales will create short and long term accessibility and visual impacts on residents.</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ </li></ul> |

| Table 1 –Evaluation of Conceptual Design Alternatives for Pond #62 (Offline Wet Pond) |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Criteria                                                                              | Alternatives for Pond #62                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
|                                                                                       | Do Nothing                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 | Retrofit Outlet to Extend Detention                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | Bottom Draw Outlet in Wet Pond                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
| Alternative Description                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>The pond will continue to function as existing</li> <li>Pond #62 is an extended detention wet pond with a 523.45 ha minor drainage area and a 573.74 ha major drainage area</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Construct upgraded outlet structure to increase the extended detention within existing SWM facility</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Construct a bottom draw outlet to reduce temperatures of discharged water.</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| Location in Treatment Train                                                           | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | End of Pipe                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
| Target SWM Objective(s)                                                               | None                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | Erosion Control                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      | Temperature Control                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
| Technical Considerations                                                              |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
| Constructability and accessibility                                                    | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Construction is feasible and within municipally owned lands</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Erosion and sediment control plans</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Existing pond outlet does not allow for simple retrofit to a bottom draw outlet</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Greater depth enhances the thermal mitigation function of the bottom draw outlet</li> </ul>                             |
| Ability to meet stormwater management objective(s)                                    | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Does not provide for or meet the stormwater management objectives of the City and/or TRCA, for water quality or erosion</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>No mitigation undertaken</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Provided that adequate volume can be made available, the adjustment of the outlet can be an effective solution to provide the required extended detention</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Retrofit of the outlet would require upgrade of the available storage volume of the facility</li> <li>Erosion control may be facilitated with use of LIDs upstream</li> </ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Bottom draw outlets can be effective in decreasing the temperature of the outlet water</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Thermal mitigation would be best achieved with a combination of LID methods</li> </ul>                           |
| Engineering best practises / Innovative solution                                      | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Typically more traditional SWM approach</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Erosion control may be facilitated with use of LIDs upstream</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Bottom draw outlets in combination with cooling trenches are recent best management practices</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Thermal mitigation can be enhanced overall with LIDs within the contributing watershed</li> </ul>         |
| Summary / Recommendations                                                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Does not provide for or meet the stormwater management objectives of the City and/or TRCA, for water quality or erosion</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Constructability should be straightforward; may require relocation of existing trail</li> <li>More supplementary alternatives required to provide adequate quality control</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>A bottom draw outlet is a recommended outlet alternative for the wet pond to achieve required temperature control</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                  |
| Natural Environment                                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
| Impacts to wildlife and vegetation habitats                                           | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>The current condition of wildlife and vegetation habitats will not change; however if the lack of erosion control causes future erosion in the receiving watercourse or future increase of temperature in the watercourse, this could have a negative impact on the future condition of wildlife and vegetation habitats.</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>No mitigation undertaken</li> </ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Some vegetation will likely be cleared for retrofit of the facility outlet;</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Fisheries and migratory bird timing windows will be adhered to if required;</li> <li>Restoration plans will be developed to restore any cleared vegetation</li> <li>Conceptual design should avoid the removal of existing trees</li> </ul>                 | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>No impact to vegetation</li> <li>May impact aquatic habitat, although fish not anticipated within facility</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Effects could be mitigated with appropriate screens and outflow velocities</li> </ul>        |
| Impacts / Improvements based on SAR / ESA                                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Existing vegetation provides some benefit to reducing water temperature</li> <li>By not implementing temperature controls, receiving waters may have higher temperatures over time and this can negatively impact sensitive species such as Redside Dace</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>No mitigation undertaken</li> </ul>                                                                  | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Opportunities exist for cooling water before discharging downstream via outlet structures</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Can be enhanced with LID measures upstream</li> <li>Further consultation with the MNR regarding additional SAR will occur prior to the detailed design of the retrofit</li> </ul>                                                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Cooling effects are very beneficial for the potential Redside Dace habitat downstream</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Alternative can be enhanced with LIDs within the watershed and planting techniques within the wet pond</li> </ul> |
| Summary / Recommendations                                                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Existing vegetation of pond provides some benefit regarding thermal regulation</li> <li>Increasing water temperatures decrease water quality and affect the health of aquatic species</li> <li>Existing aquatic and terrestrial vegetation in the pond block provide habitat area and will remain in the current condition</li> </ul>                                                                                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Retrofit of the existing outlet will have a low impact to the natural environment</li> <li>If storage volume can be adequately increased, the retrofit of the outlet can provide required erosion control which will increase water quality</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                        | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Bottom draw outlet is a simple alternative to incorporate into a wet pond for the achievement of temperature control</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                               |
| Social Impacts                                                                        |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
| Requirement of easements or purchase of private lands                                 | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Not required; block is accessible</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Land requirements would be confirmed through conceptual design</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                             | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
| Impacts to public and private properties due to construction and operations           | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Potential noise and visual impacts associated with construction for the residences near the pond block</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Construction management plan, including restrictions on hours</li> <li>A staging area should be set up within the</li> </ul>                                                                                                     | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Impacts are related to the construction of the wet pond</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Bottom draw outlet itself does not present additional impacts</li> </ul>                                                                        |

|                                         | Alternatives for Pond #62                                                                                                                                                                                                         |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
|-----------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Criteria                                | Do Nothing                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | Retrofit Outlet to Extend Detention                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              | Bottom Draw Outlet in Wet Pond                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
|                                         |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | municipal parkland as to not interfere with traffic or private property                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
| Effect on public safety                 | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Retrofit of the outlet itself has low impact on public safety</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Warning signs and fencing (if required) will provide measures of safety</li></ul>                                                        | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
| Summary / Recommendations               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>The ‘Do Nothing’ alternative has no social impacts</li></ul>                                                                                                                                | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Retrofit of the facility outlet itself is of low impact in regards to noise, traffic and land use</li><li>Scale of construction is relatively small</li></ul>                                                                                                                                              | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>There are no social impacts associated with the bottom draw outlet</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| Economic Considerations                 |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
| Capital costs                           | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No action may result in greater capital expenses in the future</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Not applicable</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Low to moderate cost for the retrofit of the outlet itself</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Capital costs can be marginally reduced if the extended detention volume does not increase significantly from existing conditions</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Low capital cost as standalone item</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No mitigation required</li></ul>                                                                                        |
| Maintenance and operating costs         | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Low maintenance cost and frequency; likely seasonally to prevent clogging</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Maintenance frequency should be as directed by operations manual</li></ul>                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Low maintenance costs as standalone; costs associated with maintenance of wet pond</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Maintenance due to clogging can be reduced with proper screens</li></ul> |
| Impact on future development and growth | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No impacts</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Limited to the existing land use; higher imperviousness in the watershed would require a larger extended detention volume and therefore altered outlet structure</li></ul>                  | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No impacts</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Not applicable</li></ul>                                                                                                                         |
| Summary / Recommendations               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>‘Do nothing’ may postpone required works and increase future costs</li></ul>                                                                                                                | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Retrofit of the existing outlet to provide the required extended detention is a relatively low cost solution in itself; the corresponding requirement to increase the detention volume will increase the capital cost</li></ul>                                                                            | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Bottom draw outlet is a cost effective alternative to incorporate into wet pond design to meet temperature criteria</li></ul>                                                                                                                                   |
| Results of Alternative Evaluation       | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>This alternative is not preferred because the alternative does not meet the stormwater management objectives</li></ul>                                                                      | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>This alternative is preferred to provide cost-effective erosion control while retaining the existing pond grading and trees</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                      | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>This is not a preferred alternative because of the complexity of the retrofit due to the existing outlet infrastructure</li></ul>                                                                                                                               |

|                                                    | Alternatives for Pond #62                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
|----------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Criteria                                           | Aquatic and Riparian Plantings at Facility                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | Cooling Trench                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | Underground Storage Tanks / Infiltration Galleries                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
| Alternative Description                            | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Plantings to increase density and area of vegetation cover surrounding facility and within facility to provide shade for cooling of detained water</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Excavation of a trench between the pond control structure maintenance hole and the outlet</li><li>Modification of outlet piping infrastructure to discharge into trench</li><li>Installation of stone material and restoration of ground surface</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Ideally installed in municipally owned lands including parks and the pond land parcel</li><li>Underground storage tanks / infiltration galleries will capture and detain stormwater and release over an extended time period, similar to soakaway pits</li><li>Infiltration type underground tanks will allow for infiltration during detention period</li><li>May need water quality control prior to infiltrating (if infiltration is proposed)</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                         |
| Location in Treatment Train                        | End of Pipe                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
| Target SWM Objective(s)                            | Temperature Control                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | Erosion and Temperature Control                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
| Technical Considerations                           |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
| Constructability and accessibility                 | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No constructability issues anticipated with adding plantings to proposed facilities</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Plantings enhance temperature control by providing shade</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                     | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Feasible construction and accessibility is good</li><li>Construction footprint is relatively small</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Erosion and sediment control plans required</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Footprints can be small, but additional space must be found throughout the watershed, upstream of the existing SWM pond</li><li>Requires re-organization of some existing storm infrastructure</li><li>Based on soil mapping, the soil in the drainage area is conducive to infiltration</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Tanks / infiltration galleries with infiltration capabilities provide additional benefits for erosion control upstream of the SWM pond</li><li>Site specific soil testing is required to confirm suitability of infiltration</li></ul> |
| Ability to meet stormwater management objective(s) | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Shade from plantings will reduce the temperature of stormwater at a facility</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Plantings are better used in conjunction with other cooling methods to achieve adequate temperature control</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                         | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Cooling trenches can be effective in decreasing the temperature of the outlet water</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Thermal mitigation would be best achieved with a combination of LID methods</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Underground tanks, especially with infiltration capabilities, are effective for providing erosion and temperature control</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Longer detention times enhance erosion control and help the pond to function with fewer sedimentation issues</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| Engineering best practises / innovative solution   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Temperature control of stormwater in general is becoming an engineering best management practice in areas with sensitive habitats</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Effects of plantings can be enhanced with other methods such as use of a bottom draw outlet</li></ul>                                                                                                                    | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Cooling trenches are a recent best management practice</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Thermal mitigation can be enhanced overall with LIDs within the contributing watershed</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Underground tanks, including infiltration, are noted as best management practices</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Maintenance of underground tanks / infiltration galleries is more extensive than at-grade alternatives</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
| Summary / Recommendations                          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Plantings at stormwater management facility are a simple alternative to provide additional temperature controls</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Technically feasible with a small construction footprint</li><li>A cooling trench would help with mitigating the temperature impacts of the SWM pond</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Technically feasible, requiring more intrusive maintenance</li><li>Constructability within existing terrain is low to moderate and can be incorporated into existing lands such as parks and R.O.W.s</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
| Natural Environment                                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
| Impacts to wildlife and vegetation habitats        | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Planting native species can enhance the existing wildlife and vegetation</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No mitigation undertaken</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Existing vegetation in the work area will be cleared</li><li>All affected areas will be restored</li><li>Results in a net neutral effect to terrestrial habitat</li><li>Reduction of temperature released into the downstream cool-water watercourse will improve the native aquatic habitat</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Appropriate erosion and sediment control measures will be undertaken during construction to reduce any negative impacts to the downstream watercourse</li><li>Restoration plans will be developed for surrounding areas impacted by construction</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>May require removal of some vegetation depending on specific location</li><li>Once installed, less intrusive than other alternatives because of location below grade</li><li>May reduce terrestrial habitat</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Restoration plan required if loss of vegetation expected due to construction</li><li>Conceptual design should avoid the removal of existing trees</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                         |
| Impacts / improvements based on SAR / ESA          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Providing additional shade at stormwater facilities reduces stormwater temperature which is a key benefit for SAR habitat</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Effects of plantings can be enhanced with other methods such as use of a bottom draw outlet</li><li>Further consultation with the MNR regarding additional SAR will occur prior to the detailed design of the retrofit</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>There are opportunities to improve the habitat quality of the receiving watercourse by reducing the temperature of flows entering the watercourse</li><li>Cooling effects are very beneficial for Redside Dace habitat</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Further consultation with the MNR regarding additional SAR will occur prior to the detailed design of the retrofit</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                     | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Underground tanks may decrease water temperature, providing benefits to the identified SAR</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Further consultation with the MNR regarding additional SAR will occur prior to the detailed design of the retrofit</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| Summary / Recommendations                          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Plantings at stormwater facilities provide positive impacts on the natural environment</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>A cooling trench at the pond outlet is a relatively simple alternative to mitigate</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Underground tanks / infiltration galleries are a long-term non-invasive alternative for</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |

| Criteria                                                                    | Alternatives for Pond #62                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|                                                                             | Aquatic and Riparian Plantings at Facility                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 | Cooling Trench                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | Underground Storage Tanks / Infiltration Galleries                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
|                                                                             | (provided they are non-invasive species)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | temperatures impacts of the wet pond for the achievement of temperature control                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              | providing erosion control <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>This alternative may be a viable solution to provide erosion control without disruption to the existing pond volume</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
| Social Impacts                                                              |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
| Requirement of easements or purchase of private lands                       | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Not applicable (unless required in conjunction with stormwater facility construction)</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Not applicable</li></ul>                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Not required</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Not applicable</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Sufficient space is appears to be available within municipal park lands and/or school yard</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>If school yard provides the best available space to construct an infiltration gallery, a form of compensation may be negotiated</li></ul>                    |
| Impacts to public and private properties due to construction and operations | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No impacts to public</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Not applicable</li></ul>                                                                                                    | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Noise and visual impacts associated with construction for the residences near the SWM facility block</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Construction management plan, including restrictions on hours may reduce inconveniences associated with construction</li></ul>                                                                                                | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Construction preferred to be within municipal park lands; impacts may include temporary, minor traffic and noise issues due to proximity to residential neighbourhood</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Proper signage and safety measures to be set up for construction period</li></ul> |
| Effect on public safety                                                     | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Vegetation should be suitable for proposed facility and clearly indicate any water’s edge</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Vegetation at facilities must be maintained</li></ul>  | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>The cooling trench will not have any affects on public safety once constructed</li><li>During construction there is a potential safety risk due to excavation if a member of the public was to enter the site</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>The construction site should be secured during and after construction hours with warning signs and fencing</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No public safety concerns beyond construction period</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Proper signage and safety measures to be set up for construction period</li></ul>                                                                                                                  |
| Summary / Recommendations                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No significant social impacts of plantings at stormwater facilities</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                        | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No long term social impacts associated with the cooling trench</li><li>Minimal disturbance to the public may occur during construction but the construction time frame will be brief</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Underground tanks / infiltration galleries are proposed to be ideally located in public lands, generally not intrusive to the public during or after construction</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                 |
| Economic Considerations                                                     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
| Capital costs                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Low capital cost relative to other alternatives</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Costs may vary depending on extents and types of plantings</li></ul>                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Low capital cost for a relatively small excavation and materials</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Capital costs can be marginally reduced if stormwater is pre-treated with LIDs throughout the watershed (thus scaling down required trench volume)</li></ul>                                                                                                      | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Moderate capital cost related to storage tank / infiltration gallery infrastructure</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Efficient tank design to minimize capital costs</li><li>Adequate soils and extend of earthworks will affect capital cost</li></ul>                                  |
| Maintenance and operating costs                                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Low maintenance costs with native, sustainable plantings</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Lower maintenance plants will minimize costs of maintenance and/or replanting</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Low maintenance cost associated with cleaning out the trench</li><li>Lower maintenance frequency; likely once per year</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Maintenance frequency should be as directed by operations manual</li></ul>                                                                                                                                  | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Low maintenance costs associated with cleaning out tanks / galleries as per operations manual or in event of clogging</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Can prevent clogging with additional pre-treatment techniques</li></ul>                                                           |
| Impact on future development and growth                                     | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No impact on future development</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Not applicable</li></ul>                                                                                         | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No impacts</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Not applicable</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No impact, but underground tanks would require expansion if contributing land use was to intensify</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>On-site control requirements for any future intensification within the watershed would mitigate further expansion</li></ul>                          |
| Summary / Recommendations                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Plantings at SWM facilities are a low cost alternative for providing temperature control</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>A cooling trench is a cost effective alternative to meet temperature criteria</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Underground tanks can provide reasonable capital and maintenance costs for the achievement of erosion control</li><li>Capital costs can fluctuate based on actual conditions at the specific location chosen at conceptual design</li></ul>                                                                                                                 |
| Results of Alternative Evaluation                                           | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>This alternative is preferred because it will improve/maintain existing habitat and vegetation</li><li>This alternative provides temperature control at a relatively low capital cost.</li></ul>                                                     | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>This alternative is preferred because it is a minimally invasive best management practice for temperature control. A cooling trench is cost effective and requires minimal maintenance.</li><li>Construction can be designed such that it does not affect adult trees</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                        | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>This is not a preferred alternative because it is a more costly option and will create more disturbance than retrofitting the existing outlet</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                     |

| Criteria                                                                    | Alternatives for Pond #62                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |  |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--|
|                                                                             | Infiltration in Right-of-Ways (R.O.W.)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | Bioswales                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |  |
| Alternative Description                                                     | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Install perforated secondary pipe within existing storm sewer systems to allow for infiltration through linear soakaway pits</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Construct bioswales within the road right-of-ways within the facility drainage area</li><li>▪ Bioswales to contain native plantings and subdrains</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |  |
|                                                                             | Conveyance                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |  |
|                                                                             | Quality, Erosion and Temperature Control                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |  |
| Technical Considerations                                                    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |  |
| Constructability and accessibility                                          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Construction area is extensive and many secondary infiltration pipes would require to be installed to achieve SWM criteria</li><li>▪ Requires coordination with existing infrastructure and utilities</li><li>▪ Based on soil mapping, the soil in the drainage area is conducive to infiltration</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Perforated pipes (exfiltration pipes) and soakaway pits may be more suited as supplementary water quality / erosion / temperature control measures, where constructability and retrofit are least disruptive to existing infrastructure</li><li>▪ Site specific soil testing is required to confirm suitability of infiltration</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Construction area is extensive and pipe networks are more intricate, requiring coordination with existing infrastructure</li><li>▪ Road right of ways need to be conducive to grading and space criteria for bioswales</li><li>▪ Based on soil mapping, the soil in the drainage area is conducive to infiltration</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Bioswales may be more suited as supplementary water quality / erosion / temperature control measures, where constructability and retrofit are least disruptive to existing infrastructure</li><li>▪ Site specific soil testing is required to confirm suitability of infiltration</li></ul> |  |
| Ability to meet stormwater management objective(s)                          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Perforated pipes (exfiltration pipes) and soakaway pits may are more effective when used within a treatment train to achieve the stormwater objectives</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Additional pre-treatment will enhance the function of the perforated pipes, to reduce clogging</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Bioswales are more effective when used within a treatment train to achieve the stormwater objectives</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Additional pre-treatment will enhance the function of bioswales, to reduce clogging of the underdrain pipes</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |  |
| Engineering best practises / innovative solution                            | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Perforated pipes (exfiltration pipes) and soakaway pits may are innovative solutions within stormwater management</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Enhanced with further use of LIDs such as vegetated filter strips</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Bioswales are innovative solutions within stormwater management conveyance systems</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Enhanced with further use of LIDs such as vegetated filter strips</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |  |
| Summary / Recommendations                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Perforated pipes (exfiltration pipes) and soakaway pits may are effective as part of a treatment train and where retrofit does not greatly interfere with existing infrastructure</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Bioswales are effective as part of a treatment train and where retrofit does not greatly interfere with existing infrastructure</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |  |
| Natural Environment                                                         |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |  |
| Impacts to wildlife and vegetation habitats                                 | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ May require removal of some vegetation depending on specific location; likely few impacts to existing wildlife and vegetation habitats</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Areas disturbed during construction will be restored</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ May require removal of some vegetation depending on specific location</li><li>▪ May present phosphorus issues if not properly designed and/or maintained</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Planted bioswales will enhance neighbourhoods with additional vegetated areas</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |  |
| Impacts / improvements based on SAR / ESA                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Perforated pipes (exfiltration pipes) may decrease water temperature, providing benefits to the identified SAR</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Perforated pipes (exfiltration pipes) and soakaway pits may be more suited as supplementary water temperature control measures</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Bioswales may decrease water temperature, providing benefits to the identified SAR</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Bioswales may be more suited as supplementary water temperature control measures</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |  |
| Summary / Recommendations                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Perforated pipes (exfiltration pipes) and soakaway pits present few impact on the natural environment</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Bioswales which are properly designed to avoid phosphorus loading provide positive impact on the natural environment</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |  |
| Social Impacts                                                              |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |  |
| Requirement of easements or purchase of private lands                       | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ To be constructed within municipal R.O.W.</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Not applicable</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ To be constructed within municipal R.O.W.</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Not applicable</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |  |
| Impacts to public and private properties due to construction and operations | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Impacts may include temporary, minor traffic and noise issues due to construction within the residential streets</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Appropriate construction and traffic management schedule to be adhered to</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Impacts may include temporary, minor traffic and noise issues due to construction within the residential streets</li><li>▪ Bioswales are likely to face public opposition due to the maintenance requirements, visual disruption to an otherwise “clean” front lawn and inconvenience of culverts under driveways</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |  |

| Criteria                                | Alternatives for Pond #62                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |  |
|-----------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--|
|                                         | Infiltration in Right-of-Ways (R.O.W.)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | Bioswales                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |  |
|                                         |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Appropriate construction and traffic management schedule to be adhered to</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |  |
| Effect on public safety                 | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ No public safety concerns beyond construction period</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Proper signage and safety measures to be set up for construction period</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ No public safety concerns beyond construction period</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Proper signage and safety measures to be set up for construction period</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                             |  |
| Summary / Recommendations               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Impacts are minor and mostly temporary, within the construction period</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Impacts during construction are temporary and mostly minor</li><li>▪ Long term impacts on residents due to visual impacts and culvert maintenance may be significant</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |  |
| Economic Considerations                 |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |  |
| Capital costs                           | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Moderate to high capital cost related to new pipe infrastructure, earthworks and plantings, as well as likely relocation of existing pipe infrastructure</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Proficient SUE investigation prior to design work can minimize unexpected existing pipe/utility interferences</li></ul>                                                                                                 | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Moderate to high capital cost related to new pipe infrastructure, earthworks and plantings, as well as likely relocation of existing pipe infrastructure</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Proficient SUE investigation prior to design work can minimize unexpected existing pipe/utility interferences</li></ul>                                                                   |  |
| Maintenance and operating costs         | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Moderate maintenance costs associated with unclogging perforated pipes</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Pre-treatment of stormwater with grassed filter strips can prevent some clogging of perforated pipes</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                            | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Low to moderate maintenance costs associated with replacing filter media, unclogging perforated pipes</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Pre-treatment of stormwater with grassed filter strips can prevent some clogging of perforated pipes</li></ul>                                                                                                                               |  |
| Impact on future development and growth | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Retrofit R.O.W. with perforated pipes and soakaway pits may dictate R.O.W. standards for future development</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ On-site control requirements for any future intensification within the watershed would mitigate negative impacts on the LID</li></ul>                                                                                                                                | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Retrofit R.O.W. with bioswales may dictate R.O.W. standards for future development</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Bioswales can enhance the aesthetic appeal of a neighbourhood / development and provide an ‘added value’</li><li>▪ On-site control requirements for any future intensification within the watershed would mitigate negative impacts on the LID</li></ul>        |  |
| Summary / Recommendations               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Perforated pipes and soakaway pits are a moderate to high capital cost for retrofit and require moderately complex maintenance</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Bioswales are a moderate to high capital cost for retrofit but may add value to a neighbourhood, depending on general public opinion</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |  |
| Results of Alternative Evaluation       | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ This alternative is not preferred because infiltration in R.O.W.s cannot provide the required level of water quality and erosion control.</li><li>▪ Another alternative would need to be implemented in conjunction with infiltration in R.O.W.s in order to meet SWM objectives, making this alternative economically inefficient.</li><li>▪ The construction of infiltration pipes in R.O.W.s will create short term accessibility, visual and noise impacts on residents.</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ This alternative is not preferred because bioswales cannot provide the required level of water quality and erosion control.</li><li>▪ Another alternative would need to be implemented in conjunction with bioswales in order to meet SWM objectives, making this alternative economically inefficient.</li><li>▪ The construction and maintenance of bioswales will create short and long term accessibility and visual impacts on residents.</li></ul> |  |

| Criteria                                           | Alternatives for Pond #73                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
|----------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|                                                    | Do Nothing                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | Underground Storage Tanks                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | Aquatic and Riparian Plantings at Facility                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
| Alternative Description                            | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>The pond will continue to function as existing</li><li>Pond #73 is an offline existing wet pond with a 25.7 ha minor drainage area and a 56.2 ha major drainage area</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Installed in municipal owned lands including parks and the wetland land parcel</li><li>Underground storage tanks will capture and detain stormwater and release over an extended time period</li><li>Infiltration type underground tanks will allow for infiltration during detention period</li><li>May need water quality control prior to infiltrating (if infiltration is proposed)</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Plantings to increase density and area of vegetation cover surrounding facility and within facility to provide shade for cooling of detained water</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
| Location in Treatment Train                        | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | End of Pipe                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
| Target SWM Objective(s)                            | None                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | Temperature Control                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
| Technical Considerations                           |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
| Constructability and accessibility                 | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Footprint may be large and depends on available soil conditions; constructability is moderate to complex due to space restrictions within the pond block</li><li>Requires re-organization of existing outfalls to feed into central underground tank(s) either prior to entering the pond or likely after</li><li>Based on soil mapping, the soil in the drainage area is not ideal for infiltration</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Tanks with infiltration capabilities provide additional benefits for temperature control</li><li>Site specific soil testing is required to confirm suitability of infiltration</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Plantings need to be adaptable to the existing SWM pond</li><li>Fairly dense planting of young trees around perimeter of pond</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Plantings enhance temperature control by providing shade</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                           |
| Ability to meet stormwater management objective(s) | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Does not provide for or meet the stormwater management objectives of the City and/or TRCA, for temperature control</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No mitigation undertaken</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Underground tanks, especially with infiltration capabilities, may be effective for providing temperature control</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Depth below grade can enhance temperature control</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Shade from plantings will reduce the temperature of stormwater at a facility</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Plantings are better used in conjunction with other cooling methods to achieve adequate temperature control</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                         |
| Engineering best practises / Innovative solution   | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Underground tanks, including infiltration, are noted as best management practices</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Maintenance of underground tanks is more extensive than at-grade alternatives</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Temperature control of stormwater in general is becoming an engineering best management practice in areas with sensitive habitats</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Effects of plantings can be enhanced with other methods such as use of a bottom draw outlet</li></ul>                                                                                                                    |
| Summary / Recommendations                          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Does not provide for or meet the stormwater management objectives of the City and/or TRCA, for temperature control</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Technically feasible, requiring more intrusive maintenance</li><li>Constructability within existing terrain is moderate to complex due to terrain and limited space within the pond block and easement</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Plantings at stormwater management facility are a simple alternative to provide additional temperature controls</li><li>Fairly dense planting of young trees exist around perimeter currently</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
| Natural Environment                                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
| Impacts to wildlife and vegetation habitats        | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>The current condition of wildlife and vegetation habitats will not change; however if the lack of temperature control causes future increase of temperature in the receiving watercourse, this could have a negative impact on the future condition of aquatic habitat and wildlife downstream</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No mitigation undertaken</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Would require removal of some vegetation depending on specific location</li><li>Once installed, less intrusive than other alternatives because of location below grade</li><li>May reduce terrestrial habitat</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Restoration plan required if loss of vegetation expected due to construction</li><li>Migratory bird windows to be adhered to for construction</li><li>Conceptual design will minimize the impact on existing trees</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                    | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Planting native species can enhance the existing wildlife and vegetation</li><li>Pond already has existing young trees around perimeter</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No mitigation undertaken</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                 |
| Impacts / Improvements based on SAR / ESA          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Existing vegetation provides some benefit to reducing water temperature</li><li>By not implementing temperature controls, receiving waters may have higher temperatures over time and this can negatively impact sensitive species such as Redside Dace</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No mitigation undertaken</li></ul>                                        | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Underground tanks may decrease water temperature, providing benefits to the identified SAR</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Further consultation with the MNR regarding additional SAR will occur prior to the detailed design of the retrofit</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Providing additional shade at stormwater facilities reduces stormwater temperature which is a key benefit for SAR habitat</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Effects of plantings can be enhanced with other methods such as use of a bottom draw outlet</li><li>Further consultation with the MNR regarding additional SAR will occur prior to the detailed design of the retrofit</li></ul> |
| Summary / Recommendations                          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Existing vegetation of wetland provides some benefit regarding thermal regulation</li><li>Increasing water temperatures decrease water quality and affect the health of aquatic species</li><li>Existing aquatic and terrestrial vegetation in the pond block provide habitat area and will</li></ul>                                                                                                                                 | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Underground tanks are a long-term non-invasive alternative for providing erosion and temperature control</li><li>Trees may be retained during construction</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Plantings at stormwater facilities provide positive impacts on the natural environment (provided they are non-invasive species)</li><li>Perimeter of pond contains dense planting of young trees</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |

| Criteria                                                                    | Alternatives for Pond #73                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|                                                                             | Do Nothing                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | Underground Storage Tanks                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | Aquatic and Riparian Plantings at Facility                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
|                                                                             | remain in the current condition                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| Social Impacts                                                              |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| Requirement of easements or purchase of private lands                       | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Adequate space is likely for an underground tank; however is space is tight, acquisition of additional lands is not a preferred option</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Not required</li> </ul>                                                                                 | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Not applicable (unless required in conjunction with stormwater facility construction)</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Not applicable</li> </ul>                                   |
| Impacts to public and private properties due to construction and operations | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Construction anticipated within easement lands; impacts may include temporary, minor traffic and noise issues due to proximity to residential neighbourhood</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Proper signage and safety measures to be set up for construction period</li> </ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>No impacts to public</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Not applicable</li> </ul>                                                                                                    |
| Effect on public safety                                                     | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>No public safety concerns beyond construction period</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Proper signage and safety measures to be set up for construction period</li> </ul>                                                                                                        | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Vegetation should be suitable for proposed facility and clearly indicate any water’s edge</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Vegetation at facilities must be maintained</li> </ul>  |
| Summary / Recommendations                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>The ‘Do Nothing’ alternative has no social impacts</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Underground tanks are proposed to be located in public lands, generally not intrusive to the public during or after construction</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>No significant social impacts of plantings at stormwater facilities</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                          |
| Economic Considerations                                                     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| Capital costs                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>No action may result in greater capital expenses in the future regarding habitat protection</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Not applicable</li> </ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Moderate capital cost related to storage tank infrastructure</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Efficient tank design to minimize capital costs</li> <li>Adequate soils and extend of earthworks will affect capital cost</li> </ul>                                              | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Low capital cost relative to other alternatives</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Costs may vary depending on extents and types of plantings</li> </ul>                             |
| Maintenance and operating costs                                             | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Low maintenance costs associated with cleaning out tanks as per operations manual or in event of clogging</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Can prevent clogging with additional pre-treatment techniques</li> </ul>                                                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Low maintenance costs with native, sustainable plantings</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Lower maintenance plants will minimize costs of maintenance and/or replanting</li> </ul> |
| Impact on future development and growth                                     | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>No impact, but underground tanks would likely require expansion if contributing land use was to intensify</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Additional LIDs in the watershed may mitigate further expansion</li> </ul>                                                           | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>No impact on future development</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Not applicable</li> </ul>                                                                                         |
| Summary / Recommendations                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>‘Do nothing’ may postpone required works and increase future costs</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Underground tanks can provide moderate capital and maintenance costs for the achievement of temperature control</li> <li>Capital costs can fluctuate based on actual conditions at the specific location chosen at conceptual design</li> </ul>                                                                                                      | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Plantings at SWM facilities are a low cost alternative for providing temperature control</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                     |
| Results of Alternative Evaluation                                           | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>This alternative is not preferred because the alternative does not meet the stormwater management objectives</li> </ul>                                                                                                     | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>This is not a preferred alternative because it is a more costly option and will create more disturbance than the preferred alternatives</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>This alternative is not preferred because there is already a dense planting of young trees around the perimeter of the pond</li> <li>This alternative provides temperature control at a relatively low capital cost</li> </ul>                          |

| Criteria                                           | Alternatives for Pond #73                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
|----------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|                                                    | Infiltration in Right-of-Ways (R.O.W.)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | Bioswales                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | Cooling Trench                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
| Alternative Description                            | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Install perforated secondary pipe within existing storm sewer systems to allow for infiltration through linear soakaway pits</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Construct bioswales within the road right-of-ways within the facility drainage area</li><li>▪ Bioswales to contain native plantings and subdrains</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Excavation of a trench between the pond control structure maintenance hole and the outlet</li><li>▪ Modification of outlet piping infrastructure to discharge into trench</li><li>▪ Installation of stone material and restoration of ground surface</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
| Location in Treatment Train                        | Conveyance                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | End of Pipe                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |
| Target SWM Objective(s)                            | Temperature Control                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
| Technical Considerations                           |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
| Constructability and accessibility                 | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Construction area is extensive and many secondary infiltration pipes would require to be installed to achieve SWM criteria</li><li>▪ Requires coordination with existing infrastructure and utilities</li><li>▪ Based on soil mapping, the soil in the drainage area is not ideal for infiltration</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Perforated pipes (exfiltration pipes) and soakaway pits may be more suited as supplementary water quality / erosion / temperature control measures, where constructability and retrofit are least disruptive to existing infrastructure</li><li>▪ Site specific soil testing is required to confirm suitability of infiltration</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Construction area is extensive and pipe networks are more intricate, requiring coordination with existing infrastructure</li><li>▪ Road right of ways need to be conducive to grading and space criteria for bioswales</li><li>▪ Based on soil mapping, the soil in the drainage area is not ideal for infiltration</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Bioswales may be more suited as supplementary water quality / erosion / temperature control measures, where constructability and retrofit are least disruptive to existing infrastructure</li><li>▪ Site specific soil testing is required to confirm suitability of infiltration</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Feasible construction; site is highly accessible</li><li>▪ Construction footprint is relatively small</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Erosion and sediment control plans required</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |
| Ability to meet stormwater management objective(s) | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Perforated pipes (exfiltration pipes) and soakaway pits may are more effective when used within a treatment train to achieve the stormwater objectives</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Additional pre-treatment will enhance the function of the perforated pipes, to reduce clogging</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Bioswales are more effective when used within a treatment train to achieve the stormwater objectives</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Additional pre-treatment will enhance the function of bioswales, to reduce clogging of the underdrain pipes</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Cooling trenches can be effective in decreasing the temperature of the outlet water</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Thermal mitigation would be best achieved with a combination of LID methods</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
| Engineering best practises / innovative solution   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Perforated pipes (exfiltration pipes) and soakaway pits may are innovative solutions within stormwater management</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Enhanced with further use of LIDs such as vegetated filter strips</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Bioswales are innovative solutions within stormwater management conveyance systems</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Enhanced with further use of LIDs such as vegetated filter strips</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Cooling trenches are a recent best management practice</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Thermal mitigation can be enhanced overall with LIDs within the contributing watershed</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| Summary / Recommendations                          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Perforated pipes (exfiltration pipes) and soakaway pits may are effective as part of a treatment train and where retrofit does not greatly interfere with existing infrastructure</li><li>▪ Due to the poor infiltration in the soil, Infiltration in the R.O.W. is not a preferred option.</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Bioswales are effective as part of a treatment train and where retrofit does not greatly interfere with existing infrastructure</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Technically feasible with a small construction footprint</li><li>▪ A cooling trench would help with mitigating the temperature impacts of the SWM pond</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |
| Natural Environment                                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
| Impacts to wildlife and vegetation habitats        | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ May require removal of some vegetation depending on specific location; likely few impacts to existing wildlife and vegetation habitats</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Areas disturbed during construction will be restored</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ May require removal of some vegetation depending on specific location</li><li>▪ May present phosphorus issues if not properly designed and/or maintained</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Planted bioswales will enhance neighbourhoods with additional vegetated areas</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Existing vegetation in the work area will be cleared</li><li>▪ All affected areas will be restored</li><li>▪ Results in a net neutral effect to terrestrial habitat</li><li>▪ Reduction of temperature released into the downstream cool-water watercourse will improve the native aquatic habitat</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Appropriate erosion and sediment control measures will be undertaken during construction to reduce any negative impacts to the downstream watercourse</li><li>▪ Restoration plans will be developed for surrounding areas impacted by construction</li><li>▪ Conceptual design will minimize the impact on existing trees</li></ul> |
| Impacts / improvements based on SAR / ESA          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Perforated pipes (exfiltration pipes) may decrease water temperature, providing benefits to the identified SAR</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Perforated pipes (exfiltration pipes) and soakaway pits may be more suited as supplementary water temperature control measures</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Bioswales may decrease water temperature, providing benefits to the identified SAR</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Bioswales may be more suited as supplementary water temperature control measures</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ There are opportunities to improve the habitat quality of the receiving watercourse by reducing the temperature of flows entering the watercourse</li><li>▪ Cooling effects are very beneficial for Redside Dace habitat</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Further consultation with the MNR regarding additional SAR will occur prior to the detailed design of the retrofit</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |

| Criteria                                                                    | Alternatives for Pond #73                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|                                                                             | Infiltration in Right-of-Ways (R.O.W.)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | Bioswales                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | Cooling Trench                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
| Summary / Recommendations                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Perforated pipes (exfiltration pipes) and soakaway pits present few impact on the natural environment</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Bioswales which are properly designed to avoid phosphorus loading provide positive impact on the natural environment</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>A cooling trench at the pond outlet is a relatively simple alternative to mitigate temperatures impacts of the wet pond for the achievement of temperature control</li><li>Existing trees may be retained during construction</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                |
| Social Impacts                                                              |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
| Requirement of easements or purchase of private lands                       | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>To be constructed within municipal R.O.W.</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Not applicable</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>To be constructed within municipal R.O.W.</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Not applicable</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Not required</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Not applicable</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
| Impacts to public and private properties due to construction and operations | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Impacts may include temporary, minor traffic and noise issues due to construction within the residential streets</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Appropriate construction and traffic management schedule to be adhered to</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                           | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Impacts may include temporary, minor traffic and noise issues due to construction within the residential streets</li><li>Bioswales are likely to face public opposition due to the maintenance requirements, visual disruption to an otherwise “clean” front lawn and inconvenience of culverts under driveways</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Appropriate construction and traffic management schedule to be adhered to</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Noise and visual impacts associated with construction for the residences and adjacent recreational park</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Construction management plan, including restrictions on hours may reduce inconveniences associated with construction</li></ul>                                                             |
| Effect on public safety                                                     | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No public safety concerns beyond construction period</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Proper signage and safety measures to be set up for construction period</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No public safety concerns beyond construction period</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Proper signage and safety measures to be set up for construction period</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>The cooling trench will not have any affects on public safety once constructed</li><li>During construction there is a potential safety risk due to the connecting public path</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>The construction site should be secured during and after construction hours with warning signs and fencing</li></ul> |
| Summary / Recommendations                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Impacts are minor and mostly temporary, within the construction period</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Impacts during construction are temporary and mostly minor</li><li>Long term impacts on residents due to visual impacts and culvert maintenance may be significant</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No long term social impacts associated with the cooling trench</li><li>Minimal disturbance to the public may occur during construction but the construction time frame will be brief</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| Economic Considerations                                                     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
| Capital costs                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Moderate to high capital cost related to new pipe infrastructure, earthworks and plantings, as well as likely relocation of existing pipe infrastructure</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Proficient SUE investigation prior to design work can minimize unexpected existing pipe/utility interferences</li></ul>                                                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Moderate to high capital cost related to new pipe infrastructure, earthworks and plantings, as well as likely relocation of existing pipe infrastructure</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Proficient SUE investigation prior to design work can minimize unexpected existing pipe/utility interferences</li></ul>                                                                                                                    | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Low capital cost for a relatively small excavation and materials</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Capital costs can be marginally reduced if stormwater is pre-treated with LIDs throughout the watershed (thus scaling down required trench volume)</li></ul>                                                                      |
| Maintenance and operating costs                                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Moderate maintenance costs associated with unclogging perforated pipes</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Pre-treatment of stormwater with grassed filter strips can prevent some clogging of perforated pipes</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Low to moderate maintenance costs associated with replacing filter media, unclogging perforated pipes</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Pre-treatment of stormwater with grassed filter strips can prevent some clogging of perforated pipes</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Low maintenance cost associated with cleaning out the trench</li><li>Lower maintenance frequency; likely once per year, ideally not requiring access to railway lands</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Maintenance frequency should be as directed by operations manual</li></ul>                                                   |
| Impact on future development and growth                                     | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Retrofit R.O.W. with perforated pipes and soakaway pits may dictate R.O.W. standards for future development</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>On-site control requirements for any future intensification within the watershed would mitigate negative impacts on the LID</li></ul>                                                                                                                              | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Retrofit R.O.W. with bioswales may dictate R.O.W. standards for future development</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Bioswales can enhance the aesthetic appeal of a neighbourhood / development and provide an ‘added value’</li><li>On-site control requirements for any future intensification within the watershed would mitigate negative impacts on the LID</li></ul>                                                           | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No impacts</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Not applicable</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| Summary / Recommendations                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Perforated pipes and soakaway pits are a moderate to high capital cost for retrofit and require moderately complex maintenance</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Bioswales are a moderate to high capital cost for retrofit but may add value to a neighbourhood, depending on general public opinion</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>A cooling trench is a cost effective alternative to meet temperature criteria</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| Results of Alternative Evaluation                                           | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>This alternative is not preferred because infiltration in R.O.W.s cannot provide the required level of water quality and erosion control.</li><li>Another alternative would need to be implemented in conjunction with infiltration in R.O.W.s in order to meet SWM objectives, making this alternative economically inefficient.</li><li>The construction of infiltration pipes in R.O.W.s will create short term accessibility, visual and noise impacts on residents.</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>This alternative is not preferred because bioswales cannot provide the required level of water quality and erosion control.</li><li>Another alternative would need to be implemented in conjunction with bioswales in order to meet SWM objectives, making this alternative economically inefficient.</li><li>The construction and maintenance of bioswales will create short and long term accessibility and visual impacts on residents.</li></ul>                                                    | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>This alternative preferred because it is a minimally invasive best management practice for temperature control. A cooling trench is cost effective and requires minimal maintenance.</li><li>Construction can be designed such that it does not affect adult trees.</li></ul>                                                                                                                          |

| Table 1 –Evaluation of Conceptual Design Alternatives for Pond #77 (Offline Wet Pond) |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Criteria                                                                              | Alternatives for Pond #77                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
|                                                                                       | Do Nothing                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | Aquatic and Riparian Plantings at Facility                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | Underground Storage Tanks                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
| Alternative Description                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>The pond will continue to function as existing</li><li>Pond #77 is an offline existing wet pond with a 43.65 ha minor drainage area and a 49.41 ha major drainage area</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Plantings to increase density and area of vegetation cover surrounding facility and within facility to provide shade for cooling of detained water</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Installed in municipal owned lands including parks and the wetland land parcel</li><li>Underground storage tanks will capture and detain stormwater and release over an extended time period</li><li>Infiltration type underground tanks will allow for infiltration during detention period</li><li>May need water quality control prior to infiltrating (if infiltration is proposed)</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
| Location in Treatment Train                                                           | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | End of Pipe                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| Target SWM Objective(s)                                                               | None                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | Temperature Control                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| Technical Considerations                                                              |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| Constructability and accessibility                                                    | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Plantings need to be adaptable to the existing SWM pond</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Plantings enhance temperature control by providing shade</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Footprint may be large and depends on available soil conditions; constructability is moderate to complex due to space restrictions within the pond block</li><li>Requires re-organization of existing outfalls to feed into central underground tank(s) either prior to entering the pond or likely after</li><li>Based on soil mapping, the soil in the drainage area is not ideal for infiltration</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Tanks with infiltration capabilities provide additional benefits for temperature control</li><li>Site specific soil testing is required to confirm suitability of infiltration</li></ul> |
| Ability to meet stormwater management objective(s)                                    | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Does not provide for or meet the stormwater management objectives of the City and/or TRCA, for temperature control</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No mitigation undertaken</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Shade from plantings will reduce the temperature of stormwater at a facility</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Plantings are better used in conjunction with other cooling methods to achieve adequate temperature control</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                         | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Underground tanks, especially with infiltration capabilities, may be effective for providing temperature control</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Depth below grade can enhance temperature control</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
| Engineering best practises / Innovative solution                                      | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Temperature control of stormwater in general is becoming an engineering best management practice in areas with sensitive habitats</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Effects of plantings can be enhanced with other methods such as use of a bottom draw outlet</li></ul>                                                                                                                    | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Underground tanks, including infiltration, are noted as best management practices</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Maintenance of underground tanks is more extensive than at-grade alternatives</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
| Summary / Recommendations                                                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Does not provide for or meet the stormwater management objectives of the City and/or TRCA, for temperature control</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Plantings at stormwater management facility are a simple alternative to provide additional temperature controls</li><li>New plantings need to be adaptable to the existing SWM pond</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Technically feasible, requiring more intrusive maintenance</li><li>Constructability within existing terrain is moderate to complex due to terrain and limited space within the pond block and easement</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
| Natural Environment                                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| Impacts to wildlife and vegetation habitats                                           | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>The current condition of wildlife and vegetation habitats will not change; however if the lack of temperature control causes future increase of temperature in the receiving watercourse, this could have a negative impact on the future condition of aquatic habitat and wildlife downstream</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No mitigation undertaken</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Planting native species can enhance the existing wildlife and vegetation</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No mitigation undertaken</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Would require removal of some vegetation depending on specific location</li><li>Once installed, less intrusive than other alternatives because of location below grade</li><li>May reduce terrestrial habitat</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Restoration plan required if loss of vegetation expected due to construction</li><li>Migratory bird windows to be adhered to for construction</li><li>Conceptual design will minimize the impact on existing trees</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                    |
| Impacts / Improvements based on SAR / ESA                                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Existing vegetation provides some benefit to reducing water temperature</li><li>By not implementing temperature controls, receiving waters may have higher temperatures over time and this can negatively impact sensitive species such as Redside Dace</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No mitigation undertaken</li></ul>                                        | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Providing additional shade at stormwater facilities reduces stormwater temperature which is a key benefit for SAR habitat</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Effects of plantings can be enhanced with other methods such as use of a bottom draw outlet</li><li>Further consultation with the MNR regarding additional SAR will occur prior to the detailed design of the retrofit</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Underground tanks may decrease water temperature, providing benefits to the identified SAR</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Further consultation with the MNR regarding additional SAR will occur prior to the detailed design of the retrofit</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
| Summary / Recommendations                                                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Existing vegetation of wetland provides some benefit regarding thermal regulation</li><li>Increasing water temperatures decrease water quality and affect the health of aquatic species</li><li>Existing aquatic and terrestrial vegetation in the pond block provide habitat area and will remain in the current condition</li></ul>                                                                                                 | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Plantings at stormwater facilities provide positive impacts on the natural environment (provided they are non-invasive species)</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Underground tanks are a long-term non-invasive alternative for providing erosion and temperature control</li><li>Existing trees may be retained during conceptual design</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |

| Criteria                                                                    | Alternatives for Pond #77                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|                                                                             | Do Nothing                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | Aquatic and Riparian Plantings at Facility                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | Underground Storage Tanks                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
| Social Impacts                                                              |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |
| Requirement of easements or purchase of private lands                       | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Not applicable (unless required in conjunction with stormwater facility construction)</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Not applicable</li> </ul>                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Adequate space is likely for an underground tank; however is space is tight, acquisition of additional lands is not a preferred option</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Not required</li> </ul>                                                                                 |
| Impacts to public and private properties due to construction and operations | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>No impacts to public</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Not applicable</li> </ul>                                                                                                    | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Construction anticipated within easement lands; impacts may include temporary, minor traffic and noise issues due to proximity to residential neighbourhood</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Proper signage and safety measures to be set up for construction period</li> </ul> |
| Effect on public safety                                                     | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Vegetation should be suitable for proposed facility and clearly indicate any water’s edge</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Vegetation at facilities must be maintained</li> </ul>  | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>No public safety concerns beyond construction period</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Proper signage and safety measures to be set up for construction period</li> </ul>                                                                                                        |
| Summary / Recommendations                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>The ‘Do Nothing’ alternative has no social impacts</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>No significant social impacts of plantings at stormwater facilities</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Underground tanks are proposed to be located in public lands, generally not intrusive to the public during or after construction</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                          |
| Economic Considerations                                                     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |
| Capital costs                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>No action may result in greater capital expenses in the future regarding habitat protection</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Not applicable</li> </ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Low capital cost relative to other alternatives</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Costs may vary depending on extents and types of plantings</li> </ul>                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Moderate capital cost related to storage tank infrastructure</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Efficient tank design to minimize capital costs</li> <li>Adequate soils and extend of earthworks will affect capital cost</li> </ul>                                              |
| Maintenance and operating costs                                             | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Low maintenance costs with native, sustainable plantings</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Lower maintenance plants will minimize costs of maintenance and/or replanting</li> </ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Low maintenance costs associated with cleaning out tanks as per operations manual or in event of clogging</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Can prevent clogging with additional pre-treatment techniques</li> </ul>                                                             |
| Impact on future development and growth                                     | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>No impact on future development</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Not applicable</li> </ul>                                                                                         | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>No impact, but underground tanks would likely require expansion if contributing land use was to intensify</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Additional LIDs in the watershed may mitigate further expansion</li> </ul>                                                           |
| Summary / Recommendations                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>‘Do nothing’ may postpone required works and increase future costs</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Plantings at SWM facilities are a low cost alternative for providing temperature control</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                     | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Underground tanks can provide moderate capital and maintenance costs for the achievement of temperature control</li> <li>Capital costs can fluctuate based on actual conditions at the specific location chosen at conceptual design</li> </ul>                                                                                                      |
| Results of Alternative Evaluation                                           | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>This alternative is not preferred because the alternative does not meet the stormwater management objectives</li> </ul>                                                                                                     | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>This alternative is preferred because it will improve/maintain existing habitat and vegetation</li> <li>This alternative provides temperature control at a relatively low capital cost.</li> </ul>                                                      | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>This is not a preferred alternative because it is a more costly option and will create more disturbance than the preferred alternatives</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                   |

| Criteria                                           | Alternatives for Pond #77                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
|----------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|                                                    | Infiltration in Right-of-Ways (R.O.W.)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | Bioswales                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | Cooling Trench                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| Alternative Description                            | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Install perforated secondary pipe within existing storm sewer systems to allow for infiltration through linear soakaway pits</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Construct bioswales within the road right-of-ways within the facility drainage area</li><li>Bioswales to contain native plantings and subdrains</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Excavation of a trench between the pond control structure maintenance hole and the outlet</li><li>Modification of outlet piping infrastructure to discharge into trench</li><li>Installation of stone material and restoration of ground surface</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
| Location in Treatment Train                        | Conveyance                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | End of Pipe                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
| Target SWM Objective(s)                            | Temperature Control                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
| Technical Considerations                           |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
| Constructability and accessibility                 | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Construction area is extensive and many secondary infiltration pipes would require to be installed to achieve SWM criteria</li><li>Requires coordination with existing infrastructure and utilities</li><li>Based on soil mapping, the soil in the drainage area is not ideal for infiltration</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Perforated pipes (exfiltration pipes) and soakaway pits may be more suited as supplementary water quality / erosion / temperature control measures, where constructability and retrofit are least disruptive to existing infrastructure</li><li>Site specific soil testing is required to confirm suitability of infiltration</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Construction area is extensive and pipe networks are more intricate, requiring coordination with existing infrastructure</li><li>Road right of ways need to be conducive to grading and space criteria for bioswales</li><li>Based on soil mapping, the soil in the drainage area is not ideal for infiltration</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Bioswales may be more suited as supplementary water quality / erosion / temperature control measures, where constructability and retrofit are least disruptive to existing infrastructure</li><li>Site specific soil testing is required to confirm suitability of infiltration</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Feasible construction; accessibility is moderate, between golf course and homes</li><li>Construction footprint is relatively small</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Erosion and sediment control plans required</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| Ability to meet stormwater management objective(s) | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Perforated pipes (exfiltration pipes) and soakaway pits may are more effective when used within a treatment train to achieve the stormwater objectives</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Additional pre-treatment will enhance the function of the perforated pipes, to reduce clogging</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Bioswales are more effective when used within a treatment train to achieve the stormwater objectives</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Additional pre-treatment will enhance the function of bioswales, to reduce clogging of the underdrain pipes</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Cooling trenches can be effective in decreasing the temperature of the outlet water</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Thermal mitigation would be best achieved with a combination of LID methods</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
| Engineering best practises / innovative solution   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Perforated pipes (exfiltration pipes) and soakaway pits may are innovative solutions within stormwater management</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Enhanced with further use of LIDs such as vegetated filter strips</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Bioswales are innovative solutions within stormwater management conveyance systems</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Enhanced with further use of LIDs such as vegetated filter strips</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Cooling trenches are a recent best management practice</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Thermal mitigation can be enhanced overall with LIDs within the contributing watershed</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
| Summary / Recommendations                          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Perforated pipes (exfiltration pipes) and soakaway pits may are effective as part of a treatment train and where retrofit does not greatly interfere with existing infrastructure</li><li>Due to the poor infiltration in the soil, Infiltration in the R.O.W. is not a preferred option.</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Bioswales are effective as part of a treatment train and where retrofit does not greatly interfere with existing infrastructure</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Technically feasible with a small construction footprint</li><li>A cooling trench would help with mitigating the temperature impacts of the SWM pond</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
| Natural Environment                                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
| Impacts to wildlife and vegetation habitats        | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>May require removal of some vegetation depending on specific location; likely few impacts to existing wildlife and vegetation habitats</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Areas disturbed during construction will be restored</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>May require removal of some vegetation depending on specific location</li><li>May present phosphorus issues if not properly designed and/or maintained</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Planted bioswales will enhance neighbourhoods with additional vegetated areas</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Existing vegetation in the work area will be cleared</li><li>All affected areas will be restored</li><li>Results in a net neutral effect to terrestrial habitat</li><li>Reduction of temperature released into the downstream cool-water watercourse will improve the native aquatic habitat</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Appropriate erosion and sediment control measures will be undertaken during construction to reduce any negative impacts to the downstream watercourse</li><li>Restoration plans will be developed for surrounding areas impacted by construction</li></ul> |
| Impacts / improvements based on SAR / ESA          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Perforated pipes (exfiltration pipes) may decrease water temperature, providing benefits to the identified SAR</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Perforated pipes (exfiltration pipes) and soakaway pits may be more suited as supplementary water temperature control measures</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Bioswales may decrease water temperature, providing benefits to the identified SAR</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Bioswales may be more suited as supplementary water temperature control measures</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>There are opportunities to improve the habitat quality of the receiving watercourse by reducing the temperature of flows entering the watercourse</li><li>Cooling effects are very beneficial for Redside Dace habitat</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Further consultation with the MNR regarding additional SAR will occur prior to the detailed design of the retrofit</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
| Summary / Recommendations                          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Perforated pipes (exfiltration pipes) and soakaway pits present few impact on the</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Bioswales which are properly designed to avoid phosphorus loading provide positive impact on</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>A cooling trench at the pond outlet is a relatively simple alternative to mitigate</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |

| Criteria                                                                    | Alternatives for Pond #77                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|                                                                             | Infiltration in Right-of-Ways (R.O.W.)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | Bioswales                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | Cooling Trench                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
|                                                                             | natural environment                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      | the natural environment                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | temperatures impacts of the wet pond for the achievement of temperature control                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
| Social Impacts                                                              |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
| Requirement of easements or purchase of private lands                       | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>To be constructed within municipal R.O.W.</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Not applicable</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>To be constructed within municipal R.O.W.</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Not applicable</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Not required</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Not applicable</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
| Impacts to public and private properties due to construction and operations | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Impacts may include temporary, minor traffic and noise issues due to construction within the residential streets</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Appropriate construction and traffic management schedule to be adhered to</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                           | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Impacts may include temporary, minor traffic and noise issues due to construction within the residential streets</li><li>Bioswales are likely to face public opposition due to the maintenance requirements, visual disruption to an otherwise “clean” front lawn and inconvenience of culverts under driveways</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Appropriate construction and traffic management schedule to be adhered to</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Noise and visual impacts associated with construction for the residences and golf course backing onto proposed SWM facility block</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Construction management plan, including restrictions on hours may reduce inconveniences associated with construction</li></ul>                                                                   |
| Effect on public safety                                                     | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No public safety concerns beyond construction period</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Proper signage and safety measures to be set up for construction period</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No public safety concerns beyond construction period</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Proper signage and safety measures to be set up for construction period</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>The cooling trench will not have any affects on public safety once constructed</li><li>During construction there is a potential safety risk due to excavation if a member of the public was to enter the site</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>The construction site should be secured during and after construction hours with warning signs and fencing</li></ul> |
| Summary / Recommendations                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Impacts are minor and mostly temporary, within the construction period</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Impacts during construction are temporary and mostly minor</li><li>Long term impacts on residents due to visual impacts and culvert maintenance may be significant</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No long term social impacts associated with the cooling trench</li><li>Minimal disturbance to the public may occur during construction but the construction time frame will be brief</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| Economic Considerations                                                     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
| Capital costs                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Moderate to high capital cost related to new pipe infrastructure, earthworks and plantings, as well as likely relocation of existing pipe infrastructure</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Proficient SUE investigation prior to design work can minimize unexpected existing pipe/utility interferences</li></ul>                                                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Moderate to high capital cost related to new pipe infrastructure, earthworks and plantings, as well as likely relocation of existing pipe infrastructure</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Proficient SUE investigation prior to design work can minimize unexpected existing pipe/utility interferences</li></ul>                                                                                                                    | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Low capital cost for a relatively small excavation and materials</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Capital costs can be marginally reduced if stormwater is pre-treated with LIDs throughout the watershed (thus scaling down required trench volume)</li></ul>                                                                                                      |
| Maintenance and operating costs                                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Moderate maintenance costs associated with unclogging perforated pipes</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Pre-treatment of stormwater with grassed filter strips can prevent some clogging of perforated pipes</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Low to moderate maintenance costs associated with replacing filter media, unclogging perforated pipes</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Pre-treatment of stormwater with grassed filter strips can prevent some clogging of perforated pipes</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Low maintenance cost associated with cleaning out the trench</li><li>Lower maintenance frequency; likely once per year, ideally not requiring access to railway lands</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Maintenance frequency should be as directed by operations manual</li></ul>                                                                                   |
| Impact on future development and growth                                     | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Retrofit R.O.W. with perforated pipes and soakaway pits may dictate R.O.W. standards for future development</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>On-site control requirements for any future intensification within the watershed would mitigate negative impacts on the LID</li></ul>                                                                                                                              | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Retrofit R.O.W. with bioswales may dictate R.O.W. standards for future development</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Bioswales can enhance the aesthetic appeal of a neighbourhood / development and provide an ‘added value’</li><li>On-site control requirements for any future intensification within the watershed would mitigate negative impacts on the LID</li></ul>                                                           | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No impacts</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Not applicable</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| Summary / Recommendations                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Perforated pipes and soakaway pits are a moderate to high capital cost for retrofit and require moderately complex maintenance</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Bioswales are a moderate to high capital cost for retrofit but may add value to a neighbourhood, depending on general public opinion</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>A cooling trench is a cost effective alternative to meet temperature criteria</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| Results of Alternative Evaluation                                           | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>This alternative is not preferred because infiltration in R.O.W.s cannot provide the required level of water quality and erosion control.</li><li>Another alternative would need to be implemented in conjunction with infiltration in R.O.W.s in order to meet SWM objectives, making this alternative economically inefficient.</li><li>The construction of infiltration pipes in R.O.W.s will create short term accessibility, visual and noise impacts on residents.</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>This alternative is not preferred because bioswales cannot provide the required level of water quality and erosion control.</li><li>Another alternative would need to be implemented in conjunction with bioswales in order to meet SWM objectives, making this alternative economically inefficient.</li><li>The construction and maintenance of bioswales will create short and long term accessibility and visual impacts on residents.</li></ul>                                                    | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>This alternative is preferred because it is a minimally invasive best management practice for temperature control. A cooling trench is cost effective and requires minimal maintenance.</li><li>Construction can be designed such that it does not affect adult trees and can be restored such that recreational park land is available.</li></ul>                                                                                     |

| Table 1 -Evaluation of Conceptual Design Alternatives for Uncontrolled Outlet #8 (Uncontrolled Area) |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Criteria                                                                                             | Alternatives for Uncontrolled Outlet #8                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
|                                                                                                      | Do Nothing                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | Oil-Grit Separators (OGS)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | Construct Water Quality Control Pond                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| Alternative Description                                                                              | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Stormwater runoff from the 10.0 ha minor drainage area will continue to be released into the receiving watercourse uncontrolled</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>One (1) unit connected to the minor system prior to final control and outfall</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Loss of current land use including clearing of vegetation</li><li>Significant earthworks operations</li><li>Remove and replace section of sewer and outlet infrastructure</li><li>Provision of wet habitat area adjacent to receiving watercourse</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |
| Location in Treatment Train                                                                          | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      | End of Pipe                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
| Target SWM Objective(s)                                                                              | None                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | Quality Control                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
| Technical Considerations                                                                             |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
| Constructability and accessibility                                                                   | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Location is accessible as OGS unit could be installed upstream of the outfall at a manhole within the municipal roadway; construction area is relatively small</li><li>Construction considerations include traffic interruptions and short term road closures</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Traffic management plans may reduce inconveniences associated with construction</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Site is accessible</li><li>Existing changes in elevation adjacent to the residential area could be incorporated as a pond berm</li><li>There is limited space available to create staging area near the construction area. If necessary, it may be placed inside of the construction area.</li><li>Cannot build new facility in available land as it is not in accordance with TRCA policy</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>The easement along Highway 7 may be used as a construction staging area, if required</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |
| Ability to meet stormwater management objective(s)                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Does not provide for or meet the stormwater management objectives of the City and/or TRCA, for water quality, erosion or quantity control</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No mitigation undertaken</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>OGS units may be able to provide all required stormwater quality objectives</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Pre-treatment of stormwater runoff with LIDs will enhance the performance of the OGS</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                              | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>A wet pond facility would be capable of fully meeting the requirements for quality control</li><li>Cannot build new facility in available land as it is not in accordance with TRCA policy</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>A wet pond facility for quality control could be constructed to include erosion control volumes as well within a single footprint reducing disturbance to nearby landowners</li><li>Quality control can be enhanced with LIDs that infiltrate runoff within the drainage area</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
| Engineering best practises / innovative solution                                                     | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>OGS and similar units are noted as best management practices</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Pre-treatment of stormwater runoff with LIDs will enhance the performance of the OGS</li><li>Filtration cartridge options may be used rather than traditional OGS to target more specific pollutants</li></ul>                                                                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Typically more traditional SWM approach</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Quality control can be enhanced with LIDs that infiltrate runoff within the drainage area</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
| Summary / Recommendations                                                                            | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Does not provide for or meet the stormwater management objectives of the City and/or TRCA, for water quality, erosion or quantity control</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>OGS can be effective, low-space option to provide water quality control</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Technically feasible</li><li>Cannot build new facility in available land as it is not in accordance with TRCA policy</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| Natural Environment                                                                                  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
| Impacts to wildlife and vegetation habitats                                                          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>The current condition of wildlife and vegetation habitats will not change; however if the release of uncontrolled stormwater into the receiving watercourse causes future erosion in the watercourse or impacts the quality of the water in the watercourse, this could have a negative impact on the future condition of wildlife and vegetation habitats.</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No mitigation undertaken</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>OGS does not physically interfere with the existing outlet or impact the surrounding forested area and improves water quality prior to discharge to the watercourse</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No mitigation required</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                    | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Some of existing vegetation will be cleared, which includes adult trees</li><li>Results in a loss of terrestrial habitat but a gain in aquatic habitat for migrating birds and terrestrial animals</li><li>There are opportunities to improve the habitat quality of the receiving watercourse by reducing the sediment loading and potential contaminate exposure of the receiving watercourse</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Restoration plans will be developed to restore the surrounding areas impacted by construction</li><li>Riparian and aquatic vegetation can be planted on the berms and within the wet pond facility which will also aid in reducing the temperature impacts of the surface detention of runoff</li><li>Stringent construction practices can be implemented to reduce the possibility of introducing invasive species to the ecosystem during construction</li></ul> |
| Impacts / improvements based on SAR / ESA                                                            | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Existing vegetation provides some benefit to reducing water temperature</li><li>By not implementing temperature controls, receiving waters may have higher temperatures over time and this can negatively impact sensitive species such as</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Meeting water quality criteria will improve water quality of downstream receiving waters</li><li>Little to no effect on temperature mitigation</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Use of OGS can be enhanced with pre-</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                           | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>There are opportunities to improve the habitat quality of the receiving watercourse by reducing the sediment loading of the watercourse</li><li>The receiving watercourse has been identified as Redside Dace habitat</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |

| Criteria                                                                           | Alternatives for Uncontrolled Outlet #8                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|                                                                                    | Do Nothing                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | Oil-Grit Separators (OGS)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | Construct Water Quality Control Pond                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
|                                                                                    | Redside DaceMitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No mitigation undertaken</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | treatment using LIDs throughout minor system watershed                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Wet ponds can provide reduction of stormwater temperature with the inclusion of a bottom draw outlet and shading from vegetation</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Further consultation with the MNR regarding additional SAR will occur prior to the detailed design of the retrofit</li><li>Stringent construction practices can be implemented to reduce the possibility of introducing invasive species to the ecosystem during construction</li></ul> |
| Summary / Recommendations                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Existing vegetation of wetland provides some benefit regarding thermal regulation</li><li>Increasing water temperatures decrease water quality and affect the health of aquatic species</li><li>Existing aquatic and terrestrial vegetation in the pond block provide habitat area and will remain in the current condition</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>OGS offers improvements to water quality</li><li>Used in conjunction with LIDs, OGS can improve water conditions for SAR</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>A wet pond can be beneficial to downstream receiving waters but will alter any existing habitat within the construction area</li><li>Tree loss is probable within the site</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| Social Impacts                                                                     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| Requirement of easements or purchase of private lands                       | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Not required; preference to install and maintain OGS within municipal R.O.W., where maintenance is easily accessible</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Not applicable</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                         | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Cannot build new facility in available land as it is not in accordance with TRCA policy</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Land requirements would be confirmed through conceptual design</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| Impacts to public and private properties due to construction and operations | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Roadway interference and/or short-term closure would be expected for the installation of OGS units</li><li>Temporary interference to be expected on roadways during maintenance (approximately once a year)</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Traffic management plans may reduce inconveniences associated with construction</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Noise and visual impacts associated with construction for the residences backing onto proposed SWM facility block</li><li>A construction staging area may need to be set up within the existing Highway 7 easement to avoid disturbance to residential area</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Construction management plan, including restrictions on hours</li></ul>                                                                                      |
| Effect on public safety                                                     | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Installed OGS does not pose threats to public safety</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No mitigation undertaken</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>By building to the required side slope and depth criteria, the wet pond facility should not pose a threat to public safety</li><li>There are no trails through this green space and public access is very limited, thereby reducing the exposure of public to the facility</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Flattened slopes, warning signs, and fencing (if required) can provide measures of safety</li></ul>                                           |
| Summary / Recommendations                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>The ‘Do Nothing’ alternative has no social impacts</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>OGS presents few and short-term impacts associated with installation and maintenance</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Construction of a wet pond facility would be a longer-term construction project with potential noise, traffic and visual impacts</li><li>New facility in available land not feasible as it is not in accordance with TRCA policy</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
| Economic Considerations                                                            |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| Capital costs                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No action may result in greater capital expenses in the future</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Not applicable</li></ul>                                                                                                                                           | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Relatively low capital cost for installation of one (1) unit and associated infrastructure works</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Capital cost of OGS units can be reduced if stormwater is pre-treated with LIDs (thus scaling down required OGS size)</li></ul>                                                                      | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Moderate capital cost for earthworks, grading, infrastructure components and permits</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Capital costs can be marginally reduced if stormwater is pre-treated with LIDs throughout the watershed (thus scaling down required quality control volumes and footprint)</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                |
| Maintenance and operating costs                                             | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Fairly low maintenance cost and frequency; approximately annually</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Maintenance frequency of OGS units should not decrease with increased pre-treatment</li></ul>                                                                                                                                       | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Low to moderate maintenance cost and frequency; likely seasonally</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Maintenance frequency should be as directed by operations manual</li><li>Maintenance frequency can be reduced if stormwater is pre-treated with LIDs throughout the watershed (thus scaling down required quality control volume)</li></ul>                                                                                                            |
| Impact on future development and growth                                     | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Size of OGS is static once installed and would require upgrading if a larger drainage area is directed to it (in order to meet water quality criteria)</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Additional OGS units may be installed in the future to correspond with growth</li></ul>                                                        | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No impact, but detention facility would require expansion if contributing land use was to intensify</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>On-site control requirements for any intensified development within the facility’s watershed would mitigate further expansion</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                              |
| Summary /                                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>‘Do nothing’ may postpone required works</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Installation of OGS units is a low to medium</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Construction of a wet pond facility would</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |

| Criteria                          | Alternatives for Uncontrolled Outlet #8                                                                                                                      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
|-----------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|                                   | Do Nothing                                                                                                                                                   | Oil-Grit Separators (OGS)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | Construct Water Quality Control Pond                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
| Recommendations                   | and increase future costs                                                                                                                                    | cost solution for achievement of most of the required SWM criteria                                                                                                                                                                                              | present moderate capital costs for achievement of quality control                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| Results of Alternative Evaluation | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>This alternative is not preferred because the alternative does not meet the stormwater management objectives</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>This is a preferred alternative due to the lower cost, small disturbance area and ability to provide full quality control</li><li>This alternative can be implemented with little to no loss of existing trees.</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Retaining existing trees is a high priority for the City of Markham, however tree loss is probable for construction of this alternative.</li><li>Cannot build new facility in available land as it is not in accordance with TRCA policy. Therefore, this is not a preferred option.</li></ul> |

| Criteria                                           | Alternatives for Uncontrolled Outlet #8                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
|----------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|                                                    | Bottom Draw Outlet in a Wet Pond                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | Construct Extended Detention Facility                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | Underground Storage                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
| Alternative Description                            | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Construct a bottom draw outlet to reduce temperatures of discharged water.</li><li>Only applicable if the wetland is converted into a wet pond</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Significant earthworks</li><li>Remove and replace section of existing sewer and outlet infrastructure</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Installed at pond block location</li><li>Underground storage tanks will capture and detain stormwater and release over an extended time period</li><li>Infiltration type underground tanks will allow for infiltration during detention period</li><li>May need water quality control prior to infiltrating (if proposed)</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
| Location in Treatment Train                        | End of Pipe                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
| Target SWM Objectives                              | Temperature Control                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | Erosion Control                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | Erosion and Temperature Control                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
| Technical Considerations                           |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
| Constructability and accessibility                 | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Constructability is simple, pending adequate depth of the wet pond</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Greater depth enhances the thermal mitigation function of the bottom draw outlet</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Site is accessible</li><li>Existing changes in elevation adjacent to the residential area could be incorporated as a pond berm</li><li>Site area may be tight to incorporate construction staging area</li><li>Cannot build new facility in available land as it is not in accordance with TRCA policy.</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>The easement along Highway 7 may be used as a construction staging area, if required</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Footprint may be large but is constructible within municipally owned lands; constructability is low to moderate</li><li>Still allows for use of land at-grade</li><li>May require re-organization of existing outlets to feed into central underground tanks</li><li>Based on soil mapping, the soil in the western and central area of the drainage area is not ideal for infiltration. Soil in the eastern section of the drainage area and the pond block is conducive to infiltration.</li><li>Cannot build new facility in available land as it is not in accordance with TRCA policy.</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Tanks with infiltration capabilities provide additional benefits to erosion and temperature control</li><li>Constructability would likely be increased by incorporating several underground tanks rather than one central system</li></ul> |
| Ability to meet stormwater management objective(s) | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Bottom draw outlets can be effective in decreasing the temperature of the outlet water</li><li>Temperature mitigation not needed as stormwater is not stored, which would cause warming.</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Thermal mitigation would be best achieved with a combination of LID methods</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>An extended detention facility would be capable of fully meeting the requirements for erosion control detention</li><li>Cannot build new facility in available land as it is not in accordance with TRCA policy.</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>An extended detention facility for erosion control could be sized to provide quality and erosion control within a single pond block reducing construction footprints and disturbance to nearby landowners</li><li>Erosion control can be enhanced with LIDs that detain and/or infiltrate runoff within the drainage area</li><li>Extended detention facilities could be enhanced with outlets which consider thermal mitigation techniques, to improve water quality of the diverted flows</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Underground tanks, especially with infiltration capabilities, are effective for providing quality and erosion control</li><li>Cannot build new facility in available land as it is not in accordance with TRCA policy.</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Longer detention times can enhance the erosion control</li><li>Infiltration type underground tanks will allow for infiltration during detention period</li><li>May need water quality control prior to infiltrating (if proposed)</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
| Engineering best practises / innovative solution   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Bottom draw outlets in combination with cooling trenches are recent best management practices</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Thermal mitigation can be enhanced overall with LIDs within the contributing watershed</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Typically more traditional SWM approach</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Erosion control can be enhanced with LIDs that detain and/or infiltrate runoff within the drainage area</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Underground tanks, including infiltration, are noted as best management practices</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Maintenance of underground tanks is more extensive than at-grade alternatives</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
| Summary / Recommendations                          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Temperature mitigation not needed as stormwater is not stored, which would cause warming.</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Technically feasible</li><li>Cannot build new facility in available land as it is not in accordance with TRCA policy.</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Technically feasible, requiring more intrusive maintenance</li><li>Cannot build new facility in available land as it is not in accordance with TRCA policy.</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
| Natural Environment                                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
| Impacts to wildlife and vegetation habitats        | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Existing vegetation in the work area will be cleared</li><li>All affected areas will be restored and can be planted to replace removed vegetation</li><li>Results in a net neutral effect to terrestrial habitat</li><li>Reduction of temperature released into the downstream cool-water watercourse will improve the native aquatic habitat</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Appropriate erosion and sediment control measures will be undertaken during construction to reduce any negative impacts to the downstream watercourse</li><li>Restoration plans will be developed to</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Existing vegetation in the work area will be cleared</li><li>Results in a loss of terrestrial habitat</li><li>There are opportunities to improve the habitat quality of the receiving watercourse by reducing the peak flows entering the watercourse and thereby reducing erosion</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Restoration plans will be developed to restore the surrounding areas impacted by construction</li><li>Vegetation can be planted on the berms of the extended detention facility which will also aid in reducing the temperature impacts of the surface detention of runoff</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>May require removal of some vegetation depending on specific location</li><li>Once installed, less intrusive than other alternatives because of location below grade</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Restoration plan required if loss of vegetation expected due to construction</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |

| Criteria                                                                    | Alternatives for Uncontrolled Outlet #8                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|                                                                             | Bottom Draw Outlet in a Wet Pond                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | Construct Extended Detention Facility                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          | Underground Storage                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
|                                                                             | restore the surrounding areas impacted by construction                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Stringent construction practices can be implemented to reduce the possibility of introducing invasive species to the ecosystem during construction</li> <li>Construction site will be designed to minimize vegetation and habitat loss, and avoid the clearing of adult trees</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
| Impacts / improvements based on SAR / ESA                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>There are opportunities to improve the habitat quality of the receiving watercourse by reducing the temperature of flows entering the watercourse</li> <li>Cooling effects are very beneficial for Redside Dace habitat</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Effects on fish could be mitigated with appropriate screens and outflow velocities</li> <li>Further consultation with the MNR regarding additional SAR will occur prior to the detailed design of the retrofit</li> </ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>There are opportunities to improve the habitat quality of the receiving watercourse by reducing the erosion and thereby sediment loading of the receiving watercourse</li> <li>The receiving watercourse has been identified to be Redside Dace habitat</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Further consultation with the MNR regarding additional SAR will occur prior to the detailed design of the retrofit</li> <li>Stringent construction practices can be implemented to reduce the possibility of introducing invasive species to the ecosystem during construction</li> </ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Underground tanks may improve the habitat quality of the receiving watercourse by reducing the erosion and thereby sediment loading of the receiving watercourse</li> <li>The receiving watercourse has been identified to be Redside Dace habitat</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Further consultation with the MNR regarding additional SAR will occur prior to the detailed design of the retrofit</li> <li>Stringent construction practices can be implemented to reduce the possibility of introducing invasive species to the ecosystem during construction</li> </ul> |
| Summary / Recommendations                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>A cooling trench at the pond outlet is a relatively simple alternative to mitigate temperatures impacts of the wet pond for the achievement of temperature control</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>An extended detention facility can be beneficial to downstream receiving waters but will alter any existing habitat within the construction area</li> <li>Adult trees may be retained</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Underground tanks are a long-term non-invasive alternative for providing quality and erosion control</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| Social Impacts                                                              |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
| Requirement of easements or purchase of private lands                       | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Sufficient space is available within the pond block</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Not applicable</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Likely not required for the construction and maintenance of an extended detention facility for UC #8</li> <li>Cannot build new facility in available land as it is not in accordance with TRCA policy.</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Land requirements would be confirmed through conceptual design</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Likely not required for the construction and maintenance of an underground storage tank facility for UC #8</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Land requirements would be confirmed through conceptual design</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| Impacts to public and private properties due to construction and operations | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Noise and visual impacts associated with construction for the residences backing onto proposed SWM facility block</li> <li>A construction staging area may need to be set up within the existing Highway 7 easement to avoid impacts to residential properties during construction</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Construction management plan, including restrictions on hours may reduce inconveniences associated with construction</li> </ul>                                | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Noise and visual impacts associated with construction for the residences backing onto proposed SWM facility block</li> <li>A construction staging area may need to be set up within the existing Highway 7 easement to avoid impacts to residential properties during construction</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Construction management plan, including restrictions on hours</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                       | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Noise and visual impacts associated with construction for the residences backing onto proposed SWM facility block</li> <li>A construction staging area may need to be set up within the existing Highway 7 easement to avoid impacts to residential properties during construction</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Construction management plan, including restrictions on hours</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                  |
| Effect on public safety                                                     | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>The bottom draw outlet will not impact public safety</li> <li>There are no trails through this green space and public access is very limited, thereby reducing the exposure of public to the facility</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>The construction site should be secured during and after construction hours with warning signs and fencing</li> </ul>                                                                                                                       | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>By building to the required side slope and depth criteria, the dry pond facility should not pose a threat to public safety</li> <li>There are no trails through this green space and public access is very limited, thereby reducing the exposure of public to the facility</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Adequate slopes, warning signs, and fencing (if required) can provide measures of safety</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>No public safety concerns beyond construction period</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Proper signage and safety measures to be set up for construction period</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
| Summary / Recommendations                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>There are no long term social impacts associated with the bottom draw outlet</li> <li>Minimal disturbance to the public may occur during construction but the construction time frame will be brief</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Construction of an extended detention facility would be a longer-term construction project with potential noise, traffic and visual impacts</li> <li>Cannot build new facility in available land as it is not in accordance with TRCA policy.</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Underground tanks are likely proposed to be located in the pond block; not intrusive to the public after construction</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
| Economic Considerations                                                     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
| Capital costs                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Low capital cost for a relatively small excavation and materials</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Bottom draw outlet cost not likely to fluctuate much pending other design decisions on this site</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Moderate capital cost for earthworks, grading, infrastructure components, permits</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Capital costs can be marginally reduced if stormwater is pre-treated with LIDs throughout the watershed (thus scaling down required detention volumes)</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Moderate capital cost related to storage tank infrastructure</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Efficient tank design to minimize capital costs</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
| Maintenance and operating costs                                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Low maintenance cost associated with cleaning out the bottom draw outlet if clogged</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Maintenance frequency should be as directed by operations manual</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Lower maintenance cost and frequency; likely every few years</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Maintenance frequency should be as directed by operations manual</li> <li>Maintenance frequency can be reduced by providing pre-treatment for sediment removal</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Low maintenance costs associated with cleaning out tanks as per operations manual or in event of clogging</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Can prevent clogging with additional pre-treatment techniques</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
| Impact on future development and growth                                     | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>No impacts; may required upgrade or adjustment if contributing watershed characteristics change</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>No impact, but extended detention facility would require expansion if contributing land use was to intensify</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>No impact, but underground tanks would require expansion if contributing land use was to intensify</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |

| Criteria                                 | Alternatives for Uncontrolled Outlet #8                                                                                                        |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
|------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|                                          | Bottom Draw Outlet in a Wet Pond                                                                                                               | Construct Extended Detention Facility                                                                                                                                                                                               | Underground Storage                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
|                                          | Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Not applicable</li></ul>                                                               | Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ On-site control requirements for any intensified development within the facility's watershed would mitigate further expansion</li></ul> | Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ On-site control requirements for any future intensification within the watershed would mitigate further expansion</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |
| Summary / Recommendations         | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ A bottom draw outlet is a cost effective alternative to meet temperature criteria</li></ul>            | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Construction of an extended detention facility would present moderate capital costs for achievement of quantity control</li></ul>                                                           | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Underground tanks provide moderate capital and maintenance costs for the achievement of quality and erosion control</li><li>▪ A larger footprint may be required with the use of this alternative</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
| Results of Alternative Evaluation | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ This alternative is not preferred because a wet pond is not a preferred option for this site</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Cannot build new facility in available land as it is not in accordance with TRCA policy. Therefore this is not a preferred alternative</li></ul>                                            | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ This is not a preferred alternative be cause constructing an underground storage tank is a more costly method to achieve quantity and erosion control when compared to constructing a pond.</li><li>▪ This alternative would have more constructability challenges than other alternatives that achieve the same SWM objectives.</li><li>▪ Cannot build new facility in available land as it is not in accordance with TRCA policy. Therefore this is not a preferred alternative</li></ul> |

| Criteria                                           | Alternatives for Uncontrolled Outlet #8                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |
|----------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|                                                    | Bioswales                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | Infiltration in Right-of-Ways (R.O.W.)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | Cooling Trench                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
| Alternative Description                            | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Construct bioswales within the road right-of-ways within the facility drainage area</li><li>Bioswales to contain native plantings and subdrains</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Install perforated secondary pipe within existing storm sewer systems to allow for infiltration through linear soakaway pits</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Excavation of a trench between the pond control structure maintenance hole and the outlet</li><li>Modification of outlet piping infrastructure to discharge into trench</li><li>Installation of stone material and restoration of ground surface</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |
| Location in Treatment Train                        | Conveyance                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              | End of Pipe                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
| Target SWM Objective(s)                            | Quality, Erosion and Temperature Control                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              | Temperature Control                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| Technical Considerations                           |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |
| Constructability and accessibility                 | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Construction area is extensive and pipe networks are more intricate, requiring coordination with existing infrastructure</li><li>Road right of ways need to be conducive to grading and space criteria for bioswales</li><li>Based on soil mapping, the soil in the western and central area of the drainage area is not ideal for infiltration. Soil in the eastern section of the drainage area and the pond block is conducive to infiltration.</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Bioswales may be more suited as supplementary water quality / erosion / temperature control measures, where constructability and retrofit are least disruptive to existing infrastructure</li><li>Site specific soil testing is required to confirm suitability of infiltration measures</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Construction area is extensive and many secondary infiltration pipes would require to be installed to achieve SWM criteria</li><li>Requires coordination with existing infrastructure and utilities</li><li>Based on soil mapping, the soil in the western and central area of the drainage area is not ideal for infiltration. Soil in the eastern section of the drainage area and the pond block is conducive to infiltration.</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Perforated pipes (exfiltration pipes) and soakaway pits may be more suited as supplementary water quality / erosion / temperature control measures, where constructability and retrofit are least disruptive to existing infrastructure</li><li>Site specific soil testing is required to confirm suitability of infiltration measures</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Feasible construction; site is accessible</li><li>Construction footprint is relatively small</li><li>Cannot build new facility in available land as it is not in accordance with TRCA policy.</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Erosion and sediment control plans required</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
| Ability to meet stormwater management objective(s) | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Bioswales are more effective when used within a treatment train to achieve the stormwater objectives</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Additional pre-treatment will enhance the function of bioswales, to reduce clogging of the underdrain pipes</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Perforated pipes (exfiltration pipes) and soakaway pits may are more effective when used within a treatment train to achieve the stormwater objectives</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Additional pre-treatment will enhance the function of the perforated pipes, to reduce clogging</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Cooling trenches can be effective in decreasing the temperature of the outlet water</li><li>Cannot build new facility in available land as it is not in accordance with TRCA policy.</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Thermal mitigation would be best achieved with a combination of LID methods</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
| Engineering best practises / innovative solution   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Bioswales are innovative solutions within stormwater management conveyance systems</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Enhanced with further use of LIDs such as vegetated filter strips</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Perforated pipes (exfiltration pipes) and soakaway pits may are innovative solutions within stormwater management</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Enhanced with further use of LIDs such as vegetated filter strips</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Cooling trenches are a recent best management practice</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Thermal mitigation can be enhanced overall with LIDs within the contributing watershed</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
| Summary / Recommendations                          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Bioswales are effective as part of a treatment train and where retrofit does not greatly interfere with existing infrastructure</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Perforated pipes (exfiltration pipes) and soakaway pits may are effective as part of a treatment train and where retrofit does not greatly interfere with existing infrastructure</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Technically feasible with a small construction footprint</li><li>Cannot build new facility in available land as it is not in accordance with TRCA policy.</li><li>A cooling trench would help with mitigating the temperature impacts of the SWM pond</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
| Natural Environment                                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |
| Impacts to wildlife and vegetation habitats        | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>May require removal of some vegetation depending on specific location</li><li>May present phosphorus issues if not properly designed and/or maintained</li><li>Bioswales may decrease water temperature, providing benefits to the aquatic habitat of the receiving watercourse</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Planted bioswales will enhance neighbourhoods with additional vegetated areas</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>May require removal of some vegetation depending on specific location; likely few impacts to existing wildlife and vegetation habitats</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Areas disturbed during construction will be restored</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Existing vegetation in the work area will be cleared</li><li>All affected areas will be restored</li><li>Results in a net neutral effect to terrestrial habitat</li><li>Reduction of temperature released into the downstream cool-water watercourse will improve the native aquatic habitat</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Appropriate erosion and sediment control measures will be undertaken during construction to reduce any negative impacts to the downstream watercourse</li><li>Restoration plans will be developed for surrounding areas impacted by construction</li><li>Construction site will be designed to minimize vegetation and habitat loss, and avoid the clearing of adult trees</li></ul> |
| Impacts / improvements based on SAR / ESA          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Bioswales may decrease water temperature, providing benefits to the aquatic habitat of the receiving watercourse</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Bioswales may be more suited as supplementary water temperature control measures</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Underground tanks may decrease water temperature, providing benefits to the aquatic habitat of the receiving watercourse</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Perforated pipes (exfiltration pipes) and soakaway pits may be more suited as supplementary water temperature control</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>There are opportunities to improve the habitat quality of the receiving watercourse by reducing the temperature of flows entering the watercourse</li><li>Cooling effects are very beneficial for Redside Dace habitat</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |

| Criteria                                                                    | Alternatives for Uncontrolled Outlet #8                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|                                                                             | Bioswales                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | Infiltration in Right-of-Ways (R.O.W.)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | Cooling Trench                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
|                                                                             |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | measures                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Further consultation with the MNR regarding additional SAR will occur prior to the detailed design of the retrofit</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
| Summary / Recommendations                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Bioswales which are properly designed to avoid phosphorus loading provide positive impact on the natural environment</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Perforated pipes (exfiltration pipes) and soakaway pits present few impact on the natural environment</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>A cooling trench at the pond outlet is a relatively simple alternative to mitigate temperatures impacts of the wet pond for the achievement of temperature control</li> <li>Adult trees may be retained</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| Social Impacts                                                              |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
| Requirement of easements or purchase of private lands                       | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>To be constructed within municipal R.O.W.</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Not applicable</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>To be constructed within municipal R.O.W.</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Not applicable</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Cannot build new facility in available land as it is not in accordance with TRCA policy.</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Not applicable</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
| Impacts to public and private properties due to construction and operations | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Impacts may include temporary, minor traffic and noise issues and significant visual nuisances due to construction within the residential streets</li> <li>Bioswales are likely to face public opposition due to the maintenance requirements, visual disruption to an otherwise “clean” front lawn and inconvenience of culverts under driveways</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Appropriate construction and traffic management schedule to be adhered to</li> </ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Impacts may include temporary, minor traffic and noise issues due to construction within the residential streets</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Appropriate construction and traffic management schedule to be adhered to</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Noise and visual impacts associated with construction for the residences backing onto proposed SWM facility block</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Construction management plan, including restrictions on hours may reduce inconveniences associated with construction</li> </ul>                                                                                    |
| Effect on public safety                                                     | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>No public safety concerns beyond construction period</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Proper signage and safety measures to be set up for construction period</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>No public safety concerns beyond construction period</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Proper signage and safety measures to be set up for construction period</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>The cooling trench will not have any affects on public safety once constructed</li> <li>During construction there is a potential safety risk due to excavation if a member of the public was to enter the site</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>The construction site should be secured during and after construction hours with warning signs and fencing</li> </ul> |
| Summary / Recommendations                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Impacts during construction are temporary and mostly minor</li> <li>Long term impacts on residents due to visual impacts and culvert maintenance are significant</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Impacts are minor and mostly temporary, within the construction period</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>No long term social impacts associated with the cooling trench</li> <li>Cannot build new facility in available land as it is not in accordance with TRCA policy.</li> <li>Minimal disturbance to the public may occur during construction but the construction time frame will be brief</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                         |
| Economic Considerations                                                     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
| Capital costs                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Moderate to high capital cost related to new pipe infrastructure, earthworks and plantings, as well as likely relocation of existing pipe infrastructure</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Proficient SUE investigation prior to design work can minimize unexpected existing pipe/utility interferences</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                      | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Moderate to high capital cost related to new pipe infrastructure, earthworks and plantings, as well as likely relocation of existing pipe infrastructure</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Proficient SUE investigation prior to design work can minimize unexpected existing pipe/utility interferences</li> </ul>                                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Low capital cost for a relatively small excavation and materials</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Capital costs can be marginally reduced if stormwater is pre-treated with LIDs throughout the watershed (thus scaling down required trench volume)</li> </ul>                                                                                                       |
| Maintenance and operating costs                                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Low to moderate maintenance costs associated with replacing filter media, unclogging perforated pipes</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Pre-treatment of stormwater with grassed filter strips can prevent some clogging of perforated pipes</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Low to moderate maintenance costs associated with unclogging perforated pipes</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Pre-treatment of stormwater with grassed filter strips can prevent some clogging of perforated pipes</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                       | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Low maintenance cost associated with cleaning out the trench</li> <li>Lower maintenance frequency; likely once per year, ideally not requiring access to railway lands</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Maintenance frequency should be as directed by operations manual</li> </ul>                                                                                   |
| Impact on future development and growth                                     | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Retrofit R.O.W. with bioswales may dictate R.O.W. standards for future development</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>On-site control requirements for any future intensification within the watershed would mitigate negative impacts on the LID</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                              | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Retrofit R.O.W. with perforated pipes and soakaway pits may dictate R.O.W. standards for future development</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>On-site control requirements for any future intensification within the watershed would mitigate negative impacts on the LID</li> </ul>                                                                                                  | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>No impacts</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Not applicable</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
| Summary / Recommendations                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Bioswales are a moderate to high capital cost for retrofit but may add value to a neighbourhood</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Perforated pipes and soakaway pits are a moderate to high capital cost for retrofit</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>A cooling trench is a cost effective alternative to meet temperature criteria</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
| Results of Alternative Evaluation                                           | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>This alternative is not preferred because bioswales cannot provide the required level of water quality and erosion control.</li> <li>Another alternative would need to be implemented in conjunction with bioswales in order to meet SWM objectives, making this alternative economically inefficient.</li> <li>The construction and maintenance of bioswales will create short and long term accessibility and visual impacts on residents.</li> </ul>                                                                                      | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>This alternative is not preferred because infiltration in R.O.W.s cannot provide the required level of water quality and erosion control.</li> <li>Another alternative would need to be implemented in conjunction with infiltration in R.O.W.s in order to meet SWM objectives, making this alternative economically inefficient.</li> <li>The construction of infiltration pipes in R.O.W.s will create short term accessibility, visual and</li> </ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Minimally invasive best management practice for temperature control. A cooling trench is cost effective and requires minimal maintenance.</li> <li>This alternative is not preferred because a new facility in the available land is not in accordance with TRCA policy.</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                        |

| Criteria | Alternatives for Uncontrolled Outlet #8 |                                        |                |
|----------|-----------------------------------------|----------------------------------------|----------------|
|          | Bioswales                               | Infiltration in Right-of-Ways (R.O.W.) | Cooling Trench |
|          |                                         | noise impacts on residents.            |                |

| Criteria                                                                    | Alternatives for Uncontrolled Outlet #8                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |  |  |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--|--|
|                                                                             | Aquatic and Riparian Plantings at Facility                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |  |  |
| Alternative Description                                                     | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Plantings to increase density and area of vegetation cover surrounding facility and within facility to provide shade for cooling of detained water</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |  |  |
| Location in Treatment Train                                                 | End of Pipe                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |  |  |
| Target SWM Objective(s)                                                     | Temperature Control                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |  |  |
| Technical Considerations                                                    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |  |  |
| Constructability and accessibility                                          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No constructability issues anticipated with adding plantings to proposed facilities</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Plantings enhance temperature control by providing shade</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                     |  |  |
| Ability to meet stormwater management objective(s)                          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Shade from plantings will reduce the temperature of stormwater at a facility</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Plantings are better used in conjunction with other cooling methods to achieve adequate temperature control</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                         |  |  |
| Engineering best practises / innovative solution                            | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Temperature control of stormwater in general is becoming an engineering best management practice in areas with sensitive habitats</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Effects of plantings can be enhanced with other methods such as use of a bottom draw outlet</li></ul>                                                                                                                    |  |  |
| Summary / Recommendations                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Plantings at stormwater management facility are a simple alternative to provide additional temperature controls</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |  |  |
| Natural Environment                                                         |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |  |  |
| Impacts to wildlife and vegetation habitats                                 | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Planting native species can enhance the existing wildlife and vegetation</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No mitigation undertaken</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |  |  |
| Impacts / improvements based on SAR / ESA                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Providing additional shade at stormwater facilities reduces stormwater temperature which is a key benefit for SAR habitat</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Effects of plantings can be enhanced with other methods such as use of a bottom draw outlet</li><li>Further consultation with the MNR regarding additional SAR will occur prior to the detailed design of the retrofit</li></ul> |  |  |
| Summary / Recommendations                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Plantings at stormwater facilities provide positive impacts on the natural environment (provided they are non-invasive species)</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |  |  |
| Social Impacts                                                              |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |  |  |
| Requirement of easements or purchase of private lands                       | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Not applicable (unless required in conjunction with stormwater facility construction)</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Not applicable</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |  |  |
| Impacts to public and private properties due to construction and operations | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No impacts to public</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Not applicable</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |  |  |
| Effect on public safety                                                     | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Vegetation should be suitable for proposed facility and clearly indicate any water’s edge</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Vegetation at facilities must be maintained</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                            |  |  |
| Summary / Recommendations                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No significant social impacts of plantings at stormwater facilities</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |  |  |
| Economic Considerations                                                     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |  |  |

|                                         |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |  |  |
|-----------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--|--|
| Capital costs                           | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Low capital cost relative to other alternatives</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Costs may vary depending on extents and types of plantings</li></ul>                             |  |  |
| Maintenance and operating costs         | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Low maintenance costs with native, sustainable plantings</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Lower maintenance plants will minimize costs of maintenance and/or replanting</li></ul> |  |  |
| Impact on future development and growth | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ No impact on future development</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Not applicable</li></ul>                                                                                         |  |  |
| Summary / Recommendations               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Plantings at SWM facilities are a low cost alternative for providing temperature control</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                     |  |  |
| Results of Alternative Evaluation       | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ This alternative is preferred because it will improve/maintain existing habitat and vegetation</li><li>▪ This alternative provides temperature control at a relatively low capital cost.</li></ul>                                                     |  |  |

| Table 1 –Evaluation of Conceptual Design Alternatives for Uncontrolled Outlet #55 (Uncontrolled Area) |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Criteria                                                                                              | Alternatives for Uncontrolled Outlet #55                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
|                                                                                                       | Do Nothing                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              | Oil-Grit Separators (OGS)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | Construct Water Quality Facility                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
| Alternative Description                                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Stormwater runoff from the 4.77 ha major drainage area will continue to be released into the receiving watercourse uncontrolled</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>One (1) unit connected to the minor system prior to final control and outfall</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Loss of current land use including clearing of vegetation</li><li>Significant earthworks operations</li><li>Remove and replace section of sewer and outlet infrastructure</li><li>Provision of wet habitat area adjacent to receiving watercourse</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
| Location in Treatment Train                                                                           | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | End of Pipe                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
| Target SWM Objective(s)                                                                               | None                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | Quality Control                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
| Technical Considerations                                                                              |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
| Constructability and accessibility                                                                    | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Locations are accessible as OGS units could be installed upstream of the outfalls at manholes within municipal roadways; construction area is relatively small</li><li>Construction considerations include traffic interruptions and short term road closures</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Traffic management plans may reduce inconveniences associated with construction</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Access to site is limited but achievable through existing trails</li><li>Redirection of servicing will be required to outlet to constructed dry pond</li><li>Land area is limited to be able to construct a quality facility with acceptable 4:1 side slopes</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Facility size could be reduced by incorporating water quality controls as LIDs within the drainage area</li></ul>                                                                                                                                               |
| Ability to meet stormwater management objective(s)                                                    | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Does not provide for or meet the stormwater management objectives of the City and/or TRCA, for water quality, erosion or quantity control</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No mitigation undertaken</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>OGS units may be able to provide all required stormwater quality objectives</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Pre-treatment of stormwater runoff with LIDs will enhance the performance of the OGS</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                              | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>A pond facility would be capable of fully meeting the requirements for quality control</li><li>Cannot build new facility in available land as it is not in accordance with TRCA policy.</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>If land area was to permit, a wet pond facility for quantity and quality control could be constructed within a single footprint, tackling more of the stormwater objectives for the site</li><li>Quality control can be enhanced with LIDs that infiltrate runoff within the drainage area</li></ul>                                 |
| Engineering best practises / innovative solution                                                      | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>OGS and similar units are noted as best management practices</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Pre-treatment of stormwater runoff with LIDs will enhance the performance of the OGS</li><li>Filtration cartridge options may be used rather than traditional OGS to target more specific pollutants</li></ul>                                                                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Typically more traditional SWM approach</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Quality control can be enhanced with LIDs that infiltrate runoff within the drainage area</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
| Summary / Recommendations                                                                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Does not provide for or meet the stormwater management objectives of the City and/or TRCA, for water quality, erosion or quantity control</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>OGS can be effective, low-space option to provide water quality control</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Constructability is low due to the land area constraints</li><li>Cannot build new facility in available land as it is not in accordance with TRCA policy.</li><li>If land area can be provided, a quality facility can fully meet the quality control stormwater objectives</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |
| Natural Environment                                                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
| Impacts to wildlife and vegetation habitats                                                           | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>The current condition of wildlife and vegetation habitats will not change; however if the release of uncontrolled stormwater into the receiving watercourse causes future erosion in the watercourse or impacts the quality of the water in the watercourse, this could have a negative impact on the future condition of wildlife and vegetation habitats</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No mitigation undertaken</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>OGS does not physically interfere with the existing outlet or impact the surrounding forested area and improves water quality prior to discharge to the watercourse</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No mitigation required</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                    | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Existing vegetation will be cleared including an area of trees which is a young native forest</li><li>Results in a minor loss of terrestrial habitat</li><li>There are opportunities to improve the habitat quality of the receiving watercourse by reducing the sediment loading to the receiving watercourse</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Restoration plans will be developed to restore the surrounding areas impacted by construction</li></ul>                                                                                                       |
| Impacts / improvements based on SAR / ESA                                                             | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Meeting water quality criteria will improve water quality of downstream receiving waters</li><li>Little to no effect on temperature mitigation</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Use of OGS can be enhanced with pre-treatment using LIDs throughout minor system watershed</li></ul>                                                                                                     | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>There are opportunities to improve the habitat quality of the receiving watercourse by reducing the sediment loading of the watercourse</li><li>The receiving watercourse has been identified as unlikely to be Redside Dace habitat</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Further consultation with the MNR regarding additional SAR will occur prior to the detailed design of the retrofit</li><li>Stringent construction practices can be implemented to reduce the possibility of introducing invasive species to the ecosystem during construction</li></ul> |

| Criteria                                                                    | Alternatives for Uncontrolled Outlet #55                                                                                                                                                                                          |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|                                                                             | Do Nothing                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | Oil-Grit Separators (OGS)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | Construct Water Quality Facility                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
| Summary / Recommendations                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Existing vegetation and forest adjacent to uncontrolled outlet provides terrestrial habitat</li></ul>                                                                                       | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>OGS offers improvements to water quality</li><li>Used in conjunction with LIDs, OGS can improve water conditions for SAR</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>A quality facility can be beneficial to downstream receiving waters but will alter any existing habitat within the construction area</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
| Social Impacts                                                              |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
| Requirement of easements or purchase of private lands                       | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Not required; preference to install and maintain OGS within municipal R.O.W., where maintenance is easily accessible</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Not applicable</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                         | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Likely not required for the construction and maintenance of a SWM facility for UC #55, however existing land area is likely not sufficient for an at-grade SWM facility</li><li>Pond site would likely be on existing public park land and would be unavailable for public use</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Land requirements would be confirmed through conceptual design</li></ul>                                                     |
| Impacts to public and private properties due to construction and operations | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Roadway interference and/or short-term closure would be expected for the installation of OGS units</li><li>Temporary interference to be expected on roadways during maintenance (approximately once a year)</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Traffic management plans may reduce inconveniences associated with construction</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Noise and visual impacts associated with construction for the residences backing onto proposed SWM facility block</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Construction management plan, including restrictions on hours</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
| Effect on public safety                                                     | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Installed OGS does not pose threats to public safety</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No mitigation undertaken</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>By building to the required side slope and depth criteria, the quality facility should not pose a threat to public safety</li><li>Since the site contains public trails, temporary hazards may be present during the construction period</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Flattened slopes, warning signs, and fencing (if required) can provide measures of safety</li><li>Trails would temporarily be closed during construction</li></ul> |
| Summary / Recommendations                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>The ‘Do Nothing’ alternative has no social impacts</li></ul>                                                                                                                                | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>OGS presents few and short-term impacts associated with installation and maintenance</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Construction of a quality facility would be a longer-term construction project with potential noise, pedestrian traffic and visual impacts</li><li>Public park land would be lost</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
| Economic Considerations                                                     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
| Capital costs                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No action may result in greater capital expenses in the future</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Not applicable</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Relatively low capital cost for installation of one (1) unit and associated infrastructure works</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Capital cost of OGS units can be reduced if stormwater is pre-treated with LIDs (thus scaling down required OGS size)</li></ul>                                                                      | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Moderate to high capital cost for earthworks, grading, infrastructure components and permits</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Capital costs can be marginally reduced if stormwater is pre-treated with LIDs throughout the watershed (thus scaling down required quality control volumes and footprint)</li></ul>                                                                                                                           |
| Maintenance and operating costs                                             | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Fairly low maintenance cost and frequency; approximately annually</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Maintenance frequency of OGS units should not decrease with increased pre-treatment</li></ul>                                                                                                                                       | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Moderate maintenance cost and frequency; likely seasonally</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Maintenance frequency should be as directed by operations manual</li><li>Maintenance frequency can be reduced if stormwater is pre-treated with LIDs throughout the watershed (thus scaling down required quality control volume)</li></ul>                                                                                                      |
| Impact on future development and growth                                     | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Size of OGS is static once installed and would require upgrading if a larger drainage area is directed to it (in order to meet water quality criteria)</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Additional OGS units may be installed in the future to correspond with growth</li></ul>                                                        | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No impact, but detention facility would require expansion if contributing land use was to intensify</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>On-site control requirements for any intensified development within the facility’s watershed would mitigate further expansion</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                 |
| Summary / Recommendations                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>‘Do nothing’ may postpone required works and increase future costs</li></ul>                                                                                                                | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Installation of OGS units is a low to medium cost solution for achievement of most of the required SWM criteria</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Construction of a quality facility would present moderate to high capital costs for achievement of quality control</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| Results of Alternative Evaluation                                           | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>This alternative is not preferred because the alternative does not meet the stormwater management objectives</li></ul>                                                                      | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>This is a preferred alternative due to the lower cost, small disturbance area and ability to provide full quality control</li><li>This alternative can be implemented with little to no loss of existing trees.</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                 | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Cannot build new facility in available land as it is not in accordance with TRCA policy.</li><li>This is not a preferred option because of the loss of public park space and mature trees.</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |

| Criteria                                           | Alternatives for Uncontrolled Outlet #55                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
|----------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|                                                    | Underground Storage                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | Infiltration in Right-of-Ways (R.O.W.)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | Bioswales                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
| Alternative Description                            | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Installed in municipal lands</li><li>Underground storage tanks will capture and detain stormwater and release over an extended time period</li><li>Infiltration type underground tanks will allow for infiltration during detention period</li><li>May need water quality control prior to infiltrating (if proposed)</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Install perforated secondary pipe within existing storm sewer systems to allow for infiltration through linear soakaway pits</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Construct bioswales within the road right-of-ways within the facility drainage area</li><li>Bioswales to contain native plantings and subdrains</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
| Location in Treatment Train                        | End of Pipe                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | Conveyance                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
| Target SWM Objectives                              | Erosion Control                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | Quality and Erosion Control                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
| Technical Considerations                           |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
| Constructability and accessibility                 | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Footprint may be large but is constructible within municipally owned lands; constructability is low to moderate</li><li>Still allows for use of land at-grade</li><li>May require re-organization of existing outlets to feed into central underground tanks</li><li>Based on soil mapping, the soil in the drainage area is not ideal for infiltration</li><li>Cannot build new facility in available land as it is not in accordance with TRCA policy.</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Tanks with infiltration capabilities provide additional benefits to erosion control</li><li>Constructability would likely be increased by incorporating more than one underground tank, rather than one central system</li><li>Site specific soil testing is required to confirm suitability of infiltration measures</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Construction area is extensive and many secondary infiltration pipes would require to be installed to achieve SWM criteria</li><li>Requires coordination with existing infrastructure and utilities</li><li>Based on soil mapping, the soil in the drainage area is not ideal for infiltration</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Perforated pipes (exfiltration pipes) and soakaway pits may be more suited as supplementary water quality / erosion / temperature control measures, where constructability and retrofit are least disruptive to existing infrastructure</li><li>Soil specific soil testing is required to confirm suitability of infiltration</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Construction area is extensive and pipe networks are more intricate, requiring coordination with existing infrastructure</li><li>Road right of ways need to be conducive to grading and space criteria for bioswales</li><li>Based on soil mapping, the soil in the drainage area is not ideal for infiltration</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Bioswales may be more suited as supplementary water quality / erosion / temperature control measures, where constructability and retrofit are least disruptive to existing infrastructure</li><li>Soil specific soil testing is required to confirm suitability of infiltration</li></ul> |
| Ability to meet stormwater management objective(s) | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Underground tanks, especially with infiltration capabilities, are effective for providing quantity and erosion control</li><li>Quantity control will be provided as feasible within the given area</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Longer detention times can enhance the erosion control</li><li>Underground storage tanks to be designed to provide quantity control; quantity control will be maximized as per the site conditions and / or restrictions</li><li>Infiltration type underground tanks will allow for infiltration during detention period</li><li>May need water quality control prior to infiltrating (if proposed)</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                         | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Perforated pipes (exfiltration pipes) and soakaway pits may are more effective when used within a treatment train to achieve the stormwater objectives</li><li>Where soils are inadequate, ability to achieve stormwater objectives is decreased</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Additional pre-treatment will enhance the function of the perforated pipes, to reduce clogging</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Bioswales are more effective when used within a treatment train to achieve the stormwater objectives</li><li>Where soils are inadequate, ability to achieve stormwater objectives is decreased</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Additional pre-treatment will enhance the function of bioswales, to reduce clogging of the underdrain pipes</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
| Engineering best practises / innovative solution   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Underground tanks, including infiltration, are noted as best management practices</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Maintenance of underground tanks is more extensive than at-grade alternatives</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Perforated pipes (exfiltration pipes) and soakaway pits may are innovative solutions within stormwater management</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Enhanced with further use of LIDs such as vegetated filter strips</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Bioswales are innovative solutions within stormwater management conveyance systems</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Enhanced with further use of LIDs such as vegetated filter strips</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |
| Summary / Recommendations                          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Technically feasible for providing some or all quantity and erosion control</li><li>Infiltration might be feasible at the site, pending specific soil investigation</li><li>Requires more intrusive maintenance than at-grade facilities</li><li>Cannot build new facility in available land as it is not in accordance with TRCA policy.</li><li>Useful for maintaining land uses at-grade and visually not intrusive</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Perforated pipes (exfiltration pipes) and soakaway pits may are effective as part of a treatment train and where retrofit does not greatly interfere with existing infrastructure</li><li>Due to the poor infiltration in the soil, Infiltration in the R.O.W. is not a preferred option at Uncontrolled Outlet #55</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Bioswales are effective as part of a treatment train and where retrofit does not greatly interfere with existing infrastructure</li><li>Bioswales should not be used on their own for achievement of stormwater objectives where soil conditions are not suitable for infiltration</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
| Natural Environment                                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
| Impacts to wildlife and vegetation habitats        | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>May require removal of some vegetation depending on specific location</li><li>Once installed, less intrusive than other alternatives because of location below grade</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Restoration plan required if loss of vegetation expected due to construction</li><li>Construction site will be designed to minimize vegetation and habitat loss, and avoid the clearing of adult trees</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>May require removal of some vegetation depending on specific location; likely few impacts to existing wildlife and vegetation habitats</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Areas disturbed during construction will be restored</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>May require removal of some vegetation depending on specific location</li><li>May present phosphorus issues if not properly designed and/or maintained</li><li>Bioswales may decrease water temperature, providing benefits to the aquatic habitat of the receiving watercourse</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Planted bioswales will enhance neighbourhood with additional vegetated areas</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| Impacts / improvements based on SAR /              | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Underground tanks may improve the habitat quality of the receiving watercourse by reducing the erosion and thereby sediment</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Underground tanks may decrease water temperature, providing benefits to the aquatic habitat of the receiving watercourse</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Bioswales may decrease water temperature, providing benefits to the aquatic habitat of the receiving watercourse</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |

| Criteria                                                                    | Alternatives for Uncontrolled Outlet #55                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|                                                                             | Underground Storage                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              | Infiltration in Right-of-Ways (R.O.W.)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | Bioswales                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
| ESA                                                                         | loading of the receiving watercourse <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>The receiving watercourse has been identified as unlikely to be Redside Dace habitat</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Further consultation with the MNR regarding additional SAR will occur prior to the detailed design of the retrofit</li> <li>Stringent construction practices can be implemented to reduce the possibility of introducing invasive species to the ecosystem during construction</li> </ul> | Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Perforated pipes (exfiltration pipes) and soakaway pits may be more suited as supplementary water temperature control measures</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                           | Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Bioswales may be more suited as supplementary water temperature control measures</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
| Summary / Recommendations                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Underground tanks are a long-term non-invasive alternative for providing quantity, quality and erosion control</li> <li>Adult trees may be retained</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Perforated pipes (exfiltration pipes) and soakaway pits present few impact on the natural environment</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Bioswales which are properly designed to avoid phosphorus loading provide positive impact on the natural environment</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
| Social Impacts                                                              |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
| Requirement of easements or purchase of private lands                       | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Likely not required for the construction and maintenance of an underground storage tank facility for UC #55</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Land requirements would be confirmed through conceptual design</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>To be constructed within municipal R.O.W.</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Not applicable</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>To be constructed within municipal R.O.W.</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Not applicable</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| Impacts to public and private properties due to construction and operations | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Noise and visual impacts associated with construction for the residences backing onto proposed SWM facility area</li> <li>Temporary closure of recreational trails during construction period</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Construction management plan, including restrictions on hours</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                              | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Impacts may include temporary, minor traffic and noise issues due to construction within the residential streets</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Appropriate construction and traffic management schedule to be adhered to</li> </ul>                                                                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Impacts may include temporary, minor traffic and noise issues and significant visual nuisances due to construction within the residential streets</li> <li>Bioswales are likely to face public opposition due to the maintenance requirements, visual disruption to an otherwise “clean” front lawn and inconvenience of culverts under driveways</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Appropriate construction and traffic management schedule to be adhered to</li> </ul> |
| Effect on public safety                                                     | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Temporary closure of recreational trails during construction period</li> <li>No public safety concerns beyond construction period</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Proper signage and safety measures to be set up for construction period</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>No public safety concerns beyond construction period</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Proper signage and safety measures to be set up for construction period</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                           | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>No public safety concerns beyond construction period</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Proper signage and safety measures to be set up for construction period</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| Summary / Recommendations                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Underground tanks are proposed to be located within municipal lands; not intrusive to the public after construction period</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Impacts are minor and mostly temporary, within the construction period</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Impacts during construction are temporary and mostly minor</li> <li>Long term impacts on residents due to visual impacts and culvert maintenance are significant</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
| Economic Considerations                                                     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
| Capital costs                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Moderate to high capital cost related to storage tank infrastructure, depending on amount of quantity control which may be incorporated and the number of tanks</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Efficient tank design to minimize capital costs</li> <li>Costs can be mitigated if tanks are only sized for erosion control, rather than including quantity control as well</li> </ul>                                                              | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Moderate to high capital cost related to new pipe infrastructure, earthworks and plantings, as well as likely relocation of existing pipe infrastructure</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Proficient SUE investigation prior to design work can minimize unexpected existing pipe/utility interferences</li> </ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Moderate to high capital cost related to new pipe infrastructure, earthworks and plantings, as well as likely relocation of existing pipe infrastructure</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Proficient SUE investigation prior to design work can minimize unexpected existing pipe/utility interferences</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                      |
| Maintenance and operating costs                                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Low maintenance costs associated with cleaning out tanks as per operations manual or in event of clogging</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Can prevent clogging with additional pre-treatment techniques</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Low to moderate maintenance costs associated with unclogging perforated pipes</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Pre-treatment of stormwater with grassed filter strips can prevent some clogging of perforated pipes</li> </ul>                                                                                     | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Low to moderate maintenance costs associated with replacing filter media, unclogging perforated pipes</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Pre-treatment of stormwater with grassed filter strips can prevent some clogging of perforated pipes</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
| Impact on future development and growth                                     | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>No impact, but underground tanks would require expansion if contributing land use was to intensify</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>On-site control requirements for any future intensification within the watershed would mitigate further expansion</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                     | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Retrofit R.O.W. with perforated pipes and soakaway pits may dictate R.O.W. standards for future development</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>On-site control requirements for any future intensification within the watershed would mitigate negative impacts on the LID</li> </ul>                                | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Retrofit R.O.W. with bioswales may dictate R.O.W. standards for future development</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>On-site control requirements for any future intensification within the watershed would mitigate negative impacts on the LID</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
| Summary / Recommendations                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Underground tanks provide moderate to high capital and maintenance costs for the achievement of quantity, quality and erosion control</li> <li>A larger footprint may be required with the use of this alternative</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Perforated pipes and soakaway pits are a moderate to high capital cost for retrofit</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Bioswales are a moderate to high capital cost for retrofit but may add value to a neighbourhood</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |

| Criteria                          | Alternatives for Uncontrolled Outlet #55                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |
|-----------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|                                   | Underground Storage                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | Infiltration in Right-of-Ways (R.O.W.)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | Bioswales                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| Results of Alternative Evaluation | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Public recreational area would be temporarily unavailable during construction and restoration time.</li><li>This is not a preferred alternative because a new facility can not be built in the available land as it is not in accordance with TRCA policy.</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>This alternative is not preferred because bioswales cannot provide the required level of water quality and erosion control.</li><li>Another alternative would need to be implemented in conjunction with bioswales in order to meet SWM objectives, making this alternative economically inefficient.</li><li>The construction and maintenance of bioswales will create short and long term accessibility and visual impacts on residents.</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>This alternative is not preferred because infiltration in R.O.W.s cannot provide the required level of water quality and erosion control.</li><li>Another alternative would need to be implemented in conjunction with infiltration in R.O.W.s in order to meet SWM objectives, making this alternative economically inefficient.</li><li>The construction of infiltration pipes in R.O.W.s will create short term accessibility, visual and noise impacts on residents.</li></ul> |

| Criteria                                           | Alternatives for Uncontrolled Outlet #55                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |  |  |
|----------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--|--|
|                                                    | Construct Extended Detention Facility                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |  |  |
| Alternative Description                            | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Significant earthworks</li> <li>Remove and replace section of existing sewer and outlet infrastructure</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |  |  |
| Location in Treatment Train                        | End of Pipe                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |  |  |
| Target SWM Objectives                              | Erosion Control                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |  |  |
| Technical Considerations                           |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |  |  |
| Constructability and accessibility                 | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Access to site is limited but achievable through existing trails</li> <li>Redirection of servicing will be required to outlet to constructed dry pond</li> <li>Land area is limited to be able to construct a quality facility with acceptable 4:1 side slopes</li> <li>Pond site would likely be on existing public park land and would be unavailable for public use</li> <li>Cannot build new facility in available land as it is not in accordance with TRCA policy.</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Facility size could be reduced by incorporating water quality controls as LIDs within the drainage area</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                             |  |  |
| Ability to meet stormwater management objective(s) | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>An extended detention facility would be capable of fully meeting the requirements for erosion control detention</li> <li>Cannot build new facility in available land as it is not in accordance with TRCA policy.</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>An extended detention facility for erosion control could be sized to provide quality and erosion control within a single pond block reducing construction footprints and disturbance to nearby landowners</li> <li>Erosion control can be enhanced with LIDs that detain and/or infiltrate runoff within the drainage area</li> <li>Extended detention facilities could be enhanced with outlets which consider thermal mitigation techniques, to improve water quality of the diverted flows</li> </ul>              |  |  |
| Engineering best practises / innovative solution   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Typically more traditional SWM approach</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Erosion control can be enhanced with LIDs that detain and/or infiltrate runoff within the drainage area</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |  |  |
| Summary / Recommendations                          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Constructability is low due to the land area constraints</li> <li>Cannot build new facility in available land as it is not in accordance with TRCA policy.</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |  |  |
| Natural Environment                                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |  |  |
| Impacts to wildlife and vegetation habitats        | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Existing vegetation in the work area will be cleared</li> <li>Results in a loss of terrestrial habitat</li> <li>There are opportunities to improve the habitat quality of the receiving watercourse by reducing the peak flows entering the watercourse and thereby reducing erosion</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Restoration plans will be developed to restore the surrounding areas impacted by construction</li> <li>Vegetation can be planted on the berms of the extended detention facility which will also aid in reducing the temperature impacts of the surface detention of runoff</li> <li>Stringent construction practices can be implemented to reduce the possibility of introducing invasive species to the ecosystem during construction</li> </ul> |  |  |
| Impacts / improvements based on SAR / ESA          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>There are opportunities to improve the habitat quality of the receiving watercourse by reducing the erosion and thereby sediment loading of the receiving watercourse</li> <li>The receiving watercourse has been identified as unlikely to be Redside Dace</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |  |  |

| Criteria                                                                    | Alternatives for Uncontrolled Outlet #55                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |  |  |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--|--|
|                                                                             | Construct Extended Detention Facility                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |  |  |
|                                                                             | habitatMitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Further consultation with the MNR regarding additional SAR will occur prior to the detailed design of the retrofit</li><li>▪ Stringent construction practices can be implemented to reduce the possibility of introducing invasive species to the ecosystem during construction</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                              |  |  |
| Summary / Recommendations                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ An extended detention facility can be beneficial to downstream receiving waters but will alter any existing habitat within the construction area</li><li>▪ Adult trees will be cleared for construction</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |  |  |
| Social Impacts                                                              |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |  |  |
| Requirement of easements or purchase of private lands                       | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Likely not required for the construction and maintenance of an extended detention facility for UC #55</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Land requirements would be confirmed through conceptual design</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |  |  |
| Impacts to public and private properties due to construction and operations | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Noise and visual impacts associated with construction for the residences backing onto proposed SWM facility block</li><li>▪ Extended Detention facility would be on existing public park land, resulting in a loss of park space</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Construction management plan, including restrictions on hours</li></ul>                                                                                                        |  |  |
| Effect on public safety                                                     | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ By building to the required side slope and depth criteria, the dry pond facility should not pose a threat to public safety</li><li>▪ Since the site contains public trails, temporary hazards may be present during the construction period</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Adequate slopes, warning signs, and fencing (if required) can provide measures of safety</li><li>▪ Trails would temporarily be closed during construction</li></ul> |  |  |
| Summary / Recommendations                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Construction of an extended detention facility would be a longer-term construction project with potential noise, traffic and visual impacts</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |  |  |
| Economic Considerations                                                     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |  |  |
| Capital costs                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Moderate capital cost for earthworks, grading, infrastructure components, permits</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Capital costs can be marginally reduced if stormwater is pre-treated with LIDs throughout the watershed (thus scaling down required detention volumes)</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                              |  |  |
| Maintenance and operating costs                                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Lower maintenance cost and frequency; likely every few years</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Maintenance frequency should be as directed by operations manual</li><li>▪ Maintenance frequency can be reduced by providing pre-treatment for sediment removal</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                          |  |  |
| Impact on future development and growth                                     | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ No impact, but extended detention facility would require expansion if contributing land use was to intensify</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ On-site control requirements for any intensified development within the facility's watershed would mitigate further expansion</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                            |  |  |
| Summary / Recommendations                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Construction of an extended detention facility would present moderate capital costs for achievement of quantity control</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |  |  |
| Results of Alternative Evaluation                                           | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ This is not a preferred option because of the loss of public park space, removing adult trees, and can not build facility in available land as it is not in accordance with TRCA policy.</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |  |  |

| Table 1 –Evaluation of Conceptual Design Alternatives for Uncontrolled Outlet #63W (Uncontrolled Area) |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Criteria                                                                                               | Alternatives for Uncontrolled Outlet #63W                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
|                                                                                                        | Do Nothing                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              | Oil-Grit Separators (OGS)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      | Construct Water Quality Facility                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
| Alternative Description                                                                                | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Stormwater runoff from the 48.17 ha minor drainage area will continue to be released into the receiving watercourse uncontrolled</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>One (1) unit connected to the minor system prior to final control and outfall</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Loss of current land use including clearing of vegetation</li><li>Significant earthworks operations</li><li>Remove and replace section of sewer and outlet infrastructure</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
| Location in Treatment Train                                                                            | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | End of Pipe                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
| Target SWM Objective(s)                                                                                | None                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | Quality Control                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
| Technical Considerations                                                                               |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
| Constructability and accessibility                                                                     | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Location is accessible as OGS unit could be installed upstream of the outfall at a manhole within municipal roadways; construction area is relatively small</li><li>Construction considerations include traffic interruptions and short term road closures</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Traffic management plans may reduce inconveniences associated with construction</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Site is moderately accessible</li><li>Separation of the adjacent recreational park from the construction area and the water quality facility is required for the public’s safety.</li><li>Existing changes in elevation adjacent to the river could be incorporated as a pond berm</li><li>There is not a significant elevation difference between residential areas and pond location. Pond should be cut down and include a clay liner.</li><li>There is limited space available to create staging area near the construction area. If necessary, the recreational park across the river may be required to be used for this purpose.</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Acquiring easements or property acquisition of adjacent private property may be required to create the required gradient for the construction of the facility to reduce the amount of earthworks and conveyance structures</li></ul> |
| Ability to meet stormwater management objective(s)                                                     | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Does not provide for or meet the stormwater management objectives of the City and/or TRCA, for water quality, erosion or quantity control</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No mitigation undertaken</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>OGS units may be able to provide all required stormwater quality objectives</li><li>Size and number of units depends on final design area (need to confirm if industrial lots already contain on-site controls)</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Pre-treatment of stormwater runoff with LIDs will enhance the performance of the OGS</li></ul>                                       | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>A quality facility would be capable of fully meeting the requirements for quality control</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>A quality facility could be constructed to include extended detention volume for erosion control, if space permits</li><li>Quality control can be enhanced with LIDs that infiltrate runoff within the drainage area</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
| Engineering best practises / innovative solution                                                       | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>OGS and similar units are noted as best management practices</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Pre-treatment of stormwater runoff with LIDs will enhance the performance of the OGS</li><li>Filtration cartridge options may be used rather than traditional OGS to target more specific pollutants</li></ul>                                                                          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Typically more traditional SWM approach</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Quality control can be enhanced with LIDs that infiltrate runoff within the drainage area</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
| Summary / Recommendations                                                                              | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Does not provide for or meet the stormwater management objectives of the City and/or TRCA, for water quality, erosion or quantity control</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>OGS can be effective, low-space option to provide water quality control</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Technically feasible, but may be constrained by land area and / or existing topography</li><li>Construction of a quality facility can fully meet the quality control SWM objectives</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| Natural Environment                                                                                    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
| Impacts to wildlife and vegetation habitats                                                            | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>The current condition of wildlife and vegetation habitats will not change; however if the release of uncontrolled stormwater into the receiving watercourse causes future erosion in the watercourse or impacts the quality of the water in the watercourse, this could have a negative impact on the future condition of wildlife and vegetation habitats</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No mitigation undertaken</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>OGS does not physically interfere with the existing outlet or impact the surrounding forested area and improves water quality prior to discharge to the watercourse</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No mitigation required</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                 | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Existing vegetation will be cleared including a area of adult trees which separates the river from the open park land</li><li>Results in a loss of terrestrial habitat</li><li>There are opportunities to improve the habitat quality of the receiving watercourse by reducing the sediment loading and potential contaminate exposure of the receiving watercourse</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Restoration plans will be developed to restore the surrounding areas impacted by construction</li><li>Riparian and aquatic vegetation can be planted on the berms and within the pond facility which will also aid in reducing the temperature impacts of the surface detention of runoff</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
| Impacts / improvements based on SAR / ESA                                                              | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Meeting water quality criteria will improve water quality of downstream receiving waters</li><li>Little to no effect on temperature mitigation</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>There are opportunities to improve the habitat quality of the receiving watercourse by reducing the sediment loading of the watercourse</li><li>The receiving watercourse has been identified as unlikely to be Redside Dace</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |

| Criteria                                                                           | Alternatives for Uncontrolled Outlet #63W                                                                                                                                                                                             |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|                                                                                    | Do Nothing                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | Oil-Grit Separators (OGS)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | Construct Water Quality Facility                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
|                                                                                    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Use of OGS can be enhanced with pre-treatment using LIDs throughout minor system watershed</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | habitatMitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Further consultation with the MNR regarding additional SAR will occur prior to the detailed design of the retrofit</li> <li>Stringent construction practices can be implemented to reduce the possibility of introducing invasive species to the ecosystem during construction</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| Summary / Recommendations                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Existing vegetation and forest adjacent to the watercourse and around the exterior of the uncontrolled outlet provides terrestrial habitat</li> </ul>                                          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>OGS offers improvements to water quality</li> <li>Used in conjunction with LIDs, OGS can improve water conditions for SAR</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>A quality pond can be beneficial to downstream receiving waters but will alter any existing habitat within the construction area</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |
| Social Impacts                                                                     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| Requirement of easements or purchase of private lands                       | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Not required; preference to install and maintain OGS within municipal R.O.W., where maintenance is easily accessible</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Not applicable</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Potentially required for the construction and maintenance of a SWM facility for UC #63W</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Land requirements would be confirmed through conceptual design</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
| Impacts to public and private properties due to construction and operations | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Roadway interference and/or short-term closure would be expected for the installation of OGS units</li> <li>Temporary interference to be expected on roadways during maintenance (approximately once a year)</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Traffic management plans may reduce inconveniences associated with construction</li> </ul>                          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Noise and visual impacts associated with construction for the residences and public within the recreational park backing onto proposed SWM facility block</li> <li>Pond site would likely be on existing public park land and would be unavailable for public use</li> <li>A construction staging area may need to be set up in the adjoining recreational park, which would prevent the public from using the park during construction.</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Construction management plan, including restrictions on hours</li> </ul> |
| Effect on public safety                                                     | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Installed OGS does not pose threats to public safety</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>No mitigation undertaken</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>By building to the required side slope and depth criteria, the quality pond facility should not pose a threat to public safety</li> <li>There are no trails though this green space however it is adjoining to a recreational park, these areas would have to be separated by fencing after the facility is completed.</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Flattened slopes, warning signs, and fencing (if required) can provide measures of safety</li> </ul>                                                                                       |
| Summary / Recommendations                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>The ‘Do Nothing’ alternative has no social impacts</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                  | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>OGS presents few and short-term impacts associated with installation and maintenance</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Construction of a wet pond facility would be a longer-term construction project with potential noise, traffic and visual impacts</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |
| Economic Considerations                                                            |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| Capital costs                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>No action may result in greater capital expenses in the future</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Not applicable</li> </ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Relatively low capital cost for installation of one (1) unit and associated infrastructure works; cost will increase if additional units are required to meet the stormwater quality objectives</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Capital cost of OGS units can be reduced if stormwater is pre-treated with LIDs (thus scaling down required OGS size)</li> </ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Moderate to high capital cost for earthworks, grading, infrastructure components and permits</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Capital costs can be marginally reduced if stormwater is pre-treated with LIDs throughout the watershed (thus scaling down required quality control volumes and footprint)</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| Maintenance and operating costs                                             | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Fairly low maintenance cost and frequency; approximately annually</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Maintenance frequency of OGS units should not decrease with increased pre-treatment</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                 | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Moderate maintenance cost and frequency; likely seasonally</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Maintenance frequency should be as directed by operations manual</li> <li>Maintenance frequency can be reduced if stormwater is pre-treated with LIDs throughout the watershed (thus scaling down required quality control volume)</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                          |
| Impact on future development and growth                                     | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Size of OGS is static once installed and would require upgrading if a larger drainage area is directed to it (in order to meet water quality criteria)</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Additional OGS units may be installed in the future to correspond with growth</li> </ul>                                                                                  | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>No impact, but detention facility would require expansion if contributing land use was to intensify</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>On-site control requirements for any intensified development within the facility’s watershed would mitigate further expansion</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
| Summary / Recommendations                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>‘Do nothing’ may postpone required works and increase future costs</li> </ul>                                                                                                                  | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Installation of OGS units is a low to medium cost solution for achievement of most of the required SWM criteria</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Construction of a quality pond facility would present moderate to high capital costs for achievement of quality control</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |

| Criteria                          | Alternatives for Uncontrolled Outlet #63W                                                                                                                    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |
|-----------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|                                   | Do Nothing                                                                                                                                                   | Oil-Grit Separators (OGS)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | Construct Water Quality Facility                                                                                                                                                                                            |
| Results of Alternative Evaluation | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>This alternative is not preferred because the alternative does not meet the stormwater management objectives</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>This is a preferred alternative due to the lower cost, small disturbance area and ability to provide full quality control</li><li>This alternative can be implemented with little to no loss of existing trees.</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>A wet pond facility would be capable of fully meeting the requirements for quality control</li><li>This is not a preferred option because of the loss of public park space.</li></ul> |

| Criteria                                           | Alternatives for Uncontrolled Outlet #63W                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |                                                    |
|----------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------|
|                                                    | Construct Extended Detention Facility                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              | Underground Storage                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |                                                    |
| Alternative Description                            | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Loss of current land use including clearing of vegetation</li><li>▪ Significant earthworks</li><li>▪ Remove and replace section of existing sewer and outlet infrastructure</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Installed at proposed pond block location</li><li>▪ Underground storage tanks will capture and detain stormwater and release over an extended time period</li><li>▪ Infiltration type underground tanks will allow for infiltration during detention period</li><li>▪ May need water quality control prior to infiltrating (if proposed)</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ </li></ul> |
| Location in Treatment Train                        | End of Pipe                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |                                                    |
| Target SWM Objectives                              | Erosion Control                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | Erosion Control                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |                                                    |
| Technical Considerations                           |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |                                                    |
| Constructability and accessibility                 | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Site is moderately accessible</li><li>▪ Separation of the adjacent recreational park from the construction area and the water quality facility is required for the public’s safety.</li><li>▪ Existing changes in elevation adjacent to the river could be incorporated as a pond berm</li><li>▪ There is not a significant elevation difference between residential areas and pond location. Pond should be cut down and include a clay liner.</li><li>▪ There is limited space available to create staging area near the construction area. If necessary, the recreational park across the river may be required to be used for this purpose.</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Acquiring easements or property acquisition of adjacent private property may be required to create the required gradient for the construction of the facility to reduce the amount of earthworks and conveyance structures</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Footprint may be large but is constructible within municipally owned pond block lands; constructability is moderate to complex based on existing site topography</li><li>▪ Depth of construction may be limited by tank specifications; available volume may be reduced</li><li>▪ Still allows for use of land at-grade</li><li>▪ May require re-organization of existing outlets to feed into central underground tanks</li><li>▪ Based on soil mapping, the western section of the drainage area is not ideal for infiltration. Soil in the eastern section of the drainage area and the pond block is conducive to infiltration.</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Tanks with infiltration capabilities provide additional benefits to erosion control</li><li>▪ Soil specific soil testing is required to confirm suitability of infiltration</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ </li></ul> |
| Ability to meet stormwater management objective(s) | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ An extended detention facility would be capable of fully meeting the requirements for erosion control detention</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ An extended detention facility could be combined with quality and quantity controls, if land area permits</li><li>▪ Erosion control can be enhanced with LIDs that detain and/or infiltrate runoff within the drainage area</li><li>▪ Extended detention facilities could be enhanced with outlets which consider thermal mitigation techniques, to improve water quality of the diverted flows</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Underground tanks, especially with infiltration capabilities, are effective for providing quantity, quality and erosion control</li><li>▪ Given the large size of the drainage area, and the construction limitations of tank depth, and the constructible space limitations of the site, an underground storage tank would not be able to fully meet erosion control criteria</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Infiltration type underground tanks will allow for infiltration during detention period</li><li>▪ May need water quality control prior to infiltrating (if proposed)</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ </li></ul> |
| Engineering best practises / innovative solution   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Typically more traditional SWM approach</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Erosion control can be enhanced with LIDs that detain and/or infiltrate runoff within the drainage area</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Underground tanks, including infiltration, are noted as best management practices</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Maintenance of underground tanks is more extensive than at-grade alternatives</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ </li></ul> |
| Summary / Recommendations                          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Technically feasible</li><li>▪ Construction of a extended detention facility can fully meet the erosion control SWM criteria</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Technically feasible, requiring more intrusive maintenance</li><li>▪ All required storage may not be provided based on depth of installation</li><li>▪ Useful for maintaining land uses at-grade and visually not intrusive</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ </li></ul> |
| Natural Environment                                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |                                                    |
| Impacts to wildlife and vegetation habitats        | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Existing vegetation will be cleared including the adult forest adjacent to the watercourse</li><li>▪ Results in a loss of terrestrial habitat</li><li>▪ There are opportunities to improve the habitat quality of the receiving watercourse by reducing the peak flows entering the watercourse and thereby reducing erosion</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Restoration plans will be developed to restore the surrounding areas impacted by construction</li><li>▪ Vegetation can be planted on the berms of the extended detention facility which will also aid in reducing the temperature impacts of the surface detention of runoff</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ May require removal of some vegetation depending on specific location</li><li>▪ Once installed, less intrusive than other alternatives because of location below grade</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Restoration plan required if loss of vegetation expected due to construction</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ </li></ul> |

| Criteria                                                                    | Alternatives for Uncontrolled Outlet #63W                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |                                                  |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------|
|                                                                             | Construct Extended Detention Facility                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | Underground Storage                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |                                                  |
| Impacts / improvements based on SAR / ESA                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>There are opportunities to improve the habitat quality of the receiving watercourse by reducing the erosion and thereby sediment loading of the receiving watercourse</li><li>The receiving watercourse has been identified as unlikely to be Redside Dace habitat</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Further consultation with the MNR regarding additional SAR will occur prior to the detailed design of the retrofit</li><li>Stringent construction practices can be implemented to reduce the possibility of introducing invasive species to the ecosystem during construction</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Underground tanks may improve the habitat quality of the receiving watercourse by reducing the erosion and thereby sediment loading of the receiving watercourse</li><li>The receiving watercourse has been identified as unlikely to be Redside Dace habitat</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Further consultation with the MNR regarding additional SAR will occur prior to the detailed design of the retrofit</li><li>Stringent construction practices can be implemented to reduce the possibility of introducing invasive species to the ecosystem during construction</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li></li></ul> |
| Summary / Recommendations                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>A extended detention facility can be beneficial to downstream receiving waters but will alter any existing habitat within the construction area</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Underground tanks are a long-term non-invasive alternative for providing quantity, quality and erosion control</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li></li></ul> |
| Social Impacts                                                              |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |                                                  |
| Requirement of easements or purchase of private lands                       | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Potentially required for the construction and maintenance of a SWM facility for UC #63W</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Land requirements would be confirmed through conceptual design</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Potentially required for the construction and maintenance of an underground storage tank facility for UC #63W</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Land requirements would be confirmed through conceptual design</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li></li></ul> |
| Impacts to public and private properties due to construction and operations | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Noise and visual impacts associated with construction for the residences and public within the recreational park backing onto proposed SWM facility block</li><li>A construction staging area may need to be set up in the adjoining recreational park, which would prevent the public from using the park during construction.</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Construction management plan, including restrictions on hours</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                    | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Noise and visual impacts associated with construction for the residences and public within the recreational park backing onto proposed SWM facility block</li><li>A construction staging area may need to be set up in the adjoining recreational park, which would prevent the public from using the park during construction.</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Construction management plan, including restrictions on hours</li></ul>                                                                                                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li></li></ul> |
| Effect on public safety                                                     | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>By building to the required side slope and depth criteria, the wet pond facility should not pose a threat to public safety</li><li>There are no trails though this green space however it is adjoining to a recreational park, these areas would have to be separated by fencing after the facility is completed.</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Adequate slopes, warning signs, and fencing (if required) can provide measures of safety</li></ul>                                                                                                                                       | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No public safety concerns beyond construction period</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Proper signage and safety measures to be set up for construction period</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li></li></ul> |
| Summary / Recommendations                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Construction of an extended detention facility would be a longer-term construction project with potential noise, traffic and visual impacts</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Underground tanks are proposed to be located in the proposed pond block; not intrusive to the public after construction</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li></li></ul> |
| Economic Considerations                                                     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |                                                  |
| Capital costs                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Moderate to high capital cost for earthworks, grading, infrastructure components, permits</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Capital costs can be marginally reduced if stormwater is pre-treated with LIDs throughout the watershed (thus scaling down required detention volumes)</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Moderate to high capital cost related to storage tank infrastructure</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Efficient tank design to minimize capital costs</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li></li></ul> |
| Maintenance and operating costs                                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Lower maintenance cost and frequency; likely every few years</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Maintenance frequency should be as directed by operations manual</li><li>Maintenance frequency can be reduced by providing pre-treatment for sediment removal</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Low maintenance costs associated with cleaning out tanks as per operations manual or in event of clogging</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Can prevent clogging with additional pre-treatment techniques</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li></li></ul> |
| Impact on future development and growth                                     | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No impact, but extended detention facility would require expansion if contributing land use was to intensify</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>On-site control requirements for any intensified development within the facility's watershed would mitigate further expansion</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No impact, but underground tanks would require expansion if contributing land use was to intensify</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>On-site control requirements for any future intensification within the watershed would mitigate further expansion</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li></li></ul> |
| Summary / Recommendations                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Construction of an extended detention facility would present moderate to high</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Underground tanks provide moderate to high capital and maintenance costs for the</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li></li></ul> |

| Criteria                          | Alternatives for Uncontrolled Outlet #63W                                                                               |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |                                                  |
|-----------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------|
|                                   | Construct Extended Detention Facility                                                                                   | Underground Storage                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |                                                  |
|                                   | capital costs for achievement of quantity control                                                                       | achievement of quantity, quality and erosion control <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>A larger footprint may be required with the use of this alternative</li></ul>                                                                                                                                   |                                                  |
| Results of Alternative Evaluation | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>This is not a preferred option because of the loss of public park space</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>This is a preferred alternative because public recreational land can be restored after construction of an underground storage tank as compared to a pond. This alternative would be constructed such that it minimizes the number of adult trees affected.</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li></li></ul> |

| Criteria                                              | Alternatives for Uncontrolled Outlet #63W                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |  |
|-------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--|
|                                                       | Bioswales                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | Infiltration in Right-of-Ways (R.O.W.)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |  |
| Alternative Description                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Construct bioswales within the road right-of-ways within the facility drainage area</li><li>Bioswales to contain native plantings and subdrains</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Install perforated secondary pipe within existing storm sewer systems to allow for infiltration through linear soakaway pits</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |  |
| Location in Treatment Train                           | Conveyance                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |  |
| Target SWM Objective(s)                               | Quality and Erosion Control                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |  |
| Technical Considerations                              |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |  |
| Constructability and accessibility                    | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Construction area is extensive and pipe networks are more intricate, requiring coordination with existing infrastructure</li><li>Road right of ways need to be conducive to grading and space criteria for bioswales</li><li>Based on soil mapping, the western section of the drainage area is not ideal for infiltration. Soil in the eastern section of the drainage area and the proposed pond block is conducive to infiltration.</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Bioswales may be more suited as supplementary water quality / erosion / temperature control measures, where constructability and retrofit are least disruptive to existing infrastructure</li><li>Site specific soil testing is required to confirm suitability of infiltration measures</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Construction area is extensive and many secondary infiltration pipes would require to be installed to achieve SWM criteria</li><li>Requires coordination with existing infrastructure and utilities</li><li>Based on soil mapping, the western section of the drainage area is not ideal for infiltration. Soil in the eastern section of the drainage area and the proposed pond block is conducive to infiltration.</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Perforated pipes (exfiltration pipes) and soakaway pits may be more suited as supplementary water quality / erosion / temperature control measures, where constructability and retrofit are least disruptive to existing infrastructure</li><li>Site specific soil testing is required to confirm suitability of infiltration measures</li></ul> |  |
| Ability to meet stormwater management objective(s)    | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Bioswales are more effective when used within a treatment train to achieve the stormwater objectives</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Additional pre-treatment will enhance the function of bioswales, to reduce clogging of the underdrain pipes</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Perforated pipes (exfiltration pipes) and soakaway pits may are more effective when used within a treatment train to achieve the stormwater objectives</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Additional pre-treatment will enhance the function of the perforated pipes, to reduce clogging</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |  |
| Engineering best practises / innovative solution      | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Bioswales are innovative solutions within stormwater management conveyance systems</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Enhanced with further use of LIDs such as vegetated filter strips</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Perforated pipes (exfiltration pipes) and soakaway pits may are innovative solutions within stormwater management</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Enhanced with further use of LIDs such as vegetated filter strips</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |  |
| Summary / Recommendations                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Bioswales are effective as part of a treatment train and where retrofit does not greatly interfere with existing infrastructure</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Perforated pipes (exfiltration pipes) and soakaway pits may are effective as part of a treatment train and where retrofit does not greatly interfere with existing infrastructure</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |  |
| Natural Environment                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |  |
| Impacts to wildlife and vegetation habitats           | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>May require removal of some vegetation depending on specific location</li><li>May present phosphorus issues if not properly designed and/or maintained</li><li>Bioswales may decrease water temperature, providing benefits to the aquatic habitat of the receiving watercourse</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Planted bioswales will enhance neighbourhoods with additional vegetated areas</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>May require removal of some vegetation depending on specific location; likely few impacts to existing wildlife and vegetation habitats</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Areas disturbed during construction will be restored</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |  |
| Impacts / improvements based on SAR / ESA             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Bioswales may decrease water temperature, providing benefits to the aquatic habitat of the receiving watercourse</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Bioswales may be more suited as supplementary water temperature control measures</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Underground tanks may decrease water temperature, providing benefits to the aquatic habitat of the receiving watercourse</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Perforated pipes (exfiltration pipes) and soakaway pits may be more suited as supplementary water temperature control measures</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |  |
| Summary / Recommendations                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Bioswales which are properly designed to avoid phosphorus loading provide positive impact on the natural environment</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Perforated pipes (exfiltration pipes) and soakaway pits present few impact on the natural environment</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |  |
| Social Impacts                                        |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |  |
| Requirement of easements or purchase of private lands | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>To be constructed within municipal R.O.W.</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Not applicable</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>To be constructed within municipal R.O.W.</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Not applicable</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |  |

| Criteria                                                                    | Alternatives for Uncontrolled Outlet #63W                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |  |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--|
|                                                                             | Bioswales                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | Infiltration in Right-of-Ways (R.O.W.)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |  |
| Impacts to public and private properties due to construction and operations | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Impacts may include temporary, minor traffic and noise issues and significant visual nuisances due to construction within the residential streets</li><li>▪ Bioswales are likely to face public opposition due to the maintenance requirements, visual disruption to an otherwise “clean” front lawn and inconvenience of culverts under driveways</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Appropriate construction and traffic management schedule to be adhered to</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Impacts may include temporary, minor traffic and noise issues due to construction within the residential streets</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Appropriate construction and traffic management schedule to be adhered to</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                             |  |
| Effect on public safety                                                     | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ No public safety concerns beyond construction period</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Proper signage and safety measures to be set up for construction period</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ No public safety concerns beyond construction period</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Proper signage and safety measures to be set up for construction period</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |  |
| Summary / Recommendations                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Impacts during construction are temporary and mostly minor</li><li>▪ Long term impacts on residents due to visual impacts and culvert maintenance are significant</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Impacts are minor and mostly temporary, within the construction period</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |  |
| Economic Considerations                                                     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |  |
| Capital costs                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Moderate to high capital cost related to new pipe infrastructure, earthworks and plantings, as well as likely relocation of existing pipe infrastructure</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Proficient SUE investigation prior to design work can minimize unexpected existing pipe/utility interferences</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                       | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Moderate to high capital cost related to new pipe infrastructure, earthworks and plantings, as well as likely relocation of existing pipe infrastructure</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Proficient SUE investigation prior to design work can minimize unexpected existing pipe/utility interferences</li></ul>                                                                                                 |  |
| Maintenance and operating costs                                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Low to moderate maintenance costs associated with replacing filter media, unclogging perforated pipes</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Pre-treatment of stormwater with grassed filter strips can prevent some clogging of perforated pipes</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Low to moderate maintenance costs associated with unclogging perforated pipes</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Pre-treatment of stormwater with grassed filter strips can prevent some clogging of perforated pipes</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                     |  |
| Impact on future development and growth                                     | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Retrofit R.O.W. with bioswales may dictate R.O.W. standards for future development</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ On-site control requirements for any future intensification within the watershed would mitigate negative impacts on the LID</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Retrofit R.O.W. with perforated pipes and soakaway pits may dictate R.O.W. standards for future development</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ On-site control requirements for any future intensification within the watershed would mitigate negative impacts on the LID</li></ul>                                                                                                                                |  |
| Summary / Recommendations                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Bioswales are a moderate to high capital cost for retrofit but may add value to a neighbourhood</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Perforated pipes and soakaway pits are a moderate to high capital cost for retrofit</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |  |
| Results of Alternative Evaluation                                           | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ This alternative is not preferred because bioswales cannot provide the required level of water quality and erosion control.</li><li>▪ Another alternative would need to be implemented in conjunction with bioswales in order to meet SWM objectives, making this alternative economically inefficient.</li><li>▪ The construction and maintenance of bioswales will create short and long term accessibility and visual impacts on residents.</li></ul>                                                                                     | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ This alternative is not preferred because infiltration in R.O.W.s cannot provide the required level of water quality and erosion control.</li><li>▪ Another alternative would need to be implemented in conjunction with infiltration in R.O.W.s in order to meet SWM objectives, making this alternative economically inefficient.</li><li>▪ The construction of infiltration pipes in R.O.W.s will create short term accessibility, visual and noise impacts on residents.</li></ul> |  |

| Table 1 –Evaluation of Conceptual Design Alternatives for Uncontrolled Outlet #66 (Uncontrolled Area) |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Criteria                                                                                              | Alternatives for Uncontrolled Outlet #66                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
|                                                                                                       | Do Nothing                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | Oil-Grit Separators (OGS)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | Construct Water Quality Facility                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
| Alternative Description                                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Stormwater runoff from the 13.34 ha minor drainage area will continue to be released into the receiving watercourse uncontrolled</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>1 unit connected to the minor system prior to final control and outfall</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Loss of current land use including clearing of vegetation</li><li>Significant earthworks operations</li><li>Remove and replace section of sewer and outlet infrastructure</li><li>Provision of wet habitat area adjacent to receiving watercourse</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
| Location in Treatment Train                                                                           | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      | End of Pipe                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
| Target SWM Objective(s)                                                                               | None                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | Quality Control                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
| Technical Considerations                                                                              |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
| Constructability and accessibility                                                                    | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Locations are accessible as OGS units could be installed upstream of the outfalls at manholes within municipal roadways; construction area is relatively small</li><li>Construction considerations include traffic interruptions and short term road closures</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Traffic management plans may reduce inconveniences associated with construction</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Access to site is limited but achievable through an access road</li><li>Redirection of servicing will be required to outlet to constructed wet pond</li><li>Existing changes in elevation could be incorporated as pond berms</li><li>Significant elevation difference between roadways and pond location. Pond can be built up to keep out of water table or cut down and include a clay liner</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Acquiring easements or property acquisition of adjacent private property may be required to utilize the existing gradient for construction of pond berms thereby reducing the amount of earthworks and conveyance structures</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
| Ability to meet stormwater management objective(s)                                                    | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Does not provide for or meet the stormwater management objectives of the City and/or TRCA, for water quality, erosion or quantity control</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No mitigation undertaken</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>OGS units may be able to provide all required stormwater quality objectives</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Pre-treatment of stormwater runoff with LIDs will enhance the performance of the OGS</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                              | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>A wet pond facility would be capable of fully meeting the requirements for quality control</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>A wet pond facility for quantity control could be constructed to include active storage capacity that will provide quantity and erosion control within a single footprint reducing disturbance to nearby landowners</li><li>Quality control can be enhanced with LIDs that infiltrate runoff within the drainage area</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
| Engineering best practises / innovative solution                                                      | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>OGS and similar units are noted as best management practices</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Pre-treatment of stormwater runoff with LIDs will enhance the performance of the OGS</li><li>Filtration cartridge options may be used rather than traditional OGS to target more specific pollutants</li></ul>                                                                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Typically more traditional SWM approach</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Quality control can be enhanced with LIDs that infiltrate runoff within the drainage area</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |
| Summary / Recommendations                                                                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Does not provide for or meet the stormwater management objectives of the City and/or TRCA, for water quality, erosion or quantity control</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>OGS can be effective, low-space option to provide water quality control</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Technically feasible</li><li>Construction of a surface detention facility can fully meet the quality control SWM criteria</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| Natural Environment                                                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
| Impacts to wildlife and vegetation habitats                                                           | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>The current condition of wildlife and vegetation habitats will not change; however if the release of uncontrolled stormwater into the receiving watercourse causes future erosion in the watercourse or impacts the quality of the water in the watercourse, this could have a negative impact on the future condition of wildlife and vegetation habitats.</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No mitigation undertaken</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>OGS does not physically interfere with the existing outlet or impact the surrounding forested area and improves water quality prior to discharge to the watercourse</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No mitigation required</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                    | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Existing vegetation will be cleared including a area of trees which is a young native forest</li><li>Results in a loss of terrestrial habitat but a gain in aquatic habitat for migrating birds and terrestrial animals</li><li>There are opportunities to improve the habitat quality of the receiving watercourse by reducing the sediment loading and potential contaminate exposure of the receiving watercourse</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Restoration plans will be developed to restore the surrounding areas impacted by construction</li><li>Riparian and aquatic vegetation can be planted on the berms and within the wet pond facility which will also aid in reducing the temperature impacts of the surface detention of runoff</li><li>Stringent construction practices can be implemented to reduce the possibility of introducing invasive species to the ecosystem during construction</li></ul> |
| Impacts / improvements based on SAR /                                                                 | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Meeting water quality criteria will improve water quality of downstream receiving waters</li><li>Little to no effect on temperature mitigation</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>There are opportunities to improve the habitat quality of the receiving watercourse by reducing the sediment loading of the</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |

| Criteria                                                                    | Alternatives for Uncontrolled Outlet #66                                                                                                                                                                                          |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|                                                                             | Do Nothing                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | Oil-Grit Separators (OGS)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | Construct Water Quality Facility                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
| ESA                                                                         |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Use of OGS can be enhanced with pre-treatment using LIDs throughout minor system watershed</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | watercourse <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>The receiving watercourse has been identified as unlikely to be Redside Dace habitat</li><li>Wet ponds can provide reduction of stormwater temperature with the inclusion of a bottom draw outlet and shading from vegetation</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Further consultation with the MNR regarding additional SAR will occur prior to the detailed design of the retrofit</li><li>Stringent construction practices can be implemented to reduce the possibility of introducing invasive species to the ecosystem during construction</li></ul> |
| Summary / Recommendations                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Existing vegetation and forest adjacent to uncontrolled outlet provides terrestrial habitat and will remain in the current condition</li></ul>                                              | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>OGS offers improvements to water quality</li><li>Used in conjunction with LIDs, OGS can improve water conditions for SAR</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>A wet pond can be beneficial to downstream receiving waters but will alter any existing habitat within the construction area</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
| Social Impacts                                                              |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| Requirement of easements or purchase of private lands                       | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Likely not required; preference to install and maintain OGS within municipal R.O.W., where maintenance is easily accessible</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Not applicable</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                  | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Likely not required for the construction and maintenance of a SWM facility for UC #67</li><li>If easements of adjacent private property was acquired than a larger facility could be constructed to provide SWM controls for UC #66 in addition to UC #67</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Land requirements would be confirmed through conceptual design</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
| Impacts to public and private properties due to construction and operations | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Roadway interference and/or short-term closure would be expected for the installation of OGS units</li><li>Temporary interference to be expected on roadways during maintenance (approximately once a year)</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Traffic management plans may reduce inconveniences associated with construction</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Noise and visual impacts associated with construction for the residences backing onto proposed SWM facility block</li><li>A construction staging area may need to be set up at the dead-end of nearby street and block access point which could disrupt local residents</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Construction management plan, including restrictions on hours</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                          |
| Effect on public safety                                                     | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Installed OGS does not pose threats to public safety</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No mitigation undertaken</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>By building to the required side slope and depth criteria, the wet pond facility should not pose a threat to public safety</li><li>There are no trails though this green space and public access is very limited, thereby reducing the exposure of public to the facility</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Flattened slopes, warning signs, and fencing (if required) can provide measures of safety</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                            |
| Summary / Recommendations                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>The ‘Do Nothing’ alternative has no social impacts</li></ul>                                                                                                                                | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>OGS presents few and short-term impacts associated with installation and maintenance</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Construction of a wet pond facility would be a longer-term construction project with potential noise, traffic and visual impacts</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
| Economic Considerations                                                     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| Capital costs                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No action may result in greater capital expenses in the future</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Not applicable</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Relatively low capital cost for installation of one (1) unit and associated infrastructure works</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Capital cost of OGS units can be reduced if stormwater is pre-treated with LIDs (thus scaling down required OGS size)</li></ul>                                                                      | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Moderate to high capital cost for earthworks, grading, infrastructure components and permits</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Capital costs can be marginally reduced if stormwater is pre-treated with LIDs throughout the watershed (thus scaling down required quality control volumes and footprint)</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
| Maintenance and operating costs                                             | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Fairly low maintenance cost and frequency; approximately annually</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Maintenance frequency of OGS units should not decrease with increased pre-treatment</li></ul>                                                                                                                                       | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Moderate maintenance cost and frequency; likely seasonally</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Maintenance frequency should be as directed by operations manual</li><li>Maintenance frequency can be reduced if stormwater is pre-treated with LIDs throughout the watershed (thus scaling down required quality control volume)</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
| Impact on future development and growth                                     | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Size of OGS is static once installed and would require upgrading if a larger drainage area is directed to it (in order to meet water quality criteria)</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Additional OGS units may be installed in the</li></ul>                                                                                         | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No impact, but detention facility would require expansion if contributing land use was to intensify</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>On-site control requirements for any intensified development within the facility’s</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |

| Criteria                          | Alternatives for Uncontrolled Outlet #66                                                                                                                       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |
|-----------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|                                   | Do Nothing                                                                                                                                                     | Oil-Grit Separators (OGS)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | Construct Water Quality Facility                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
|                                   |                                                                                                                                                                | future to correspond with growth                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | watershed would mitigate further expansion                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
| Summary / Recommendations         | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ ‘Do nothing’ may postpone required works and increase future costs</li></ul>                                           | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Installation of OGS units is a low to medium cost solution for achievement of most of the required SWM criteria</li></ul>                                                                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Construction of a wet pond facility would present moderate to high capital costs for achievement of quality control</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                      |
| Results of Alternative Evaluation | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ This alternative is not preferred because the alternative does not meet the stormwater management objectives</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ This is a preferred alternative due to the lower cost, small disturbance area and ability to provide full quality control</li><li>▪ This alternative can be implemented with little to no loss of existing trees.</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ A wet pond facility would be capable of fully meeting the requirements for quality control</li><li>▪ Retaining existing trees is a high priority for the City of Markham; however tree loss is probable for construction of this alternative. Therefore, this is not a preferred option.</li></ul> |

| Criteria                                                                    | Alternatives for Uncontrolled Outlet #66                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                                                    |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------|
|                                                                             | Underground Storage                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | Bioswales                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | Infiltration in Right-of-Ways (R.O.W)              |
| Alternative Description                                                     | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Install perforated secondary pipe within existing storm sewer systems to allow for infiltration through linear soakaway pits</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Construct bioswales within the road right-of-ways within the facility drainage area</li><li>▪ Bioswales to contain native plantings and subdrains</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ </li></ul> |
| Location in Treatment Train                                                 | Conveyance                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                                                    |
| Target SWM Objectives                                                       | Quality Control                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                                                    |
| Technical Considerations                                                    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                                                    |
| Constructability and accessibility                                          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Construction area is extensive and many secondary infiltration pipes would require to be installed to achieve SWM criteria</li><li>▪ Requires coordination with existing infrastructure and utilities</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Perforated pipes (exfiltration pipes) and soakaway pits may be more suited as supplementary water quality / erosion / temperature control measures, where constructability and retrofit are least disruptive to existing infrastructure</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Construction area is extensive and pipe networks are more intricate, requiring coordination with existing infrastructure</li><li>▪ Road right of ways need to be conducive to grading and space criteria for bioswales</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Bioswales may be more suited as supplementary water quality / erosion / temperature control measures, where constructability and retrofit are least disruptive to existing infrastructure</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ </li></ul> |
| Ability to meet stormwater management objective(s)                          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Perforated pipes (exfiltration pipes) and soakaway pits may are more effective when used within a treatment train to achieve the stormwater objectives</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Additional pre-treatment will enhance the function of the perforated pipes, to reduce clogging</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                         | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Bioswales are more effective when used within a treatment train to achieve the stormwater objectives</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Additional pre-treatment will enhance the function of bioswales, to reduce clogging of the underdrain pipes</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                 | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ </li></ul> |
| Engineering best practises / innovative solution                            | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Perforated pipes (exfiltration pipes) and soakaway pits may are innovative solutions within stormwater management</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Enhanced with further use of LIDs such as vegetated filter strips</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Bioswales are innovative solutions within stormwater management conveyance systems</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Enhanced with further use of LIDs such as vegetated filter strips</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ </li></ul> |
| Summary / Recommendations                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Perforated pipes (exfiltration pipes) and soakaway pits may are effective as part of a treatment train and where retrofit does not greatly interfere with existing infrastructure</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Bioswales are effective as part of a treatment train and where retrofit does not greatly interfere with existing infrastructure</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ </li></ul> |
| Natural Environment                                                         |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                                                    |
| Impacts to wildlife and vegetation habitats                                 | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ May require removal of some vegetation depending on specific location; likely few impacts to existing wildlife and vegetation habitats</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Areas disturbed during construction will be restored</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ May require removal of some vegetation depending on specific location</li><li>▪ May present phosphorus issues if not properly designed and/or maintained</li><li>▪ Bioswales may decrease water temperature, providing benefits to the aquatic habitat of the receiving watercourse</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Planted bioswales will enhance neighbourhoods with additional vegetated areas</li></ul>                                                | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ </li></ul> |
| Impacts / improvements based on SAR / ESA                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Underground tanks may decrease water temperature, providing benefits to the aquatic habitat of the receiving watercourse</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Perforated pipes (exfiltration pipes) and soakaway pits may be more suited as supplementary water temperature control measures</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                       | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Bioswales may decrease water temperature, providing benefits to the aquatic habitat of the receiving watercourse</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Bioswales may be more suited as supplementary water temperature control measures</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ </li></ul> |
| Summary / Recommendations                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Perforated pipes (exfiltration pipes) and soakaway pits present few impact on the natural environment</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Bioswales which are properly designed to avoid phosphorus loading provide positive impact on the natural environment</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |                                                    |
| Social Impacts                                                              |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                                                    |
| Requirement of easements or purchase of private lands                       | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ To be constructed within municipal R.O.W.</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Not applicable</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ To be constructed within municipal R.O.W.</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Not applicable</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ </li></ul> |
| Impacts to public and private properties due to construction and operations | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Impacts may include temporary, minor traffic and noise issues due to construction within the residential streets</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Appropriate construction and traffic management schedule to be adhered to</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Impacts may include temporary, minor traffic and noise issues and significant visual nuisances due to construction within the residential streets</li><li>▪ Bioswales are likely to face public opposition due to the maintenance requirements, visual disruption to an otherwise “clean”</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                              | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ </li></ul> |

| Criteria                                | Alternatives for Uncontrolled Outlet #66                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |                                                    |
|-----------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------|
|                                         | Underground Storage                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | Bioswales                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | Infiltration in Right-of-Ways (R.O.W)              |
|                                         |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | front lawn and inconvenience of culverts under drivewaysMitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Appropriate construction and traffic management schedule to be adhered to</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |                                                    |
| Effect on public safety                 | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ No public safety concerns beyond construction period</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Proper signage and safety measures to be set up for construction period</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ No public safety concerns beyond construction period</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Proper signage and safety measures to be set up for construction period</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ </li></ul> |
| Summary / Recommendations               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Impacts are minor and mostly temporary, within the construction period</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Impacts during construction are temporary and mostly minor</li><li>▪ Long term impacts on residents due to visual impacts and culvert maintenance are significant</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ </li></ul> |
| Economic Considerations                 |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |                                                    |
| Capital costs                           | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Moderate to high capital cost related to new pipe infrastructure, earthworks and plantings, as well as likely relocation of existing pipe infrastructure</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Proficient SUE investigation prior to design work can minimize unexpected existing pipe/utility interferences</li></ul>                                                                                                 | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Moderate to high capital cost related to new pipe infrastructure, earthworks and plantings, as well as likely relocation of existing pipe infrastructure</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Proficient SUE investigation prior to design work can minimize unexpected existing pipe/utility interferences</li></ul>                                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ </li></ul> |
| Maintenance and operating costs         | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Low to moderate maintenance costs associated with unclogging perforated pipes</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Pre-treatment of stormwater with grassed filter strips can prevent some clogging of perforated pipes</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                     | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Low to moderate maintenance costs associated with replacing filter media, unclogging perforated pipes</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Pre-treatment of stormwater with grassed filter strips can prevent some clogging of perforated pipes</li></ul>                                                                                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ </li></ul> |
| Impact on future development and growth | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Retrofit R.O.W. with perforated pipes and soakaway pits may dictate R.O.W. standards for future development</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ On-site control requirements for any future intensification within the watershed would mitigate negative impacts on the LID</li></ul>                                                                                                                                | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Retrofit R.O.W. with bioswales may dictate R.O.W. standards for future development</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ On-site control requirements for any future intensification within the watershed would mitigate negative impacts on the LID</li></ul>                                                                                                                           | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ </li></ul> |
| Summary / Recommendations               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Perforated pipes and soakaway pits are a moderate to high capital cost for retrofit</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Bioswales are a moderate to high capital cost for retrofit but may add value to a neighbourhood</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ </li></ul> |
| Results of Alternative Evaluation       | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ This alternative is not preferred because infiltration in R.O.W.s cannot provide the required level of water quality and erosion control.</li><li>▪ Another alternative would need to be implemented in conjunction with infiltration in R.O.W.s in order to meet SWM objectives, making this alternative economically inefficient.</li><li>▪ The construction of infiltration pipes in R.O.W.s will create short term accessibility, visual and noise impacts on residents.</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ This alternative is not preferred because bioswales cannot provide the required level of water quality and erosion control.</li><li>▪ Another alternative would need to be implemented in conjunction with bioswales in order to meet SWM objectives, making this alternative economically inefficient.</li><li>▪ The construction and maintenance of bioswales will create short and long term accessibility and visual impacts on residents.</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ </li></ul> |

| Table 1 –Evaluation of Conceptual Design Alternatives for Uncontrolled Outlet #94 (Uncontrolled Area) |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Criteria                                                                                              | Alternatives for Uncontrolled Outlet #94                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
|                                                                                                       | Do Nothing                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      | Oil-Grit Separators (OGS)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | Construct Water Quality Facility                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
| Alternative Description                                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Stormwater runoff from the 100.32 ha minor drainage area will continue to be released into the receiving watercourse uncontrolled</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>One (1) unit connected to the minor system prior to final control and outfall</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Loss of current land use including clearing of vegetation</li><li>Significant earthworks operations</li><li>Remove and replace section of sewer and outlet infrastructure</li><li>Provision of wet habitat area adjacent to receiving watercourse</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| Location in Treatment Train                                                                           | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             | End of Pipe                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
| Target SWM Objective(s)                                                                               | None                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | Quality Control                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
| Technical Considerations                                                                              |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
| Constructability and accessibility                                                                    | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Locations are accessible as OGS units could be installed upstream of the outfalls at manholes within municipal roadways; construction area is relatively small</li><li>Construction considerations include traffic interruptions and short term road closures</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Traffic management plans may reduce inconveniences associated with construction</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>The site is adjacent to a recreational park and is along a public access trail</li><li>Redirection of servicing will be required to outlet to constructed wet pond</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Safety precautions including signage and fencing would be required since the construction site would be within a public park</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
| Ability to meet stormwater management objective(s)                                                    | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Does not provide for or meet the stormwater management objectives of the City and/or TRCA for water quality, erosion or quantity control</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No mitigation undertaken</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>OGS units may be able to provide all required stormwater quality objectives</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Pre-treatment of stormwater runoff with LIDs will enhance the performance of the OGS</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                              | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>A wet pond facility would be capable of partially or fully meeting the requirements for quality control, depending if a facility for the full required volume can be accommodated</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>A wet pond facility for quantity control could be constructed to include active storage capacity that will provide quantity and erosion control within a single footprint; however space is limited and this is not a realistic enhancement</li><li>Quality control can be enhanced with LIDs that infiltrate runoff within the drainage area</li></ul>                                              |
| Engineering best practises / innovative solution                                                      | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>OGS and similar units are noted as best management practices</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Pre-treatment of stormwater runoff with LIDs will enhance the performance of the OGS</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Typically more traditional SWM approach</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Quality control can be enhanced with LIDs that infiltrate runoff within the drainage area</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |
| Summary / Recommendations                                                                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Does not provide for or meet the stormwater management objectives of the City and/or TRCA for water quality, erosion or quantity control</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>OGS can be effective, low-space option to provide water quality control</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Technically feasible; however, full permanent pool volume may not be accommodated within the available space</li><li>Construction of a surface detention facility can fully meet the quality control SWM criteria</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| Natural Environment                                                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
| Impacts to wildlife and vegetation habitats                                                           | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Current condition of wildlife and vegetation habitats will not change; however if the release rate of uncontrolled stormwater into the receiving watercourse causes future erosion in the watercourse or impacts the quality of the water in the watercourse, this could have negative impact on the future condition of wildlife and vegetation habitats</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No mitigation undertaken</li><li></li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>OGS does not physically interfere with the existing outlet or impact the surrounding forested area and improves water quality prior to discharge to the watercourse</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No mitigation required</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                    | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Existing vegetation will be cleared including a few adult trees in the park land.</li><li>There are opportunities to improve the habitat quality of the receiving watercourse by reducing the sediment loading and potential contaminate exposure of the receiving watercourse</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Restoration plans will be developed to restore the surrounding areas impacted by construction</li><li>Riparian and aquatic vegetation can be planted on the berms and within the wet pond facility which will also aid in reducing the temperature impacts of the surface detention of runoff</li></ul> |
| Impacts / improvements based on SAR / ESA                                                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Existing vegetation provides some benefit to reducing water temperature</li><li>By not implementing temperature controls, receiving waters may have higher temperatures over time and this can negatively impact sensitive species such as Redside Dace</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No mitigation undertaken</li></ul>                                                                                                            | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Meeting water quality criteria will improve water quality of downstream receiving waters</li><li>Little to no effect on temperature mitigation</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Use of OGS can be enhanced with pre-treatment using LIDs throughout minor system watershed</li></ul>                                                                                                     | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>There are opportunities to improve the habitat quality of the receiving watercourse by reducing the sediment loading of the watercourse</li><li>Wet ponds can provide reduction of stormwater temperature with the inclusion of a bottom draw outlet and shading from vegetation</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Further consultation with the MNR regarding SAR will occur prior to the detailed design of the retrofit</li><li>Stringent construction practices can be</li></ul>                                                                                                                                     |

| Criteria                                                                    | Alternatives for Uncontrolled Outlet #94                                                                                                                                            |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|                                                                             | Do Nothing                                                                                                                                                                          | Oil-Grit Separators (OGS)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | Construct Water Quality Facility                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
|                                                                             |                                                                                                                                                                                     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 | implemented to reduce the possibility of introducing invasive species to the ecosystem during construction                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| Summary / Recommendations                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Over time, increasing erosion and water temperatures decrease water quality and affect the health of vegetation and aquatic species</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>OGS offers improvements to water quality</li><li>Used in conjunction with LIDs, OGS can improve water conditions for SAR</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>A wet pond can be beneficial to downstream receiving waters but will alter any existing habitat within the construction area</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
| Social Impacts                                                              |                                                                                                                                                                                     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
| Requirement of easements or purchase of private lands                       | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                 | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Not required; preference to install and maintain OGS within municipal R.O.W., where maintenance is easily accessible</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Not applicable</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                         | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Not a reasonable alternative for the construction and maintenance of a SWM facility for UC #94</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Land requirements would be confirmed through conceptual design</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |
| Impacts to public and private properties due to construction and operations | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                 | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Roadway interference and/or short-term closure would be expected for the installation of OGS units</li><li>Temporary interference to be expected on roadways during maintenance (approximately once a year)</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Traffic management plans may reduce inconveniences associated with construction</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Noise and visual impacts associated with construction for the residences backing onto proposed SWM facility block</li><li>A construction staging area may need to be set up at north side of the recreational park or within the construction area</li><li>The SWM facility would be built on public recreational park land</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Construction management plan, including restrictions on hours</li></ul> |
| Effect on public safety                                                     | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                 | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Installed OGS does not pose threats to public safety</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No mitigation undertaken</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>By building to the required side slope and depth criteria, the wet pond facility should not pose a threat to public safety</li><li>There is a trail though this green space adjacent to the proposed facility</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Flattened slopes, warning signs, and fencing (if required) can provide measures of safety</li></ul>                                                                                   |
| Summary / Recommendations                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>The ‘Do Nothing’ alternative has no social impacts</li></ul>                                                                                  | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>OGS presents few and short-term impacts associated with installation and maintenance</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Construction of a wet pond facility would be a longer-term construction project with potential noise, traffic and visual impacts</li><li>Loss of public park space</li><li>Potential hazard to public after construction is complete</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |
| Economic Considerations                                                     |                                                                                                                                                                                     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
| Capital costs                                                               | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                 | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Relatively low capital cost for installation of one (1) unit and associated infrastructure works</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Capital cost of OGS units can be reduced if stormwater is pre-treated with LIDs (thus scaling down required OGS size)</li></ul>                                                                      | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Moderate capital cost for earthworks, grading, infrastructure components and permits</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Capital costs can be marginally reduced if stormwater is pre-treated with LIDs throughout the watershed (thus scaling down required quality control volumes and footprint)</li></ul>                                                                                                                           |
| Maintenance and operating costs                                             | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                 | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Fairly low maintenance cost and frequency; approximately annually</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Maintenance frequency of OGS units should not decrease with increased pre-treatment</li></ul>                                                                                                                                       | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Moderate maintenance cost and frequency; likely seasonally</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Maintenance frequency should be as directed by operations manual</li><li>Maintenance frequency can be reduced if stormwater is pre-treated with LIDs throughout the watershed (thus scaling down required quality control volume)</li></ul>                                                                                              |
| Impact on future development and growth                                     | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                 | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Size of OGS is static once installed and would require upgrading if a larger drainage area is directed to it (in order to meet water quality criteria)</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Additional OGS units may be installed in the future to correspond with growth</li></ul>                                                        | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No impact, but detention facility would require expansion if contributing land use was to intensify</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>On-site control requirements for any intensified development within the facility’s watershed would mitigate further expansion</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                         |
| Summary / Recommendations                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>‘Do nothing’ may postpone required works and increase future costs</li></ul>                                                                  | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Installation of OGS units is a low to medium cost solution for achievement of most of the required SWM criteria</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Construction of a wet pond facility would present moderate capital costs for achievement of quality control</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
| Results of Alternative Evaluation                                           | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>This alternative is not preferred because the alternative does not meet the stormwater management objectives</li></ul>                        | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>This is a preferred alternative due to the lower cost, small disturbance area and ability to provide full quality control</li><li>This alternative can be implemented with little to no loss of existing trees.</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                 | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>A wet pond facility would be capable of fully meeting the requirements for quality control</li><li>This is not a preferred option because of the loss of public park space and the hazard potential</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |

| Criteria                                           | Alternatives for Uncontrolled Outlet #94                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
|----------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|                                                    | Construct Extended Detention Facility                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | Underground Storage                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | Aquatic and Riparian Plantings at Facility                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| Alternative Description                            | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Loss of current land use including clearing of vegetation</li> <li>Significant earthworks</li> <li>Remove and replace section of existing sewer and outlet infrastructure</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Installed at proposed pond block location</li> <li>Underground storage tanks will capture and detain stormwater and release over an extended time period</li> <li>Infiltration type underground tanks will allow for infiltration during detention period</li> <li>May need water quality control prior to infiltrating (if proposed)</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Plantings to increase density and area of vegetation cover surrounding facility and within facility to provide shade for cooling of detained water</li> <li>Only applicable to surface SWM facilities</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                   |
| Location in Treatment Train                        | End of Pipe                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
| Target SWM Objectives                              | Erosion Control                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              | Erosion and Temperature Control                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | Temperature Control                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
| Technical Considerations                           |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
| Constructability and accessibility                 | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>The site is adjacent to a recreational park and is along a public access trail</li> <li>Redirection of servicing will be required to outlet to constructed extended detention facility</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Safety precautions including signage and fencing would be required since the construction site would be within a public park</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Footprint may be large but is constructible within municipally owned pond block lands; constructability is low to moderate</li> <li>Still allows for use of land at-grade</li> <li>May require re-organization of existing outlets to feed into central underground tanks</li> <li>Based on soil mapping, the drainage area is conducive to infiltration</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Tanks with infiltration capabilities provide additional benefits to erosion and temperature control</li> <li>Constructability would likely be increased by incorporating several underground tanks rather than one central system</li> <li>Site specific soil testing is required to confirm suitability of infiltration</li> </ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>No constructability issues anticipated with adding plantings to proposed facilities</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Plantings enhance temperature control by providing shade</li> <li>Surface SWM facilities not suggested for this site, therefore aquatic plantings will not likely be a solution for this site</li> </ul> |
| Ability to meet stormwater management objective(s) | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>An extended detention facility would be capable of partially or fully meeting the requirements for erosion control, depending if a facility for the full required volume can be accommodated</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>An extended detention facility for erosion control could be constructed to include quality control capacity that will provide quality and erosion control within a single footprint; however space is limited and this is not a realistic enhancement</li> <li>Erosion control can be enhanced with LIDs that infiltrate runoff within the drainage area</li> </ul>                                                                                | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Underground tanks, especially with infiltration capabilities, are effective for providing quantity, quality and erosion control</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Longer detention times can enhance the erosion control</li> <li>Underground storage tanks to be designed to provide quantity control</li> <li>Infiltration type underground tanks will allow for infiltration during detention period</li> <li>May need water quality control prior to infiltrating (if proposed)</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Shade from plantings will reduce the temperature of stormwater at a facility</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Plantings are better used in conjunction with other cooling methods to achieve adequate temperature control</li> </ul>                                                                                          |
| Engineering best practises / innovative solution   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Typically more traditional SWM approach</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Erosion control can be enhanced with LIDs that infiltrate runoff within the drainage area</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Underground tanks, including infiltration, are noted as best management practices</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Maintenance of underground tanks is more extensive than at-grade alternatives</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Temperature control of stormwater in general is becoming an engineering best management practice in areas with sensitive habitats</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Effects of plantings can be enhanced with other methods such as use of a bottom draw outlet</li> </ul>                                                     |
| Summary / Recommendations                          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Technically feasible; however, full erosion control volume may not be accommodated within the available space</li> <li>Construction of an extended detention facility can fully meet the erosion control SWM criteria</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Technically feasible, requiring more intrusive maintenance</li> <li>Useful for maintaining land uses at-grade and visually not intrusive</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Plantings at stormwater management facility are a simple alternative to provide additional temperature controls</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| Natural Environment                                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
| Impacts to wildlife and vegetation habitats        | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Existing vegetation will be cleared including a portion of the forest which includes a few adult trees in park land.</li> <li>Results in a loss of terrestrial habitat</li> <li>There are opportunities to improve the habitat quality of the receiving watercourse by reducing the peak flows entering the watercourse and thereby reducing erosion</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Restoration plans will be developed to restore the surrounding areas impacted by construction</li> <li>Vegetation can be planted on the perimeter of the extended detention facility which will also aid in reducing the temperature impacts of the surface detention of runoff</li> </ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>May require removal of some vegetation depending on specific location</li> <li>Once installed, less intrusive than other alternatives because of location below grade</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Restoration plan required if loss of vegetation expected due to construction</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Planting native species can enhance the existing wildlife and vegetation</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>No mitigation undertaken</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                 |
| Impacts / improvements based on SAR / ESA          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>There are opportunities to improve the habitat quality of the receiving watercourse by reducing the erosion and thereby sediment loading of the receiving</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Underground tanks may improve the habitat quality of the receiving watercourse by reducing the erosion and thereby sediment loading of the receiving watercourse</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Providing additional shade at stormwater facilities reduces stormwater temperature which is a key benefit for Redside Dace Habitat</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |

| Criteria                                                                           | Alternatives for Uncontrolled Outlet #94                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|                                                                                    | Construct Extended Detention Facility                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | Underground Storage                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | Aquatic and Riparian Plantings at Facility                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
|                                                                                    | watercourse <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>The receiving watercourse has been identified as possible Redside Dace habitat</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Further consultation with the MNR regarding SAR will occur prior to the detailed design of the retrofit</li> <li>Stringent construction practices can be implemented to reduce the possibility of introducing invasive species to the ecosystem during construction</li> </ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>The receiving watercourse has been identified to be possible Redside Dace habitat</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Further consultation with the MNR regarding SAR will occur prior to the detailed design of the retrofit</li> <li>Stringent construction practices can be implemented to reduce the possibility of introducing invasive species to the ecosystem during construction</li> </ul> | Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Effects of plantings can be enhanced with other methods such as use of a bottom draw outlet</li> <li>Further consultation with the MNR regarding SAR will occur prior to the detailed design of the retrofit</li> </ul> |
| Summary / Recommendations                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>A extended detention facility can be beneficial to downstream receiving waters but will alter any existing habitat within the construction area</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Underground tanks are a long-term non-invasive alternative for providing quantity, quality and erosion control</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Plantings at stormwater facilities provide positive impacts on the natural environment (provided they are non-invasive species)</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                  |
| Social Impacts                                                              |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| Requirement of easements or purchase of private lands                       | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Not a reasonable alternative for the construction and maintenance of a SWM facility for UC #94</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Land requirements would be confirmed through conceptual design</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                  | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Not a reasonable alternative for the construction and maintenance of an underground storage tank facility for UC #94</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Land requirements would be confirmed through conceptual design</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Not applicable (unless required in conjunction with stormwater facility construction)</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Not applicable</li> </ul>                                                       |
| Impacts to public and private properties due to construction and operations | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Noise and visual impacts associated with construction for the residences backing onto proposed SWM facility block</li> <li>A construction staging area may need to be set up at north side of the recreational park or within the construction area</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Construction management plan, including restrictions on hours</li> </ul>                                              | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Noise and visual impacts associated with construction for the residences backing onto proposed SWM facility block</li> <li>A construction staging area may need to be set up at north side of the recreational park or within the construction area</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Construction management plan, including restrictions on hours</li> </ul>                                     | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| Effect on public safety                                                     | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>By building to the required slope and depth criteria, the extended detention facility should not pose a threat to public safety</li> <li>There is a trail though this green space adjacent to the proposed facility</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Adequate slopes, warning signs, and fencing (if required) can provide measures of safety</li> </ul>                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>No public safety concerns beyond construction period</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Proper signage and safety measures to be set up for construction period</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Vegetation should be suitable for proposed facility and clearly indicate any water’s edge</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Vegetation at facilities must be maintained</li> </ul>                      |
| Summary / Recommendations                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Construction of an extended detention facility would be a longer-term construction project with potential noise, traffic and visual impacts</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Underground tanks are proposed to be located in the pond block; not intrusive to the public after construction</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>No significant social impacts of plantings at stormwater facilities</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                              |
| Economic Considerations                                                     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| Capital costs                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Moderate cost for earthworks, grading, infrastructure components, permits</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Capital costs can be marginally reduced if stormwater is pre-treated with LIDs throughout the watershed (thus scaling down required detention volumes)</li> </ul>                                                                                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Moderate capital cost related to storage tank infrastructure</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Efficient tank design to minimize capital costs</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Low capital cost relative to other alternatives</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Costs may vary depending on extents and types of plantings</li> </ul>                                                 |
| Maintenance and operating costs                                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Lower maintenance cost and frequency; likely every few years</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Maintenance frequency should be as directed by operations manual</li> <li>Maintenance frequency can be reduced by providing pre-treatment for sediment removal</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                    | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Low maintenance costs associated with cleaning out tanks as per operations manual or in event of clogging</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Can prevent clogging with additional pre-treatment techniques</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Low maintenance costs with native, sustainable plantings</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Lower maintenance plants will minimize costs of maintenance and/or replanting</li> </ul>                     |
| Impact on future development and growth                                     | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>No impact, but extended detention facility would require expansion if contributing land use was to intensify</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>On-site control requirements for any intensified development within the facility’s watershed would mitigate further expansion</li> </ul>                                                                                                                     | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>No impact, but underground tanks would require expansion if contributing land use was to intensify</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>On-site control requirements for any future intensification within the watershed would mitigate further expansion</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                  | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| Summary / Recommendations                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Construction of an extended detention facility would present moderate capital costs for achievement of quantity control</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Underground tanks provide moderate to high capital and maintenance costs for the achievement of quantity, quality and erosion control</li> <li>A larger footprint may be required with the use of this alternative</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Plantings at SWM facilities are a low cost alternative for providing temperature control</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                         |
| Results of Alternative Evaluation                                           | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>This is not a preferred option because there is not enough space to build an adequately sized facility for the required erosion control</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>This is a preferred alternative because public recreational land can be restored after construction of an underground storage tank as compared to a pond. This alternative would be constructed such that it minimizes the number</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Due to the other selected preferred options being below ground, the water is unaffected by the warming effects of the sun. Therefore, further temperature mitigation is not required at UC #94.</li> </ul>                                                                  |

| Criteria | Alternatives for Uncontrolled Outlet #94 |                          |                                            |
|----------|------------------------------------------|--------------------------|--------------------------------------------|
|          | Construct Extended Detention Facility    | Underground Storage      | Aquatic and Riparian Plantings at Facility |
|          |                                          | of adult trees affected. |                                            |

| Criteria                                              | Alternatives for Uncontrolled Outlet #94                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
|-------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|                                                       | Bioswales                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          | Infiltration in Right-of-Ways (R.O.W.)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          | Bottom Draw Outlet in a Wet Pond                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
| Alternative Description                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Construct bioswales within the road right-of-ways within the facility drainage area</li><li>Bioswales to contain native plantings and subdrains</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Install perforated secondary pipe within existing storm sewer systems to allow for infiltration through linear soakaway pits</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Construct a bottom draw outlet to reduce temperatures of discharged water.</li><li>Only applicable if the wetland is converted into a wet pond</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |
| Location in Treatment Train                           | Conveyance                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 | End of Pipe                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |
| Target SWM Objective(s)                               | Quality, Erosion and Temperature Control                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 | Temperature Control                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
| Technical Considerations                              |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| Constructability and accessibility                    | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Construction area is extensive and pipe networks are more intricate, requiring coordination with existing infrastructure</li><li>Road right of ways need to be conducive to grading and space criteria for bioswales</li><li>Based on soil mapping, the soil in the drainage area is conducive to infiltration</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Bioswales may be more suited as supplementary water quality / erosion / temperature control measures, where constructability and retrofit are least disruptive to existing infrastructure</li><li>Site specific soil testing is required to confirm suitability of infiltration</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Construction area is extensive and many secondary infiltration pipes would require to be installed to achieve SWM criteria</li><li>Requires coordination with existing infrastructure and utilities</li><li>Based on soil mapping, the soil in the drainage area is conducive to infiltration</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Perforated pipes (exfiltration pipes) and soakaway pits may be more suited as supplementary water quality / erosion / temperature control measures, where constructability and retrofit are least disruptive to existing infrastructure</li><li>Site specific soil testing is required to confirm suitability of infiltration</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Constructability is simple, pending adequate depth of the wet pond</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Greater depth enhances the thermal mitigation function of the bottom draw outlet</li><li>Since a wet pond is not the preferred alternative for this site, a bottom draw outlet is also not likely to be suitable</li></ul> |
| Ability to meet stormwater management objective(s)    | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Bioswales are more effective when used within a treatment train to achieve the stormwater objectives</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Additional pre-treatment will enhance the function of bioswales, to reduce clogging of the underdrain pipes</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Perforated pipes (exfiltration pipes) and soakaway pits may are more effective when used within a treatment train to achieve the stormwater objectives</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Additional pre-treatment will enhance the function of the perforated pipes, to reduce clogging</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Bottom draw outlets can be effective in decreasing the temperature of the outlet water</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Thermal mitigation would be best achieved with a combination of LID methods</li></ul>                                                                                                                  |
| Engineering best practises / innovative solution      | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Bioswales are innovative solutions within stormwater management conveyance systems</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Enhanced with further use of LIDs such as vegetated filter strips</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Perforated pipes (exfiltration pipes) and soakaway pits may are innovative solutions within stormwater management</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Enhanced with further use of LIDs such as vegetated filter strips</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Bottom draw outlets in combination with cooling trenches are recent best management practices</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Thermal mitigation can be enhanced overall with LIDs within the contributing watershed</li></ul>                                                                                                |
| Summary / Recommendations                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Bioswales are effective as part of a treatment train and where retrofit does not greatly interfere with existing infrastructure</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Perforated pipes (exfiltration pipes) and soakaway pits may are effective as part of a treatment train and where retrofit does not greatly interfere with existing infrastructure</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>A bottom draw outlet is a recommended outlet alternative for the wet pond to achieve required temperature control</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
| Natural Environment                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| Impacts to wildlife and vegetation habitats           | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>May require removal of some vegetation depending on specific location</li><li>May present phosphorus issues if not properly designed and/or maintained</li><li>Bioswales may decrease water temperature, providing benefits to the aquatic habitat of the receiving watercourse</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Planted bioswales will enhance neighbourhoods with additional vegetated areas</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>May require removal of some vegetation depending on specific location; likely few impacts to existing wildlife and vegetation habitats</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Areas disturbed during construction will be restored.</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No impact to vegetation</li><li>May impact aquatic habitat; requires appropriate measures to avoid harm to fish</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Effects could be mitigated with appropriate screens and outflow velocities</li></ul>                                                                                          |
| Impacts / improvements based on SAR / ESA             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Bioswales may decrease water temperature, providing benefits to the aquatic habitat of the receiving watercourse including Redside Dace.</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Bioswales may be more suited as supplementary water temperature control measures</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Underground tanks may decrease water temperature, providing benefits to the aquatic habitat of the receiving watercourse including Redside Dace.</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Perforated pipes (exfiltration pipes) and soakaway pits may be more suited as supplementary water temperature control measures</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Cooling effects are very beneficial for Redside Dace habitat</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Alternative can be enhanced with LIDs within the watershed and planting techniques within the wet pond</li></ul>                                                                                                                 |
| Summary / Recommendations                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Bioswales that are properly designed to avoid phosphorus loading provide positive impact on the natural environment</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Perforated pipes (exfiltration pipes) and soakaway pits present few impact on the natural environment</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Bottom draw outlet is a simple alternative to incorporate into a wet pond for the achievement of temperature control</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| Social Impacts                                        |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| Requirement of easements or purchase of private lands | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>To be constructed within municipal R.O.W.</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Not applicable</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>To be constructed within municipal R.O.W.</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Not applicable</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
| Impacts to public and private                         | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Impacts may include temporary, minor traffic and noise issues and significant visual</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Impacts may include temporary, minor traffic and noise issues due to construction within the</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Impacts are related to the construction of the wet pond</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |

| Criteria                                      | Alternatives for Uncontrolled Outlet #94                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |
|-----------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|                                               | Bioswales                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | Infiltration in Right-of-Ways (R.O.W.)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | Bottom Draw Outlet in a Wet Pond                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
| properties due to construction and operations | nuisances due to construction within the residential streets Bioswales are likely to face public opposition due to the maintenance requirements, visual disruption to an otherwise “clean” front lawn and inconvenience of culverts under driveways Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures Appropriate construction and traffic management schedule to be adhered to                | residential streets Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures Appropriate construction and traffic management schedule to be adhered to                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures Bottom draw outlet itself does not present additional impacts                                                                                                |
| Effect on public safety                       | No public safety concerns beyond construction period Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures Proper signage and safety measures to be set up for construction period                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | No public safety concerns beyond construction period Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures Proper signage and safety measures to be set up for construction period                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
| Summary / Recommendations                     | Impacts during construction are temporary and mostly minor Long term impacts on residents due to visual impacts and culvert maintenance are significant                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | Impacts are minor and mostly temporary, within the construction period                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | There are no social impacts associated with the bottom draw outlet                                                                                                                                                              |
| Economic Considerations                       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |
| Capital costs                                 | Moderate to high capital cost related to new pipe infrastructure, earthworks and plantings, as well as likely relocation of existing pipe infrastructure Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures Proficient SUE investigation prior to design work can minimize unexpected existing pipe/utility interferences                                                                                             | Moderate to high capital cost related to new pipe infrastructure, earthworks and plantings, as well as likely relocation of existing pipe infrastructure Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures Proficient SUE investigation prior to design work can minimize unexpected existing pipe/utility interferences                                                                                                                           | Low capital cost as standalone item Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures No mitigation required                                                                                        |
| Maintenance and operating costs               | Low to moderate maintenance costs associated with replacing filter media, unclogging perforated pipes Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures Pre-treatment of stormwater with grassed filter strips can prevent some clogging of perforated pipes                                                                                                                                                         | Low to moderate maintenance costs associated with unclogging perforated pipes Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures Pre-treatment of stormwater with grassed filter strips can prevent some clogging of perforated pipes                                                                                                                                                                                                               | Low maintenance costs as standalone; costs associated with maintenance of wet pond Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures Maintenance due to clogging can be reduced with proper screens |
| Impact on future development and growth       | Retrofit R.O.W. with bioswales may dictate R.O.W. standards for future development Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures On-site control requirements for any future intensification within the watershed would mitigate negative impacts on the LID                                                                                                                                                     | Retrofit R.O.W. with perforated pipes and soakaway pits may dictate R.O.W. standards for future development Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures On-site control requirements for any future intensification within the watershed would mitigate negative impacts on the LID                                                                                                                                                          | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
| Summary / Recommendations                     | Bioswales are a moderate to high capital cost for retrofit but may add value to a neighbourhood                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | Perforated pipes and soakaway pits are a moderate to high capital cost for retrofit                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | Bottom draw outlet is a cost effective alternative to incorporate into wet pond design to meet temperature criteria                                                                                                             |
| Results of Alternative Evaluation             | This alternative is not preferred because bioswales cannot provide the required level of water quality and erosion control. Another alternative would need to be implemented in conjunction with bioswales in order to meet SWM objectives, making this alternative economically inefficient. The construction and maintenance of bioswales will create short and long term accessibility and visual impacts on residents. | This alternative is not preferred because infiltration in R.O.W.s cannot provide the required level of water quality and erosion control. Another alternative would need to be implemented in conjunction with infiltration in R.O.W.s in order to meet SWM objectives, making this alternative economically inefficient. The construction of infiltration pipes in R.O.W.s will create short term accessibility, visual and noise impacts on residents. | This alternative is not preferred because a wet pond is not a preferred option for this site                                                                                                                                    |

| Criteria                                              | Alternatives for Pond #94                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |                                                  |  |
|-------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------|--|
|                                                       | Cooling Trench                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |                                                  |  |
| Alternative Description                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Excavation of a trench between the pond control structure maintenance hole and the outlet</li><li>Modification of outlet piping infrastructure to discharge into trench</li><li>Installation of stone material and restoration of ground surface</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li></li></ul> |  |
| Location in Treatment Train                           | End of Pipe                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |                                                  |  |
| Target SWM Objective(s)                               | Temperature Control                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |                                                  |  |
| Technical Considerations                              |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                  |  |
| Constructability and accessibility                    | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Feasible construction and accessibility is adequate</li><li>Construction footprint is relatively small, however land area is also limited at this site</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Erosion and sediment control plans required</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li></li></ul> |  |
| Ability to meet stormwater management objective(s)    | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Cooling trenches can be effective in decreasing the temperature of the outlet water</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Thermal mitigation would be best achieved with a combination of LID methods</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li></li></ul> |  |
| Engineering best practises / innovative solution      | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Cooling trenches are a recent best management practice</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Thermal mitigation can be enhanced overall with LIDs within the contributing watershed</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li></li></ul> |  |
| Summary / Recommendations                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Technically feasible with a relatively small construction footprint, however land space may still be an issue</li><li>A cooling trench would help with mitigating the temperature impacts of the SWM pond</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li></li></ul> |  |
| Natural Environment                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                  |  |
| Impacts to wildlife and vegetation habitats           | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Existing vegetation in the work area will be cleared</li><li>All effected areas will be restored and can be planted to replace removed vegetation</li><li>Reduction of temperature released into the downstream cool-water watercourse will improve the native aquatic habitat</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Appropriate erosion and sediment control measures will be undertaken during construction to reduce any negative impacts to the downstream watercourse</li><li>Restoration plans will be developed to restore the surrounding areas impacted by construction</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li></li></ul> |  |
| Impacts / improvements based on SAR / ESA             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>There are opportunities to improve the habitat quality of the receiving watercourse by reducing the temperature of flows entering the watercourse</li><li>Cooling effects are very beneficial for Redside Dace habitat</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Effects could be mitigated with appropriate screens and outflow velocities</li><li>Further consultation with the MNR regarding SAR will occur prior to the detailed design of the retrofit</li></ul>                                                                                                                          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li></li></ul> |  |
| Summary / Recommendations                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>A cooling trench at the pond outlet is a relatively simple alternative to mitigate temperatures impacts of the wet pond for the achievement of temperature control</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li></li></ul> |  |
| Social Impacts                                        |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                  |  |
| Requirement of easements or purchase of private lands | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Purchase of private lands is not a suggested alternative for construction of a cooling trench at this site</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Not applicable</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li></li></ul> |  |
| Impacts to public and private properties due to       | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Noise and visual impacts associated with construction for the residences backing onto proposed SWM facility block</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |                                                  |  |

| Criteria                                | Alternatives for Pond #94                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |                                                  |  |
|-----------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------|--|
|                                         | Cooling Trench                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |                                                  |  |
| construction and operations             | Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Construction management plan, including restrictions on hours may reduce inconveniences associated with construction</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |                                                  |  |
| Effect on public safety                 | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>The cooling trench will not have any affects on public safety once constructed</li><li>During construction there is a potential safety risk due to excavation if a member of the public was to enter the site</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>The construction site should be secured during and after construction hours with warning signs and fencing</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li></li></ul> |  |
| Summary / Recommendations               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>There are no long term social impacts associated with the cooling trench</li><li>Minimal disturbance to the public may occur during construction but the construction time frame will be brief</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li></li></ul> |  |
| Economic Considerations                 |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |                                                  |  |
| Capital costs                           | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Low capital cost for a relatively small excavation and materials</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Capital costs can be marginally reduced if stormwater is pre-treated with LIDs throughout the watershed (thus scaling down required trench volume)</li></ul>                                                                                                      | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li></li></ul> |  |
| Maintenance and operating costs         | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Low maintenance cost associated with cleaning out the trench</li><li>Lower maintenance frequency; likely once per year</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Maintenance frequency should be as directed by operations manual</li></ul>                                                                                                                                  | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li></li></ul> |  |
| Impact on future development and growth | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                                                  |  |
| Summary / Recommendations               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>A cooling trench is a cost effective alternative to meet temperature criteria</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li></li></ul> |  |
| Results of Alternative Evaluation       | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Due to the other selected preferred options being below ground, the water is unaffected by the warming effects of the sun. Therefore, further temperature mitigation is not required at UC #94.</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                              | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li></li></ul> |  |

| Table 1 –Evaluation of Conceptual Design Alternatives for Uncontrolled Outlet #103 (Uncontrolled Area) |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Criteria                                                                                               | Alternatives for Uncontrolled Outlet #103                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |
|                                                                                                        | Do Nothing                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | Oil-Grit Separators (OGS)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | Construct Water Quality Facility                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| Alternative Description                                                                                | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Stormwater runoff from the 46.64 ha minor drainage area will continue to be released into the receiving watercourse uncontrolled</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>One (1) unit connected to the minor system prior to final control and outfall, as supplemental quality control</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Loss of current land use including clearing of vegetation</li><li>Significant earthworks operations</li><li>Remove and replace section of sewer and outlet infrastructure</li><li>Provision of wet habitat area adjacent to receiving watercourse</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
| Location in Treatment Train                                                                            | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      | End of Pipe                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |
| Target SWM Objective(s)                                                                                | None                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | Quality Control                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |
| Technical Considerations                                                                               |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |
| Constructability and accessibility                                                                     | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Locations are accessible as OGS units could be installed upstream of the outfalls at manholes within municipal roadways; construction area is relatively small</li><li>Construction considerations include traffic interruptions and short term road closures</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Traffic management plans may reduce inconveniences associated with construction</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>The site is along public access trails</li><li>Redirection of servicing will be required to outlet to constructed wet pond</li><li>Existing changes in elevation could be incorporated as pond berms</li><li>There is limited space available for a staging area, therefore this may have to be placed within the construction area</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Existing trail may require temporary closure and /or re-routing</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
| Ability to meet stormwater management objective(s)                                                     | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Does not provide for or meet the stormwater management objectives of the City and/or TRCA for water quality, erosion or quantity control</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No mitigation undertaken</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>OGS units may be able to provide partial treatment to reach stormwater quality objectives</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Pre-treatment of stormwater runoff with LIDs will enhance the performance of the OGS</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>A wet pond facility would be capable of fully meeting the requirements for quality control</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>A wet pond facility for quality control could be constructed to include permanent pool capacity that will provide quality and erosion control within a single footprint reducing disturbance to nearby landowners</li><li>Quality control can be enhanced with LIDs that infiltrate runoff within the drainage area</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
| Engineering best practises / innovative solution                                                       | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>OGS and similar units are noted as best management practices</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Pre-treatment of stormwater runoff with LIDs will enhance the performance of the OGS</li><li>Filtration cartridge options may be used rather than traditional OGS to target more specific pollutants</li></ul>                                                                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Typically more traditional SWM approach</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Quality control can be enhanced with LIDs that infiltrate runoff within the drainage area</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| Summary / Recommendations                                                                              | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Does not provide for or meet the stormwater management objectives of the City and/or TRCA for water quality, erosion or quantity control</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>OGS can be effective, low-space option to provide water quality control</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Technically feasible, requires re-grading of existing site</li><li>Construction of a surface detention facility can fully meet the quality control SWM criteria</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |
| Natural Environment                                                                                    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |
| Impacts to wildlife and vegetation habitats                                                            | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>The current condition of wildlife and vegetation habitats will not change; however if the release of uncontrolled stormwater into the receiving watercourse causes future erosion in the watercourse or impacts the quality of the water in the watercourse, this could have a negative impact on the future condition of wildlife and vegetation habitats.</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No mitigation undertaken</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>OGS does not physically interfere with the existing outlet or impact the surrounding forested area and improves water quality prior to discharge to the watercourse</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No mitigation required</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                    | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Existing vegetation will be cleared including an adult deciduous forest.</li><li>Results in a loss of terrestrial habitat</li><li>There are opportunities to improve the habitat quality of the receiving watercourse by reducing the sediment loading and potential contaminate exposure of the receiving watercourse</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Restoration plans will be developed to restore the surrounding areas impacted by construction</li><li>Riparian and aquatic vegetation can be planted on the berms and within the wet pond facility which will also aid in reducing the temperature impacts of the surface detention of runoff</li></ul> |
| Impacts / improvements based on SAR / ESA                                                              | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Existing vegetation provides some benefit to reducing water temperature</li><li>By not implementing temperature controls, receiving waters may have higher temperatures over time and this can negatively impact sensitive species such as Redside Dace</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No mitigation undertaken</li></ul>                                                                                                     | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Meeting water quality criteria will improve water quality of downstream receiving waters</li><li>Little to no effect on temperature mitigation</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Use of OGS can be enhanced with pre-treatment using LIDs throughout minor system watershed</li></ul>                                                                                                     | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>There are opportunities to improve the habitat quality of the receiving watercourse by reducing the sediment loading of the watercourse</li><li>The receiving watercourse has been identified to be Redside Dace habitat</li><li>Wet ponds can provide reduction of stormwater temperature with the inclusion of a bottom draw outlet and shading from vegetation</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Further consultation with the MNR regarding additional SAR will occur prior to the detailed</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                        |

| Criteria                                                                    | Alternatives for Uncontrolled Outlet #103                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|                                                                             | Do Nothing                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | Oil-Grit Separators (OGS)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | Construct Water Quality Facility                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
|                                                                             |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 | design of the retrofit <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Stringent construction practices can be implemented to reduce the possibility of introducing invasive species to the ecosystem during construction</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| Summary / Recommendations                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Existing vegetation and forest adjacent to uncontrolled outlet provides terrestrial habitat</li><li>Increasing erosion and water temperatures decrease water quality and affect the health of vegetation and aquatic species</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>OGS offers improvements to water quality</li><li>Used in conjunction with LIDs, OGS can improve water conditions for SAR</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>A wet pond can be beneficial to downstream receiving waters but will alter any existing habitat within the construction area</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
| Social Impacts                                                              |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
| Requirement of easements or purchase of private lands                       | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Likely not required; preference to install and maintain OGS within municipal R.O.W., where maintenance is easily accessible</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Not applicable</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                  | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Likely not required for the construction and maintenance of a SWM facility for UC #103</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Land requirements would be confirmed through conceptual design</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                         |
| Impacts to public and private properties due to construction and operations | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Roadway interference and/or short-term closure would be expected for the installation of OGS units</li><li>Temporary interference to be expected on roadways during maintenance (approximately once a year)</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Traffic management plans may reduce inconveniences associated with construction</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Noise and visual impacts associated with construction for the residences backing onto proposed SWM facility block</li><li>A construction staging area may need to be set up within the pond block, therefore there will be no further impacts to the properties</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Construction management plan, including restrictions on hours</li></ul> |
| Effect on public safety                                                     | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Installed OGS does not pose threats to public safety</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No mitigation undertaken</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>By building to the required side slope and depth criteria, the wet pond facility should not pose a threat to public safety</li><li>There are public trails along the construction site, which should be rerouted to a safer path</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Flattened slopes, warning signs, and fencing (if required) can provide measures of safety</li></ul>    |
| Summary / Recommendations                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>The ‘Do Nothing’ alternative has no social impacts</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                           | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>OGS presents few and short-term impacts associated with installation and maintenance</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Construction of a wet pond facility would be a longer-term construction project with potential noise, traffic and visual impacts</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
| Economic Considerations                                                     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
| Capital costs                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No action may result in greater capital expenses in the future</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Not applicable</li></ul>                                            | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Relatively low capital cost for installation of one (1) unit and associated infrastructure works</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Capital cost of OGS units can be reduced if stormwater is pre-treated with LIDs (thus scaling down required OGS size)</li></ul>                                                                      | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Moderate to high capital cost for earthworks, grading, infrastructure components and permits</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Capital costs can be marginally reduced if stormwater is pre-treated with LIDs throughout the watershed (thus scaling down required quality control volumes and footprint)</li></ul>                                                       |
| Maintenance and operating costs                                             | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Fairly low maintenance cost and frequency; approximately annually</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Maintenance frequency of OGS units should not decrease with increased pre-treatment</li></ul>                                                                                                                                       | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Moderate maintenance cost and frequency; likely seasonally</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Maintenance frequency should be as directed by operations manual</li><li>Maintenance frequency can be reduced if stormwater is pre-treated with LIDs throughout the watershed (thus scaling down required quality control volume)</li></ul>                                  |
| Impact on future development and growth                                     | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Size of OGS is static once installed and would require upgrading if a larger drainage area is directed to it (in order to meet water quality criteria)</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Additional OGS units may be installed in the future to correspond with growth</li></ul>                                                        | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No impact, but detention facility would require expansion if contributing land use was to intensify</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>On-site control requirements for any intensified development within the facility’s watershed would mitigate further expansion</li></ul>                                                                                             |
| Summary / Recommendations                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>‘Do nothing’ may postpone required works and increase future costs</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                           | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Installation of OGS units is a low to medium cost solution for achievement of most of the required SWM criteria</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Construction of a wet pond facility would present moderate to high capital costs for achievement of quality control</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
| Results of Alternative Evaluation                                           | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>This alternative is not preferred because the alternative does not meet the stormwater management objectives</li></ul>                                                                                                                 | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>This is a preferred alternative due to the lower cost, small disturbance area and ability to provide full quality control</li><li>This alternative can be implemented with little to no loss of existing trees.</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                 | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>A wet pond facility would be capable of fully meeting the requirements for quality control</li><li>Retaining existing trees is a high priority for the City of Markham, however tree loss is probable for construction of this alternative. Therefore, this is not a preferred option.</li></ul>                                                                                                                                            |

| Criteria                                           | Alternatives for Uncontrolled Outlet #103                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
|----------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|                                                    | Bottom Draw Outlet in a Wet Pond                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | Cooling Trench                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | Underground Storage                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |
| Alternative Description                            | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Construct a bottom draw outlet to reduce temperatures of discharged water.</li><li>Only applicable if the wetland is converted into a wet pond</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                 | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Excavation of a trench between the pond control structure maintenance hole and the outlet</li><li>Modification of outlet piping infrastructure to discharge into trench</li><li>Installation of stone material and restoration of ground surface</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Installed at pond block location</li><li>Underground storage tanks will capture and detain stormwater and release over an extended time period</li><li>Infiltration type underground tanks will allow for infiltration during detention period</li><li>May need water quality control prior to infiltrating (if proposed)</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
| Location in Treatment Train                        | End of Pipe                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| Target SWM Objectives                              | Temperature Control                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | Quality, Erosion and Temperature Control                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
| Technical Considerations                           |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| Constructability and accessibility                 | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Constructability is simple, pending adequate depth of the wet pond</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Greater depth enhances the thermal mitigation function of the bottom draw outlet</li></ul>                                        | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Feasible construction and accessibility is adequate</li><li>Construction footprint is relatively small, but still requires additional space beyond the pond footprint</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Erosion and sediment control plans required</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Footprint may be large but is constructible within municipally owned pond block lands; constructability is low to moderate</li><li>Still allows for use of land at-grade</li><li>May require re-organization of existing outlets to feed into central underground tanks; not ideal due to neighbouring existing surface SWM facility</li><li>There is limited space available for a staging area, therefore this may have to be placed within the construction area</li><li>Based on soil mapping, the majority of the drainage area is not ideal for infiltration.</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Tanks with infiltration capabilities provide additional benefits to erosion and temperature control</li><li>Constructability would likely be increased by incorporating several underground tanks rather than one central system</li><li>Site specific soil testing is required to confirm suitability of infiltration</li></ul> |
| Ability to meet stormwater management objective(s) | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Bottom draw outlets can be effective in decreasing the temperature of the outlet water</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Thermal mitigation would be best achieved with a combination of LID methods</li></ul>                         | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Cooling trenches can be effective in decreasing the temperature of the outlet water</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Thermal mitigation would be best achieved with a combination of LID methods</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Underground tanks, especially with infiltration capabilities, are effective for providing quantity, quality and erosion control</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Longer detention times can enhance the erosion control</li><li>Underground storage tanks to be designed to provide quantity control</li><li>Infiltration type underground tanks will allow for infiltration during detention period</li><li>May need water quality control prior to infiltrating (if proposed)</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |
| Engineering best practises / innovative solution   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Bottom draw outlets in combination with cooling trenches are recent best management practices</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Thermal mitigation can be enhanced overall with LIDs within the contributing watershed</li></ul>       | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Cooling trenches are a recent best management practice</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Thermal mitigation can be enhanced overall with LIDs within the contributing watershed</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Underground tanks, including infiltration, are noted as best management practices</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Maintenance of underground tanks is more extensive than at-grade alternatives</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |
| Summary / Recommendations                          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>A bottom draw outlet is a recommended outlet alternative for the wet pond to achieve required temperature control</li></ul> <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li></li></ul>                                                                                                                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Technically feasible with a small construction footprint</li><li>A cooling trench would help with mitigating the temperature impacts of the SWM pond</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Technically feasible, requiring more intrusive maintenance</li><li>Useful for maintaining land uses at-grade and visually not intrusive</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
| Natural Environment                                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| Impacts to wildlife and vegetation habitats        | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No impact to vegetation</li><li>May impact aquatic habitat; requires appropriate measures to avoid harm to fish</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Effects could be mitigated with appropriate screens and outflow velocities</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Existing vegetation in the work area will be cleared</li><li>All effected areas will be restored and can be planted to replace removed vegetation</li><li>Results in a net neutral effect to terrestrial habitat</li><li>Reduction of temperature released into the downstream cool-water watercourse will improve the native aquatic habitat</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Appropriate erosion and sediment control measures will be undertaken during construction to reduce any negative impacts to the downstream watercourse</li><li>Restoration plans will be developed to restore the surrounding areas impacted by construction</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>May require removal of some vegetation depending on specific location including the loss of existing adult trees</li><li>Once installed, less intrusive than other alternatives because of location below grade</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Restoration plan required if loss of vegetation expected due to construction</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
| Impacts / improvements                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Cooling effects are very beneficial for Redside Dace habitat</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>There are opportunities to improve the habitat quality of the receiving watercourse by</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Underground tanks may improve the habitat quality of the receiving watercourse by</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |

| Criteria                                                                    | Alternatives for Uncontrolled Outlet #103                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|                                                                             | Bottom Draw Outlet in a Wet Pond                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      | Cooling Trench                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | Underground Storage                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |
| based on SAR / ESA                                                          | Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Alternative can be enhanced with LIDs within the watershed and planting techniques within the wet pond</li></ul>                                                                                            | reducing the temperature of flows entering the watercourse <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Cooling effects are very beneficial for Redside Dace habitat</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Effects could be mitigated with appropriate screens and outflow velocities</li><li>Further consultation with the MNR regarding SAR will occur prior to the detailed design of the retrofit</li></ul>       | reducing the erosion and thereby sediment loading of the receiving watercourse <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>The receiving watercourse has been identified to be Redside Dace habitat</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Further consultation with the MNR regarding SAR will occur prior to the detailed design of the retrofit</li><li>Stringent construction practices can be implemented to reduce the possibility of introducing invasive species to the ecosystem during construction</li></ul> |
| Summary / Recommendations                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Bottom draw outlet is a simple alternative to incorporate into a wet pond for the achievement of temperature control</li></ul>                                                                                                                                  | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>A cooling trench at the pond outlet is a relatively simple alternative to mitigate temperatures impacts of the wet pond for the achievement of temperature control</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Underground tanks are a long-term non-invasive alternative for providing quantity, quality and erosion control</li><li>Disturbance to vegetation including the removal of trees</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| Social Impacts                                                              |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| Requirement of easements or purchase of private lands                       | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Sufficient space is available within the pond block</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Not applicable</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Not required for the construction and maintenance of an underground storage tank facility for UC #103</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Land requirements would be confirmed through conceptual design</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
| Impacts to public and private properties due to construction and operations | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Impacts are related to the construction of the wet pond</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Bottom draw outlet itself does not present additional impacts</li></ul>                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Noise and visual impacts associated with construction for the residences backing onto proposed SWM facility block</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Construction management plan, including restrictions on hours may reduce inconveniences associated with construction</li></ul>                                                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Noise and visual impacts associated with construction for the residences backing onto proposed SWM facility block</li><li>A construction staging area may need to be set up within the pond block, therefore there will be no further impact to properties</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Construction management plan, including restrictions on hours</li></ul>                                                                                                   |
| Effect on public safety                                                     | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>The cooling trench will not have any affects on public safety once constructed</li><li>During construction there is a potential safety risk due to excavation if a member of the public was to enter the site</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>The construction site should be secured during and after construction hours with warning signs and fencing</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No public safety concerns beyond construction period</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Proper signage and safety measures to be set up for construction period</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
| Summary / Recommendations                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>There are no social impacts associated with the bottom draw outlet</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                    | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>There are no long term social impacts associated with the cooling trench</li><li>Minimal disturbance to the public may occur during construction but the construction time frame will be brief</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Underground tanks are proposed to be located in the pond block; not intrusive to the public after construction</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
| Economic Considerations                                                     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| Capital costs                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Low capital cost as standalone item</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No mitigation required</li></ul>                                                                                        | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Low to moderate capital cost for a relatively small excavation and materials</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Capital costs can be marginally reduced if stormwater is pre-treated with LIDs throughout the watershed (thus scaling down required trench volume)</li></ul>                                                                                          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Moderate to high capital cost related to storage tank infrastructure</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Efficient tank design to minimize capital costs</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
| Maintenance and operating costs                                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Low maintenance costs as standalone; costs associated with maintenance of wet pond</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Maintenance due to clogging can be reduced with proper screens</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Low maintenance cost associated with cleaning out the trench</li><li>Lower maintenance frequency; likely once per year</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Maintenance frequency should be as directed by operations manual</li></ul>                                                                                                                                  | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Low maintenance costs associated with cleaning out tanks as per operations manual or in event of clogging</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Can prevent clogging with additional pre-treatment techniques</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| Impact on future development and growth                                     | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No impact, but underground tanks would require expansion if contributing land use was to intensify</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>On-site control requirements for any future intensification within the watershed would mitigate further expansion</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
| Summary / Recommendations                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Bottom draw outlet is a cost effective alternative to incorporate into wet pond design to meet temperature criteria</li></ul>                                                                                                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>A cooling trench is a cost effective alternative to meet temperature criteria; however a bottom draw outlet is relatively less costly</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Underground tanks provide moderate to high capital and maintenance costs for the achievement of quantity, quality and erosion control</li><li>A larger footprint may be required with the use of this alternative</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
| Results of Alternative                                                      | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>This alternative is not preferred because a wet pond is not a preferred option for this</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Due to the other selected preferred options being below ground, the water is unaffected by</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>This alternative is not preferred because constructing an underground storage tank is</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |

| Criteria   | Alternatives for Uncontrolled Outlet #103 |                                                                                                       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
|------------|-------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|            | Bottom Draw Outlet in a Wet Pond          | Cooling Trench                                                                                        | Underground Storage                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
| Evaluation | site.                                     | the warming effects of the sun. Therefore, further temperature mitigation is not required at UC #103. | a more costly method to achieve quantity and erosion control when compared to constructing a pond. <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ This alternative would not be able to provide enough storage volume to fully meet erosion or quantity control criteria due to limitations on the constructible depth of storage tank and the limited footprint of land available for underground storage.</li></ul> |

| Criteria                                           | Alternatives for Uncontrolled Outlet #103                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
|----------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|                                                    | Bioswales                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | Infiltration in Right-of-Ways (R.O.W.)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | Aquatic and Riparian Plantings at Facility                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| Alternative Description                            | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Construct bioswales within the road right-of-ways within the facility drainage area</li><li>Bioswales to contain native plantings and subdrains</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Install perforated secondary pipe within existing storm sewer systems to allow for infiltration through linear soakaway pits</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Plantings to increase density and area of vegetation cover surrounding facility and within facility to provide shade for cooling of detained water</li><li>Is only applicable with construction of surface SWM facility</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
| Location in Treatment Train                        | Conveyance                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | End of Pipe                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
| Target SWM Objective(s)                            | Quality, Erosion and Temperature Control                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | Temperature Control                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
| Technical Considerations                           |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
| Constructability and accessibility                 | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Construction area is extensive and pipe networks are more intricate, requiring coordination with existing infrastructure</li><li>Road right of ways need to be conducive to grading and space criteria for bioswales</li><li>Based on soil mapping, the majority of the drainage area is not ideal for infiltration.</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Bioswales may be more suited as supplementary water quality / erosion / temperature control measures, where constructability and retrofit are least disruptive to existing infrastructure</li><li>Site specific soil testing is required to confirm suitability of infiltration</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Construction area is extensive and many secondary infiltration pipes would require to be installed to achieve SWM criteria</li><li>Requires coordination with existing infrastructure and utilities</li><li>Based on soil mapping, the majority of the drainage area is not ideal for infiltration.</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Perforated pipes (exfiltration pipes) and soakaway pits may be more suited as supplementary water quality / erosion / temperature control measures, where constructability and retrofit are least disruptive to existing infrastructure</li><li>Site specific soil testing is required to confirm suitability of infiltration</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No constructability issues anticipated with adding plantings to proposed facilities</li><li>Requires a surface SWM facility</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Plantings enhance temperature control by providing shade</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                      |
| Ability to meet stormwater management objective(s) | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Bioswales are more effective when used within a treatment train to achieve the stormwater objectives</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Additional pre-treatment will enhance the function of bioswales, to reduce clogging of the underdrain pipes</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Perforated pipes (exfiltration pipes) and soakaway pits may are more effective when used within a treatment train to achieve the stormwater objectives</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Additional pre-treatment will enhance the function of the perforated pipes, to reduce clogging</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Shade from plantings will reduce the temperature of stormwater at a facility</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Plantings are better used in conjunction with other cooling methods to achieve adequate temperature control</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                  |
| Engineering best practises / innovative solution   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Bioswales are innovative solutions within stormwater management conveyance systems</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Enhanced with further use of LIDs such as vegetated filter strips</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Perforated pipes (exfiltration pipes) and soakaway pits may are innovative solutions within stormwater management</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Enhanced with further use of LIDs such as vegetated filter strips</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Temperature control of stormwater in general is becoming an engineering best management practice in areas with sensitive habitats</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Effects of plantings can be enhanced with other methods such as use of a bottom draw outlet</li></ul>                                                                                                                             |
| Summary / Recommendations                          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Bioswales are effective as part of a treatment train and where retrofit does not greatly interfere with existing infrastructure</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Perforated pipes (exfiltration pipes) and soakaway pits may are effective as part of a treatment train and where retrofit does not greatly interfere with existing infrastructure</li><li>Due to the poor infiltration in the soil, Infiltration in the R.O.W. is not a preferred option.</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Plantings at stormwater management facility are a simple alternative to provide additional temperature controls</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
| Natural Environment                                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
| Impacts to wildlife and vegetation habitats        | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>May require removal of some vegetation depending on specific location</li><li>May present phosphorus issues if not properly designed and/or maintained</li><li>Bioswales may decrease water temperature, providing benefits to the aquatic habitat of the receiving watercourse</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Planted bioswales will enhance neighbourhoods with additional vegetated areas</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>May require removal of some vegetation depending on specific location; likely few impacts to existing wildlife and vegetation habitats</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Areas disturbed during construction will be restored.</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Planting native species can enhance the existing wildlife and vegetation</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No mitigation undertaken</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| Impacts / improvements based on SAR / ESA          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Bioswales may decrease water temperature, providing benefits to the aquatic habitat of the receiving watercourse including Redside Dace.</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Bioswales may be more suited as supplementary water temperature control measures</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Underground tanks may decrease water temperature, providing benefits to the aquatic habitat of the receiving watercourse including Redside Dace.</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Perforated pipes (exfiltration pipes) and soakaway pits may be more suited as supplementary water temperature control measures</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Providing additional shade at stormwater facilities reduces stormwater temperature which is a key benefit for Redside Dace Habitat</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Effects of plantings can be enhanced with other methods such as use of a bottom draw outlet</li><li>Further consultation with the MNR regarding additional SAR will occur prior to the detailed design of the retrofit</li></ul> |
| Summary / Recommendations                          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Bioswales that are properly designed to avoid phosphorus loading provide positive impact on the natural environment</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Perforated pipes (exfiltration pipes) and soakaway pits present few impact on the natural environment</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Plantings at stormwater facilities provide positive impacts on the natural environment (provided they are non-invasive species)</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |

| Criteria                                                                    | Alternatives for Uncontrolled Outlet #103                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|                                                                             | Bioswales                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | Infiltration in Right-of-Ways (R.O.W.)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | Aquatic and Riparian Plantings at Facility                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
| Social Impacts                                                              |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| Requirement of easements or purchase of private lands                       | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>To be constructed within municipal R.O.W.</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Not applicable</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>To be constructed within municipal R.O.W.</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Not applicable</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Not applicable (unless required in conjunction with stormwater facility construction)</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement MeasuresNot applicable                                                                                  |
| Impacts to public and private properties due to construction and operations | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Impacts may include temporary, minor traffic and noise issues and significant visual nuisances due to construction within the residential streets</li> <li>Bioswales are likely to face public opposition due to the maintenance requirements, visual disruption to an otherwise “clean” front lawn and inconvenience of culverts under driveways</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Appropriate construction and traffic management schedule to be adhered to</li> </ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Impacts may include temporary, minor traffic and noise issues due to construction within the residential streets</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Appropriate construction and traffic management schedule to be adhered to</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                           | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>N/A</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |
| Effect on public safety                                                     | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>No public safety concerns beyond construction period</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Proper signage and safety measures to be set up for construction period</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>No public safety concerns beyond construction period</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Proper signage and safety measures to be set up for construction period</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Vegetation should be suitable for proposed facility and clearly indicate any water’s edge</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Vegetation at facilities must be maintained</li> </ul>  |
| Summary / Recommendations                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Impacts during construction are temporary and mostly minor</li> <li>Long term impacts on residents due to visual impacts and culvert maintenance are significant</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Impacts are minor and mostly temporary, within the construction period</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>No significant social impacts of plantings at stormwater facilities</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                          |
| Economic Considerations                                                     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| Capital costs                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Moderate to high capital cost related to new pipe infrastructure, earthworks and plantings, as well as likely relocation of existing pipe infrastructure</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Proficient SUE investigation prior to design work can minimize unexpected existing pipe/utility interferences</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                      | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Moderate to high capital cost related to new pipe infrastructure, earthworks and plantings, as well as likely relocation of existing pipe infrastructure</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Proficient SUE investigation prior to design work can minimize unexpected existing pipe/utility interferences</li> </ul>                                                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Low capital cost relative to other alternatives</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Costs may vary depending on extents and types of plantings</li> </ul>                             |
| Maintenance and operating costs                                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Low to moderate maintenance costs associated with replacing filter media, unclogging perforated pipes</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Pre-treatment of stormwater with grassed filter strips can prevent some clogging of perforated pipes</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Low to moderate maintenance costs associated with unclogging perforated pipes</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Pre-treatment of stormwater with grassed filter strips can prevent some clogging of perforated pipes</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Low maintenance costs with native, sustainable plantings</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Lower maintenance plants will minimize costs of maintenance and/or replanting</li> </ul> |
| Impact on future development and growth                                     | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Retrofit R.O.W. with bioswales may dictate R.O.W. standards for future development</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>On-site control requirements for any future intensification within the watershed would mitigate negative impacts on the LID</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                              | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Retrofit R.O.W. with perforated pipes and soakaway pits may dictate R.O.W. standards for future development</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>On-site control requirements for any future intensification within the watershed would mitigate negative impacts on the LID</li> </ul>                                                                                                                              | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>N/A</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |
| Summary / Recommendations                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Bioswales are a moderate to high capital cost for retrofit but may add value to a neighbourhood</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Perforated pipes and soakaway pits are a moderate to high capital cost for retrofit</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Plantings at SWM facilities are a low cost alternative for providing temperature control</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                     |
| Results of Alternative Evaluation                                           | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>This alternative is not preferred because bioswales cannot provide the required level of water quality and erosion control.</li> <li>Another alternative would need to be implemented in conjunction with bioswales in order to meet SWM objectives, making this alternative economically inefficient.</li> <li>The construction and maintenance of bioswales will create short and long term accessibility and visual impacts on residents.</li> </ul>                                                                                      | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>This alternative is not preferred because infiltration in R.O.W.s cannot provide the required level of water quality and erosion control.</li> <li>Another alternative would need to be implemented in conjunction with infiltration in R.O.W.s in order to meet SWM objectives, making this alternative economically inefficient.</li> <li>The construction of infiltration pipes in R.O.W.s will create short term accessibility, visual and noise impacts on residents.</li> </ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Due to the other selected preferred options being below ground, the water is unaffected by the warming effects of the sun. Therefore, further temperature mitigation is not required at UC #103.</li> </ul>                                             |

| Table 1 –Evaluation of Conceptual Design Alternatives for Uncontrolled Outlet #106 (Uncontrolled Area) |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Criteria                                                                                               | Alternatives for Uncontrolled Outlet #106                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
|                                                                                                        | Do Nothing                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             | Oil-Grit Separators (OGS)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | Construct Water Quality Facility                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
| Alternative Description                                                                                | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Stormwater runoff from the 23.76 ha minor drainage area will continue to be released into the receiving watercourse uncontrolled</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>One (1) unit connected to the minor system prior to final control and outfall</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Loss of current land use including clearing of vegetation</li><li>Significant earthworks operations</li><li>Remove and replace section of sewer and outlet infrastructure</li><li>Provision of wet habitat area adjacent to receiving watercourse</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
| Location in Treatment Train                                                                            | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | End of Pipe                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| Target SWM Objective(s)                                                                                | None                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | Quality Control                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| Technical Considerations                                                                               |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| Constructability and accessibility                                                                     | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Locations are accessible as OGS units could be installed upstream of the outfalls at manholes within municipal roadways; construction area is relatively small</li><li>Construction considerations include traffic interruptions and short term road closures</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Traffic management plans may reduce inconveniences associated with construction</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>The site is accessible to the public through a trail.</li><li>Redirection of servicing will be required to outlet to constructed wet pond</li><li>Existing changes in elevation could be incorporated as pond berms; however available land are is not ideal for construction of a surface SWM facility (dense vegetation)</li><li>There is limited space for a staging area around the construction area; therefore it may be necessary to include this within the site or road R.O.W.</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Access from 16th Avenue might be an easier option as a route for construction</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                    |
| Ability to meet stormwater management objective(s)                                                     | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Does not provide for or meet the stormwater management objectives of the City and/or TRCA for water quality, erosion or quantity control</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No mitigation undertaken</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>OGS units may be able to provide all required stormwater quality objectives</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Pre-treatment of stormwater runoff with LIDs will enhance the performance of the OGS</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                              | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>A wet pond facility would be capable of fully meeting the requirements for quality control</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>A wet pond facility for quantity control could be constructed to include extended detention capacity that will provide quality and erosion control within a single footprint</li><li>Quality control can be enhanced with LIDs that infiltrate runoff within the drainage area</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
| Engineering best practises / innovative solution                                                       | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>OGS and similar units are noted as best management practices</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Pre-treatment of stormwater runoff with LIDs will enhance the performance of the OGS</li><li>Filtration cartridge options may be used rather than traditional OGS to target more specific pollutants</li></ul>                                                                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Typically more traditional SWM approach</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Quality control can be enhanced with LIDs that infiltrate runoff within the drainage area</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
| Summary / Recommendations                                                                              | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Does not provide for or meet the stormwater management objectives of the City and/or TRCA for water quality, erosion or quantity control</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>OGS can be effective, low-space option to provide water quality control</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Technically feasible, but surface SWM facility is not ideal for the land space available</li><li>Construction of a surface detention facility can fully meet the quality control SWM criteria</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
| Natural Environment                                                                                    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| Impacts to wildlife and vegetation habitats                                                            | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Current condition of wildlife and vegetation habitats will not change; however if the release rate of uncontrolled stormwater into the receiving watercourse causes future erosion in the watercourse or impacts the quality of the water in the watercourse, this could have negative impact on the future condition of wildlife and vegetation habitats</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No mitigation undertaken</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>OGS does not physically interfere with the existing outlet or impact the surrounding forested area and improves water quality prior to discharge to the watercourse</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No mitigation required</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                    | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Existing vegetation will be cleared including a area of trees which is a native forest and includes two Butternut trees</li><li>Results in a loss of terrestrial habitat</li><li>There are opportunities to improve the habitat quality of the receiving watercourse by reducing the sediment loading and potential contaminate exposure of the receiving watercourse</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Restoration plans will be developed to restore the surrounding areas impacted by construction</li><li>Riparian and aquatic vegetation can be planted on the berms and within the wet pond facility which will also aid in reducing the temperature impacts of the surface detention of runoff</li><li>Permits required for work near SAR, including Butternut</li></ul> |
| Impacts / improvements based on SAR / ESA                                                              | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>The current condition of wildlife and vegetation habitats will not change; however if the release of uncontrolled stormwater into the receiving watercourse causes future erosion in the watercourse or impacts the quality of the water in the watercourse, this could have a negative impact on Redside Dace habitat.</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement                                                                                                                     | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Meeting water quality criteria will improve water quality of downstream receiving waters</li><li>Little to no effect on temperature mitigation</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Use of OGS can be enhanced with pre-treatment using LIDs throughout minor system watershed</li></ul>                                                                                                     | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>There are opportunities to improve the habitat quality of the receiving watercourse by reducing the sediment loading of the watercourse</li><li>Wet ponds can provide reduction of stormwater temperature with the inclusion of a bottom draw outlet and shading from vegetation</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |

| Criteria                                                                           | Alternatives for Uncontrolled Outlet #106                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|                                                                                    | Do Nothing                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | Oil-Grit Separators (OGS)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | Construct Water Quality Facility                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
|                                                                                    | Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No mitigation undertaken</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 | Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Further consultation with the MNR regarding additional SAR will occur prior to the detailed design of the retrofit</li><li>Stringent construction practices can be implemented to reduce the possibility of introducing invasive species to the ecosystem during construction</li><li>The necessary procedures for construction within the Butternut habitat will be followed as outlined by the MNR.</li></ul>   |
| Summary / Recommendations                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Existing vegetation and forest adjacent to uncontrolled outlet provides terrestrial habitat</li><li>Increasing erosion and water temperatures decrease water quality and affect the health of vegetation and aquatic species</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>OGS offers improvements to water quality</li><li>Used in conjunction with LIDs, OGS can improve water conditions for SAR</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>A wet pond can be beneficial to downstream receiving waters but will alter any existing habitat within the construction area</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |
| Social Impacts                                                                     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| Requirement of easements or purchase of private lands                       | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Likely not required; preference to install and maintain OGS within municipal R.O.W., where maintenance is easily accessible</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Not applicable</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                  | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Not required for the construction and maintenance of a SWM facility for UC #106</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Land requirements would be confirmed through conceptual design</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                      |
| Impacts to public and private properties due to construction and operations | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Roadway interference and/or short-term closure would be expected for the installation of OGS units</li><li>Temporary interference to be expected on roadways during maintenance (approximately once a year)</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Traffic management plans may reduce inconveniences associated with construction</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Noise and visual impacts associated with construction for the residences backing onto proposed SWM facility block</li><li>A construction staging area may need to be set up at the northwest corner of the site, which is municipally owned park land</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Construction management plan, including restrictions on hours</li></ul> |
| Effect on public safety                                                     | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Installed OGS does not pose threats to public safety</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No mitigation undertaken</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>By building to the required side slope and depth criteria, the wet pond facility should not pose a threat to public safety</li><li>Trails through site would require temporary closure or re-routing</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Flattened slopes, warning signs, and fencing (if required) can provide measures of safety</li></ul>                      |
| Summary / Recommendations                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>The ‘Do Nothing’ alternative has no social impacts</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                           | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>OGS presents few and short-term impacts associated with installation and maintenance</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Construction of a wet pond facility would be a longer-term construction project with potential noise, traffic and visual impacts</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
| Economic Considerations                                                            |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| Capital costs                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No action may result in greater capital expenses in the future</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Not applicable</li></ul>                                            | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Relatively low to moderate capital cost for installation of one (1) unit and associated infrastructure works</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Capital cost of OGS units can be reduced if stormwater is pre-treated with LIDs (thus scaling down required OGS size)</li></ul>                                                          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Moderate to high capital cost for earthworks, grading, infrastructure components and permits</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Capital costs can be marginally reduced if stormwater is pre-treated with LIDs throughout the watershed (thus scaling down required quality control volumes and footprint)</li></ul>                                             |
| Maintenance and operating costs                                             | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Fairly low maintenance cost and frequency; approximately annually</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Maintenance frequency of OGS units should not decrease with increased pre-treatment</li></ul>                                                                                                                                       | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Moderate maintenance cost and frequency; likely seasonally</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Maintenance frequency should be as directed by operations manual</li><li>Maintenance frequency can be reduced if stormwater is pre-treated with LIDs throughout the watershed (thus scaling down required quality control volume)</li></ul>                        |
| Impact on future development and growth                                     | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Size of OGS is static once installed and would require upgrading if a larger drainage area is directed to it (in order to meet water quality criteria)</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Additional OGS units may be installed in the future to correspond with growth</li></ul>                                                        | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No impact, but detention facility would require expansion if contributing land use was to intensify</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>On-site control requirements for any intensified development within the facility’s watershed would mitigate further expansion</li></ul>                                                                                   |
| Summary / Recommendations                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>‘Do nothing’ may postpone required works and increase future costs</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                           | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Installation of OGS units is a low to medium cost solution for achievement of most of the required SWM criteria</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Construction of a wet pond facility would present moderate to high capital costs for achievement of quality control</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
| Results of Alternative Evaluation                                           | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>This alternative is not preferred because the alternative does not meet the stormwater management objectives</li></ul>                                                                                                                 | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>This is a preferred alternative due to the lower cost, small disturbance area and ability to provide full quality control</li><li>This alternative can be implemented with little to no loss of existing trees.</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                 | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>A wet pond facility would be capable of fully meeting the requirements for quality control</li><li>Retaining existing trees is a high priority for the City of Markham, however tree loss is probable for construction of this alternative. Therefore, this is not a preferred option.</li></ul>                                                                                                                                  |

| Criteria                                           | Alternatives for Uncontrolled Outlet #106                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
|----------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|                                                    | Bottom Draw Outlet in a Wet Pond                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              | Cooling Trench                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | Underground Storage                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| Alternative Description                            | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Construct a bottom draw outlet to reduce temperatures of discharged water.</li><li>Only applicable if the wetland is converted into a wet pond</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Excavation of a trench between the pond control structure maintenance hole and the outlet</li><li>Modification of outlet piping infrastructure to discharge into trench</li><li>Installation of stone material and restoration of ground surface</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Installed at school location</li><li>Underground storage tanks will capture and detain stormwater and release over an extended time period</li><li>Infiltration type underground tanks will allow for infiltration during detention period</li><li>May need water quality control prior to infiltrating (if proposed)</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
| Location in Treatment Train                        | End of Pipe                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
| Target SWM Objectives                              | Temperature Control                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | Erosion and Temperature Control                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
| Technical Considerations                           |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
| Constructability and accessibility                 | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Constructability is simple, pending adequate depth of the wet pond</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Greater depth enhances the thermal mitigation function of the bottom draw outlet</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Feasible construction and accessibility is adequate</li><li>Construction footprint is relatively small, but still requires additional space beyond the pond footprint</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Erosion and sediment control plans required</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Footprint may be large; constructability is low to moderate under ideal conditions</li><li>Grading at school location is not ideal</li><li>Still allows for use of land at-grade</li><li>May require re-organization of existing outlets to feed into central underground tanks</li><li>Based on soil mapping, the soil in the majority of the drainage area is conducive to infiltration. However, the southwest corner of the drainage area is not ideal for infiltration</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Tanks with infiltration capabilities provide additional benefits to erosion and temperature control</li><li>Constructability would likely be increased by incorporating several underground tanks rather than one central system</li><li>Site specific soil testing is required to confirm suitability of infiltration</li></ul> |
| Ability to meet stormwater management objective(s) | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Bottom draw outlets can be effective in decreasing the temperature of the outlet water</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Thermal mitigation would be best achieved with a combination of LID methods</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Cooling trenches can be effective in decreasing the temperature of the outlet water</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Thermal mitigation would be best achieved with a combination of LID methods</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Underground tanks, especially with infiltration capabilities, are effective for providing quantity, quality and erosion control</li><li>One tank at the school location would likely not be sufficient; additional tank near outlet would be required</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Longer detention times can enhance the erosion control</li><li>Infiltration type underground tanks will allow for infiltration during detention period</li><li>May need water quality control prior to infiltrating (if proposed)</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |
| Engineering best practises / innovative solution   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Bottom draw outlets in combination with cooling trenches are recent best management practices</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Thermal mitigation can be enhanced overall with LIDs within the contributing watershed</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Cooling trenches are a recent best management practice</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Thermal mitigation can be enhanced overall with LIDs within the contributing watershed</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Underground tanks, including infiltration, are noted as best management practices</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Maintenance of underground tanks is more extensive than at-grade alternatives</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| Summary / Recommendations                          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>A bottom draw outlet is a recommended outlet alternative for the wet pond to achieve required temperature control</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Technically feasible with a small construction footprint</li><li>A cooling trench would help with mitigating the temperature impacts of the SWM pond</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Technically feasible; multiple tanks likely required</li><li>Requires more intrusive maintenance</li><li>Useful for maintaining land uses at-grade and visually not intrusive</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |
| Natural Environment                                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
| Impacts to wildlife and vegetation habitats        | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Existing vegetation in the work area will be cleared</li><li>All affected areas will be restored and can be planted to replace removed vegetation</li><li>Results in a net neutral effect to terrestrial habitat</li><li>Reduction of temperature released into the downstream cool-water watercourse will improve the native aquatic habitat</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Appropriate erosion and sediment control measures will be undertaken during construction to reduce any negative impacts to the downstream watercourse</li><li>Restoration plans will be developed to restore the surrounding areas impacted by construction</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Existing vegetation in the work area will be cleared</li><li>All effected areas will be restored and can be planted to replace removed vegetation</li><li>Results in a net neutral effect to terrestrial habitat</li><li>Reduction of temperature released into the downstream cool-water watercourse will improve the native aquatic habitat</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Appropriate erosion and sediment control measures will be undertaken during construction to reduce any negative impacts to the downstream watercourse</li><li>Restoration plans will be developed to restore the surrounding areas impacted by construction</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>May require removal of some vegetation including existing adult trees depending on specific location</li><li>Once installed, less intrusive than other alternatives because of location below grade</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Restoration plan required if loss of vegetation expected due to construction</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
| Impacts /                                          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>There are opportunities to improve the</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>There are opportunities to improve the habitat</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Underground tanks may improve the habitat</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |

| Criteria                                                                    | Alternatives for Uncontrolled Outlet #106                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|                                                                             | Bottom Draw Outlet in a Wet Pond                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | Cooling Trench                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      | Underground Storage                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
| improvements based on SAR / ESA                                             | habitat quality of the receiving watercourse by reducing the temperature of flows entering the watercourse <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Cooling effects are very beneficial for Redside Dace habitat</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Effects on fish could be mitigated with appropriate screens and outflow velocities</li> <li>Further consultation with the MNR regarding additional SAR will occur prior to the detailed design of the retrofit</li> </ul>                  | quality of the receiving watercourse by reducing the temperature of flows entering the watercourse <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Cooling effects are very beneficial for Redside Dace habitat</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Effects could be mitigated with appropriate screens and outflow velocities</li> <li>Further consultation with the MNR regarding SAR will occur prior to the detailed design of the retrofit</li> </ul> | quality of the receiving watercourse by reducing the erosion and thereby sediment loading of the receiving watercourse <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>The receiving watercourse has been identified as Redside Dace habitat</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Further consultation with the MNR regarding additional SAR will occur prior to the detailed design of the retrofit</li> <li>Stringent construction practices can be implemented to reduce the possibility of introducing invasive species to the ecosystem during construction</li> </ul> |
| Summary / Recommendations                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>A cooling trench at the pond outlet is a relatively simple alternative to mitigate temperatures impacts of the wet pond for the achievement of temperature control</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>A cooling trench at the pond outlet is a relatively simple alternative to mitigate temperatures impacts of the wet pond for the achievement of temperature control</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Underground tanks are a long-term non-invasive alternative for providing quantity, quality and erosion control</li> <li>Possible loss of adult trees</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
| Social Impacts                                                              |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
| Requirement of easements or purchase of private lands                       | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Sufficient space is available within the pond block</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Not applicable</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Sufficient space is available within the pond block</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Not applicable</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Cost sharing or other agreement likely required for the construction and maintenance of an underground storage tank facility for UC #106 at the school location</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Land requirements would be confirmed through conceptual design</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
| Impacts to public and private properties due to construction and operations | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Noise and visual impacts associated with construction for the residences backing onto proposed SWM facility block</li> <li>A construction staging area may need to be set up within the existing Highway 7 easement to avoid impacts to residential properties during construction</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Construction management plan, including restrictions on hours may reduce inconveniences associated with construction</li> </ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Noise and visual impacts associated with construction for the residences backing onto proposed SWM facility block</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Construction management plan, including restrictions on hours may reduce inconveniences associated with construction</li> </ul>                                                                                                                      | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Noise and visual impacts associated with construction for the residences backing onto proposed SWM facility block</li> <li>A construction staging area may need to be set up in the northwest corner of the site, which is municipally owned forested parkland</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Construction management plan, including restrictions on hours</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                |
| Effect on public safety                                                     | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>The bottom draw outlet will not impact public safety</li> <li>There are no trails through this green space and public access is very limited, thereby reducing the exposure of public to the facility</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>The construction site should be secured during and after construction hours with warning signs and fencing</li> </ul>                                                                                        | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>The cooling trench will not have any affects on public safety once constructed</li> <li>During construction there is a potential safety risk due to excavation if a member of the public was to enter the site</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>The construction site should be secured during and after construction hours with warning signs and fencing</li> </ul>                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>No public safety concerns beyond construction period</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Proper signage and safety measures to be set up for construction period</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| Summary / Recommendations                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>There are no long term social impacts associated with the bottom draw outlet</li> <li>Minimal disturbance to the public may occur during construction but the construction time frame will be brief</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>There are no long term social impacts associated with the cooling trench</li> <li>Minimal disturbance to the public may occur during construction but the construction time frame will be brief</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Underground tanks are proposed to be located in the pond block; not intrusive to the public after construction</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| Economic Considerations                                                     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
| Capital costs                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Low capital cost for a relatively small excavation and materials</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Bottom draw outlet cost not likely to fluctuate much pending other design decisions on this site</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Low to moderate capital cost for a relatively small excavation and materials</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Capital costs can be marginally reduced if stormwater is pre-treated with LIDs throughout the watershed (thus scaling down required trench volume)</li> </ul>                                                                                                                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Moderate to high capital cost related to storage tank infrastructure (especially if more than one tank is required)</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Efficient tank design to minimize capital costs</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| Maintenance and operating costs                                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Low maintenance cost associated with cleaning out the bottom draw outlet if clogged</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Maintenance frequency should be as directed by operations manual</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Low maintenance cost associated with cleaning out the trench</li> <li>Lower maintenance frequency; likely once per year</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Maintenance frequency should be as directed by operations manual</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                    | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Low maintenance costs associated with cleaning out tanks as per operations manual or in event of clogging</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Can prevent clogging with additional pre-treatment techniques</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
| Impact on future development and growth                                     | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>No impacts; may required upgrade or adjustment if contributing watershed characteristics change</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Not applicable</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>No impact, but underground tanks would require expansion if contributing land use was to intensify</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>On-site control requirements for any future intensification within the watershed would mitigate further expansion</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
| Summary / Recommendations                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>A bottom draw outlet is a cost effective alternative to meet temperature criteria</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>A cooling trench is a cost effective alternative to meet temperature criteria; however a bottom draw outlet is relatively less costly</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Underground tanks provide moderate to high capital and maintenance costs for the achievement of quantity, quality and erosion control</li> <li>A larger footprint may be required with the</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |

|                                          |                                                                                                                                                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | use of this alternative                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |
|------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Results of Alternative Evaluation | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ This alternative is not preferred because a wet pond is not a preferred option for this site</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Due to the other selected preferred options being below ground, the water is unaffected by the warming effects of the sun. Therefore, further temperature mitigation is not required at UC #106.</li><li>▪ The receiving watercourse is well vegetated to provide cooling effects in stream.</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ This alternative is not preferred because constructing an underground storage tank is a more costly method to achieve quantity and erosion control when compared to constructing a pond.</li><li>▪ This alternative would have more constructability challenges and may require tree removal compared to other alternatives that achieve the same SWM objectives.</li></ul> |

| Criteria                                           | Alternatives for Uncontrolled Outlet #106                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
|----------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|                                                    | Bioswales                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | Infiltration in Right-of-Ways (R.O.W.)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | Aquatic and Riparian Plantings at Facility                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| Alternative Description                            | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Construct bioswales within the road right-of-ways within the facility drainage area</li><li>Bioswales to contain native plantings and subdrains</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Install perforated secondary pipe within existing storm sewer systems to allow for infiltration through linear soakaway pits</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Plantings to increase density and area of vegetation cover surrounding facility and within facility to provide shade for cooling of detained water</li><li>Is only applicable with construction of surface SWM facility</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
| Location in Treatment Train                        | Conveyance                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | End of Pipe                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
| Target SWM Objective(s)                            | Erosion and Temperature Control                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | Temperature Control                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
| Technical Considerations                           |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
| Constructability and accessibility                 | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Construction area is extensive and pipe networks are more intricate, requiring coordination with existing infrastructure</li><li>Road right of ways need to be conducive to grading and space criteria for bioswales</li><li>Based on soil mapping, the soil in the majority of the drainage area is conducive to infiltration. However, the southwest corner of the drainage area is not ideal for infiltration</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Bioswales may be more suited as supplementary water quality / erosion / temperature control measures, where constructability and retrofit are least disruptive to existing infrastructure</li><li>Site specific soil testing is required to confirm suitability of infiltration</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Construction area is extensive and many secondary infiltration pipes would require to be installed to achieve SWM criteria</li><li>Requires coordination with existing infrastructure and utilities</li><li>Based on soil mapping, the soil in the majority of the drainage area is conducive to infiltration. However, the southwest corner of the drainage area is not ideal for infiltration</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Perforated pipes (exfiltration pipes) and soakaway pits may be more suited as supplementary water quality / erosion / temperature control measures, where constructability and retrofit are least disruptive to existing infrastructure</li><li>Site specific soil testing is required to confirm suitability of infiltration</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No constructability issues anticipated with adding plantings to proposed facilities</li><li>Requires a surface SWM facility</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Plantings enhance temperature control by providing shade</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                      |
| Ability to meet stormwater management objective(s) | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Bioswales are more effective when used within a treatment train to achieve the stormwater objectives</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Additional pre-treatment will enhance the function of bioswales, to reduce clogging of the underdrain pipes</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Perforated pipes (exfiltration pipes) and soakaway pits may are more effective when used within a treatment train to achieve the stormwater objectives</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Additional pre-treatment will enhance the function of the perforated pipes, to reduce clogging</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Shade from plantings will reduce the temperature of stormwater at a facility</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Plantings are better used in conjunction with other cooling methods to achieve adequate temperature control</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                  |
| Engineering best practises / innovative solution   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Bioswales are innovative solutions within stormwater management conveyance systems</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Enhanced with further use of LIDs such as vegetated filter strips</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Perforated pipes (exfiltration pipes) and soakaway pits may are innovative solutions within stormwater management</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Enhanced with further use of LIDs such as vegetated filter strips</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Temperature control of stormwater in general is becoming an engineering best management practice in areas with sensitive habitats</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Effects of plantings can be enhanced with other methods such as use of a bottom draw outlet</li></ul>                                                                                                                             |
| Summary / Recommendations                          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Bioswales are effective as part of a treatment train and where retrofit does not greatly interfere with existing infrastructure</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Perforated pipes (exfiltration pipes) and soakaway pits may are effective as part of a treatment train and where retrofit does not greatly interfere with existing infrastructure</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Plantings at stormwater management facility are a simple alternative to provide additional temperature controls</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
| Natural Environment                                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
| Impacts to wildlife and vegetation habitats        | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>May require removal of some vegetation depending on specific location</li><li>May present phosphorus issues if not properly designed and/or maintained</li><li>Bioswales may decrease water temperature, providing benefits to the aquatic habitat of the receiving watercourse</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Planted bioswales will enhance neighbourhoods with additional vegetated areas</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>May require removal of some vegetation depending on specific location; likely few impacts to existing wildlife and vegetation habitats</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Areas disturbed during construction will be restored.</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Planting native species can enhance the existing wildlife and vegetation</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No mitigation undertaken</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| Impacts / improvements based on SAR / ESA          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Bioswales may decrease water temperature, providing benefits to the aquatic habitat of the receiving watercourse including Redside Dace.</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Bioswales may be more suited as supplementary water temperature control measures</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Underground tanks may decrease water temperature, providing benefits to the aquatic habitat of the receiving watercourse including Redside Dace.</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Perforated pipes (exfiltration pipes) and soakaway pits may be more suited as supplementary water temperature control measures</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Providing additional shade at stormwater facilities reduces stormwater temperature which is a key benefit for Redside Dace Habitat</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Effects of plantings can be enhanced with other methods such as use of a bottom draw outlet</li><li>Further consultation with the MNR regarding additional SAR will occur prior to the detailed design of the retrofit</li></ul> |
| Summary / Recommendations                          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Bioswales which are properly designed to avoid phosphorus loading provide positive impact on the natural environment</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Perforated pipes (exfiltration pipes) and soakaway pits present few impact on the natural environment</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Plantings at stormwater facilities provide positive impacts on the natural environment (provided they are non-invasive species)</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
| Social Impacts                                     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |

| Criteria                                                                    | Alternatives for Uncontrolled Outlet #106                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|                                                                             | Bioswales                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      | Infiltration in Right-of-Ways (R.O.W.)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | Aquatic and Riparian Plantings at Facility                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
| Requirement of easements or purchase of private lands                       | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>To be constructed within municipal R.O.W.</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Not applicable</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>To be constructed within municipal R.O.W.</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Not applicable</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Not applicable (unless required in conjunction with stormwater facility construction)</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Not applicable</li></ul>                                   |
| Impacts to public and private properties due to construction and operations | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Impacts may include temporary, minor traffic and noise issues and significant visual nuisances due to construction within the residential streets</li><li>Bioswales are likely to face public opposition due to the maintenance requirements, visual disruption to an otherwise “clean” front lawn and inconvenience of culverts under driveways</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Appropriate construction and traffic management schedule to be adhered to</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Impacts may include temporary, minor traffic and noise issues due to construction within the residential streets</li><li>Less visual impact than bioswales</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Appropriate construction and traffic management schedule to be adhered to</li></ul>                                                                                                                                 | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
| Effect on public safety                                                     | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No public safety concerns beyond construction period</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Proper signage and safety measures to be set up for construction period</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No public safety concerns beyond construction period</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Proper signage and safety measures to be set up for construction period</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Vegetation should be suitable for proposed facility and clearly indicate any water’s edge</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Vegetation at facilities must be maintained</li></ul>  |
| Summary / Recommendations                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Impacts during construction are temporary and mostly minor</li><li>Long term impacts on residents due to visual impacts and culvert maintenance are significant</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Impacts are minor and mostly temporary, within the construction period</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No significant social impacts of plantings at stormwater facilities</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                        |
| Economic Considerations                                                     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |
| Capital costs                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Moderate to high capital cost related to new pipe infrastructure, earthworks and plantings, as well as likely relocation of existing pipe infrastructure</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Proficient SUE investigation prior to design work can minimize unexpected existing pipe/utility interferences</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                     | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Moderate to high capital cost related to new pipe infrastructure, earthworks and plantings, as well as likely relocation of existing pipe infrastructure</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Proficient SUE investigation prior to design work can minimize unexpected existing pipe/utility interferences</li></ul>                                                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Low capital cost relative to other alternatives</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Costs may vary depending on extents and types of plantings</li></ul>                             |
| Maintenance and operating costs                                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Low to moderate maintenance costs associated with replacing filter media, unclogging perforated pipes</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Pre-treatment of stormwater with grassed filter strips can prevent some clogging of perforated pipes</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                 | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Low to moderate maintenance costs associated with unclogging perforated pipes</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Pre-treatment of stormwater with grassed filter strips can prevent some clogging of perforated pipes</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Low maintenance costs with native, sustainable plantings</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Lower maintenance plants will minimize costs of maintenance and/or replanting</li></ul> |
| Impact on future development and growth                                     | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Retrofit R.O.W. with bioswales may dictate R.O.W. standards for future development</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>On-site control requirements for any future intensification within the watershed would mitigate negative impacts on the LID</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Retrofit R.O.W. with perforated pipes and soakaway pits may dictate R.O.W. standards for future development</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>On-site control requirements for any future intensification within the watershed would mitigate negative impacts on the LID</li></ul>                                                                                                                              | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
| Summary / Recommendations                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Bioswales are a moderate to high capital cost for retrofit but may add value to a neighbourhood</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Perforated pipes and soakaway pits are a moderate to high capital cost for retrofit</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Plantings at SWM facilities are a low cost alternative for providing temperature control</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                   |
| Results of Alternative Evaluation                                           | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>This alternative is not preferred because bioswales cannot provide the required level of water quality and erosion control.</li><li>Another alternative would need to be implemented in conjunction with bioswales in order to meet SWM objectives, making this alternative economically inefficient.</li><li>The construction and maintenance of bioswales will create short and long term accessibility and visual impacts on residents.</li></ul>                                                                                     | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>This alternative is not preferred because infiltration in R.O.W.s cannot provide the required level of water quality and erosion control.</li><li>Another alternative would need to be implemented in conjunction with infiltration in R.O.W.s in order to meet SWM objectives, making this alternative economically inefficient.</li><li>The construction of infiltration pipes in R.O.W.s will create short term accessibility, visual and noise impacts on residents.</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Due to the other selected preferred options being below ground, the water is unaffected by the warming effects of the sun. Therefore, further temperature mitigation is not required at UC #106.</li></ul>                                           |

| Table 1 –Evaluation of Conceptual Design Alternatives for Uncontrolled Outlet #112 (Uncontrolled Area) |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Criteria                                                                                               | Alternatives for Uncontrolled Outlet #112                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |
|                                                                                                        | Do Nothing                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             | Oil-Grit Separators (OGS)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | Construct Water Quality Facility                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| Alternative Description                                                                                | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Stormwater runoff from the 1.69 ha minor drainage area will continue to be released into the receiving watercourse uncontrolled</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>One (1) unit connected to the minor system prior to final control and outfall</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Loss of current land use including clearing of vegetation</li><li>Significant earthworks operations</li><li>Remove and replace section of sewer and outlet infrastructure</li><li>Provision of wet habitat area adjacent to receiving watercourse</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
| Location in Treatment Train                                                                            | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | End of Pipe                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |
| Target SWM Objective(s)                                                                                | None                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | Quality Control                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |
| Technical Considerations                                                                               |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |
| Constructability and accessibility                                                                     | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Locations are accessible as OGS units could be installed upstream of the outfalls at manholes within municipal roadways; construction area is relatively small</li><li>Construction considerations include traffic interruptions and short term road closures</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Traffic management plans may reduce inconveniences associated with construction</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>The site is along public access trails</li><li>Redirection of servicing will be required to outlet to constructed wet pond</li><li>Existing changes in elevation could be incorporated as pond berms</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Existing trails may be realigned and enhanced to provide additional space for SWM facility</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
| Ability to meet stormwater management objective(s)                                                     | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Does not provide for or meet the stormwater management objectives of the City and/or TRCA for water quality or erosion control</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No mitigation undertaken</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>OGS units may be able to provide all required stormwater quality objectives</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Pre-treatment of stormwater runoff with LIDs will enhance the performance of the OGS</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                              | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>A wet pond facility would be capable of fully meeting the requirements for quality control</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>A wet pond facility for quantity control could be constructed to include erosion control within a single footprint</li><li>Quality control can be enhanced with LIDs that infiltrate runoff within the drainage area</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
| Engineering best practises / innovative solution                                                       | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>OGS and similar units are noted as best management practices</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Pre-treatment of stormwater runoff with LIDs will enhance the performance of the OGS</li><li>Filtration cartridge options may be used rather than traditional OGS to target more specific pollutants</li></ul>                                                                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Typically more traditional SWM approach</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Quality control can be enhanced with LIDs that infiltrate runoff within the drainage area</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| Summary / Recommendations                                                                              | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Does not provide for or meet the stormwater management objectives of the City and/or TRCA for water quality or erosion control</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>OGS can be effective, low-space option to provide water quality control</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Technically feasible</li><li>Construction of a surface detention facility can fully meet the quality control SWM criteria</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| Natural Environment                                                                                    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |
| Impacts to wildlife and vegetation habitats                                                            | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Current condition of wildlife and vegetation habitats will not change; however if the release rate of uncontrolled stormwater into the receiving watercourse causes future erosion in the watercourse or impacts the quality of the water in the watercourse, this could have negative impact on the future condition of wildlife and vegetation habitats</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No mitigation undertaken</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>OGS does not physically interfere with the existing outlet or impact the surrounding forested area and improves water quality prior to discharge to the watercourse</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No mitigation required</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                    | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Existing vegetation will be cleared including the cultural meadow</li><li>Results in a loss of terrestrial habitat</li><li>There are opportunities to improve the habitat quality of the receiving watercourse by reducing the sediment loading and potential contaminate exposure of the receiving watercourse</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Restoration plans will be developed to restore the surrounding areas impacted by construction</li><li>Riparian and aquatic vegetation can be planted on the berms and within the wet pond facility which will also aid in reducing the temperature impacts of the surface detention of runoff</li></ul>                        |
| Impacts / improvements based on SAR / ESA                                                              | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>The current condition of wildlife and vegetation habitats will not change; however if the release of uncontrolled stormwater into the receiving watercourse causes future erosion in the watercourse or impacts the quality of the water in the watercourse, this could have a negative impact on Redside Dace habitat.</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No mitigation undertaken</li></ul>                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Meeting water quality criteria will improve water quality of downstream receiving waters</li><li>Little to no effect on temperature mitigation</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Use of OGS can be enhanced with pre-treatment using LIDs throughout minor system watershed</li></ul>                                                                                                     | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>There are opportunities to improve the habitat quality of the receiving watercourse by reducing the sediment loading of the watercourse</li><li>The receiving watercourse has been identified to be Redside Dace habitat</li><li>Wet ponds can provide reduction of stormwater temperature with the inclusion of a bottom draw outlet and shading from vegetation</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Further consultation with the MNR regarding SAR will occur prior to the detailed design of the retrofit</li><li>Stringent construction practices can be implemented to reduce the possibility of introducing invasive species to the ecosystem during construction</li></ul> |

| Criteria                                                                    | Alternatives for Uncontrolled Outlet #112                                                                                                                                                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|                                                                             | Do Nothing                                                                                                                                                                               | Oil-Grit Separators (OGS)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | Construct Water Quality Facility                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
| Summary / Recommendations                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Existing vegetation and forest adjacent to the uncontrolled outlet provides terrestrial habitat and will remain in the current condition</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>OGS offers improvements to water quality</li><li>Used in conjunction with LIDs, OGS can improve water conditions for SAR</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>A wet pond can be beneficial to downstream receiving waters but will alter any existing habitat within the construction area including mature trees in the cultural meadow</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| Social Impacts                                                              |                                                                                                                                                                                          |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| Requirement of easements or purchase of private lands                       | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                      | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Not required; preference to install and maintain OGS within municipal R.O.W., where maintenance is easily accessible</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Not applicable</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                         | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Likely not required for the construction and maintenance of a SWM facility for UC #112</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Land requirements would be confirmed through conceptual design</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                          |
| Impacts to public and private properties due to construction and operations | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                      | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Roadway interference and/or short-term closure would be expected for the installation of OGS units</li><li>Temporary interference to be expected on roadways during maintenance (approximately once a year)</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Traffic management plans may reduce inconveniences associated with construction</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Noise and visual impacts associated with construction for the residences backing onto proposed SWM facility block</li><li>A construction staging area may need to be set up to the east of the facility</li><li>The SWM facility would be built on public recreational park land</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Construction management plan, including restrictions on hours</li></ul> |
| Effect on public safety                                                     | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                      | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Installed OGS does not pose threats to public safety</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No mitigation undertaken</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>By building to the required side slope and depth criteria, the wet pond facility should not pose a threat to public safety</li><li>There are public trails along the construction site, which should be re-routed to a safer path</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Flattened slopes, warning signs, and fencing (if required) can provide measures of safety</li></ul>                    |
| Summary / Recommendations                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>The ‘Do Nothing’ alternative has no social impacts</li></ul>                                                                                       | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>OGS presents few and short-term impacts associated with installation and maintenance</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Construction of a wet pond facility would be a longer-term construction project with potential noise, traffic and visual impacts</li><li>Loss of public park space</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
| Economic Considerations                                                     |                                                                                                                                                                                          |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| Capital costs                                                               | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                      | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Relatively low capital cost for installation of one (1) unit and associated infrastructure works</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Capital cost of OGS units can be reduced if stormwater is pre-treated with LIDs (thus scaling down required OGS size)</li></ul>                                                                      | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Moderate to high capital cost for earthworks, grading, infrastructure components and permits</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Capital costs can be marginally reduced if stormwater is pre-treated with LIDs throughout the watershed (thus scaling down required quality control volumes and footprint)</li></ul>                                                                        |
| Maintenance and operating costs                                             | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                      | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Fairly low maintenance cost and frequency; approximately annually</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Maintenance frequency of OGS units should not decrease with increased pre-treatment</li></ul>                                                                                                                                       | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Moderate maintenance cost and frequency; likely seasonally</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Maintenance frequency should be as directed by operations manual</li><li>Maintenance frequency can be reduced if stormwater is pre-treated with LIDs throughout the watershed (thus scaling down required quality control volume)</li></ul>                                                   |
| Impact on future development and growth                                     | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                      | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Size of OGS is static once installed and would require upgrading if a larger drainage area is directed to it (in order to meet water quality criteria)</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Additional OGS units may be installed in the future to correspond with growth</li></ul>                                                        | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No impact, but detention facility would require expansion if contributing land use was to intensify</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>On-site control requirements for any intensified development within the facility’s watershed would mitigate further expansion</li></ul>                                                                                                              |
| Summary / Recommendations                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>‘Do nothing’ may postpone required works and increase future costs</li></ul>                                                                       | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Installation of OGS units is a low cost solution for achievement of most of the required SWM criteria</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Construction of a wet pond facility would present moderate to high capital costs for achievement of quality control</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| Results of Alternative Evaluation                                           | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>This alternative is not preferred because the alternative does not meet the stormwater management objectives</li></ul>                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>This is a preferred alternative due to the lower cost, small disturbance area and ability to provide full quality control</li><li>This alternative can be implemented with little to no loss of existing trees.</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                 | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>A wet pond facility would be capable of fully meeting the requirements for quality control</li><li>This is not a preferred option because of the loss of public park space and mature trees, as well as the temperature impacts that a wet pond would impose</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                       |

| Criteria                                           | Alternatives for Uncontrolled Outlet #112                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |
|----------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|                                                    | Bottom Draw Outlet in a Wet Pond                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             | Construct Extended Detention Facility                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      | Underground Storage                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| Alternative Description                            | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Construct a bottom draw outlet to reduce temperatures of discharged water.</li> <li>Only applicable if the area is converted into a wet pond</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Loss of current land use including clearing of vegetation</li> <li>Significant earthworks</li> <li>Remove and replace section of existing sewer and outlet infrastructure</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Installed at pond block location</li> <li>Underground storage tanks will capture and detain stormwater and release over an extended time period</li> <li>Infiltration type underground tanks will allow for infiltration during detention period</li> <li>May need water quality control prior to infiltrating (if proposed)</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
| Location in Treatment Train                        | End of Pipe                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |
| Target SWM Objectives                              | Temperature Control                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          | Erosion Control                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | Erosion and Temperature Control                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |
| Technical Considerations                           |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |
| Constructability and accessibility                 | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Constructability is simple, pending adequate depth of the wet pond</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Greater depth enhances the thermal mitigation function of the bottom draw outlet</li> </ul>                                  | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>The site is along a public access trail</li> <li>Redirection of servicing will be required to outlet to constructed extended detention facility</li> <li>Existing changes in elevation could be incorporated as pond berms</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Existing trails may be realigned and enhanced to provide additional space for SWM facility</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Footprint may be large but is constructible within municipally owned pond block lands; constructability is moderate</li> <li>Still allows for use of land at-grade</li> <li>May require re-organization of existing outlets to feed into central underground tanks</li> <li>Based on soil mapping, the majority of the drainage area is not ideal for infiltration. However, the pond block is conducive to infiltration</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Tanks with infiltration capabilities provide additional benefits to erosion and temperature control</li> <li>Site specific soil testing is required to confirm suitability of infiltration</li> </ul> |
| Ability to meet stormwater management objective(s) | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Bottom draw outlets can be effective in decreasing the temperature of the outlet water</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Thermal mitigation would be best achieved with a combination of LID methods</li> </ul>                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>An extended detention facility would be capable of fully meeting the requirements for erosion control detention</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>An extended detention facility for erosion control could be incorporated with a wet pond and sized to provide quality control within a single pond block reducing construction footprints and disturbance to nearby landowners</li> <li>Erosion control can be enhanced with LIDs that detain and/or infiltrate runoff within the drainage area</li> <li>Extended detention facilities could be enhanced with outlets which consider thermal mitigation techniques, to improve water quality of the diverted flows</li> </ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Underground tanks, especially with infiltration capabilities, are effective for providing quality and erosion control</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Longer detention times can enhance the erosion control</li> <li>Infiltration type underground tanks will allow for infiltration during detention period</li> <li>May need water quality control prior to infiltrating (if proposed)</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
| Engineering best practises / innovative solution   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Bottom draw outlets in combination with cooling trenches are recent best management practices</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Thermal mitigation can be enhanced overall with LIDs within the contributing watershed</li> </ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Typically more traditional SWM approach</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Erosion control can be enhanced with LIDs that detain and/or infiltrate runoff within the drainage area</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Underground tanks, including infiltration, are noted as best management practices</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Maintenance of underground tanks is more extensive than at-grade alternatives</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
| Summary / Recommendations                          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>A bottom draw outlet is a recommended outlet alternative for the wet pond to achieve required temperature control</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Technically feasible</li> <li>Construction of a extended detention facility can fully meet the erosion control SWM criteria</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Technically feasible, requiring more intrusive maintenance</li> <li>Useful for maintaining land uses at-grade and visually not intrusive</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
| Natural Environment                                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |
| Impacts to wildlife and vegetation habitats        | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>No impact to vegetation</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Effects could be mitigated with appropriate screens and outflow velocities to avoid harm to any species which may be found in the wet pond</li> </ul>                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Existing vegetation will be cleared including the cultural meadow</li> <li>Results in a loss of terrestrial habitat</li> <li>There are opportunities to improve the habitat quality of the receiving watercourse by reducing the peak flows entering the watercourse and thereby reducing erosion</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Restoration plans will be developed to restore the surrounding areas impacted by construction</li> <li>Vegetation can be planted on the berms of the extended detention facility which will also aid in reducing the temperature impacts of the surface detention of runoff</li> </ul>                                                      | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>May require removal of some vegetation depending on specific location</li> <li>Once installed, less intrusive than other alternatives because of location below grade</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Restoration plan required if loss of vegetation expected due to construction</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
| Impacts / improvements based on SAR / ESA          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Cooling effects are very beneficial for Redside Dace habitat</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Alternative can be enhanced with LIDs within</li> </ul>                                                                            | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>There are opportunities to improve the habitat quality of the receiving watercourse by reducing the erosion and thereby sediment loading of the receiving watercourse</li> <li>The receiving watercourse has been identified</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Underground tanks may improve the habitat quality of the receiving watercourse by reducing the erosion and thereby sediment loading of the receiving watercourse</li> <li>The receiving watercourse has been</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |

| Criteria                                                                           | Alternatives for Uncontrolled Outlet #112                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|                                                                                    | Bottom Draw Outlet in a Wet Pond                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      | Construct Extended Detention Facility                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | Underground Storage                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
|                                                                                    | the watershed and planting techniques within the wet pond                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             | to be Redside Dace habitatMitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Thermal mitigation methods required to improve Redside Dace habitat</li><li>Further consultation with the MNR regarding SAR will occur prior to the detailed design of the retrofit</li><li>Stringent construction practices can be implemented to reduce the possibility of introducing invasive species to the ecosystem during construction</li></ul>    | identified to be Redside Dace habitatMitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Further consultation with the MNR regarding SAR will occur prior to the detailed design of the retrofit</li><li>Stringent construction practices can be implemented to reduce the possibility of introducing invasive species to the ecosystem during construction</li></ul>                                                                      |
| Summary / Recommendations                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Bottom draw outlet is a simple alternative to incorporate into a wet pond for the achievement of temperature control</li></ul>                                                                                                                                  | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>An extended detention facility can be beneficial to downstream receiving waters but will alter any existing habitat within the construction area including adult trees</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Underground tanks are a long-term non-invasive alternative for providing quantity, quality and erosion control</li><li>May require removal of adult trees</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |
| Social Impacts                                                                     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
| Requirement of easements or purchase of private lands                       | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Likely not required for the construction and maintenance of a SWM facility for UC #112</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Land requirements would be confirmed through conceptual design</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                           | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Not required for the construction and maintenance of an underground storage tank facility for UC #112</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Land requirements would be confirmed through conceptual design</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                             |
| Impacts to public and private properties due to construction and operations | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Impacts are related to the construction of the wet pond</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Bottom draw outlet itself does not present additional impacts</li></ul>                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Noise and visual impacts associated with construction for the residences backing onto proposed SWM facility block</li><li>A construction staging area may need to be set up to the east of the facility</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Construction management plan, including restrictions on hours</li></ul>                                                           | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Noise and visual impacts associated with construction for the residences backing onto proposed SWM facility block</li><li>Temporary closures of public trails</li><li>A construction staging area may need to be set up to the east of the facility</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Construction management plan, including restrictions on hours</li></ul>                |
| Effect on public safety                                                     | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>By building to the required slope and depth criteria, the extended detention facility should not pose a threat to public safety</li><li>There are public trails along the construction site, which should be re-routed to a safer path</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Adequate slopes, warning signs, and fencing (if required) can provide measures of safety</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No public safety concerns beyond construction period</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Proper signage and safety measures to be set up for construction period</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
| Summary / Recommendations                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>There are no social impacts associated with the bottom draw outlet</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                    | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Construction of an extended detention facility would be a longer-term construction project with potential noise, traffic and visual impacts</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Underground tanks are proposed to be located in the pond block; not intrusive to the public after construction</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
| Economic Considerations                                                            |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
| Capital costs                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Low capital cost as standalone item</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No mitigation required</li></ul>                                                                                        | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Moderate to high capital cost for earthworks, grading, infrastructure components, permits</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Capital costs can be marginally reduced if stormwater is pre-treated with LIDs throughout the watershed (thus scaling down required detention volumes)</li></ul>                                                                                | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Moderate to high capital cost related to storage tank infrastructure</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Efficient tank design to minimize capital costs</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                             |
| Maintenance and operating costs                                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Low maintenance costs as standalone; costs associated with maintenance of wet pond</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Maintenance due to clogging can be reduced with proper screens</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Lower maintenance cost and frequency; likely every few years</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Maintenance frequency should be as directed by operations manual</li><li>Maintenance frequency can be reduced by providing pre-treatment for sediment removal</li></ul>                                                                                                      | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Low maintenance costs associated with cleaning out tanks as per operations manual or in event of clogging</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Can prevent clogging with additional pre-treatment techniques</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                          |
| Impact on future development and growth                                     | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No impact, but extended detention facility would require expansion if contributing land use was to intensify</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>On-site control requirements for any intensified development within the facility's watershed would mitigate further expansion</li></ul>                                                                                      | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No impact, but underground tanks would require expansion if contributing land use was to intensify</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>On-site control requirements for any future intensification within the watershed would mitigate further expansion</li><li>If smaller tanks are to be located on privately owned lands, cost sharing agreements may be created</li></ul> |
| Summary / Recommendations                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Bottom draw outlet is a cost effective alternative to incorporate into wet pond design to meet temperature criteria</li></ul>                                                                                                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Construction of an extended detention facility would present moderate to high capital costs for achievement of erosion control</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Underground tanks provide moderate to high capital and maintenance costs for the achievement of quantity, quality and erosion control</li><li>A larger footprint may be required with the use of this alternative</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| Results of Alternative Evaluation                                           | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>This alternative is not preferred because a wet pond is not a preferred option for this site</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>This is not a preferred option because there is not enough space to build an adequately sized facility for the required erosion control without the removal of adult trees</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>This alternative is not preferred because constructing an underground storage tank is a more costly method to achieve quantity and erosion control when compared to</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |

| Criteria | Alternatives for Uncontrolled Outlet #112 |                                       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
|----------|-------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|          | Bottom Draw Outlet in a Wet Pond          | Construct Extended Detention Facility | Underground Storage                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
|          |                                           |                                       | constructing a pond. <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>This alternative would have more constructability challenges and may require tree removal compared to other alternatives that achieve the same SWM objectives.</li></ul> |

| Criteria                                           | Alternatives for Uncontrolled Outlet #112                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
|----------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|                                                    | Bioswales                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | Infiltration in Right-of-Ways (R.O.W.)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | Aquatic and Riparian Plantings at Facility                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| Alternative Description                            | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Construct bioswales within the road right-of-ways within the facility drainage area</li><li>Bioswales to contain native plantings and subdrains</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Install perforated secondary pipe within existing storm sewer systems to allow for infiltration through linear soakaway pits</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Plantings to increase density and area of vegetation cover surrounding facility and within facility to provide shade for cooling of detained water</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
| Location in Treatment Train                        | Conveyance                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | End of Pipe                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
| Target SWM Objective(s)                            | Quality, Erosion and Temperature Control                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | Temperature Control                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| Technical Considerations                           |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| Constructability and accessibility                 | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Construction area is extensive and pipe networks are more intricate, requiring coordination with existing infrastructure</li><li>Road right of ways need to be conducive to grading and space criteria for bioswales</li><li>Based on soil mapping, the majority of the drainage area is not ideal for infiltration. However, the pond block is conducive to infiltration</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Bioswales may be more suited as supplementary water quality / erosion / temperature control measures, where constructability and retrofit are least disruptive to existing infrastructure</li><li>Site specific soil testing is required to confirm suitability of infiltration</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Construction area is extensive and many secondary infiltration pipes would require to be installed to achieve SWM criteria</li><li>Requires coordination with existing infrastructure and utilities</li><li>Based on soil mapping, the majority of the drainage area is not ideal for infiltration. However, the pond block is conducive to infiltration</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Perforated pipes (exfiltration pipes) and soakaway pits may be more suited as supplementary water quality / erosion / temperature control measures, where constructability and retrofit are least disruptive to existing infrastructure</li><li>Site specific soil testing is required to confirm suitability of infiltration</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No constructability issues anticipated with adding plantings to proposed facilities</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Plantings enhance temperature control by providing shade</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
| Ability to meet stormwater management objective(s) | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Bioswales are more effective when used within a treatment train to achieve the stormwater objectives</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Additional pre-treatment will enhance the function of bioswales, to reduce clogging of the underdrain pipes</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Perforated pipes (exfiltration pipes) and soakaway pits may are more effective when used within a treatment train to achieve the stormwater objectives</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Additional pre-treatment will enhance the function of the perforated pipes, to reduce clogging</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Shade from plantings will reduce the temperature of stormwater at a facility</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Plantings are better used in conjunction with other cooling methods to achieve adequate temperature control</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                       |
| Engineering best practises / innovative solution   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Bioswales are innovative solutions within stormwater management conveyance systems</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Enhanced with further use of LIDs such as vegetated filter strips</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Perforated pipes (exfiltration pipes) and soakaway pits may are innovative solutions within stormwater management</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Enhanced with further use of LIDs such as vegetated filter strips</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Temperature control of stormwater in general is becoming an engineering best management practice in areas with sensitive habitats</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Effects of plantings can be enhanced with other methods such as use of a bottom draw outlet</li></ul>                                                                                                                  |
| Summary / Recommendations                          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Bioswales are effective as part of a treatment train and where retrofit does not greatly interfere with existing infrastructure</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Perforated pipes (exfiltration pipes) and soakaway pits may are effective as part of a treatment train and where retrofit does not greatly interfere with existing infrastructure</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Plantings at stormwater management facility are a simple alternative to provide additional temperature controls</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| Natural Environment                                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| Impacts to wildlife and vegetation habitats        | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>May require removal of some vegetation depending on specific location</li><li>May present phosphorus issues if not properly designed and/or maintained</li><li>Bioswales may decrease water temperature, providing benefits to the aquatic habitat of the receiving watercourse</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Planted bioswales will enhance neighbourhoods with additional vegetated areas</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>May require removal of some vegetation depending on specific location; likely few impacts to existing wildlife and vegetation habitats</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Areas disturbed during construction will be restored.</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Planting native species can enhance the existing wildlife and vegetation</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No mitigation undertaken</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
| Impacts / improvements based on SAR / ESA          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Bioswales may decrease water temperature, providing benefits to the aquatic habitat of the receiving watercourse including Redside Dace.</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Bioswales may be more suited as supplementary water temperature control measures</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Underground tanks may decrease water temperature, providing benefits to the aquatic habitat of the receiving watercourse including Redside Dace.</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Perforated pipes (exfiltration pipes) and soakaway pits may be more suited as supplementary water temperature control measures</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Providing additional shade at stormwater facilities reduces stormwater temperature which is a key benefit for Redside Dace Habitat</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Effects of plantings can be enhanced with other methods such as use of a bottom draw outlet</li><li>Further consultation with the MNR regarding SAR will occur prior to the detailed design of the retrofit</li></ul> |
| Summary / Recommendations                          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Bioswales that are properly designed to avoid phosphorus loading provide positive impact on the natural environment</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Perforated pipes (exfiltration pipes) and soakaway pits present few impact on the natural environment</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Plantings at stormwater facilities provide positive impacts on the natural environment (provided they are non-invasive species)</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| Social Impacts                                     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| Requirement of                                     | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>To be constructed within municipal R.O.W.</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>To be constructed within municipal R.O.W.</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Not applicable (unless required in conjunction with stormwater facility</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |

| Criteria                                                                    | Alternatives for Uncontrolled Outlet #112                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|                                                                             | Bioswales                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | Infiltration in Right-of-Ways (R.O.W.)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | Aquatic and Riparian Plantings at Facility                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
| easements or purchase of private lands                                      | Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Not applicable</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Not applicable</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | construction)Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Not applicable</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                          |
| Impacts to public and private properties due to construction and operations | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Impacts may include temporary, minor traffic and noise issues and significant visual nuisances due to construction within the residential streets</li> <li>Bioswales are likely to face public opposition due to the maintenance requirements, visual disruption to an otherwise “clean” front lawn and inconvenience of culverts under driveways</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Appropriate construction and traffic management schedule to be adhered to</li> </ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Impacts may include temporary, minor traffic and noise issues due to construction within the residential streets</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Appropriate construction and traffic management schedule to be adhered to</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                           | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |
| Effect on public safety                                                     | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>No public safety concerns beyond construction period</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Proper signage and safety measures to be set up for construction period</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>No public safety concerns beyond construction period</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Proper signage and safety measures to be set up for construction period</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Vegetation should be suitable for proposed facility and clearly indicate any water’s edge</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Vegetation at facilities must be maintained</li> </ul>  |
| Summary / Recommendations                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Impacts during construction are temporary and mostly minor</li> <li>Long term impacts on residents due to visual impacts and culvert maintenance are significant</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Impacts are minor and mostly temporary, within the construction period</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>No significant social impacts of plantings at stormwater facilities</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                          |
| Economic Considerations                                                     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| Capital costs                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Moderate to high capital cost related to new pipe infrastructure, earthworks and plantings, as well as likely relocation of existing pipe infrastructure</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Proficient SUE investigation prior to design work can minimize unexpected existing pipe/utility interferences</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                      | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Moderate to high capital cost related to new pipe infrastructure, earthworks and plantings, as well as likely relocation of existing pipe infrastructure</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Proficient SUE investigation prior to design work can minimize unexpected existing pipe/utility interferences</li> </ul>                                                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Low capital cost relative to other alternatives</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Costs may vary depending on extents and types of plantings</li> </ul>                             |
| Maintenance and operating costs                                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Low to moderate maintenance costs associated with replacing filter media, unclogging perforated pipes</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Pre-treatment of stormwater with grassed filter strips can prevent some clogging of perforated pipes</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Low to moderate maintenance costs associated with unclogging perforated pipes</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Pre-treatment of stormwater with grassed filter strips can prevent some clogging of perforated pipes</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Low maintenance costs with native, sustainable plantings</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Lower maintenance plants will minimize costs of maintenance and/or replanting</li> </ul> |
| Impact on future development and growth                                     | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Retrofit R.O.W. with bioswales may dictate R.O.W. standards for future development</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>On-site control requirements for any future intensification within the watershed would mitigate negative impacts on the LID</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                              | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Retrofit R.O.W. with perforated pipes and soakaway pits may dictate R.O.W. standards for future development</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>On-site control requirements for any future intensification within the watershed would mitigate negative impacts on the LID</li> </ul>                                                                                                                              | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |
| Summary / Recommendations                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Bioswales are a moderate to high capital cost for retrofit but may add value to a neighbourhood</li> <li>Due to poor infiltration within the drainage area, bioswales within the R.O.W. are not a preferred option</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Perforated pipes and soakaway pits are a moderate to high capital cost for retrofit</li> <li>Due to poor infiltration within the drainage area, Infiltration in the R.O.W. is not the preferred option</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>This alternative is not preferred because a wet pond is not a preferred option for this site</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                 |
| Results of Alternative Evaluation                                           | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>This alternative is not preferred because bioswales cannot provide the required level of water quality and erosion control.</li> <li>Another alternative would need to be implemented in conjunction with bioswales in order to meet SWM objectives, making this alternative economically inefficient.</li> <li>The construction and maintenance of bioswales will create short and long term accessibility and visual impacts on residents.</li> </ul>                                                                                      | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>This alternative is not preferred because infiltration in R.O.W.s cannot provide the required level of water quality and erosion control.</li> <li>Another alternative would need to be implemented in conjunction with infiltration in R.O.W.s in order to meet SWM objectives, making this alternative economically inefficient.</li> <li>The construction of infiltration pipes in R.O.W.s will create short term accessibility, visual and noise impacts on residents.</li> </ul> |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |

| Criteria                                                         | Alternatives for Uncontrolled Outlet #112                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |                                                  |  |
|------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------|--|
|                                                                  | Cooling Trench                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                  |  |
| Alternative Description                                          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Excavation of a trench between the pond control structure maintenance hole and the outlet</li><li>Modification of outlet piping infrastructure to discharge into trench</li><li>Installation of stone material and restoration of ground surface</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li></li></ul> |  |
| Location in Treatment Train                                      | End of Pipe                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |                                                  |  |
| Target SWM Objective(s)                                          | Temperature Control                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |                                                  |  |
| Technical Considerations                                         |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |                                                  |  |
| Constructability and accessibility                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Feasible construction and accessibility is adequate</li><li>Construction footprint is relatively small</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Erosion and sediment control plans required</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li></li></ul> |  |
| Ability to meet stormwater management objective(s)               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Cooling trenches can be effective in decreasing the temperature of the outlet water</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Thermal mitigation would be best achieved with a combination of LID methods</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li></li></ul> |  |
| Engineering best practises / innovative solution                 | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Cooling trenches are a recent best management practice</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Thermal mitigation can be enhanced overall with LIDs within the contributing watershed</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li></li></ul> |  |
| Summary / Recommendations                                        | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Technically feasible with a small construction footprint</li><li>A cooling trench would help with mitigating the temperature impacts of the SWM pond</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li></li></ul> |  |
| Natural Environment                                              |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |                                                  |  |
| Impacts to wildlife and vegetation habitats                      | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Existing vegetation in the work area will be cleared</li><li>All effected areas will be restored and can be planted to replace removed vegetation</li><li>Results in a net neutral effect to terrestrial habitat</li><li>Reduction of temperature released into the downstream cool-water watercourse will improve the native aquatic habitat</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Appropriate erosion and sediment control measures will be undertaken during construction to reduce any negative impacts to the downstream watercourse</li><li>Restoration plans will be developed to restore the surrounding areas impacted by construction</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li></li></ul> |  |
| Impacts / improvements based on SAR / ESA                        | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>There are opportunities to improve the habitat quality of the receiving watercourse by reducing the temperature of flows entering the watercourse</li><li>Cooling effects are very beneficial for Redside Dace habitat</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Effects could be mitigated with appropriate screens and outflow velocities</li><li>Further consultation with the MNR regarding SAR will occur prior to the detailed design of the retrofit</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                         | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li></li></ul> |  |
| Summary / Recommendations                                        | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>A cooling trench at the pond outlet is a relatively simple alternative to mitigate temperatures impacts of the wet pond for the achievement of temperature control</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li></li></ul> |  |
| Social Impacts                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |                                                  |  |
| Requirement of easements or purchase of private lands            | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Sufficient space is available within the proposed pond block</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Not applicable</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li></li></ul> |  |
| Impacts to public and private properties due to construction and | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Noise and visual impacts associated with construction for the residences backing onto proposed SWM facility block</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |                                                  |  |

| Criteria                                | Alternatives for Uncontrolled Outlet #112                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |                                                  |  |
|-----------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------|--|
|                                         | Cooling Trench                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |                                                  |  |
| operations                              | Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Construction management plan, including restrictions on hours may reduce inconveniences associated with construction</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |                                                  |  |
| Effect on public safety                 | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>The cooling trench will not have any affects on public safety once constructed</li><li>During construction there is a potential safety risk due to excavation if a member of the public was to enter the site</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>The construction site should be secured during and after construction hours with warning signs and fencing</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li></li></ul> |  |
| Summary / Recommendations               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>There are no long term social impacts associated with the cooling trench</li><li>Minimal disturbance to the public may occur during construction but the construction time frame will be brief</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li></li></ul> |  |
| Economic Considerations                 |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |                                                  |  |
| Capital costs                           | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Low capital cost for a relatively small excavation and materials</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Capital costs can be marginally reduced if stormwater is pre-treated with LIDs throughout the watershed (thus scaling down required trench volume)</li></ul>                                                                                                      | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li></li></ul> |  |
| Maintenance and operating costs         | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Low maintenance cost associated with cleaning out the trench</li><li>Lower maintenance frequency; likely once per year</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Maintenance frequency should be as directed by operations manual</li></ul>                                                                                                                                  | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li></li></ul> |  |
| Impact on future development and growth | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                                                  |  |
| Summary / Recommendations               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>This alternative is not preferred because a wet pond is not a preferred option for this site.</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li></li></ul> |  |

| Table 1 –Evaluation of Conceptual Design Alternatives for Uncontrolled Outlet #162 (Uncontrolled Area) |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Criteria                                                                                               | Alternatives for Uncontrolled Outlet #162                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
|                                                                                                        | Do Nothing                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             | Oil-Grit Separators (OGS)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | Construct Water Quality Facility                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
| Alternative Description                                                                                | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Stormwater runoff from the 2.15 ha minor drainage area will continue to be released into the receiving watercourse uncontrolled</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>One (1) unit connected to the minor system prior to final control and outfall</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Loss of current land use including clearing of vegetation</li><li>Significant earthworks operations</li><li>Remove and replace section of sewer and outlet infrastructure</li><li>Provision of wet habitat area adjacent to receiving watercourse</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
| Location in Treatment Train                                                                            | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | End of Pipe                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
| Target SWM Objective(s)                                                                                | None                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | Quality Control                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
| Technical Considerations                                                                               |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
| Constructability and accessibility                                                                     | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Locations are accessible as OGS units could be installed upstream of the outfall at a manhole within the municipal roadway; construction area is relatively small</li><li>Construction considerations include traffic interruptions and short term road closures</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Traffic management plans may reduce inconveniences associated with construction</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Access to the site is feasible</li><li>Redirection of servicing will be required to outlet to constructed quality pond</li><li>Site is owned by TRCA; permission for works is required</li><li>Staging area can be within the valleylands or within municipal R.O.W.s</li><li>Tree removals would be required in order to construct the facility</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Restoration of the construction/staging area will be required</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
| Ability to meet stormwater management objective(s)                                                     | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Does not provide for or meet the stormwater management objectives of the City and/or TRCA for water quality, erosion or quantity control</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No mitigation undertaken</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>OGS units may be able to provide all required stormwater quality objectives</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Pre-treatment of stormwater runoff with LIDs will enhance the performance of the OGS</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                 | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>A wet pond facility would be capable of fully meeting the requirements for quality control</li><li>Increased water temperature would occur as a result of the wet pond facility</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>A wet pond facility for quantity control could be constructed to include active storage capacity that will provide quantity and erosion control within a single footprint</li><li>Quality control can be enhanced with LIDs that infiltrate runoff within the drainage area</li><li>Cooling measures could be installed to reduce water temperatures, prior to discharging to the environment</li></ul>                                                      |
| Engineering best practises / innovative solution                                                       | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>OGS and similar units are noted as best management practices</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Pre-treatment of stormwater runoff with LIDs will enhance the performance of the OGS</li><li>Filtration cartridge options may be used rather than traditional OGS to target more specific pollutants</li></ul>                                                                                | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Typically more traditional SWM approach</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Quality control can be enhanced with LIDs that infiltrate runoff within the drainage area</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
| Summary / Recommendations                                                                              | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Does not provide for or meet the stormwater management objectives of the City and/or TRCA for water quality, erosion or quantity control</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>OGS can be effective, low-space option to provide water quality control</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Technically feasible to provide quality control, however a wet pond would result in additional temperature control issues</li><li>Construction of a surface detention facility can fully meet the quality control SWM criteria; construction fairly extensive</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |
| Natural Environment                                                                                    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
| Impacts to wildlife and vegetation habitats                                                            | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Current condition of wildlife and vegetation habitats will not change; however if the release rate of uncontrolled stormwater into the receiving watercourse causes future erosion in the watercourse or impacts the quality of the water in the watercourse, this could have negative impact on the future condition of wildlife and vegetation habitats</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No mitigation undertaken</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>OGS does not physically interfere with the existing outlet or impact the surrounding forested area and improves water quality prior to discharge to the watercourse</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No mitigation required</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                       | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Existing vegetation will be cleared including the cultural meadow</li><li>Results in a loss of terrestrial habitat and some adult trees</li><li>There are opportunities to improve the habitat quality of the receiving watercourse by reducing the sediment loading and potential contaminate exposure of the receiving watercourse</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Restoration plans will be developed to restore the surrounding areas impacted by construction</li><li>Riparian and aquatic vegetation can be planted on the berms and within the wet pond facility which will also aid in reducing the temperature impacts of the surface detention of runoff</li></ul> |
| Impacts / improvements based on SAR / ESA                                                              | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>The current condition of wildlife and vegetation habitats will not change; however if the release of uncontrolled stormwater into the receiving watercourse causes future erosion in the watercourse or impacts the quality of the water in the watercourse, this could have a negative impact on Redside Dace habitat.</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Meeting water quality criteria will improve water quality of downstream receiving waters</li><li>Little to no effect on temperature mitigation</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Use of OGS can be enhanced with pre-treatment using LIDs throughout minor system</li></ul>                                                                                                                  | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>There are opportunities to improve the habitat quality of the receiving watercourse by reducing the sediment loading of the watercourse</li><li>The receiving watercourse has been identified to be Redside Dace habitat</li><li>Wet ponds can provide reduction of stormwater temperature with the inclusion</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |

| Criteria                                                                           | Alternatives for Uncontrolled Outlet #162                                                                                                                                                                                             |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|                                                                                    | Do Nothing                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | Oil-Grit Separators (OGS)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | Construct Water Quality Facility                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
|                                                                                    | Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>No mitigation undertaken</li> </ul>                                                                                                        | watershed                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | of a bottom draw outlet and shading from vegetationMitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Further consultation with the MNR regarding SAR will occur prior to the detailed design of the retrofit</li> <li>Stringent construction practices can be implemented to reduce the possibility of introducing invasive species to the ecosystem during construction</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                      |
| Summary / Recommendations                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Existing vegetation and forest adjacent to the uncontrolled outlet provides terrestrial habitat and will remain as in current condition</li> </ul>                                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>OGS offers improvements to water quality</li> <li>Used in conjunction with LIDs, OGS can improve water conditions for SAR</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>A quality pond can be beneficial to downstream receiving waters but will alter any existing habitat within the construction area including the removal of trees</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
| Social Impacts                                                              |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
| Requirement of easements or purchase of private lands                       | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Likely not required; preference to install and maintain OGS within municipal R.O.W., where maintenance is easily accessible</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Not applicable</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Likely not required for the construction and maintenance of a SWM facility for UC #162</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Land requirements would be confirmed through conceptual design</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| Impacts to public and private properties due to construction and operations | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Roadway interference and/or short-term closure would be expected for the installation of OGS units</li> <li>Temporary interference to be expected on roadways during maintenance (approximately once a year)</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Traffic management plans may reduce inconveniences associated with construction</li> </ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Noise and visual impacts associated with construction for the residences backing onto proposed SWM facility block</li> <li>A construction staging area may need to be set up within the pond block, therefore there would be no further impacts</li> <li>Coordination required with TRCA</li> <li>SWM facility would likely be on public recreational park land</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Construction management plan, including restrictions on hours</li> </ul> |
| Effect on public safety                                                     | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Installed OGS does not pose threats to public safety</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>No mitigation undertaken</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>By building to the required side slope and depth criteria, the wet pond facility should not pose a threat to public safety</li> <li>There are no trails though this green space and public access is limited, thereby reducing the exposure of public to the facility</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Flattened slopes, warning signs, and fencing (if required) can provide measures of safety</li> </ul>                                                               |
| Summary / Recommendations                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>The ‘Do Nothing’ alternative has no social impacts</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                  | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>OGS presents few and short-term impacts associated with installation and maintenance</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Construction of a wet pond facility would be a longer-term construction project with potential noise, traffic and visual impacts</li> <li>Loss of park space</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
| Economic Considerations                                                     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
| Capital costs                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>No action may result in greater capital expenses in the future</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Not applicable</li> </ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Relatively low capital cost for installation of one (1) unit and associated infrastructure works</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Capital cost of OGS units can be reduced if stormwater is pre-treated with LIDs (thus scaling down required OGS size)</li> </ul>                                                                       | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Moderate to high capital cost for earthworks, grading, infrastructure components and permits</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Capital costs can be marginally reduced if stormwater is pre-treated with LIDs throughout the watershed (thus scaling down required quality control volumes and footprint)</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                       |
| Maintenance and operating costs                                             | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Fairly low maintenance cost and frequency; approximately annually</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Maintenance frequency of OGS units should not decrease with increased pre-treatment</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                        | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Moderate maintenance cost and frequency; likely seasonally</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Maintenance frequency should be as directed by operations manual</li> <li>Maintenance frequency can be reduced if stormwater is pre-treated with LIDs throughout the watershed (thus scaling down required quality control volume)</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                 |
| Impact on future development and growth                                     | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Size of OGS is static once installed and would require upgrading if a larger drainage area is directed to it (in order to meet water quality criteria)</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Additional OGS units may be installed in the future to correspond with growth</li> </ul>                                                         | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>No impact, but detention facility would require expansion if contributing land use was to intensify</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>On-site control requirements for any intensified development within the facility’s watershed would mitigate further expansion</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                             |
| Summary / Recommendations                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>‘Do nothing’ may postpone required works and increase future costs</li> </ul>                                                                                                                  | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Installation of OGS units is a low cost solution for achievement of the required SWM quality criteria</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Construction of a wet pond facility would present moderate to high capital costs for achievement of quality control</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
| Results of Alternative Evaluation                                           | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>This alternative is not preferred because the alternative does not meet the stormwater management objectives</li> </ul>                                                                        | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>This is a preferred alternative due to the lower cost, small disturbance area and ability to provide full quality control</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>This is not a preferred alternative due to the loss of trees and public park land that would occur</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |

| Criteria | Alternatives for Uncontrolled Outlet #162 |                                                                                                                               |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
|----------|-------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|          | Do Nothing                                | Oil-Grit Separators (OGS)                                                                                                     | Construct Water Quality Facility                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |
|          |                                           | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>This alternative can be implemented with little to no loss of existing trees.</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>A wet pond facility would be capable of fully meeting the requirements for quality control, however would cause additional issues related to temperature control</li><li>Retaining existing trees is a high priority for the City of Markham; however tree loss is probable for construction of this alternative. Therefore, this is not a preferred option.</li></ul> |

| Criteria                                           | Alternatives for Uncontrolled Outlet #162                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
|----------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|                                                    | Bottom Draw Outlet in a Wet Pond                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             | Construct Extended Detention Facility                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | Underground Storage                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
| Alternative Description                            | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Construct a bottom draw outlet to reduce temperatures of discharged water.</li> <li>Only applicable if the area is converted into a wet pond</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Loss of current land use including clearing of vegetation</li> <li>Significant earthworks</li> <li>Remove and replace section of existing sewer and outlet infrastructure</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Installed at pond block location or within park areas located within drainage area</li> <li>Installed at an area of higher elevation within the site; outside of the designated Valleylands area</li> <li>Underground storage tanks will capture and detain stormwater and release over an extended time period</li> <li>Infiltration type underground tanks will allow for infiltration during detention period</li> <li>May need water quality control prior to infiltrating (if proposed)</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |
| Location in Treatment Train                        | End of Pipe                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
| Target SWM Objectives                              | Temperature Control                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          | Erosion Control                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             | Erosion and Temperature Control                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
| Technical Considerations                           |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
| Constructability and accessibility                 | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Constructability is simple, pending adequate depth of the wet pond</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Greater depth enhances the thermal mitigation function of the bottom draw outlet</li> </ul>                                  | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Access to site is feasible</li> <li>Redirection of servicing will be required to outlet to constructed extended detention facility</li> <li>Site is owned by TRCA; permission for works is required</li> <li>Staging area can be within the valleylands or within municipal R.O.W.s</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Restoration of the construction/staging area will be required</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Footprint may be large but is constructible within TRCA- owned pond block lands;</li> <li>Footprint is smaller for infiltration facilities that can be proposed in parkland;</li> <li>Constructability is low to moderate;</li> <li>Still allows for use of land at-grade;</li> <li>Requires reorganization of storm infrastructure/outfalls;</li> <li>Based on soil mapping, the soil in the drainage area is conducive to infiltration</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Tanks with infiltration capabilities provide additional benefits to erosion and temperature control</li> <li>Constructability would likely be increased by incorporating several underground tanks rather than one central system</li> <li>Site specific soil testing is required to confirm suitability of infiltration</li> </ul> |
| Ability to meet stormwater management objective(s) | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Bottom draw outlets can be effective in decreasing the temperature of the outlet water</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Thermal mitigation would be best achieved with a combination of LID methods</li> </ul>                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>An extended detention facility would be capable of fully meeting the requirements for erosion control detention</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>A extended detention facility for erosion control could be incorporated with a wet pond and sized to provide quality and quantity control within a single pond block reducing construction footprint</li> <li>Erosion control can be enhanced with LIDs that detain and/or infiltrate runoff within the drainage area</li> <li>Extended detention facilities could be enhanced with outlets which consider thermal mitigation techniques, to improve water quality</li> </ul>                                                  | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Underground tanks, especially with infiltration capabilities, are effective for providing quality and erosion control</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Longer detention times can enhance the erosion control</li> <li>Infiltration type underground tanks will allow for infiltration during detention period</li> <li>May need water quality control prior to infiltrating (if proposed)</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| Engineering best practises / innovative solution   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Bottom draw outlets in combination with cooling trenches are recent best management practices</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Thermal mitigation can be enhanced overall with LIDs within the contributing watershed</li> </ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Typically more traditional SWM approach</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Erosion control can be enhanced with LIDs that detain and/or infiltrate runoff within the drainage area</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Underground tanks, including infiltration, are noted as best management practices</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Maintenance of underground tanks is more extensive than at-grade alternatives</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
| Summary / Recommendations                          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>A bottom draw outlet is a recommended outlet alternative for the wet pond to achieve required temperature control</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Technically feasible</li> <li>Construction of an extended detention facility can fully meet the erosion control SWM criteria</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Technically feasible, requiring more intrusive maintenance</li> <li>Useful for maintaining land uses at-grade and visually not intrusive</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| Natural Environment                                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
| Impacts to wildlife and vegetation habitats        | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>No impact to vegetation</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Effects could be mitigated with appropriate screens and outflow velocities to avoid harm to any species which may be found in the wet pond</li> </ul>                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Existing vegetation will be cleared in the work area</li> <li>Results in a loss of terrestrial habitat</li> <li>There are opportunities to improve the habitat quality of the receiving watercourse by reducing the peak flows entering the watercourse and thereby reducing erosion</li> <li>TRCA policy does not allow construction of new facilities within the Valleylands.</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Restoration plans will be developed to restore the surrounding areas impacted by construction</li> <li>Vegetation can be planted on the perimeter of the extended detention facility which will also aid in reducing the temperature impacts of the</li> </ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>May require removal of some vegetation depending on specific location</li> <li>Once installed, less intrusive than other alternatives because of location below grade</li> <li>Installed at an area of higher elevation within the TRCA-owned pond block lands; outside of the designated Valleylands area</li> </ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Restoration plan required if loss of vegetation expected due to construction</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |

| Criteria                                                                    | Alternatives for Uncontrolled Outlet #162                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|                                                                             | Bottom Draw Outlet in a Wet Pond                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | Construct Extended Detention Facility                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | Underground Storage                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
|                                                                             |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | surface detention of runoff <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Construction site will be designed to minimize vegetation and habitat loss, and avoid the clearing of adult trees</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |
| Impacts / improvements based on SAR / ESA                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Cooling effects are very beneficial for Redside Dace habitat</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Alternative can be enhanced with LIDs within the watershed and planting techniques within the wet pond</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>There are opportunities to improve the habitat quality of the receiving watercourse by reducing the erosion and thereby sediment loading of the receiving watercourse</li><li>The receiving watercourse has been identified to be Redside Dace habitat</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Further consultation with the MNR regarding SAR will occur prior to the detailed design of the retrofit</li><li>Thermal mitigation via other alternatives required</li><li>Stringent construction practices can be implemented to reduce the possibility of introducing invasive species to the ecosystem during construction</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Underground tanks may improve the habitat quality of the receiving watercourse by reducing the erosion and thereby sediment loading of the receiving watercourse</li><li>The receiving watercourse has been identified to be Redside Dace habitat</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Further consultation with the MNR regarding SAR will occur prior to the detailed design of the retrofit</li><li>Stringent construction practices can be implemented to reduce the possibility of introducing invasive species to the ecosystem during construction</li></ul> |
| Summary / Recommendations                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Bottom draw outlet is a simple alternative to incorporate into a wet pond for the achievement of temperature control</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                    | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>An extended detention facility can be beneficial to downstream receiving waters but will alter any existing habitat within the construction area</li><li>TRCA policy does not allow construction of new facilities within the Valleylands.</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Underground tanks are a long-term non-invasive alternative for providing quality and erosion control</li><li>Installed at an area of higher elevation within the TRCA-owned pond block lands; outside of the designated Valleylands area</li><li></li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
| Social Impacts                                                              |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |
| Requirement of easements or purchase of private lands                       | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Likely not required for the construction and maintenance of a SWM facility for UC #162</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Land requirements would be confirmed through conceptual design</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Likely not required for the construction and maintenance of an underground storage tank facility for UC #162</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Land requirements would be confirmed through conceptual design</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |
| Impacts to public and private properties due to construction and operations | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Impacts are related to the construction of the wet pond</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Bottom draw outlet itself does not present additional impacts</li></ul>                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Noise and visual impacts associated with construction for the residences backing onto proposed SWM facility block</li><li>A construction staging area may need to be set up within the pond block, therefore there would be no further impacts</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Construction management plan, including restrictions on hours</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Noise and visual impacts associated with construction for the residences backing onto proposed SWM facility block</li><li>A construction staging area may need to be set up within the pond block, therefore there would be no further impacts</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Construction management plan, including restrictions on hours</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| Effect on public safety                                                     | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>By building to the required slope and depth criteria, the extended detention facility should not pose a threat to public safety</li><li>There are no trails though this green space so public access is limited, reducing the exposure of public to the facility</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Adequate slopes, warning signs, and fencing (if required) can provide measures of safety</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No public safety concerns beyond construction period</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Proper signage and safety measures to be set up for construction period, especially around park areas</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
| Summary / Recommendations                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>There are no social impacts associated with the bottom draw outlet</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                      | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Construction of an extended detention facility would be a longer-term construction project with potential noise, traffic and visual impacts</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Underground tanks are proposed to be located in the pond block and / or public parks; not intrusive to the public after construction</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
| Economic Considerations                                                     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |
| Capital costs                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Low capital cost as standalone item</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No mitigation required</li></ul>                                                                                                          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Moderate to high capital cost for earthworks, grading, infrastructure components, permits</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Capital costs can be marginally reduced if stormwater is pre-treated with LIDs throughout the watershed (thus scaling down required detention volumes)</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Moderate capital cost related to storage tank infrastructure</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Efficient tank design to minimize capital costs</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| Maintenance and operating costs                                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Low maintenance costs as standalone; costs associated with maintenance of wet pond</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Maintenance due to clogging can be reduced with proper screens</li></ul>                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Lower maintenance cost and frequency; likely every few years</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Maintenance frequency should be as directed by operations manual</li><li>Maintenance frequency can be reduced by providing pre-treatment for sediment removal</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Low maintenance costs associated with cleaning out tanks as per operations manual or in event of clogging</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Can prevent clogging with additional pre-treatment techniques</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
| Impact on future development and growth                                     | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No impact, but extended detention facility would require expansion if contributing land use was to intensify</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>On-site control requirements for any intensified development within the facility's</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No impact, but underground tanks would require expansion if contributing land use was to intensify</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>On-site control requirements for any future intensification within the watershed would</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |

| Criteria                          | Alternatives for Uncontrolled Outlet #162                                                                                                                           |                                                                                                                                                                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
|-----------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|                                   | Bottom Draw Outlet in a Wet Pond                                                                                                                                    | Construct Extended Detention Facility                                                                                                                                                             | Underground Storage                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
|                                   |                                                                                                                                                                     | watershed would mitigate further expansion                                                                                                                                                        | mitigate further expansion; potential for cost sharing                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| Summary / Recommendations         | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Bottom draw outlet is a cost effective alternative to incorporate into wet pond design to meet temperature criteria</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Construction of an extended detention facility would present moderate to high capital costs for achievement of quantity control</li></ul>                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Underground tanks provide moderate to high capital and maintenance costs for the achievement of quality and erosion control</li><li>A larger footprint may be required with the use of this alternative</li></ul>                                                                                                                               |
| Results of Alternative Evaluation | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>This alternative is not preferred because a wet pond is not a preferred option for this site</li></ul>                        | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>This is not a preferred alternative because in accordance with TRCA policy, construction of new facilities is not allowed within the Valleylands.</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>This alternative is preferred because it maintains the use of land at grade and is able to be constructed within the TRCA-owned pond block lands; outside of the designated Valleylands area</li><li>Challenges include: a potential shallow water table and limitations on storage volume due to underground tank depth limitations.</li></ul> |

| Criteria                                              | Alternatives for Uncontrolled Outlet #162                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |  |
|-------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--|
|                                                       | Bioswales                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          | Infiltration in Right-of-Ways (R.O.W.)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |  |
| Alternative Description                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Construct bioswales within the road right-of-ways within the facility drainage area</li><li>Bioswales to contain native plantings and subdrains</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Install perforated secondary pipe within existing storm sewer systems to allow for infiltration through linear soakaway pits</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |  |
| Location in Treatment Train                           | Conveyance                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |  |
| Target SWM Objective(s)                               | Quality, Erosion and Temperature Control                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |  |
| Technical Considerations                              |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |  |
| Constructability and accessibility                    | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Construction area is extensive and pipe networks are more intricate, requiring coordination with existing infrastructure</li><li>Road right of ways need to be conducive to grading and space criteria for bioswales</li><li>Based on soil mapping, the soil in the drainage area is conducive to infiltration</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Bioswales may be more suited as supplementary water quality / erosion / temperature control measures, where constructability and retrofit are least disruptive to existing infrastructure</li><li>Site specific soil testing is required to confirm suitability of infiltration</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Construction area is extensive and many secondary infiltration pipes would require to be installed to achieve SWM criteria</li><li>Requires coordination with existing infrastructure and utilities</li><li>Based on soil mapping, the soil in the drainage area is conducive to infiltration</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Perforated pipes (exfiltration pipes) and soakaway pits may be more suited as supplementary water quality / erosion / temperature control measures, where constructability and retrofit are least disruptive to existing infrastructure</li><li>Site specific soil testing is required to confirm suitability of infiltration</li></ul> |  |
| Ability to meet stormwater management objective(s)    | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Bioswales are more effective when used within a treatment train to achieve the stormwater objectives</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Additional pre-treatment will enhance the function of bioswales, to reduce clogging of the underdrain pipes</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Perforated pipes (exfiltration pipes) and soakaway pits may are more effective when used within a treatment train to achieve the stormwater objectives</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Additional pre-treatment will enhance the function of the perforated pipes, to reduce clogging</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |  |
| Engineering best practises / innovative solution      | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Bioswales are innovative solutions within stormwater management conveyance systems</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Enhanced with further use of LIDs such as vegetated filter strips</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Perforated pipes (exfiltration pipes) and soakaway pits may are innovative solutions within stormwater management</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Enhanced with further use of LIDs such as vegetated filter strips</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |  |
| Summary / Recommendations                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Bioswales are effective as part of a treatment train and where retrofit does not greatly interfere with existing infrastructure</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Perforated pipes (exfiltration pipes) and soakaway pits may are effective as part of a treatment train and where retrofit does not greatly interfere with existing infrastructure</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |  |
| Natural Environment                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |  |
| Impacts to wildlife and vegetation habitats           | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>May require removal of some vegetation depending on specific location</li><li>May present phosphorus issues if not properly designed and/or maintained</li><li>Bioswales may decrease water temperature, providing benefits to the aquatic habitat of the receiving watercourse</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Planted bioswales will enhance neighbourhoods with additional vegetated areas</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>May require removal of some vegetation depending on specific location; likely few impacts to existing wildlife and vegetation habitats</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Areas disturbed during construction will be restored.</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |  |
| Impacts / improvements based on SAR / ESA             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Bioswales may decrease water temperature, providing benefits to the aquatic habitat of the receiving watercourse including Redside Dace.</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Bioswales may be more suited as supplementary water temperature control measures</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Underground tanks may decrease water temperature, providing benefits to the aquatic habitat of the receiving watercourse including Redside Dace.</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Perforated pipes (exfiltration pipes) and soakaway pits may be more suited as supplementary water temperature control measures</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |  |
| Summary / Recommendations                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Bioswales that are properly designed to avoid phosphorus loading provide positive impact on the natural environment</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Perforated pipes (exfiltration pipes) and soakaway pits present few impact on the natural environment</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |  |
| Social Impacts                                        |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |  |
| Requirement of easements or purchase of private lands | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>To be constructed within municipal R.O.W.</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Not applicable</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>To be constructed within municipal R.O.W.</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Not applicable</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |  |
| Impacts to public and private                         | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Impacts may include temporary, minor traffic and noise issues and significant visual</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Impacts may include temporary, minor traffic and noise issues due to construction within the</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |  |

| Criteria                                      | Alternatives for Uncontrolled Outlet #162                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |  |
|-----------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--|
|                                               | Bioswales                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | Infiltration in Right-of-Ways (R.O.W.)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |  |
| properties due to construction and operations | nuisances due to construction within the residential streets Bioswales are likely to face public opposition due to the maintenance requirements, visual disruption to an otherwise “clean” front lawn and inconvenience of culverts under driveways Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures Appropriate construction and traffic management schedule to be adhered to                                                 | residential streets Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures Appropriate construction and traffic management schedule to be adhered to                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |  |
| Effect on public safety                       | No public safety concerns beyond construction period Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures Proper signage and safety measures to be set up for construction period                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             | No public safety concerns beyond construction period Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures Proper signage and safety measures to be set up for construction period                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |  |
| Summary / Recommendations                     | Impacts during construction are temporary and mostly minor Long term impacts on residents due to visual impacts and pipe maintenance are significant                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             | Impacts are minor and mostly temporary, within the construction period                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |  |
| Economic Considerations                       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |  |
| Capital costs                                 | Moderate to high capital cost related to new pipe infrastructure, earthworks and plantings, as well as likely relocation of existing pipe infrastructure Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures Proficient SUE investigation prior to design work can minimize unexpected existing pipe/utility interferences                                                                                                                   | Moderate to high capital cost related to new pipe infrastructure, earthworks and plantings, as well as likely relocation of existing pipe infrastructure Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures Proficient SUE investigation prior to design work can minimize unexpected existing pipe/utility interferences                                                                                                                                                 |  |
| Maintenance and operating costs               | Low to moderate maintenance costs associated with replacing filter media, unclogging perforated pipes Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures Pre-treatment of stormwater with grassed filter strips can prevent some clogging of perforated pipes                                                                                                                                                                               | Low to moderate maintenance costs associated with unclogging perforated pipes Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures Pre-treatment of stormwater with grassed filter strips can prevent some clogging of perforated pipes                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |  |
| Impact on future development and growth       | Retrofit R.O.W. with bioswales may dictate R.O.W. standards for future development Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures On-site control requirements for any future intensification within the watershed would mitigate negative impacts on the LID Cost sharing can be implemented provide mutual benefits                                                                                             | Retrofit R.O.W. with perforated pipes and soakaway pits may dictate R.O.W. standards for future development Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures On-site control requirements for any future intensification within the watershed would mitigate negative impacts on the LID Cost sharing can be implemented provide mutual benefits                                                                                                  |  |
| Summary / Recommendations                     | Bioswales are a moderate to high capital cost for retrofit but may add value to a neighbourhood                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | Perforated pipes and soakaway pits are a moderate to high capital cost for retrofit                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |  |
| Results of Alternative Evaluation             | This alternative is not preferred because bioswales cannot provide the required level of water quality and erosion control. Another alternative would need to be implemented in conjunction with bioswales in order to meet SWM objectives, making this alternative economically inefficient. The construction and maintenance of bioswales will create short and long term accessibility and visual impacts on residents. | This alternative is not preferred because infiltration in R.O.W.s cannot provide the required level of water quality and erosion control. Another alternative would need to be implemented in conjunction with infiltration in R.O.W.s in order to meet SWM objectives, making this alternative economically inefficient. The construction of infiltration pipes in R.O.W.s will create short term accessibility, visual and noise impacts on residents. |  |

| Criteria                                                                    | Alternatives for Pond #42                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |  |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--|
|                                                                             | Cooling Trench                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 | Aquatic and Riparian Plantings at Facility                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |  |
| Alternative Description                                                     | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Excavation of a trench between the pond control structure maintenance hole and the outlet</li><li>Modification of outlet piping infrastructure to discharge into trench</li><li>Installation of stone material and restoration of ground surface</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Plantings to increase density and area of vegetation cover surrounding facility and within facility to provide shade for cooling of detained water</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |  |
| Location in Treatment Train                                                 | End of Pipe                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |  |
| Target SWM Objective(s)                                                     | Temperature Control                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |  |
| Technical Considerations                                                    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |  |
| Constructability and accessibility                                          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Feasible construction and accessibility is adequate</li><li>Construction footprint is relatively small</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Erosion and sediment control plans required</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No constructability issues anticipated with adding plantings to proposed facilities</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Plantings enhance temperature control by providing shade</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                              |  |
| Ability to meet stormwater management objective(s)                          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Cooling trenches can be effective in decreasing the temperature of the outlet water</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Thermal mitigation would be best achieved with a combination of LID methods</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Shade from plantings will reduce the temperature of stormwater at a facility</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Plantings are better used in conjunction with other cooling methods to achieve adequate temperature control</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                  |  |
| Engineering best practises / innovative solution                            | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Cooling trenches are a recent best management practice</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Thermal mitigation can be enhanced overall with LIDs within the contributing watershed</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Temperature control of stormwater in general is becoming an engineering best management practice in areas with sensitive habitats</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Effects of plantings can be enhanced with other methods such as use of a bottom draw outlet</li></ul>                                                                                                                             |  |
| Summary / Recommendations                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Technically feasible with a small construction footprint</li><li>A cooling trench would help with mitigating the temperature impacts of the SWM pond</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Plantings at stormwater management facility are a simple alternative to provide additional temperature controls</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |  |
|                                                                             |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |  |
| Impacts to wildlife and vegetation habitats                                 | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Existing vegetation in the work area will be cleared</li><li>All effected areas will be restored and can be planted to replace removed vegetation</li><li>Reduction of temperature released into the downstream cool-water watercourse will improve the native aquatic habitat</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Appropriate erosion and sediment control measures will be undertaken during construction to reduce any negative impacts to the downstream watercourse</li><li>Restoration plans will be developed to restore the surrounding areas impacted by construction</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Planting native species can enhance the existing wildlife and vegetation</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No mitigation undertaken</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |  |
| Impacts / improvements based on SAR / ESA                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>There are opportunities to improve the habitat quality of the receiving watercourse by reducing the temperature of flows entering the watercourse</li><li>Cooling effects are very beneficial for Redside Dace habitat</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Effects could be mitigated with appropriate screens and outflow velocities</li><li>Further consultation with the MNR regarding SAR will occur prior to the detailed design of the retrofit</li></ul>                                                                                                                          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Providing additional shade at stormwater facilities reduces stormwater temperature which is a key benefit for Redside Dace Habitat</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Effects of plantings can be enhanced with other methods such as use of a bottom draw outlet</li><li>Further consultation with the MNR regarding additional SAR will occur prior to the detailed design of the retrofit</li></ul> |  |
| Summary / Recommendations                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>A cooling trench at the pond outlet is a relatively simple alternative to mitigate temperatures impacts of the wet pond for the achievement of temperature control</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Plantings at stormwater facilities provide positive impacts on the natural environment (provided they are non-invasive species)</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |  |
|                                                                             |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |  |
| Requirement of easements or purchase of private lands                       | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Sufficient space is available within the pond block</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Not applicable</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |  |
| Impacts to public and private properties due to construction and operations | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Noise and visual impacts associated with construction for the residences backing onto proposed SWM facility block</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Construction management plan, including</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |  |

| Criteria                                | Alternatives for Pond #42                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |  |
|-----------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--|
|                                         | Cooling Trench                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          | Aquatic and Riparian Plantings at Facility                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |  |
|                                         | restrictions on hours may reduce inconveniences associated with construction                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |  |
| Effect on public safety                 | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>The cooling trench will not have any affects on public safety once constructed</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>The construction site should be secured during and after construction hours with warning signs and fencing</li></ul>                           | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Vegetation should be suitable for proposed facility and clearly indicate any water’s edge</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Vegetation at facilities must be maintained</li></ul>  |  |
| Summary / Recommendations               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>There are no long term social impacts associated with the cooling trench</li><li>Minimal disturbance to the public may occur during construction but the construction time frame will be brief</li></ul>                                                                                                                          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No significant social impacts of plantings at stormwater facilities</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                        |  |
|                                         |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |  |
| Capital costs                           | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Low capital cost for a relatively small excavation and materials</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Capital costs can be marginally reduced if stormwater is pre-treated with LIDs throughout the watershed (thus scaling down required trench volume)</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Low capital cost relative to other alternatives</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Costs may vary depending on extents and types of plantings</li></ul>                             |  |
| Maintenance and operating costs         | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Low maintenance cost associated with cleaning out the trench</li><li>Lower maintenance frequency; likely once per year</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Maintenance frequency should be as directed by operations manual</li></ul>                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Low maintenance costs with native, sustainable plantings</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Lower maintenance plants will minimize costs of maintenance and/or replanting</li></ul> |  |
| Impact on future development and growth | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |  |
| Summary / Recommendations               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>A cooling trench is a cost effective alternative to meet temperature criteria</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Plantings at SWM facilities are a low cost alternative for providing temperature control</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                   |  |
| Results of Alternative Evaluation       | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>This alternative is not preferred because a wet pond is not a preferred option for this site</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>This alternative is not preferred because a wet pond is not a preferred option for this site</li></ul>                                                                                                                                               |  |

| Table 1 –Evaluation of Conceptual Design Alternatives for Uncontrolled Outlet #176 (Uncontrolled Area) |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Criteria                                                                                               | Alternatives for Uncontrolled Outlet #176                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
|                                                                                                        | Do Nothing                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | Oil-Grit Separators (OGS)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | Construct Water Quality Facility                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
| Alternative Description                                                                                | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Stormwater runoff from the 15.94 ha minor drainage area will continue to be released into the receiving watercourse uncontrolled</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>One (1) unit connected to the minor system prior to final control and outfall</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Loss of current land use including clearing of vegetation</li><li>Significant earthworks operations</li><li>Remove and replace section of sewer and outlet infrastructure</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
| Location in Treatment Train                                                                            | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      | End of Pipe                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| Target SWM Objective(s)                                                                                | None                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | Quality Control                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| Technical Considerations                                                                               |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| Constructability and accessibility                                                                     | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Locations are accessible as OGS units could be installed upstream of the outfalls at manholes within municipal roadways; construction area is relatively small</li><li>Construction considerations include traffic interruptions and short term road closures</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Traffic management plans may reduce inconveniences associated with construction</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Assess to the site is feasible; some complexity with slopes leading down to proposed facility area</li><li>Redirection of servicing will be required to outlet to constructed quality control</li><li>Existing changes in elevation could be incorporated as pond berms</li><li>The adjacent soccer field would need to be acquired and major earthworks undertaken to create the space required for the recommended safe grading slopes in a water quality facility</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Acquiring easements or property acquisition of adjacent private property may be required to achieve allowable side slopes in the pond</li></ul> |
| Ability to meet stormwater management objective(s)                                                     | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Does not provide for or meet the stormwater management objectives of the City and/or TRCA, for water quality, erosion or quantity control</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No mitigation undertaken</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>OGS units may be able to provide all required stormwater quality objectives</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Pre-treatment of stormwater runoff with LIDs will enhance the performance of the OGS</li><li>Additional units may be designed to provide increased quality control if required</li></ul>                                                                                    | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>A wet pond facility would be capable of fully meeting the requirements for quality control</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>A wet pond facility for quality control can be further enhanced by adding storage volume for quantity control to achieve stormwater objectives</li><li>Quality control can be enhanced with LIDs that infiltrate runoff within the drainage area</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| Engineering best practises / innovative solution                                                       | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>OGS and similar units are noted as best management practices</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Pre-treatment of stormwater runoff with LIDs will enhance the performance of the OGS</li><li>Filtration cartridge options may be used rather than traditional OGS to target more specific pollutants</li></ul>                                                                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Typically more traditional SWM approach</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Quality control can be enhanced with LIDs that infiltrate runoff within the drainage area</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |
| Summary / Recommendations                                                                              | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Does not provide for or meet the stormwater management objectives of the City and/or TRCA, for water quality, erosion or quantity control</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>OGS can be effective, low-space option to provide water quality control</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Technically feasible, but requires significant earthworks</li><li>Construction of a surface detention facility can fully meet the quality control SWM criteria</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
| Natural Environment                                                                                    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| Impacts to wildlife and vegetation habitats                                                            | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>The current condition of wildlife and vegetation habitats will not change; however if the release of uncontrolled stormwater into the receiving watercourse causes future erosion in the watercourse or impacts the quality of the water in the watercourse, this could have a negative impact on the future condition of wildlife and vegetation habitats.</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No mitigation undertaken</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>OGS does not physically interfere with the existing outlet or impact the surrounding forested area and improves water quality prior to discharge to the watercourse</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No mitigation required</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                    | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Existing vegetation will be cleared including the cultural meadow and possibly adult trees</li><li>Results in a loss of terrestrial habitat</li><li>There are opportunities to improve the habitat quality of the receiving watercourse by reducing the sediment loading and potential contaminate exposure of the receiving watercourse</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Restoration plans will be developed to restore the surrounding areas impacted by construction</li><li>Riparian and aquatic vegetation can be planted on the berms and within the wet pond facility</li></ul>                                                                |
| Impacts / improvements based on SAR / ESA                                                              | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Meeting water quality criteria will improve water quality of downstream receiving waters</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Use of OGS can be enhanced with pre-treatment using LIDs throughout minor system watershed</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                           | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>There are opportunities to improve the habitat quality of the receiving watercourse by reducing the sediment loading of the watercourse</li><li>The receiving watercourse has been identified as unlikely to be Redside Dace habitat</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Further consultation with the MNR regarding additional SAR will occur prior to the detailed design of the retrofit</li><li>Stringent construction practices can be implemented to reduce the possibility of</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                           |

| Criteria                                                                    | Alternatives for Uncontrolled Outlet #176                                                                                                                                                                                         |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|                                                                             | Do Nothing                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | Oil-Grit Separators (OGS)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              | Construct Water Quality Facility                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
|                                                                             |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | introducing invasive species to the ecosystem during construction                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
| Summary / Recommendations                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Existing vegetation and forest adjacent to uncontrolled outlet provides terrestrial habitat and will remain in the current condition</li></ul>                                              | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>OGS offers improvements to water quality</li><li>Used in conjunction with LIDs, OGS can improve water conditions for SAR</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>A wet pond can be beneficial to downstream receiving waters but will alter any existing habitat within the construction area</li><li>Trees may be lost during construction</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |
| Social Impacts                                                              |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
| Requirement of easements or purchase of private lands                       | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Likely not required; preference to install and maintain OGS within municipal R.O.W., where maintenance is easily accessible</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Not applicable</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                         | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Likely required for the construction and maintenance of a SWM facility for UC #176</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Land requirements would be confirmed through conceptual design</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
| Impacts to public and private properties due to construction and operations | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Roadway interference and/or short-term closure would be expected for the installation of OGS units</li><li>Temporary interference to be expected on roadways during maintenance (approximately once a year)</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Traffic management plans may reduce inconveniences associated with construction</li></ul>        | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Noise and visual impacts associated with construction for the residences backing onto proposed SWM facility block</li><li>The nearby public park would be marginally reduced in size to create the required space to construct a water quality facility</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Construction management plan, including restrictions on hours</li><li>After construction is completed, the soccer field could be reconfigured and restored</li></ul> |
| Effect on public safety                                                     | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Installed OGS does not pose threats to public safety</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No mitigation undertaken</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                      | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>By building to the required side slope and depth criteria, the wet pond facility should not pose a threat to public safety</li><li>There are no trails though this green space and public access is very limited, thereby reducing the exposure of public to the facility</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Flattened slopes, warning signs, and fencing (if required) can provide measures of safety</li></ul>                                                |
| Summary / Recommendations                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>The ‘Do Nothing’ alternative has no social impacts</li></ul>                                                                                                                                | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>OGS presents few and short-term impacts associated with installation and maintenance</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Construction of a wet pond facility would be a longer-term construction project with potential noise, traffic and visual impacts</li><li>A portion of the nearby public park will be affected during construction</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
| Economic Considerations                                                     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
| Capital costs                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No action may result in greater capital expenses in the future</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Not applicable</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Relatively low capital cost for installation of one (1) unit and associated infrastructure works; cost will increase if more than one unit is required for the drainage area</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Capital cost of OGS units can be reduced if stormwater is pre-treated with LIDs (thus scaling down required OGS size)</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>High capital cost for earthworks, grading, infrastructure components and permits</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Capital costs can be marginally reduced if stormwater is pre-treated with LIDs throughout the watershed (thus scaling down required quality control volumes and footprint)</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                        |
| Maintenance and operating costs                                             | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Fairly low maintenance cost and frequency; approximately annually</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Maintenance frequency of OGS units should not decrease with increased pre-treatment</li></ul>                                                                                                                                              | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Moderate maintenance cost and frequency; likely seasonally</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Maintenance frequency should be as directed by operations manual</li><li>Maintenance frequency can be reduced if stormwater is pre-treated with LIDs throughout the watershed (thus scaling down required quality control volume)</li></ul>                                                                                                                       |
| Impact on future development and growth                                     | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Size of OGS is static once installed and would require upgrading if a larger drainage area is directed to it (in order to meet water quality criteria)</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Additional OGS units may be installed in the future to correspond with growth</li></ul>                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No impact, but detention facility would require expansion if contributing land use was to intensify</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>On-site control requirements for any intensified development within the facility’s watershed would mitigate further expansion</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                  |
| Summary / Recommendations                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>‘Do nothing’ may postpone required works and increase future costs</li></ul>                                                                                                                | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Installation of OGS units is a low to medium cost solution for achievement of most of the required SWM criteria</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Construction of a wet pond facility would present high capital costs for achievement of quality control</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| Results of Alternative Evaluation                                           | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>This alternative is not preferred because the alternative does not meet the stormwater management objectives</li></ul>                                                                      | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>This is a preferred alternative due to the lower cost, small disturbance area and ability to provide full quality control</li><li>This alternative can be implemented with little to no loss of existing trees.</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                        | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>This alternative is not preferred because major earthworks would be required to provide adequate space for a water quality facility. This makes this alternative costly and a greater construction undertaking with potentially more impacts to the public.</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |

| Criteria                                           | Alternatives for Uncontrolled Outlet #176                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |  |
|----------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--|
|                                                    | Underground Storage                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | Construct Extended Detention Facility                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |  |
| Alternative Description                            | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Installed at proposed pond block location</li><li>Underground storage tanks will capture and detain stormwater and release over an extended time period</li><li>Infiltration type underground tanks will allow for infiltration during detention period</li><li>May need water quality control prior to infiltrating (if proposed)</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Loss of current land use including clearing of vegetation</li><li>Significant earthworks</li><li>Remove and replace section of existing sewer and outlet infrastructure</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |  |
| Location in Treatment Train                        | End of Pipe                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |  |
| Target SWM Objectives                              | Erosion Control                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |  |
| Technical Considerations                           |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |  |
| Constructability and accessibility                 | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Footprint may be large but is constructible within municipally owned lands; constructability is moderate</li><li>Still allows for use of land at-grade</li><li>May require re-organization of existing outlets to feed into central underground tanks</li><li>Based on soil mapping, the majority of the drainage area is not ideal for infiltration. Only the eastern section of the drainage area and the proposed underground tank area is conducive for infiltration</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Tanks with infiltration capabilities provide additional benefits to erosion</li><li>Site specific soil testing is required to confirm suitability of infiltration</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Assess to the site is feasible; some complexity with slopes leading down to proposed facility area</li><li>Redirection of servicing will be required to outlet to constructed quality control</li><li>Existing changes in elevation could be incorporated as pond berms</li><li>The adjacent soccer field to the site may need to be acquired for the construction of an extended detention facility to utilize the existing gradient and the location of the staging area</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Acquiring easements or property acquisition of adjacent private property may be required to achieve allowable side slopes in the pond</li></ul> |  |
| Ability to meet stormwater management objective(s) | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Underground tanks, especially with infiltration capabilities, are effective for providing quantity, quality and erosion control</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Longer detention times can enhance the erosion control</li><li>Infiltration type underground tanks will allow for infiltration during detention period</li><li>May need water quality control prior to infiltrating (if proposed)</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>An extended detention facility would be capable of fully meeting the requirements for erosion control detention</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>An extended detention facility could be enhanced with the addition of quality and /or quantity controls</li><li>Erosion control can be enhanced with LIDs that detain and/or infiltrate runoff within the drainage area</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |  |
| Engineering best practises / innovative solution   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Underground tanks, including infiltration, are noted as best management practices</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Maintenance of underground tanks is more extensive than at-grade alternatives</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Typically more traditional SWM approach</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Erosion control can be enhanced with LIDs that detain and/or infiltrate runoff within the drainage area</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |  |
| Summary / Recommendations                          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Technically feasible, requiring more intrusive maintenance</li><li>Useful for maintaining land uses at-grade and visually not intrusive</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Technically feasible, but requires significant earthworks</li><li>Construction of a extended detention facility can fully meet the erosion control SWM criteria</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |  |
| Natural Environment                                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |  |
| Impacts to wildlife and vegetation habitats        | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>May require removal of some vegetation depending on specific location</li><li>Once installed, less intrusive than other alternatives because of location below grade</li><li>TRCA policy does not allow construction of new facilities within the Valleylands.</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Restoration plan required if loss of vegetation expected due to construction</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Existing vegetation will be cleared including the cultural meadow and possibly adult trees</li><li>Results in a loss of terrestrial habitat</li><li>There are opportunities to improve the habitat quality of the receiving watercourse by reducing the peak flows entering the watercourse and thereby reducing erosion</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Restoration plans will be developed to restore the surrounding areas impacted by construction</li><li>Vegetation can be planted on the berms of the extended detention facility</li></ul>                                                                                                         |  |
| Impacts / improvements based on SAR / ESA          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Underground tanks may improve the habitat quality of the receiving watercourse by reducing the erosion and thereby sediment loading of the receiving watercourse</li><li>The receiving watercourse has been identified as unlikely to be Redside Dace habitat</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Further consultation with the MNR regarding additional SAR will occur prior to the detailed design of the retrofit</li><li>Stringent construction practices can be</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                           | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>There are opportunities to improve the habitat quality of the receiving watercourse by reducing the erosion and thereby sediment loading of the receiving watercourse</li><li>The receiving watercourse has been identified as unlikely to be Redside Dace habitat</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Further consultation with the MNR regarding additional SAR will occur prior to the detailed design of the retrofit</li><li>Stringent construction practices can be implemented to reduce the possibility of</li></ul>                                                                                                                                   |  |

| Criteria                                                                    | Alternatives for Uncontrolled Outlet #176                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |  |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--|
|                                                                             | Underground Storage                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | Construct Extended Detention Facility                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |  |
|                                                                             | implemented to reduce the possibility of introducing invasive species to the ecosystem during construction                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | introducing invasive species to the ecosystem during construction                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |  |
| Summary / Recommendations                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Underground tanks are a long-term non-invasive alternative for providing erosion control</li><li>TRCA policy does not allow construction of new facilities within the Valleylands.</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>A extended detention facility can be beneficial to downstream receiving waters but will alter any existing habitat within the construction area</li><li>Tree loss is probable for the construction of an extended detention facility</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |  |
| Social Impacts                                                              |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |  |
| Requirement of easements or purchase of private lands                       | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>May be required for the construction and maintenance of an underground storage tank facility for UC #176</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Land requirements would be confirmed through conceptual design; acquisition of additional land less likely than that required for an at-grade facility</li></ul>                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>May be required for the construction and maintenance of a SWM facility for UC #176</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Land requirements would be confirmed through conceptual design</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                              |  |
| Impacts to public and private properties due to construction and operations | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Noise and visual impacts associated with construction for the residences backing onto proposed SWM facility block</li><li>A construction staging area may need to be established within the existing soccer field / park area</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Construction management plan, including restrictions on hours, required fencing</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Noise and visual impacts associated with construction for the residences backing onto proposed SWM facility block</li><li>A construction staging area may need to be established within the existing soccer field / park area</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Construction management plan, including restrictions on hours, required fencing</li></ul>                                                  |  |
| Effect on public safety                                                     | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No public safety concerns beyond construction period</li><li>There are no trails though this green space so public access is very limited, reducing the exposure of public to the facility</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Proper signage and safety measures to be set up for construction period</li></ul>                                            | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>By building to the required slope and depth criteria, the extended detention facility should not pose a threat to public safety</li><li>There are no trails though this green space so public access is very limited, reducing the exposure of public to the facility</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Adequate slopes, warning signs, and fencing (if required) can provide measures of safety</li></ul> |  |
| Summary / Recommendations                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Underground tanks are proposed to be located in within municipal lands; not intrusive to the public after construction</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Construction of an extended detention facility would be a longer-term construction project with potential noise, traffic and visual impacts</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |  |
| Economic Considerations                                                     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |  |
| Capital costs                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Moderate capital cost related to storage tank infrastructure</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Efficient tank design to minimize capital costs</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                  | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Moderate to high capital cost for earthworks, grading, infrastructure components, permits</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Capital costs can be marginally reduced if stormwater is pre-treated with LIDs throughout the watershed (thus scaling down required detention volumes)</li></ul>                                                                                                               |  |
| Maintenance and operating costs                                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Low maintenance costs associated with cleaning out tanks as per operations manual or in event of clogging</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Can prevent clogging with additional pre-treatment techniques</li></ul>                                                                                                                                       | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Lower maintenance cost and frequency; likely every few years</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Maintenance frequency should be as directed by operations manual</li><li>Maintenance frequency can be reduced by providing pre-treatment for sediment removal</li></ul>                                                                                                                                     |  |
| Impact on future development and growth                                     | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No impact, but underground tanks would require expansion if contributing land use was to intensify</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>On-site control requirements for any future intensification within the watershed would mitigate further expansion</li></ul>                                                                                          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No impact, but extended detention facility would require expansion if contributing land use was to intensify</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>On-site control requirements for any intensified development within the facility's watershed would mitigate further expansion</li></ul>                                                                                                                     |  |
| Summary / Recommendations                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Underground tanks provide moderate capital and maintenance costs for the achievement of quantity, quality and erosion control</li><li>A larger footprint may be required with the use of this alternative, though at-grade land use would not be changed</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Construction of an extended detention facility would present moderate to high capital costs for achievement of quantity control</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |  |
| Results of Alternative Evaluation                                           | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>This alternative is not preferred because in accordance with TRCA policy, a new facility cannot be constructed within the Valleylands.</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>This alternative is not preferred because major earthworks would be required to provide adequate space for an extended detention facility. This makes this alternative costly and a greater construction undertaking with potentially more impacts to the public.</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                  |  |

| Criteria                                                                    | Alternatives for Uncontrolled Outlet #176                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |  |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--|
|                                                                             | Bioswales                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      | Infiltration in Right-of-Ways (R.O.W.)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |  |
| Alternative Description                                                     | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Construct bioswales within the road right-of-ways within the facility drainage area</li><li>Bioswales to contain native plantings and subdrains</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Install perforated secondary pipe within existing storm sewer systems to allow for infiltration through linear soakaway pits</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |  |
| Location in Treatment Train                                                 | Conveyance                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |  |
| Target SWM Objective(s)                                                     | Quality and Erosion Control                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |  |
| Technical Considerations                                                    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |  |
| Constructability and accessibility                                          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Construction area is extensive and pipe networks are more intricate, requiring coordination with existing infrastructure</li><li>Road right of ways need to be conducive to grading and space criteria for bioswales</li><li>Based on soil mapping, the majority of the drainage area is not ideal for infiltration. Only the eastern section of the drainage area and the pond block is conducive for infiltration</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Bioswales may be more suited as supplementary water quality / erosion control measures, where constructability and retrofit are least disruptive to existing infrastructure</li><li>Site specific soil testing is required to confirm soil suitability of infiltration</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Construction area is extensive and many secondary infiltration pipes would require to be installed to achieve SWM criteria</li><li>Requires coordination with existing infrastructure and utilities</li><li>Based on soil mapping, the majority of the drainage area is not ideal for infiltration. Only the eastern section of the drainage area and the pond block is conducive for infiltration</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Perforated pipes (exfiltration pipes) and soakaway pits may be more suited as supplementary water quality / erosion control measures, where constructability and retrofit are least disruptive to existing infrastructure</li><li>Site specific soil testing is required to confirm soil suitability of infiltration</li></ul> |  |
| Ability to meet stormwater management objective(s)                          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Bioswales are more effective when used within a treatment train to achieve the stormwater objectives</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Additional pre-treatment will enhance the function of bioswales, to reduce clogging of the underdrain pipes</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Perforated pipes (exfiltration pipes) and soakaway pits may are more effective when used within a treatment train to achieve the stormwater objectives</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Additional pre-treatment will enhance the function of the perforated pipes, to reduce clogging</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |  |
| Engineering best practises / innovative solution                            | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Bioswales are innovative solutions within stormwater management conveyance systems</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Enhanced with further use of LIDs such as vegetated filter strips</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Perforated pipes (exfiltration pipes) and soakaway pits may are innovative solutions within stormwater management</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Enhanced with further use of LIDs such as vegetated filter strips</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |  |
| Summary / Recommendations                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Bioswales are effective as part of a treatment train and where retrofit does not greatly interfere with existing infrastructure</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Perforated pipes (exfiltration pipes) and soakaway pits may are effective as part of a treatment train and where retrofit does not greatly interfere with existing infrastructure</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |  |
| Natural Environment                                                         |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |  |
| Impacts to wildlife and vegetation habitats                                 | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>May require removal of some vegetation depending on specific location</li><li>May present phosphorus issues if not properly designed and/or maintained</li><li>Bioswales may decrease water temperature, providing benefits to the aquatic habitat of the receiving watercourse</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Planted bioswales will enhance neighbourhoods with additional vegetated areas</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>May require removal of some vegetation depending on specific location; likely few impacts to existing wildlife and vegetation habitats</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Areas disturbed during construction will be restored.</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |  |
| Impacts / improvements based on SAR / ESA                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>N/A</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>N/A</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |  |
| Summary / Recommendations                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Bioswales that are properly designed to avoid phosphorus loading provide positive impact on the natural environment</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Perforated pipes (exfiltration pipes) and soakaway pits present few impact on the natural environment</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |  |
| Social Impacts                                                              |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |  |
| Requirement of easements or purchase of private lands                       | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>To be constructed within municipal R.O.W.</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Not applicable</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>To be constructed within municipal R.O.W.</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Not applicable</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |  |
| Impacts to public and private properties due to construction and operations | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Impacts may include temporary, minor traffic and noise issues and significant visual nuisances due to construction within the residential streets</li><li>Bioswales are likely to face public opposition due to the maintenance requirements, visual disruption to an otherwise “clean” front lawn</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Impacts may include temporary, minor traffic and noise issues due to construction within the residential streets</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Appropriate construction and traffic management schedule to be adhered to</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |  |

| Criteria                                | Alternatives for Uncontrolled Outlet #176                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |  |
|-----------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--|
|                                         | Bioswales                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | Infiltration in Right-of-Ways (R.O.W.)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |  |
|                                         | and inconvenience of culverts under drivewaysMitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Appropriate construction and traffic management schedule to be adhered to</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |  |
| Effect on public safety                 | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ No public safety concerns beyond construction period</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Proper signage and safety measures to be set up for construction period</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ No public safety concerns beyond construction period</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Proper signage and safety measures to be set up for construction period</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |  |
| Summary / Recommendations               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Impacts during construction are temporary and mostly minor</li><li>▪ Long term impacts on residents due to visual impacts and culvert maintenance are significant</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Impacts are minor and mostly temporary, within the construction period</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |  |
| Economic Considerations                 |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |  |
| Capital costs                           | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Moderate to high capital cost related to new pipe infrastructure, earthworks and plantings, as well as likely relocation of existing pipe infrastructure</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Proficient SUE investigation prior to design work can minimize unexpected existing pipe/utility interferences</li></ul>                                                                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Moderate to high capital cost related to new pipe infrastructure, earthworks and plantings, as well as likely relocation of existing pipe infrastructure</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Proficient SUE investigation prior to design work can minimize unexpected existing pipe/utility interferences</li></ul>                                                                                                 |  |
| Maintenance and operating costs         | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Low to moderate maintenance costs associated with replacing filter media, unclogging perforated pipes</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Pre-treatment of stormwater with grassed filter strips can prevent some clogging of perforated pipes</li></ul>                                                                                                                               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Low to moderate maintenance costs associated with unclogging perforated pipes</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Pre-treatment of stormwater with grassed filter strips can prevent some clogging of perforated pipes</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                     |  |
| Impact on future development and growth | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Retrofit R.O.W. with bioswales may dictate R.O.W. standards for future development</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ On-site control requirements for any future intensification within the watershed would mitigate negative impacts on the LID</li></ul>                                                                                                                           | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Retrofit R.O.W. with perforated pipes and soakaway pits may dictate R.O.W. standards for future development</li></ul> Mitigation/Compensation/Enhancement Measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ On-site control requirements for any future intensification within the watershed would mitigate negative impacts on the LID</li></ul>                                                                                                                                |  |
| Summary / Recommendations               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Bioswales are a moderate to high capital cost for retrofit but may add value to a neighbourhood</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Perforated pipes and soakaway pits are a moderate to high capital cost for retrofit</li><li>▪ Due to the poor infiltration in the drainage area, Infiltration in the R.O.W. is not a recommended option</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |  |
| Results of Alternative Evaluation       | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ This alternative is not preferred because bioswales cannot provide the required level of water quality and erosion control.</li><li>▪ Another alternative would need to be implemented in conjunction with bioswales in order to meet SWM objectives, making this alternative economically inefficient.</li><li>▪ The construction and maintenance of bioswales will create short and long term accessibility and visual impacts on residents.</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ This alternative is not preferred because infiltration in R.O.W.s cannot provide the required level of water quality and erosion control.</li><li>▪ Another alternative would need to be implemented in conjunction with infiltration in R.O.W.s in order to meet SWM objectives, making this alternative economically inefficient.</li><li>▪ The construction of infiltration pipes in R.O.W.s will create short term accessibility, visual and noise impacts on residents.</li></ul> |  |